MR. STRATTON'S SECOND MEETING.

THE GOVERNMENT'S RECORD AND MR. WINCH'S NO-POLICY.

A Running Comment on Mr. Dennistoun's Remarks—Fully Met at Every Point—Springville Solid for Stratton.

On Saturday Mr. Stratton held his second meeting of the campaign in the Foresters' hall, Springville, Mr. T. Hunter in the chair. The attendance was not large, owing to the disagreeable weather, but it was a pleasant fact that every elector present was a supporter of the Liberal candidate. Mr. W. H. Murray opened the meeting with general remarks upon the thrifty financial condition of Ontario as compared with the other provinces and the Dominion, and advanced strong reasons why the Mowat Government, which had brought such a state of things to pass, should have a renewal of the trust they have so efficiently discharged for the past twenty-two years.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, who was present on behalf of Mr. Winch, said he had come to listen—that he had not come to talk, which the few remarks he did make fully bore out. The electors naturally thought that Mr. Winch through his mouthpieces would have given some indication of the platform on which he stood; that he would have given some reasons why the electors should give him their votes. Mr. Dennistoun's closing plea, that the electors should vote for Mr. Winch because he had bought cattle from the farmers, suggested the idea that Mr. Winch had conferred a favour on the farmer by purchasing for his own profit. The speaker referred to the Ontario ballot as not being secret, but he omitted to tell the electors that his leader, Mr. Meredith, opposed giving the electors the ballot in any form whatever, and that Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Abbot when Mr. Blake was giving the people a ballot in 1874, advocated the Ontario form of ballot as the best that could be adopted, and which is the same ballot as that in use in England. Said Mr. Chapleau when speaking in 1890 in reference to the Dominion ballot, said:

"That there were doubts as to the absolute secrecy of the votes given under the present system. I have no doubt that if people wish to know how others voted, they can find out, in a great many cases, especially with regard to those who have not sufficient education to take their papers and give their votes themselves. If there be connivance between the voter and the election agent, the voter may, by marking his cross in a certain way, show the agent that he has voted according to his promises. I found in my experience that an agent could tell by looking at their ballots whether certain voters had carried out their promises..... I had the misfortune at one time of being obliged to ask for the conviction of two or three of my fellow countrymen in a case in the criminal court in which I was acting as counsel, for having stuffed a ballot box, and by this means changed the result of the election..... ....I must say that the present system, (referring to the Dominion ballot), does not give absolute secrecy and security to the voter."

The people would have had no ballot at all if it had not been given by Sir Oliver Mowat and the Liberals in the Dominion Parliament and they would have to be still going to the polls to vote openly, subject to the bulldozing of those who had the power. The workingman and the mechanic appreciate the ballot given by Liberal statesmen as well as the wise and just legislation which have made them independent in the exercise of their franchise. Mr. Dennistoun's reference to the band of officials was quickly silenced when Mr. Stratton asked him to name a single government official that had been working in his behalf in the present campaign. The old story of no surplus was also rehashed by Mr. Dennistoun, but when the detailed items were quoted to him he was effectually silenced on this score. He then referred to the alleged destruction of the timber resources of the province, but omitted to tell the people that the "squandering" was the simple conversion of one form of assets into another, and that the people had full value for all the timber sold, in the splendid public buildings throughout the province, whose erection was endorsed by the Opposition, and which by their existence relieved the municipalities of the immense burden of maintaining the insane and other unfortunates who were the proper wards of a beneficent government. He also condemned the appropriations for the survey of the new townships, but he did not tell the meeting that this was the only way of ascertaining the nature of the soil and resources of our unsettled territory, nor that it was the same principle that had been employed by the Government he supports in surveying the unsettled portions of the Northwest.

When advocating biennial sessions Mr. Dennistoun doubtless had in mind the fact that it would have been more convenient for him, as Finance Minister of the town when he held that position, to have had his accounts audited every two years instead of every year. But the Liberals oppose biennial sessions on the ground that it is in the public interest to have the accounts scrutinized every year. As far as they are concerned they have no fear of as frequent examination of the public accounts as is possible. What would the people think of biennial sessions at Ottawa, when the most careful audit every year cannot prevent stealing on the most gigantic scale? What would be the result, if two years appropriations were placed in the government's hands to work their own sweet will upon for two years? But Mr. Dennistoun reached the height of absurdity when he advocated a reduction of the number of cabinet ministers at Toronto, when the model government he supports at Ottawa is increasing the number of cabinet ministers almost annually. The venerable chestnut of doing away with the Minister of Education and a return to the old methods, which Rev. Dr. Ryerson himself thought would be better under a responsible minister, was brought out, but the public know the advantage of having a head of an Education Department directly responsible to the people. Mr. Dennistoun then referred to the extension of hotel licenses in Peterborough; but what the public is interested in is the reduction, not the views of interested politicians, and the public have the assurance from the chairman of the License Commissioners that the reduction will be made in accordance with the town by-law, and at the expiration of the time allowed by law. Peterborough registry office matters were also ventilated, but as Mr. Hampden Burnham would say the "utter rot" was reached when Mr. Dennistoun said he placed the whole responsibility of the registry office affair upon Mr. Stratton. His hearers knew too much about the merits of the matter to be gulled by such flimsy talk. Mr. Dennistoun began his speech by stating that he did not come to say anything and the audience gave him credit for keeping his word. If there is not shown some improvement in the style of support given Mr. Winch on the platform, he had better take the matter into his own hands. The flabbiness of the statements compelled to do duty as arguments, by the Opposition stumpers, is an excellent endorsation of the government's record.

Mr. Stratton, in his address in behalf of the government, replied to Mr. Dennistoun's remarks in the general tenor of the running comments given above.

Mr. Stratton addresses the electors this evening at Middleton's school house, Smith.

LACROSSE.

Belleville, Kingston and Madoc have all been ruled out of the C.L.A. on account of not having sent delegates to a meeting called for Saturday last by Secretary J. T. McCabe. The only representatives present were W. S. Patterson for Port Hope, L. LeBar, for the Shamrocks and G. Heap for the Peterboroughs.

Upon discussion the following schedule of games for the season was adopted, the first named club playing on the grounds of the latter:

Port Hope vs. Peterborough, June 8.
Shamrocks vs. Port Hope, June 13.
Peterborough vs. Shamrocks, June 19.
Peterborough vs. Port Hope, June 27.
Port Hope vs. Shamrock, July 10.
Shamrocks vs. Peterborough, July 20.

The Peterboroughs, it will be observed, were lucky enough to make arrangements for the holding of the first game on June 8th on their own grounds. Being with the Port Hopes one one of the biggest crowds of the season will doubtless pass through the gates.

BASEBALL.

We, the Junior Wine Clerks Baseball Club herepy challenge the Wine Clerks to a game of baseball to take place at 3.30 Tuesday afternoon at Riverside Park.

P. DORIS,
Secretary.

The above challenge is the result of an idea among a number of the wine clerks that their strongest team was not put on the field against the printers on Friday afternoon. The nine of the juniors is composed as follows: McGregor, l. f.; Robinson, 2nd b.; Holland, 1st b.; George Lipsett, s. s.; Doris, c. f.; Downey, 3rd b.; White, r.f.; Londrigan, c.; Holloran, p.

The "Juniors," as they term themselves, are anxiously waiting a reply from the "Seniors," whom they are confident they can trim to the Queen's taste.

The wine clerks are willing to play the printers another game of baseball, provided the printers do not kick if they fall back on their best players, and as a battery put in Jack Jayes and Fred Hallaran. Hithorto the printers have kicked against Jack going into the box, but as he is a wine clerk it seems only reasonable that he should be allowed to play. The wine clerks do not bar any bona fide type-setter.

THE WHEEL.

Several requests have been made that the probable times of arrival of relay couriers at various places along the line be published. District Committees have been invited to run trial relay rides in their own districts for the purpose of facilitating the making up of a time schedule for the entire system, and until this be done a time table cannot be compiled with any degree of accuracy. The varying conditions of the roads, number of local riders in good training, and the time of day each, will require to take his place in the relay, will all be factors to be considered in the making up of the final schedule.

In the majority of districts west of Toronto it is probable that the average speed will be from 16 to 18 miles per hour, the average relays being made less than half-an-hour's ride each. Between Toronto and Kingston the average will likely be lessened owing to a scarcity of riders and a lengthening of relay distances in some localities, and to the fact that the night ride will be between Port Hope and Gananoque. Below Gananoque the average may run from 12 to 14 miles per hour, though in several stretches of road from 13 to 18 miles may be accomplished.

Leaving Toronto on June 15th, at the earliest, 2.25 p. m. or the latest, 4.40, will arrive in Whitby at 4.45 or 6.00; at Bowmanville, 5.50 to 7.10; at Port Hope, 7.20 to 8.55; at Belleville, 11.00 to 1.40 a.m., June 16; at Kingston, 3.25 to 5.45; at Gananoque 4.50 to 6.00; at Brockville, 7.15 to 9.40; at Prescott, 7.50 to to 10.10; at Morrisburg, 9.20 to 11.40 at Cornwall, 11.20 to 1.40 p.m; at Lancaster; 12.35 to 3.10; at Montreal, 5.00 to 8.30 p.m. Total time, from 37 to 40½ hours.

MISCELLANOUS.

Although the football club from Keene drove up to town Saturday morning the rain prevented the match with the Collegiate Institute team coming off.

The gun club holds its last practice tomorrow afternoon before the Campbellford match on the 24th. The members of the team are requested to be on the grounds at 4 o'clock, sharp.

The Ontario Jockey Club races have been postponed until the 24th owing to the unsafe condition of the track, on account of the heavy rain which has fallen.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

DASHED DOWN WITHOUT MERCY.

10 INDISPUTABLE ARGUMENTS WHY GOUGH BROS. CAN, WILL, AND DO BEAT ALL THEIR COMPETITORS:—

I. GOUGH BROS. Buy the Largest Lots, Sell the Largest Quantities, Get the Largest Discounts, and can afford to make the Lowest Prices.

II. GOUGH BROS. clothe both ends of man—from head to foot. They always give a heaped up, pressed down, overflowing measure of value for every dollar spent in their stores.

III. GOUGH BROS. always keep a "bear" among the Clothing Manufacturers, and make prices dance downwards for the benefit of their customers.

IV. GOUGH BROS. form the largest syndicate of Clothing dealers in Canada. They own Clothing, Hats, Boots and Shoes, secured on contracts, made at prices that cannot be repeated.

V. GOUGH BROS.' buying power commands for their customers the Lowest Prices for everything, whether people know the values or not, and this is the mainspring for the ever-rapid movement of their merchandise.

VI. GOUGH BROS. select the cream from all the manufacturers, in a falling market, for their syndicate of stores. Ceaseless selling means ceaseless supplies, and their command of the market creates extraordinary bargains.

VII. GOUGH BROS. sell Clothing at prices that actually do not represent the cost of labour in making, or the bare material.

VIII. GOUGH BROS. have in stock piles of All Wool Suits made from Auburn Woollen Mill Tweed, which can be bought for less money than was paid for the seven yards of cloth to make the suit.

IX. GOUGH BROS. know that when wheat, cotton and wool must be sold for next to nothing, Clothing must be sold for next to nothing also, and they keep watch for snaps for their customers.

X. GOUGH BROS. have no hankering for being "Manufacturers of Clothing." They can do better. Just as wheat can be bought for 60c. a bushel, at a loss to the farmer, so Clothing can be bought at Gough Bros'. at a loss to the manufacturer.

IT PREVENTS THE ENTRANCE of disease—pure blood or an active liver. How explained? The circulation of the blood is the great highway over which the germs of disease travel, the liver is the quarantine through whose gate any dread disease may or may not pass, as the liver chooses.

Are you watchful? Is your blood in order and your liver active, so as to repel disease? If not, you will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery just the help you need. It comes to your assistance when you have such warnings of impure blood and inactive liver, as pimples, boils or carbuncles; or a feeling of lassitude, weakness and despondency. When your flesh is, from any cause, "reduced below a healthy standard," you've only to take the "Discovery," which will set all the organs into vigorous action and builds up both flesh and strength. Avoid nauseous preparations of Cod liver oil. They add fat, but not wholesome flesh or healthy tissue.

DAMAGE BY RAIN.

Juniata Valley in Pennsylvania Flooded by a Four Days' Rain.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 21.—Yesterday's great flood has been exceeded only once in the history of the Juniata Valley, the last four days' rainfall having raised the Juniata river and Raystown branch 21 feet above low water mark and caused great destruction to property. In this place the waters flooded the lower streets, driving the people from their homes and in the lower farming districts whole families are imprisoned in their houses, unable to be reached owing to the turbulence of the streams. Three new iron county bridges spanning the Juniata and Raystown branch have been swept away. The destruction of scores of minor bridges and washouts on public roads have closed all rural approaches to this place. The gas company plant here is submerged and the lower floors of many business houses flooded.

Mrs. Jacob Miller was drowned at Soxton while trying to save some property.

A landslide at Ryde station on the Pennsylvania road covered the south track for a distance of nearly a mile and a portion of the track was washed away. Great damage to property along the Raystown branch is reported.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 21.—For forty-eight hours rain has been falling heavily throughout the west branch water shed, and the river is twenty-one feet high and rising rapidly. Profiting by the experience of five years ago, those in prospective danger spent the day removing their effects to places of safety. Thousands of men worked like beavers removing goods to high ground or the upper stories of their buildings. At least 10,000,000 feet of logs have gone down the river, but the big boom, with its 150,000,000 feet, remains intact.

FOUR LIFE-SAVERS LOST.

They Make a Brave Effort to Save the Crew of a Helpless Schooner.

PORT HURON, Mich., May 21.—The lives of four volunteer life-savers were sacrificed on Saturday in an attempt to save the crew of the schooner Wm. Schupe, which was drifting helplessly off the shore eight miles north of here. Those drowned were: Capt. Barney Mills, married; Angus King, married; Capt. Henry Little, single, nephew of Capt. Nelson Little, of the Schupe; Wm. Lewis, married.

The Schupe ran on a sand reef about a quarter of a mile from shore. The sea was running very high and she soon lost her steering apparatus and was in imminent danger of going to pieces. The tug Thompson went out to the wreck, but was unable to get near enough to the disabled schooner to render any assistance to her crew. She returned for more help and started out again with a yawl and six men who volunteered to make the perilous attempt to board the Schupe.

The boat was launched with Barney, King, Lewis, and Wm. Linn as the crew and managed to reach the Schupe in safety. A painter was thrown to the vessel and made fast, but just as the almost exhausted sailors started to avail themselves of the life line the yawl capsized and all its occupants were thrown into the water. Of the five men but one (Wm. Linn) was rescued. As the boat went over he grasped the rope and was drawn to the Schupe. The others were drowned. The tug returned to the shore and the life-saving crew at Island Beach, ten miles distant, was telegraphed for. They came by a special train and succeeded in rescuing those who were aboard the disabled schooner.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

SIRS,—I had such a severe cough that my throat felt as if scraped with a rasp. On taking Norway Pine Syrup I found the first dose gave relief, and the second bottle completely cured me.

BRITANNIA RULED THE CONGRESS.

How the English Delegates Controlled the Miners Convention.

LONDON, May 21.—Long daily reports, furnished from Berlin of the international miners' congress, would not naturally be looked to for diversion, but they have been really funnier than any comedy. The English delegates are numerically only a handful, but they were the only ones present who knew anything about parliamentary procedure and the management of meetings. They got a clause in the rules adopted that voting should be, not by individuals, but on the basis of the miners represented; then it turned out that the Englishmen represented 525,000 as against 462,000 for the whole of the other countries combined.

The result was a succession of English chairmen who ruled out most of the things that the continental members brought forward and defeated the rest. The French and Belgians revolted early in the week; even the German worm turned, but the cold cheek of the Briton, impervious to Latin clamor and Teutonic objurgation alike, declared its own resolutions carried and everybody else beaten. Finally it was decided that the congress was at an end on the solitary ground that the British delegates wanted to go home.

It is, perhaps, not surprising that leading continental economists and reformers regard the labors of the congress as inconclusive.

A Painter's Fall for Life.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., May 21.—Martin Corker painted the stack at the electric light plant. The stack is 150 feet high, and when the work was finished he adjusted the pulleys and rope to lower himself to the ground on the inner side of the lofty structure. When a little more than two-thirds of the way down the wheel over which the rope passed stopped. Corker pulled, but it didn't yield. He jerked at it, then attempted to mount again to the top of the stack, but in vain. Then he called for help, but the thick walls imprisoned his voice. Louder and louder he cried, but no one heard him. Without waiting longer he resolved to let go of the rope and fall to the bottom. He loosened his grasp and like a flash he dropped down the gloomy pit. He was fearfully crushed and bruised on the stone floor below and he is now in a critical state. Corker's home is at Kenilworth.

Twin Sisters Elope.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The village of Flatland's, L.I., is excited because Bessie and Ruby, handsome twenty-year-old twins, young daughters of Farmer Daudsworth, have eloped, and with the wrong men. Ruby ran off with Bessie's intended husband on the very evening of the day set for the wedding, and Bessie in a moment of pique eloped with a former flame a few days after her sister's disappearance. The old farmer made a bonfire of his daughter's belongings and declared that they should never more cross the threshold of his house.

The whole town is armed, and all the deputy-marshals in the territory are hurrying to the scene.

Four More Victims at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Four more victims were added to the death list from the Lake Michigan storm, which has not ended yet, by the finding of a row boat on the beach yesterday. The dead were young mechanics who were out of employment and hired the boat to go fishing on Thursday afternoon just before the great gale came from the north. They were last seen rowing out in the lake. Their bodies have not washed ashore.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

Mother Urged Me

EXCELSIOR
Life Insurance Company.

HEAD OFFICE, - TORONTO

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING-DIRECTOR,
E. F. CLARKE, Ex-Mayor of Toronto

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the report of the business for 1893 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.
Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891, 61 per cent
Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 87 per cent.
Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1891:—

Excelsior Life, ...415% North American Life,126%
Dominion Life, ...201 " London Life, ...116 "
Federal Life, ...144 " Sun Life, ...116 "
Manufac'rs' Life, .144 " Confederation Life, ...115 "
Tem'ce and Gen'l, 144 " Canada Life, ...113 "
Ontario Mutual 106%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, as low a death rate; and, as low a ratio of expenses. Ask our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bonds before insuring elsewhere.

SCROFULA CURED BY
B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

THE FUN THAT ADAM MISSED

That Adam was a lonely man
I'm ready to believe,
Although his many days were blest
With nature's sweetest Eve;
By maiden aunt and blooming fair
The man was never kissed,
And thus I often think about
The fun that Adam missed.
It seems to me his life was like
An oft-repeated dream;
He never treated girls and paid
Three dollars for ice-cream:
He never, when a little boy,
By grown-up girls was kissed;
And when he died he never knew
The fun that he had missed.
He never went security
And had the note to pay;
He never saw his bank's cashier
Steal gracefully away;
In all his live he never by
A mother-in-law was kissed;
But why go on and 'numerate
The fun that Adam missed?
Perhaps if he were living now—
But, then, why speculate?
He'd be too old and not inclined
To play with fickle fate.
For centuries the wanton winds
His unknown grave have kissed;
Perhaps he sleeps the better for
The fun that he has missed.

JOKERS' PANORAMA.

The only office that seeks the man is the Sheriff's office.—Hallo.

"I am on the trail again," said the old scout when he trod on the woman's dress.—Florida Times.

"Change for the better," said the cashier of the pool-room as he paid out the cash to the winner.—Siftings.

Driggs—Can a man serve two masters? Henpeck—Well, that depends. He may have a wife and a grown daughter, you know.—The Waterbury.

Servant—Yis, sorr, Mrs. Jones is in. What's yer name, sorr? Visitor—Prof. Vandersplinkenheimer. Servant—Och! Sure ye'd better go roight in and take it wid ye.—Judge.

Mother—Mabel, stop pounding your little brother! What do you mean? Mabel—Well, I told him we'd better play we was only engaged, but he wanted to play we was married.—Frank Leslie's.

The Punster and the Chemist.

"I want some consecrated lye," he slowly announced as he entered the chemist's shop.

"You mean concentrated lye?" suggested the proprietor, as he suppressed a smile.

"Well, maybe I do. It does nut-meg any difference. It's what I camphor, any way. What does it sulphur?"

"A shilling a can."

"Then you can give me a can."

"I never cinnamon who thought himself so witty as you do," said the chemist in a gingerly manner, feeling called upon to do a little punning himself.

"Well, that's not bad, either," laughed the customer, with a syruptitious glance. "I ammonia novice at the business, though I've soda a good many puns that other punsters got the credit of. I don't care a copperas far as I'm concerned. Perhaps I shouldn't myrrh-myrrh. We have had a pleasant time, and I shall oarraway—"

It was too much for the chemist and he collapsed.

Country Editor at Work.

He writes his editorial and tells the German Kaiser how to pacify old Bismarck and to keep his realm in order; and the Czar of all the Russians finds in him a firm adviser, for he tells him how to find his way to his remotest border.

And he told the Pope his duty, to King Humbert gave instruction, and for Queen Victoria's government shrewd plans he formulated; on all international treaties did he put his own construction, and he told 'em how their differences could not be adjudicated.

But his personal resources, we must own, were rather spindling; but to kings and queens in Europe he remained a firm adviser; while his wife worked in the cellar and chopped up his winter kindling, he bravely gave instruction to the Sultan, Queen and Kaiser.

A Distinction.

Haverley—Do you ever give your seat to a lady in a crowded car?

Austen—Never.

Haverley—Why, now I think of it, I saw you do so last night.

Austen—She wasn't a lady. She never even thanked me.

An Unhealed Wound.

Mrs. Fenton—Why didn't you speak to Mrs. Downey as she passed? You used to be very sweet on her before you married me.

Mr. Fenton (between his teeth)—Yes; she rejected me. I'll never forgive her as long as I live.—Puck.

The Hard Times.

Paggs—What kind of a yacht are you going to buy?

Daggs—A schooner—one to run on wind.

Paggs—Oh, that's the way I ran my steam-yacht all last season.

The Marriage Proverb.

Clubman—Is a lottery against the law, Judge?

Judge—Yes, sir!

Clubman—That settles it. I'll remain single.

Don't Forget

That to remove corns, warts, bunions in a few days, all that is required is to apply the old and well tested corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, painless. Putnam's Corn Extractor makes no sore spots hard to heal, acts quickly and painlessly on hard and soft corns.

OFFSPRING OF THE NATIONS.

In 1893 the population of the British colonies numbered 283,000,000.

The first modern states to establish colonies were Genoa and Venice.

The annual commerce of the British colonies amounts to £448,000,000.

The Phœnician colonies were founded for purely commercial purposes.

The feudatory states of India have armies amounting to 349,000 men.

Cape Colony has increased in population thirty per cent. in sixteen years.

Algeria is held by a standing force of 54,000 men, nearly all from France.

The most of the trade of Cuba and Porto Rico is handled by the English.

The English colonial policy was begun during the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

The only remains of the splendid French possessions in India are five towns.

India has had twenty-four governors-general, Warren Hastings being the first.

The island of Martinique has a senator and two deputies in the French parliament.

The French penal settlements in New Caledonia have about nine thousand convicts.

JOLLY BOYS' CONVENTION.

Wind up a clock—it goes. Wind up a dance—it stops.—Hallo.

An educated voter is one who knows a demagogue when he sees one.—Galveston News.

The candidate who is knifed at the polls can hardly be blamed for feeling cut up over it.—Buffalo Courier.

About the only thing that prevents some men from telling barefaced lies is the fact that they wear whiskers or a moustache.—Arkansaw Traveler.

"So you are mad at your husband. Are you going home to your mother?" "No. I shan't do anything to please him again as long as I live."—Detroit Tribune.

"Did you tender your resignation?" said a man to an ex-office-holder. "I resigned by request, sir; but there was nothing tender about it. It was tough, sir."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

"Is Spooney's wife a nice housekeeper?" "Well, I should say so. Why, he has to keep a private detective to watch his clothes so he can tell where to find them. She's so tidy."—Chicago Tribune.

FASHION'S MIRROR.

The fichus that are so much in style now are very useful for brightening the old home gowns.

The lapels in the Eton reefer are of exaggerated size, and give the garment a very novel air.

All-white Irish-point embroideries are of open pattern, and many of them are wrought in Vandykes. They are the handsomest of this class of trimmings.

A silk season is predicted for the next summer, especially of the very light silks that are made in this country, the taffeta, demi-taffeta, lute-string, foulard, or the so-called China silks, and the useful suraha.

Soft gray effects are charming in the new silks, and will rival the clearly-defined white and black silks that came into favor last summer. These grays are very effective in bengaline stripes of satin and moire pointille with yellow or rose color, or else with the gay pompadour blossoms strewn upon them.

RECORD BREAKERS.

Frank Brown says Dodd's Kidney Pills Give Universal Satisfaction—The Reason is They Never Fail to Cure.

SHELBURNE, May 14.—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: "In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of ascertaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say, that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of their wonderful curative properties.

Millinery Critics

Recognise the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

It is estimated that twelve new churches are dedicated on the average every day in the year in this country.

Rev. Archibald G. Brown, of East London tabernacle, in his pastorate of twenty-seven years, has received into the church over 5,000 people.

There is a Christian Endeavor society in the New York penitentiary which has been doing a quiet but good work for a year. Its anniversary was recently pleasantly observed. More than 600 prisoners were present.

In 1851 India had 91,000 Christian converts. At present there are 250,000 Hindoo Christians and 1,000,000 adherents to Christian churches. The number of converts last year was 24,000. In the last ten years there has been a gain of 140 per cent.

LITTLE GATHERINGS.

HORSE NOTES.

Don't give a good horse a second-class trainer.

Be kind to the colts and you will have gentle horses.

A marble shaft is to be erected over the grave of Dictator.

Paris killed last year 11,862 old horses for roasts and soups.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

A rumor has become noised abroad in the town that the G.T.R. is so incommoded and hampered by the scarcity of coal that no freight in the way of groceries, etc., are being handled. This is not the case and the rumor is foundationless. The G.T.R. in fact, has better facilities than ever for handling this class of freight as it is brought through now on cars attached to the regular passenger trains between this point and Toronto. The scarcity of coal has caused this expediency to be adopted and the merchants therefore stand to benefit largely by the change as ordered goods will thus be brought to hand more expeditiously than formerly. Grain and cedar posts, etc., will not be handled however.

About 500 men in Stratford are affected by the closing down of the G.T.R. locomotive works there.

There is no truth in the report that that the Grand Trunk has refused to open the Harwood road to bring in a quantity of lumber. The company would be only too willing to open the line for any amount, no matter how small.

Mr. R. M. Roy has just completed stock-taking on the Midland and northern division of the G.T.R., and is satisfied there is enough coal in stock on these sections to last for three months with care.

Local trains are all running slowly today as a number of small wash-outs along the line have been reported in this vicinity.

THE CHEESE MARKETS.

The cheese markets continue steady, but buyers point out that values are comparatively high considering the situation, and for the past few days lower quotations have been looked for by them. The London Grocer, writing on the markets on May 5, says:—"In Canadian and American cheese there has been an additional rise of 2s per cwt., making a total of 4s within the last two or three weeks, and fancy pale qualities now fetch 61s to 62s. Next to nothing remains in stock, and what little there may be is firmly held, thus pointing to a 63s quotation as not improbable before the first heavy shipments of the 1894 make can arrive here. A few consignments of new season's fodder cheese have been received, and been realized at 48s to 55s for ordinary to best quality. New Zealand cheese has gone off well at enhanced rates, up to 56s and 60s for choice parcels."

Store Awnings, Window Awnings

Hotel awnings, office awnings, verandah awnings, steamboat awnings, factory awnings, and summer awnings of all kinds and patterns in white or coloured duck manufactured and fitted in proper manner to any desired frames on the most reasonable terms by ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker, Water street, opposite the market.

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. RICHARDSON, Canadian passenger agent, north-east corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

IT WOULDN'T DROWN.

An Ashburnham Case of Disappearance in Which "De Dog Came Back."

I to't he was a goner,
But 'pon my word 'en honor,
De dog came back.

Saturday night an Ashburnham man living close to the Hunter street bridge, decided that the usefulness of his dog was gone. He accordingly set about disposing of the animal. Tying two bricks around its neck with stout wire, he heaved the dog into the river from the bridge, and went home quite satisfied that the job was a complete success.

BUT IT WASN'T.

The poor brute, weighted as it was with its collar of bricks, rose to the surface, swam over to the C. P.R. track and managed to clamber up on the stones, where it lay all night howling piteously. Early this morning a humane citizen went to the unfortunate canine's relief and removed the drowning apparatus; whereupon the luckless dog trotted off home. The owner will probably now conclude that his poor dog was intended to die a natural death. Most persons will say that, after its brave effort at self-preservation, it ought to be allowed to live.

Mr. W. Madill guarantees every bottle of his Cough Syrup to cure, or money refunded.

Water Filters.

I have just received a large stock of Jewett's celebrated Water Filters. They are the best Water Purifier in the market. Every family should have one to ensure pure drinking water. Call and see them. ADAM HALL, 407 George street dtf

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

OUR WAY OF SELLING

Teas, Groceries and Provisions.

WHAT WE ARE NOT DOING.

We are not selling Tea worth 30 cents for 25 cents. We are not selling Tea worth 25 cents for 35 or 40 cents—adding ten per cent. at the same time asking you to believe that you are getting ten per cent off. We are not selling Teas or Groceries at less than cost price.

WHAT WE ARE DOING.

We are selling Tea worth 25 cents for 25 cents. We are selling Tea worth 40 cents for 40 cents. We are selling Teas and Groceries six days in the week at a small advance upon cost price and feel safe in saying that people who, instead of running after shadows, buy their goods in the way we are selling, save money thereby. We have excellent value in Black, Green, Japan and Oolong Teas from 25 to 50 cents, and think you can save from 10 to 15 cents on this by giving us a trial. We have also a well selected and fresh stock of Groceries and Provisions, and can give you value with every purchase.

FOR SALE AT NECESSITY HAS NO LAW!

EVERYTHING GOES!

Unavoidable Enlarging and Stock-Clearing Sale

AT

369 GEORGE STREET.

We have no alternative! Our $30,000 stock of High-Class Summer Dry Goods, Millinery, Mantles, &c., must be voluntarily sacrificed during the NEXT TWO MONTHS, until the Reductions are effected which are rendered necessary before commencing operations—as already announced in the newspapers—for the extensive enlargement and remodelling of our store.

TO BE RUINED OR REDUCED?

That is the question! To REDUCE is inevitable, and there will be no stop to this GREAT SUMMER SALE until our object is accomplished. EVERYTHING GOES! Sound, warrantable, goods in every department of an immense stock, at GENUINELY DISCOUNTED FIGURES, is the Bill of Fare.

NOT A YARD TO BE RESERVED, if we can prevent it. Showers of ABSOLUTE BARGAINS must fall from every department, and make a lively sale. The weeks that intervene before we begin tearing down and enlarging we intend to make historical—so far as BARGAINS are concerned. Prices like the following limited list of quotations will rule from this date, and the rush to our already overcrowded store will practically emphasize the necessity of enlargement:—

That Musty Old Carpet.

Clinging to our hearts are the sad days of spring-
When the annual house-cleaning recurs to our view;
When we sleep on the sofa and eat off the mantel,
In an atmosphere strongly suggestive of glue,
We think of the stove pipe, the soot that came with it,
Likewise the profanity, fluent and fine;
But maddest and bitterest of all recollections
Is the dusty old carpet that hung on the line.

Oh, that dusty old carpet
That fusty old carpet,
That musty old carpet,
That hung on the line!

We remember how, armed with a huge flagellator,
In the morning we bitterly advanced to the fray,
In the merciless pride of our heart little dreaming
That cleaning that carpet would take the whole day.
We sweat and we swore, and our hands badly blistered,
While the sun lent its countenance, warmly benign;
But the harder we pounded, the more it was peopled
By the dusty old carpet that hung on the line!

Oh, that dusty old carpet,
That musty old carpet,
That fusty old carpet
That hung on the line.

Busy as Beavers.

The season's Carpet trade is booming right along and sales are more satisfactory than we had expected. The inference is that styles and qualities and values are best here.

Come in and learn our prices, then ask yourself the question "if it pays to waste time on that musty old carpet that hangs on the line."

Our stock bears the marks of novelty all over it. The colours are a study. The patterns are a study. Such delightful originality needs to be looked at and known to be properly appreciated.

Before spending a cent on floor-coverings we invite you to see the

New Carpets,
New Rugs,
New Oilcloths,
New Linoleums.

No need to magnify our facilities for seeing and showing them. There are no larger, lighter, more adaptable show-rooms the country over. Plenty of room and light helps to a speedier choice and you get what you think you're getting, without doubt.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

Mr. Edgar's Resolution Discussed in the House of Commons.

PENSIONS FOR THE MILITIA

Parliament Urged to Adopt This System With Respect to the Volunteers—Mr. McCarthy's Inquiry With Regard to the Woodstock Case.

OTTAWA, May 22.—Replying to Mr. Delisle yesterday Sir John Thompson said the Government was aware of the cataclysm involving widespread devastation in the counties of Port Neuf and Champlain and along the course of the St. Anne river. They had heard this with very great regret, but up to the present time they were not aware of a call for a vote of Parliament to recoup the victims of the disaster.

Mr. McMillan wanted to know if a contract had been entered into with the Ottawa Street Railway Company for the carriage of the mails from the railway station to the postoffice, and why the mode of carrying the mails was changed from a horse vehicle to a street car?

Sir Adolphe Caron replied that such a contract had been made. The service by street cars was much superior to the wagons. The mails were delivered at the post-office with greater certainty and with greater safety. The large amount of space in the cars enabled the company to carry all the mails in one trip. The mail clerks were not exposed to the inclement weather under the new system.

Hon. Mr. Haggart, in reply to Mr. Mulock, said the total amount of claims against the Government in respect to the works known as the Wellington and Grand Trunk railway bridges, from the commencement of the works to their completion, was $490,754, and the amount paid on account of these claims was $394,796.

Mr. Prior moved the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this House it is expedient that a scheme should be devised by the Government whereby the permanent corps of the Canadian militia, and the headquarters and district staffs of the same, may, after a certain number of years' service, become entitled to receive from the Government adequate pensions, and thus be placed on a more equal footing with similar organizations in other countries, and with members of the civil service in Canada." The permanent corps were the Canadian regulars and formed the nucleus of the militia. They did the same work as the Imperial regulars, and came under the same discipline, but there the similarity ended. The Imperial troops got better pay and a pension.

Mr. Davin seconded the motion, saying that he had seen the good results of the pension system in a similar force, viz.: the Northwest mounted police. He believed the same result would follow the carrying out of Mr. Prior's proposal.

Col. Tisdale supported the motion. The present state of affairs was not of such a nature as to encourage the young men of the country to enter the permanent corps.

Hon. Mr. Patterson admitted there was much to be said in favor of the pension, but said the Government was not prepared to submit to the country and advocate a system of pensions. He asked that the motion be withdrawn and he would lay the matter before his colleagues on some future occasion.

Mr. Prior withdrew his motion.

Mr. Edgar moved his resolution favoring peace between Great Britain and the United States. After quoting the resolution passed by the Imperial House of Commons, Mr. Edgar's resolution continued: "Therefore this House, believing it to be in the interest of Canada that the present friendly relations between Great Britain and the United States should be cultivated and maintained, views with the highest satisfaction the disposition shown by both countries to promote the peaceful settlement by arbitration of any disputes or differences between them which cannot be adjusted by diplomatic agency."

In arguing the matter he said that the time had arrived for some practical action on the part of Canada, not to imitate but to promote the movement already made by Great Britain and the United States, in the interests of permanent peace between these two countries.

Mr. Dickey seconded the resolution. He thought the resolution should be passed to show the world that Canada possessed friendly feelings for the country to the south. It might be considered an ebullition of colonial vanity for the Canadian Parliament to pass such a resolution, but Canada's 5,000,000 people were equal to any other 5,000,000 on earth, and it should therefore be adopted.

Sir John Thompson said as far as Canada was concerned the resolution was one of sentiment rather than utility, and yet he did not think its passage by the Canadian Parliament could be made a subject of ridicule. Canada had a great interest in preserving harmonious relations with the United States, and Parliament would be doing right in extending the hand of fellowship to the republic. It should be remembered that on a former occasion, while the United States were actually sending propositions of peace to England, they were at the same moment seizing Canadian vessels in the Pacific and subjecting Canadians to extreme cruelties. Sir John went on to say that most of the eight arbitrations which had taken place between England and the United States had related to Canada. It looked as if another arbitration would take place between the United States and England over the question of compensation of sealers. He thought that the House should pass the resolution for another reason—that of showing that the expressions made use of by dissatisfied politicians in this country, belittling the Behring Sea arbitration and condemning the results thereof, were insincere and unwarranted.

Hon. Mr. Laurier justified the unfavorable criticisms of the Behring Sea award, and stated that Canada had failed to obtain justice in the matter. Still even unsatisfactory as that arbitration proved, it was a thousand times better than the arbitration of war.

Mr. Gillmour supported the resolution, and it carried unanimously.

Mr. McCarthy moved for correspondence with respect to the admission of Roman Catholic vestments free when consigned to the Rev. Father Brady, of Woodstock, while (as was alleged) similar privileges had been refused to the Rev. G. C. Farthing, Anglican rector at Woodstock.

Hon. Mr. Wallace accused Mr. McCarthy of inspiring the charges made against him in the Mail regarding this Woodstock case. This was a matter with which he (Mr. Wallace) had nothing to do, and he did not know of the violation of the Custom's Act till recently. Mr. Wallace read correspondence to show that he had had nothing whatever to do with the violation.

Col. O'Brien denied that Mr. Wallace had been charged with anything.

Hon. Mr. Wallace—We will accept the apology.

Mr. McCarthy said he had nothing to do with the Mail. He simply wanted to lay the blame on the proper officials. He did not want to attack Hon. Mr. Wallace. He twitted Mr. Wallace with occupying an "inferior position in the Cabinet."

Hon. Mr. Wallace—A higher position than you ever occupied.

Mr. McCarthy said he would not accept such a position.

Sir John Thompson said the papers would be brought down, and then it would be seen if there was diabolical work. The motion carried.

Mr. Mills (Annapolis) moved: That it is expedient to amend the electoral franchise so that it should not be lawful for any person to vote at any election for a member or members to represent the people in the Parliament of Canada who at any time within twelve months before the day of such election was an employe or appointee, receiving pay or emolument, a holder of a commission for the expenditure of money, or intercept of wages or emoluments of any kind, or from any of the Provincial Governments of Canada which have enacted or hereafter may enact a similar disfranchisement as to their election, of employes, etc., of th eFederal Government.

Capital Notes.

A gentleman in the city from Quebec says that McGreevy will certainly run for Quebec West.

This, it is estimated, will save about 40 per cent., as only the lists as finally revised will be printed.

Sir George Dibbs, Premier of New South Wales, cabled to Hon. Mackenzie Bowell that the Australian delegates to the Ottawa conference have sailed by the Arrowa for Vancouver, B. C.

After June 1 a new fire insurance tariff will come into effect with regard to retail dry goods stocks, and this is said to be but a forerunner of an increase all along the line. The new tariff raises the rate from $7.50 to $9 per $1,000.

The Department of Public Works has issued orders to stop work on the new bridge across the Gatineau river. It seems a number of the owners of barges which will float on the Gatineau have complained to the Government concerning the location of the piers, and particularly of the fact that their boats will not be able to pass between the draw piers at low water. So far $14,000 has been expended on the construction of the piers, which are almost completed, by the contractors.

The new franchise bill will likely be introduced early next week. Besides providing amendments to conform with the boundaries established by the Redistribution Act of 1892, the bill will aim to reduce the cost of revising the lists. It is said the plan is to dispense with the printing of the preliminary list. Instead, the provincial voters' lists will be used, and the revising officer having fixed dates in the several districts for the hearing of applications for the addition of names, or the striking off of names which appear on those lists, will attend at the places named and have the necessary corrections made.

ONTARIO SUFFERS SLIGHTLY.

The Incessant Rain Affects Crops in Some Places—Damage in Tilsonburg.

TORONTO, May 22.—Reports coming in from various places throughout the western part of the province show that the incessant rain of the past five days, though pretty general, has not been as disastrous in its effects as might have been expected. In some places, it is true, crops have suffered considerably, although in those sections which boast of a good drainage system, little or no apprehension exists. In the city the continuous downpour caused the postponement of the O. J. C. races until Thursday. In one part of this city the laundry of a Chinaman, a building which had long been looked upon as dangerous, gave way before the storm. The Don river has swelled to a greater extent than has been known for years, and the Winchester street bridge was for a time considered to be in danger of giving way. No great damage is reported in this vicinity.

SARNIA, Ont., May 22.—The continuous rains which have occurred in this district heavily for five days, accompanied by heavy winds and hail storms, have caused great anxiety to the farmers as regards their fruit and crops. In many places the ground is covered with sheets of water, the drains being quite insufficient to carry away the water. The principal damage, so far as can be ascertained at present, will be to the corn and potato crops. Many of the farming districts in this neighborhood are well supplied with draining facilities and save great damage. Other places not so well supplied are suffering and many fields are damaged beyond estimation.

TILSONBURG, Ont., May 22.—The storm created sad havoc with bridges in this vicinity, many of them having been washed away entirely in Dereham, Bayham and Middleton, which has interfered with traffic considerably. In town, the damage done is not so serious as first imagined. It will take $1,200 or $1,400 to repair the Lisgar avenue fill and the bridges on the eleventh concession and John Pound road. The dam at Wood's Little Red Mill was washed away and many of the other dams had very close calls.

Formal Opening of the Manchester Ship Canal by the Queen.

THE FAST ATLANTIC STEAMERS

Specifications of the New Vessels Sent to Shipbuilders—Prospects of the Embargo Being Raised—John Dillon Speaks—The Budget Clauses.

MANCHESTER, Eng., May 22.—The formal opening of the Manchester ship canal to to the traffic of the world was accomplished amid the greatest enthusiasm. When the Queen arrived at the station the cheering of the crowds which occupied every inch of available space was deafening. Her Majesty at once entered one of the royal carriages which had been sent to this city in advance for the purpose, and was driven to the town hall, where she was presented with an address. From the town hall the Queen and her party were driven to Trafford wharf. All along the eight miles of streets through which the Queen was driven the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Hundreds of thousands of people lined the way. Banners, flags, floral arches and venetian blinds were visible everywhere, and the air resounded with cheers. The Queen was escorted from the station to the town hall and thence to Trafford wharf by a guard of honor, consisting of a field officers' escort of the 14th Hussars. The guard comprised Major Hamilton (in command), two captains, four subalterns and one hundred non-commissioned officers and men. As the procession left the station a troop of yeomanry fell in at the rear and accompanied the royal carriage to Albert square. Other guards of honor were stationed at the town hall, All Saints' church, Trafford wharf, Salford and St. George's church, Chester road and Hulme. The various guards of honor comprised about 1,000 men and about 5,000 troops guarded the streets through which the royal procession passed.

Arriving at Trafford wharf the Queen embarked on board the royal yacht Enchantress, which at once steamed up the canal in the vicinity of Salford docks, where she formally declared the Manchester ship canal open to commerce.

Returning to Trafford wharf, her Majesty re-entered her carriage and was driven to Salford, where she was presented with an address by the Mayor and the other authorities of the corporation. The enthusiasm of the people of Salford was manifestedly quite as marked as that of the people of Manchester. The streets and buildings were magnificently decorated and the inhabitants turned out en masse to take part in the celebration of the occasion.

After leaving Salford her Majesty was escorted to the station and started for Balmoral. During the exercises the Queen conferred the honor of knighthood upon the Lord Mayor of Manchester, the Mayor of Salford, and Joseph Leigh, M.P., son-in-law of David Adamson, chief promoter and first chairman of the Manchester Ship Canal Co.

The Fast Atlantic Liners.

LONDON, May 22.—The specifications for the five new vessels for the fast Atlantic line between Canada and England have been forwarded to the leading shipbuilding firms: The Armstrong Company, of Newcastle; the Fairfield Company, of Glasgow; the Naval Construction Company, of Barrow; Swan & Hunter, of Newcastle; and J. & G. Thompson, of Glasgow. They are to be 572 feet in length, 62 feet beam, and depth of hold 42 feet, with a draught of 30 feet, and machinery indicating 21,000 horse power. Managing Director James Huddart says that the only claims for the English port of call which will be considered are those of Liverpool, Milford Haven and Southampton.

The Cattle Embargo.

LONDON, May 22.—The support given by Lord Ripon, Secretary of State for the Colonies, to the demand of the Dominion of Canada that the edict requiring Canadian cattle to be slaughtered upon landing be withdrawn, has raised a feeling of expectancy that these restrictions will be removed before the re-opening of the trade for the coming season. The Canadian authorities here have reason to believe that the period of special examination of Canadian cattle ordered by the Board of Trade will terminate in June.

Great Distinction for the Yankees.

LONDON, May 22.—The officers of the United States cruiser Chicago have received invitations to visit all the large towns in England. Admiral Erben and Captain Mahan have accepted invitations to a dinner at the Royal Naval Club on June 2. This is the most conservative one in London. Nobody under the rank of commander can become a member.

Dillon's Advice to the Irish.

LONDON, May 22.—John Dillon, anti-Parnellite member of Parliament, in speaking in Bally Brook denounced the land grabbers and expressed approval of the Government's policy. The Irish ought not to defeat the Ministry, he said, as an election now would return Lord Salisbury to power with 100 majority in the Commons.

The Budget Clauses.

LONDON, May 22.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir William Harcourt announced that the budget clauses would be called up for consideration on Thursday.

A Servian Coup d'Etat.

BELGRADE, May 22.—King Alexander has accomplished another coup d'etat. A royal proclamation issued abolishes the constitution of 1888 and restores that of 1869, giving the king the right to appoint one-third of the members of the Chamber of Deputies. With restoration of the old constitution, the secret ballot and the election system of scrutin de liste is abrogated. The Skuptchina will now be dissolved. The king has taken this step upon the advice of his father, ex-King Milan. The Radicals are intensely excited over the action of the king, and drastic measures will be required to preserve order

WHAT DO THE FARMERS THINK?

THE census of 1891 classes 67 per cent. of the people of Ontario as rural, while the report of the Bureau of Industries shows that the total amount of capital invested in agriculture in this Province reaches the enormous sum of one thousand million dollars in round numbers. Considering the magnitude of the interests involved, it must be admitted that Agriculture demands all the consideration any government, having the interests of the people at heart can give. It was a recognition of this fact that actuated the Mowat Administration when in 1888 Agriculture was elevated to the position of an independent department of the Government, and a practical farmer placed at its head to be directly responsible for its efficiency and to devote his attention to the advancement of the industry. Until then one of the other members of the Government, either a lawyer or a banker, had been placed in charge of the work, but no farmer had ever held such a position in the cabinet. The Opposition, strange as it may appear, did not concur in this step and introduced the following resolution:

"Moved by Mr. Meredith, seconded by Mr. Creighton, that, while this House concurs in the proposition to give greater attention by the Executive Government to the agricultural interests of the province than has hitherto been done, it is of opinion that that end can be attained without incurring the expense of adding another member to the Executive Council and the inevitable additional expense which shall be consequent on such addition."

Since that time the Opposition has attacked the administration of the Department with a persistency worthy of a better cause and has never ceased its agitation to dismantle it and place it on its old footing. How in the face of such a motion Mr. Meredith and his party will be able to square themselves with the Patrons of Industry it will be interesting to observe.

The stand taken in this regard was well expressed by Mr. McPherson, a Toronto lawyer, and President of the Young Men's Conservative Association of that city when in a formal address delivered to that Association November he said:

"Then we have a Minister of Agriculture who has practically nothing to do, and accordingly, does little, a department, which could easily have been managed by one of the other Ministers, and should never have been created."

It was likewise stated by Mr. Clancy in his speech on the Ontario budget during the recent session that the Department might acceptably be placed under the supervision of the Minister of Education. The excuse is that such a move would be in the interests of economy, but why this Department of all others should be selected it is difficult to understand, especially when it is remembered that it gives a direct return to the farmers for the money spent in connection with it. Such a policy is certainly a very short sighted one and those professing to believe in it cannot either appreciate the importance of the work undertaken or sympathize with it.

But results are the best vindication of Mr. Dryden and his Department, and he is perfectly willing, as he has stated, to abide by the decision of the farmers themselves as to whether the course of the Government in regard to agriculture is justifiable or not. There is not a reading and thinking farmer in this province who has not been directly or indirectly benefitted by the Department's work during the present Minister's short term of office. No member of the Government is more assiduous in his attention to duty than he, and certainly no department is better managed than his or gives to the province better value for the money expended.

What do the farmers think about the Opposition's proposition to degrade the greatest interest in Ontario to the level of a side department? Who than the farmers has a better right to have a distinct department devoted to their service and a Minister, a practical farmer, as head of that department?

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mystery Still Unexplained.

CAYUGA, Ont., May 22.—It was reported on the 8th instant that an old lady, Mrs. L. Lintsen, of Kohler, a small village near Cayuga, had disappeared from her home. A thorough search has been made, but thus far no clue of her whereabouts has been found. A reward is offered to anyone who will give any information that will lead to her recovery. She was dressed in black and wore a red handkerchief on her head. She is a small person, very thin, and weighs less than 100 pounds. She had on felt shoes; thick neck, hair partly grey and a little bald on top of the head.

Fatal Fire in Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 22.—A fatal fire took place yesterday in the stables of T. W. Foster, proprietor of the Foster house, and a well-known horseman. In the stable were two valuable trotting horses belonging to Mr. Foster and valued at over $1,500. The fire was discovered at an early hour, and after the firemen had extinguished it and entered the stable they found the body of Thomas Orphan, the hostler. The man was breathing when found, but expired on his way to the hospital, having been suffocated by the dense smoke. Orphan was an Englishman, about twenty-five years of age. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

West York Reformers.

WESTON, May 22.—A large number of delegates attended the meeting of the Liberals of West York, which was held in the town hall. Mr. Hill, Reeve of West York, and fully thirty other prominent men throughout the riding were mentioned for nomination, but the nominee was not decided upon. A resolution was passed expressing regret at the retirement of Dr. Gilmour, M.P.P., who had represented the constituency during the past eight years. The Tory press was handled rather roughly for the reports published by them of late reflecting on the Mowat Government.

'If all the gold in mine or bank,
All earthly things that men call wealth
Were mine, with every titled rank,
I'd give them all for precious health."

Thus in anguish wrote a lady teacher to a near friend, telling of pitiless headache, of smarting pain, of pain in back and loins, of dejection, weakness and nervous, feverish unrest. The friend knew both causes and cure and flashed back the answer, "Take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." The distressed teacher obeyed, was restored to perfect health, and her daily duties once more became a daily pleasure. For lady teachers, salesladies and others kept long standing, or broken down by exhausting work, the "Prescription" is a most potent restorative tonic, and a certain cure for all female weakness. Guaranteed to cure in every case or money returned. See printed guarantee around each bottle.

POINTS FOR BUYERS!

THE CASH SYSTEM NOT ALL THAT IT IS CLAIMED TO BE.

What a Careful Credit System can do to Assist the Buyer—Business Methods Contrasted—A Sound Traders View.

As a general thing the merchants of the country are in favor of the cash system or a system that insists that all goods sold shall be paid for before or on delivery. It is claimed that this is the true foundation of successful business and that the wheels of trade move more smoothly and that safer results are reached than by means of the credit system. By the credit system it is understood the principle or custom of selling goods and deferring at the wish of the customer, payment to some time in the future. Rightly or wrongly many merchants have adopted the cash system. Several have claimed that the experiment has been a complete success.

Mr. J. C. Turnbull, the well-known dry goods merchant of our town, gives his views of the relative merits of the two systems, reasoning from his own experience. His trade is a large one and admittedly very successful. His stock is excellent, the goods quite up to the requirements of a city trade, rich where rich fabrics are required, yet replete with substantial articles called for by the mass of buyers. The departments are general dry goods, furnishings and millinery. The business has been established for thirteen years, quite long enough to thoroughly test a system.

MR. TURNBULL SAYS:

"When a dealer states that he is giving up the credit system he generally announces a reduction in prices on the plea that, not being in the way of contracting bad debts, he may afford to sell goods at a substantial reduction. I have, even in our own town, seen this apparent reduction quoted as being as much as twenty-five per cent. less.

"Now, unless two sets of prices have been maintained—and I have my fears that this would be troublesome—the cash paying customer has been paying twenty-five per cent. too much to recoup the dealer for losses. The twenty-five per cent. reduction is all nonsense. In nine cases out of ten the prices your competitors are selling at largely determine what your own prices shall be. Unless one had a monopoly of certain lines one could not ask and get a price in defiance of competition. The customer is at liberty to ascertain prices at large, and quickly is in the way of knowing what goods are worth.

"INDISCRIMINATE CREDIT

is the one thing to be avoided. Anxiety to roll up a gross amount of sales provokes credit. It is a fictitious basis on which to build up a success. It provokes reckless expenditure on the part of the buyer. It opens the door for positive imposition. The merchant is practically lending his money indiscriminately to hundreds of people on the slimmest chance of repayment.

"On a reasonable, a careful credit our whole trade system at large is built up. Spot cash is almost unknown. Cash, so called, implies 30 days credit at least. The wholesale usage is four months, with some slight discount for cash in 30 days. Many wholesale houses prefer that the customer shall not pay cash. The cash system, it seems to me, when applied to a retail business, and rigidly enforced, is a slap in the face to hundreds of customers. Why, for instance, should we refuse to send home goods to a customer, who has paid us in the past and is able to pay in the future, because we tell him we must have his money and have decided to do a cash trade. This is impunging both his ability and his intention to pay. We invite him to trade with us, urge him to do so and then dictate to him the terms on which we accept his custom. Is not the fact that we will not serve him unless we have his money in hand tantamount to saying that he is not to be trusted? The customer, at any rate takes this view of the situation, and there is a good deal in support of his position. We find that many of our customers who have paid and are paying cash are short of money at times. We are glad to extend the convenience of credit and find the courtesy and accommodation appreciated.

"A MODERATE CREDIT SYSTEM

is the best way in business. In a town like ours, in a business like this, you must know your people. The obligation is mutual. If they are to gain confidence with you, your store must, in return, have the confidence of the customer. We have always given credit. We have been careful about it, and our losses in ten years have not averaged three-quarters of one per cent. of the amount of business done. The books show this and the fact can be absolutely proved. The evil in a credit system is pushing credit to sell goods. Giving credit to accommodate a customer is another thing. We do not cultivate credit as a means of swelling our gross amount of sales, but a portion of our trade is done on credit, and we have yet to find out that it is a source of serious loss. Our trade has grown because people know we have what they call a "comfortable place to buy at." Customers feel at home. They are satisfied as to the quality of goods. They have the convenience, if short of cash, in enjoying a fair amount of credit. Few people can pay cash for everything. They are depending on someone else to pay them before they pay you. As to going personally to the Old Country markets to buy, we see nothing in it to induce us to change. Manufacturers' agents visit us and from the samples we make selections quite as well as if we went abroad. A considerable part of our stock is imported, but we avoid the expense of a personal visit. The tendency in personal buying abroad is to buy too much. Then follows the inevitable effort to unload. The expense is very considerable, let alone the absence of a principal from business for—sometimes—months at a time. We find we can buy as cheaply, more safely and certainly more judiciously by buying and ordering at home. Those differ have a perfect right to do otherwise. Our plan is good enough for us, and is, we know, profitable.

In all cases, where a mild but effective aperient is needed, Ayer's Pills are the best. They improve the appetite, restore healthy action, promote digestion, and regulate every function. No pills is in greater demand, or more highly recommended by the profession.

SIX ANARCHISTS SHOT.

Condemned for Complicity in an Attempt to Assassinate General de Campos.

BARCELONA, May 22.—Codina, Cerezuela, Sogas, Bemat, Villarubia and Mir, the anarchists who were condemned to death for complicity in the attempt of Pallas to assassinate General Martinez de Campos, were shot yesterday in the presence of but few spectators. The absence of a crowd was due to an announcement that the execution would take place later in the day.

The troops formed three sides of a square from the wall of Mont Juich, where the pinioned convicts were placed. The priests connected with the prisoners until the end, though no attention was paid by the anarchists to their exhortations. Cerezuela, Sogas and Cardinall remained silent throughout, but Mir, from the moment he appeared in the square, shouted: "Long live revolution," etc. When the firing party was formed the prisoners were made to kneel and the priests retired. Villarubia shouted "Murderers, await our revenge" and Bernat cried "Death to the inquisition."

The platoon fired from a distance of three metres. The convicts had their backs turned toward the troops, and their eyes were bandaged with handkerchiefs. Codina and Villarubia resisted the attempts of the troops to blindfold them, and called upon the onlookers for help. The guards were obliged to use force to compel them to get on their knees.

Sogas and Codina were still kneeling after the volley was fired, and were struggling to get upon their feet when they received the second shot which stretched them beside their companions. The bodies were placed in plain wooden coffins and buried inside the fort.

Later in the day thousands of people ascended Mont Juich in expectation of seeing the execution. The event deeply affected the anarchist prisoners who are confined on board the warship Navarra.

A Vancouver Baby Story.

THE MOTHER HAS SOMETHING TO SAY.

There is to-day in the city of Vancouver, B.C., a wonderful baby boy. Four months ago its mother had but small hopes for its life; to-day it is a living monument of what Lactated Food can do for puny, weak and half-dead babies. The grateful mother writes as follows:—

"When my baby boy was eight weeks old it made my heart sore to see its weak and emaciated body. Its sickness and decline commenced when it was a month old. Just then, owing to a sickness I had, baby had to be bottle fed. He did not seem to like his food, and grew thinner from day to day. My husband, meeting the doctor on the street one day, told him of baby's condition. This doctor at once suggested using your Lactated Food. My husband brought home a package, some of which was prepared and fed to baby. My darling seemed to like it, and it agreed with him. After a week's trial of Lactated Food, baby was getting better and stronger, and did not have as many crying spells. Well, today, he is a real wonder. My friends are all astonished when they see little Arthur; he is big, fat and healthy; his flesh is hard and firm, and he is always laughing and prattling. He is heavier and bigger than some babies who are three months older. Your wonderful Lactated Food saved his life, and I will ever remember it."

Ingersoll Stone-Throwing Case.

INGERSOLL, May 22.—In the stone-throwing case, in which John McDermott lost his life about two weeks ago, which was again up before the police magistrate yesterday, nothing new transpired. The testimony of the doctor who made the post mortem was given as well as that of one of the younger boys. Aldward, the prisoner, was also examined, and gave a straightforward recital of his version of the case. The case was further remanded for two days, Aldward being allowed to go at liberty on his own recognizances.

Canadian Dies Abroad.

HAMILTON, May 22.—J. N. Travers, formerly manager of the Bank of Montreal in Hamilton, died in Paris, France, on Sunday. Mr. Travers had been manager for the Hamilton branch of the bank for fifteen years, and resigned in September, 1892, on account of ill-health. He had been 43 years in the service of the bank in the cities of Montreal, Hamilton and Brockville, and was held in high esteem.

Run Down by a Trolley.

BRANTFORD, Ont. May 22.—While Geo. Aird was driving down Dalhousie street he was run into by a street car. Immediately the motorman noticed the buggy he reversed, but was unable to stop the car. It ran into the buggy breaking the axle and wheels. Aird was thrown from the buggy and had one of his ribs broken and was otherwise injured.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Lakefield Pic-nic.

A large crowd is expected at the pic-nic in Lakefield on the 24th of May. Many in town are speaking of going out. The celebration will take place on the exhibition grounds, where a varied programme of athletic sports and games will entertain all—old and young. Should the weather prove unfavourable, ample accommodation may be found in the spacious exhibition building on the grounds. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., will address the gathering in the afternoon. Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Train leaves G. T. R. station at 8.55 a.m. and 1.15 p.m. A special train will leave Lakefield at 7.30 p.m., so that all may reach home at a seasonable hour. Return tickets 35 cents. 2d120

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The committee on Finance and Streets and Bridges meets to-night.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—Messrs. Hunter and Telfer will preach to-night at 8 o'clock in the Gospel Hall, corner George and Brock streets. All are cordially invited.

Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What't Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—Dog tags to the number of 642 have been already issued this year, as compared with 495 at this date of the month in '93. There were 711 tags issued altogether last season.

—Only a limited number of cars will be run to Campbellford on the Queen's Birthday and those wishing to be sure of seats should secure tickets from the local G.T.R. ticket agent at once.

—The council of the Board of Trade meets this evening to consider the report of the delegates who formed part of the deputation to Ottawa regarding the prosecution of the work on the Trent Valley Canal.

—The Battalion will parade at the armoury to-night, but will not march out. Col. Rogers has, with kindly forethought, decided to dismiss the men earlier than usual on account of Peterborough Lodge's "At Home" this evening.

—George street, at the corner of Hunter is being torn up by the corporation labourers to ascertain how it was that the drain got "stuffed up" the other day and refused to carry off the water. The sewer will be flushed again by the hose.

—The sidewalk on the east side of Water street, opposite the market square is in a dangerous condition. The boards are very rotten and perforated with a number of small holes. It may give way almost any day with awkward results for the town.

—Mr. Wm. Cardwell, of the Cardwell House, Omemee, was in town this morning and reports that considerable damage has been done by the high waters caused by the recent rains, the bank of the mill pond having been washed away in places. A considerable outlay will be required on the part of Mr. Stephenson to repair the damage.

GRADUATED WITH HONOURS.

A Peterborough Young Lady is the First Student to Take Honours at the Lady Stanley Institute.

Miss Ella A. Bennett, who has been studying for the past two years at the Lady Stanley Institute, Ottawa, has just graduated with honours, receiving, at the hands of Her Excellency Lady Aberdeen, not only a diploma and gold medal, but a copy of one of the most recent works in medicine, presented on behalf of the lecturing staff of physicians, as a mark of their appreciation of the high percentage taken. Miss Bennett is the first student who has graduated from the institute with honours, and her many friends in Peterborough will join with THE EXAMINER in offering congratulations.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.

North Smith Wesley Methodist Church Scholars Will Have a Day's Outing.

The Sunday School in connection with the Wesley Methodist Church, North Smith, will run run an excursion from Buckhorn to Lindsay per steamer Columbian on Tuesday May 29th. Abundant facilities have been provided for a big crowd. The steamer will leave Buckhorn at 8 o'clock in the morning, calling at Davis' Point and arriving at Lindsay at 11.30. Returning the Columbian will leave Lindsay at 4 p.m. The committee of management is composed of Messrs. Samuel Northey, Stephen Harrison and Richard Harrison. A very pleasant day is expected.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ella Thexton is visiting friends in Mount Pleasant, as is Mrs. John Best.

Mr. W. J. McLean, who has been spending a few days in town with friends, has returned to Toronto.

Mr. Harold Armstrong, of the Bank of Commerce, son of Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of Trenton, has returned to town after being home on a three weeks sick leave. He has quite recovered his health.

The Rev. H. A. Strike, of Tyrone, formerly of Peterborough, has received the unanimous invitation of Carrying Place, Picton district, Quarterly Board, to become their pastor for the next conference year. He has accepted subject to the action of the stationing committee.

Things to Eat.

At this season of the year when the palate grows tired of the ordinary requirements to sustain life, the taste may then suggest to your mind that you try Mason & Co. for canned mushrooms, or a fine pickle which contains just enough spice to render the flavour rich and racy, or some canned corn beef, lunch tongue, ox tongue with canned vegetables.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

Mr. J. P. Hurley has consented to umpire the first league match between the Port Hope's and Peterborough's on the P. A. A. A. grounds, June 8th. Mr. Hurley is making arrangements to place an accident policy of $50,000 on his life covering that date.

The following will compose the junior team of the Peterborough's with their game with Millbrook on May 24th:

Goal	F Craig
Point	Atkinson
1st defence	Green
2nd defence	Lang
3rd defence	Cochrane
Centre	Adams
1st home	Rickey
2nd home	Dobbin
3rd home	Guy
Out-side home	Crosby
Inside home	McCabe

A special meeting of the team is called for this evening over the Palace restaurant, as arrangements for the above match and other business will be brought up.

The Port Hope Times says:—A lacrosse match will be played on the 8th of June between Port Hope and Peterborough at the latter town. "Look out for blood!" says an exchange of that town. The more civilized portion of the community would probably prefer to see a good game of Lacrosse with the "blood element" left out. Port Hope is proud of the "Ontarios," who are stronger than ever this year. They are a gentlemanly lot of fellows and we expect to see them treated as such in Peterborough and elsewhere. The "slugging" and "blood" element does not figure in Lacrosse now except in jay towns—swiftness and staying powers are requisites to win. We are proud of the fact that in Canada's national game science has superceded mere brute force, and that the "slugging" which has drawn so many excellent players from the Lacrosse field is now held in contempt by admirerers of the game."

The Port Hope team need not be afraid of meeting any but gentlemanly treatment at the hands of the Peterboroughs, who being a light team have naught to rely upon but their science and staying power. Their average weight being much less than that of either of other teams in the league they could not afford to play rough even if they were so inclined. The exchange which the Times refers to is not by any means the organ of the lacrosse club nor does it voice their sentiments in the article referred to.

LEAGUE MATCHES.

The first of the series of league matches will take place at the range on the 24th. Shooting will commence at 8.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m. All shooting men are requested to be present (in the morning, if possible) as there are two teams to be made up, a Martina and a Snider team.

THE DEMONSTRATION A SURE THING.

The Firemen Will Successfully Carry Their Scheme Through to Completion.

The celebration committee composed of firemen and citizens met last night and received a report from Messrs. Rutherford and Hayes concerning the success with had met in canvassing the merchants for subscriptions towards defraying the expense of the Dominion Day demonstration. Their statement to the effect that some $340 had been secured was received with great satisfaction as was the assurance that it was thought insufficient more could be collected to run the total up to $400.

This with the $250 granted by the council, the committee considered a sufficient amount to guarantee them against loss and it was resolved to push on the work of preparation as rapidly as possible.

The programme will consist of a calithumpian procession in the morning, in which the merchants will be asked to place floats and which will, after parading the principal streets of the town, proceed to the Agricultural grounds, where the afternoon will be put in.

Amusements will be provided at the grounds in the way of a lacrosse match, a band competition and various sports in the way of races, etc. An outlay of about $1,000 will be made in all. In the evening a grand display of fireworks will take place, and a number of specialties in the way of tight rope performance, etc., introduced.

A committee has been appointed to interview the various merchants with the object of ascertaining who among them will contribute floats to the procession.

OBITUARY.

Mary J. Bradfield.

After a lingering and painful illness of several months duration, Mary J. Bradfield passed away on Monday night, 21st, inst, at the residence of her brother-in-law, No. 228 Stewart street. Deceased was the daughter of the late Wm. Bradfield, an aged and respected pioneer of the township of Douro, who died at the homestead, a few miles from town, eleven years ago, and was followed by his wife, who died three years after. Miss Bradfield lived the live of a good Christian. She was possessed of a very retiring and modest manner, and and a kindlier heart and purer disposition was rarely to be met. She was exceedingly sympathizing and tender, sincere and affectionate and endeared herself to all who knew her by her many estimable qualities. Her illness was of a very painful nature and baffled the skill of her physician. Little of any relief could be offered her and to the relatives especially it was a painful sight to witness the constant suffering she endured. Deceased was 40 years of age, was a member of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, and rarely neglected her religious duties. She leaves a large circle of sorrowing relatives and friends in town and country to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Menzies, 228 Stewart stewart street, on Wednesday afternoon, 23rd instant, at 2.30 o'clock to the Little Lake Cemetery.

A Beautiful Display.

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & CO.

Our Wretched Memory.

We had intended to tell you about a lot of Wall Papers we bought at a great bargain, direct from the manufacturer, but we have so many bargain lines to talk about, our memory sometimes fails us.

That recalls the wonderful memory that old black cat of ours had. She did have the most remarkable memory of any cat almost we ever knew. Why, one once came into the kitchen and sat down on a hot stove lid, and do you know that ever after that, as long as we had her, she never sat down on a hot stove lid again. She wouldn't even sit down on a cold stove lid—at one time we thought it was her sagacity, but now we believe it was her memory.

Do you think that you could memorize a few facts? Here they are:—

1st. That we have the cheapest and prettiest lot of Wall Papers ever shown in Peterborough.

2nd. We have the largest and most complete stock of Window Shades, with Fringe, Applique, Lace and Dado, mounted on best rollers, and our prices are the lowest.

3rd. Our stock of Cornice Poles comprises all the daintiest patterns and prettiest woods.

4th. We lead in every line we carry.

THE OPENING OF THE NEW I. O. O. F. HALL.

MOST SUMPTUOUS QUARTERS.

The Grand Master, Deputy Grand and Grand Secretary Present—Two Candidates Initiated and the First Degree Conferred on Three Members —Good Team Work.

The opening of the Oddfellows' hall, corner of George and Hunter streets, took place last evening in the presence of about 200 members of both lodges and visiting brethren. Bro. Oliver, Grand Master of Ontario, Bro. Hoyle, Deputy Grand Master, and Bro. J. B. King, Grand Secretary, were present. They arrived at about 9 o'clock and received the grand honours on entering the lodge.

The team of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, then initiated two candidates in an impressive manner, after which a team of Peterborough Lodge No. 111 took up the work and conferred the first degree on three candidates in good style. Bro. Dr. Bell, P. G., then took the chair, and called upon Bro. A. McFarlane, P.G., Peterborough Lodge, to read an address of welcome. The Grand Master replied in a neat and appropriate speech, and was followed by Bro. Hoyle and Bro. King. Speeches were also delivered by Bro. Donnelly, P. G., Kingston Lodge; Bro. Moore, P.G., Peterborough Lodge, Bro. J. C. T. Lacey, P.G., Peterborough Lodge, and others.

The speakers all congratulated both lodges on their having such beautiful rooms, and wished them every success in carrying on the good work of the Order.

The aroma of the coffee then began to prevade the room, which made all anxious to taste the beverage. The lodge was closed, therefore, and an adjournment made to the dining room where a bountiful spread, prepared by caterers Harry Long and T. H. Hooper, was partaken of and heartily enjoyed. Then each and all wended their way home anticipating a repetition of the pleasures this evening, when Peterborough Lodge celebrates its twenty-first anniversary.

Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows can now boast the prettiest and most complete set of lodge-rooms in the Province. The entire second and third floors of the big Cluxton block have been converted into most luxurious quarters for the local Oddfellows, the suite extending from the Oriental Hotel on Hunter street to Schneider's jewellery store on George street.

The stairway has been widened and new balusters of handsome design placed in position. Just above the stairway a large skylight has been inserted, which lights up the lower hall in a manner most pleasing. The new rooms, acquired by the building of an aerial passage across an intervening space into the western wing of the block, are four in number.

On entering the apartments the first room to the right is the old Otonabee reception and dining room. It has been repapered, painted and frescoed and looks most inviting. It will be used hereafter only as a reception room.

To the left of the hallway is the outer ante-room, which looks most bright its new coat of prettily tinted paper. The lavatory and wood room which are in the rear are models of modern convenience and have just been opened up. A door from the outer ante-room leads the visitor into the inner ante-room which is the counterpart of the outer room both in size and general appearance.

The main hall is just beyond and remains much the same. It is not as bright a room as any of the others, being tinted in darker hues to harmonize with the direful deeds which here are wrought. The new furniture adds considerably to its luxuriousness and the introduction of the incandescent electric light is a great improvement.

The passage which leads into the new wing is an aerial one and spans a court in mid air. In crossing into the newly acquired suite, the encampment property rooms and the lodge property room lie to the right of the hallway and the kitchen to the left. At the end of the passage is the new dining room. It is a most spacious apartment being 26 by 48 feet in size. It extends from the front of the west wing of the block on Hunter street straight through to the rear and will serve the purpose for which it is intended admirably. It is papered and frescoed in light pretty colors and is altogether one of the brightest of rooms.

The third flat is entirely composed of lodge rooms, which will be improved in accord with the rest of the apartments at a later date.

World's Columbian Exposition

Will be of value to the world by illustrating the improvements in the mechanical arts and eminent physicians will tell you that the progress in medicinal agents, has been of equal importance, and as a strengthening laxative that Syrup of Figs is far in advance of all others.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 10 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

He who can wait will win. Stick-to-it is the conqueror.

A great deal of water can be had from a small pipe, if the bucket is always there to catch it.

Hard work is the grand secret of success. Nothing but rags and poverty can come of idleness.

Alternative is not always improvement, as the pigeon said when she got out of the net and into the pie.

Elbow grease is the only stuff to make gold with. Shirt sleeves rolled up lead on to the best broadcloth.

In getting rich, the more haste the less speed. Haste trips up its own heels. Hasty climbers have sudden falls.

"A good article, full weight, and a fair price, brings customers to the shop, but people do not recommend the place where they are cheated. Cheates never thrive.

Until the millenium comes we shall all have a deal to put up with, and had better bear our present burdens cheerfully than to run helter skelter where we may find things a deal worse.

Don't give up a small business until you see that a larger one will pay you better. Even crumbs are bread. In these hard times he who can sit on a stone and feed himself had better not move."

Look most to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes out, you will always be poor. The art is not in making money, but in keeping it. Little expenses, like mice in a barn, where there are many, soon make great waste.—Ram's Horn.

A MONTREAL MYSTERY.

The Man Who Suicided Was Not McKernan, But an Unknown.

MONTREAL, May 22.—A mystery surrounds the suicide of the man who blew his brains out on the streets, here on Sunday morning. It was at first believed that the man's name was McKernan, and that he was the son of the notorious Joe Beef. It now transpires that though he bore a striking resemblance to McKernan, he was not the man. It is suspected that there is foul play in the case, and what lends force to this is a statement made by Father Shea to the coroner. Father Shea stated that on Saturday night a man called on him and stated he was from near Quebec, and that he was afraid of being killed. He would not give his name. The appearance of the suicide corresponds with the man. The coroner is investigating the case.

Presented With Red Hats.

ROME, May 22.—A consistory was held at the Sala Regis at the Vatican, at which the prelates who were created Cardinals were presented with their hats. The Pope, who appeared to be in excellent health, gave a cordial reception to the large gathering of diplomats and ecclesiastics present.

Children Murder Their Father.

BUDAPESTH, May 22.—A boy of thirteen years and his sister, two years younger, have been arrested in Borkut for murdering their father. They killed him while he slept and hid his body in the woods.

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

DASHED DOWN WITHOUT MERCY.

10 INDISPUTABLE ARGUMENTS WHY GOUGH BROS. CAN, WILL, AND DO BEAT ALL THEIR COMPETITORS:—

I. GOUGH BROS. Buy the Largest Lots, Sell the Largest Quantities, Get the Largest Discounts, and can afford to make the Lowest Prices.

II. GOUGH BROS. clothe both ends of man—from head to foot. They always give a heaped up, pressed down, overflowing measure of value for every dollar spent in their stores.

III. GOUGH BROS. always keep a "bear" among the Clothing Manufacturers, and make prices dance downwards for the benefit of their customers.

IV. GOUGH BROS. form the largest syndicate of Clothing dealers in Canada. They own Clothing, Hats, Boots and Shoes, secured on contracts, made at prices that cannot be repeated.

V. GOUGH BROS.' buying power commands for their customers the Lowest Prices for everything, whether people know the values or not, and this is the mainspring for the ever-rapid movement of their merchandise.

VI. GOUGH BROS. select the cream from all the manufacturers, in a falling market, for their syndicate of stores. Ceaseless selling means ceaseless supplies, and their command of the market creates extraordinary bargains.

VII. GOUGH BROS. sell Clothing at prices that actually do not represent the cost of labour in making, or the bare material.

VIII. GOUGH BROS. have in stock piles of All Wool Suits made from Auburn Woollen Mill Tweed, which can be bought for less money than was paid for the seven yards of cloth to make the suit.

IX. GOUGH BROS. know that when wheat, cotton and wool must be sold for next to nothing, Clothing must be sold for next to nothing also, and they keep watch for snaps for their customers.

X. GOUGH BROS. have no hankering for being "Manufacturers of Clothing." They can do better. Just as wheat can be bought for 60c. a bushel, at a loss to the farmer, so Clothing can be bought at Gough Bros'. at a loss to the manufacturer.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

A FEEBLE WOMAN

— suffering from nervous prostration, excitability or dizziness, the result of weakness, derangement, or displacement of the special organs—will find health regained after using Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The one remedy—standing solitary and alone—for woman's weakness, which is guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money refunded, is the "Favorite Prescription."

What offer could be fairer?

It's a powerful invigorating tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine.

For women who are run-down and overworked; at the critical periods in woman's life—the change from girlhood to womanhood, and, later, the "change of life"—this is especially adapted to her needs; for it strengthens, regulates, and CURES.

Paine's Celery Compound and Kidney Disease.

The Great Medicine a Perfect Cure for the Dangerous Trouble.

Mr. James C. Sears, of Lower Woods Harbor, Shelburne Co., N.S., says:—"For some months I have been troubled with kidney and bladder complaint, with a dragging pain, which, at times, was almost unbearable, and always accompanied with headache. I was recommended to try your Paine's Celery Compound for my troubles. After using two bottles I have received most wonderful benefit."

Many physicians of long practice assert that kidney troubles are alarmingly common in Canada. The causes of kidney troubles are very prevalent. The various symptoms arise from our fast and modern ways of living. Nervousness, impure blood and constipation, contribute wonderfully fast to the cause of kidney disorders.

The medicines and means ordinarily used, for the banishment of the first causes of the terrible disease, are almost worthless. There is only one sure and effectual cure for kidney disease in all its stages—it is Paine's Celery Compound—a medicine that physicians themselves now use and prescribe. Thousands in the past have been saved from wreck and death, through the marvellous agency of the great compound, and to-day, it has the same life-saving power for all sufferers.

When there is indigestion, backache, head-ache, a weak and weary feeling, nervousness and impure blood, rest assured there is danger ahead. A prompt use of Paine's Celery Compound will speedily remove every dangerous symptom.

International Bicycle Race.

PARIS, May 22. — The international bicycle race between Bordeaux and Paris ended when the Frenchman Lesna crossed the finish line and was declared the winner. He had covered the distance in 25 hours, 11 minutes. Lucas finished at 11.11, Samson at 12.50, Lumsden and Berihier came in next and the rest were strung out for miles. There were 87 starters. It was windy and wet, and the roads were in a terrible condition. Frank Waller's pneumatic tire gave out repeatedly, and he finally abandoned the race when he was one hour behind Lesna.

She Could Not Decide.

VANDALIA, Ill., May 22.—At the inquest on the body of Miss Lucy Sefton, who committed suicide last Tuesday in Sefton township, it developed through a note she had written that the real cause of her trouble was a love affair. She was engaged to be married to a young man in her neighborhood, but a former lover stepped in and pressed his suit. The girl could not decide which to accept and concluded to end her trouble by taking her life.

Monck Conservatives.

WELLANDPORT, May 22.—The Liberal-Conservatives of the county of Monck met here yesterday and decided not to nominate a candidate for the coming provincial elections, in view of the fact that there are now two candidates in the field.

DEVASTATED BY FLOODS

Williamsport, Pa., Under From Four to Twenty Feet of Water.

DAMAGE TO GROWING CROPS

Reports From New York State Tell of Great Destruction — A Midnight Alarm at Hollidaysburg—Immense Havoc Created in Various Districts.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 22.—The entire city is under water from four to twenty feet. The water is still rising at the rate of six inches an hour. All the logs at the boom which broke yesterday have been swept away, as well as many sawmills and houses in the lower part of the city. All telegraph and telephone communication with the outer world is now suspended, the offices being flooded and closed. In the business portion of the city the water has reached a depth of eight feet and shows no signs of receding. The rain is still coming down in torrents. The loss has already reached more than $1,000,000 and unless relief soon comes it will be three times that amount. No trains have arrived or departed from the city for twenty four hours.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 22.—The breast of the dam at Springton has broke. The dam covered fifty acres and the vast body of water swept everything before it down the valley. No deaths have been reported, but the damage to farm property is large.

DUNKIRK, N.Y., May 22.—It will take many thousands of dollars to cover the damage by the flood in this city alone, while reports from the surrounding country say acres and acres of garden land were torn out along the banks of the creek and bridges, culverts, etc., were carried away. At Fredonia the Water street iron bridge was lifted from its foundation and many narrow escapes from drowning are reported. While Henry Tilley, of the Colgan farm, was absent from home and his wife sick in bed, his three-year-old boy wandered away and was carried down by the currents. All railroads in the city excepting the Lake Shore are badly crippled on account of washouts.

DANSVILLE, N.Y., May 22.—The water in the Canesaraga rose rapidly and is now two feet above the high water mark of five weeks ago. The destruction of growing crops is complete, and the loss to farmers will agregate hundreds of thousands of dollars. Bridges are carried away, and the highways are washed out for rods in many places, rendering them impassable. In Stoney Brook Glen the gorge is damned in several places, and great damage is being done by the inundation. At Cumminsville Bradner creek has swept everything along its banks. The road between here and Mt. Morris is under water for miles.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—Since Friday night four and one half inches of rain have fallen in Philadelphia. The Schuylkill river is twenty feet above the low water mark at Manayunk, a suburb of this city, and several of the streets are flooded. The Pencoyd iron works, which are situated on comparatively high grounds, are flooded and were compelled to suspend operation. The river is rising seven inches an hour, and the overflow is believed to be the greatest since 1869.

HOLIDAYSBURG, Pa., May 22.—Reports of bursting reservoirs kept 3,000 Blair county people houseless and homeless all night. At midnight a Pennsylvania railroad locomotive brought the warning to Gaysport that the Kilkenning Point reservoir, the source of Altoona City's water supply, had given way, and the valley below would soon be covered by 200,000,000 gallons of water. A Gaysport telegraph operator later received this message from Kitaling: "The dam has burst; for God's sake tell Gaysport people to fly." The result of these warnings was that the entire population at Gaysport, Duncansville and West Hollidaysbury deserted their homes and spent the night on the hill.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 13 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

EXCELSIOR Life Insurance Company.

HEAD OFFICE, - TORONTO

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING-DIRECTOR,
E. F. CLARKE, Ex-Mayor of Toronto

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the record of the business for 1892 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.

Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891, 61 per cent

Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 27 per cent.

Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1891:—

Excelsior Life,..415% North American Life,126%
Dominion Life,..301 " London Life,.....118 "
Federal Life,....144 " Sun Life,.....116 "
Manufac'rs Life,.144 " Confederation Life,...113 "
Tem'ce and Gen'l,144 " Canada Life,.....113 "
Ontario Mutual 108%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, 1st, as low a death rate; 2nd, as low a ratio of expenses. See our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bonds before insuring elsewhere.

SCROFULA
CURED BY
B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

CARING FOR THE POOR.

By a canon of the church all bishops were formerly required to keep almoners, or officials to distribute their alms.

One charitable society in London has thirty-eight offices where inquiry is made into all cases of distress presented.

The grand almoner of France was, prior to the revolution of 1789, the highest ecclesiastical dignitary in the kingdom.

Queen Victoria's almoner, the dean of Windsor, distributes special gifts from the queen to the poor on Maunday-Thursday.

The value of property now held in France for charitable purposes amounts to the enormous sum of seventy million pounds.

The Lazarists, a religious benevolent order, received their name from their first being located in the priory of St. Lazarus in Paris.

The Austro-Hungarian refuges for the aged and infirm support their inmates at an average expenditure of fifteen cents a day.

One of the largest hospitals in the world is the Misericordia of Rio Janeiro. It receives annually over thirteen thousand patients.

In 1830 the value of property held for charitable purposes in England was fifty-one million pounds, an average of two pounds to each inhabitant.

LITERARY BREVITIES.

Japan has 700 newspapers and magazines and produces annually 18,000 books or booklets.

Ex-President James McCosh, of Princeton, has completed the manuscript of his own biography, but has not decided if the work shall appear during his lifetime.

The statement that F. Marion Crawford is the most popular American novelist is confirmed by the report that he receives the sum of $10,000 on the publication of each novel which he writes.

Swinburne, the poet, and Theodore Watts, the painter, live together in an English manor house. The poet is said to have grown so deaf that he hears an ordinary conversation with great difficulty.

The biography of Abraham Lincoln, written by President Sarmiento, who was Argentine minister to the United States at the time of Lincoln's assassination, is used as a text book in the Argentine public schools.

Of Prof. Drummond's "The Greatest Thing in the World," 312,000 copies have been sold; of his "Natural Law in the Spiritual World," 114,000; of his "Tropical Africa," 28,000, and of his "Baxter's Second Innings," 25,000.

The popularity of novels is probably nowhere so great as in Australia. It is said that ninety per cent. of the female and seventy-five per cent. of the male frequenters of the public libraries read novels almost exclusively.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

A piece of charcoal put into the pot when cooking cabbage will prevent all offensive smell.

A small teaspoonful of powdered borax added to a bowl of cold starch will give more stiffness to linen than any of the numerous things that have been tried.

Add a tablespoonfu of borax to a pan of hot soapsuds; put your table silver in and let it stand for two hours; rinse it with clear water and polish with a soft cloth or chamois.

Lemonade, says the doctors, is best when made of boiling water, covered up closely and allowed to cool. In this way it is more full of flavor and goodness and best suited to invalids, and one lemon will go as far as two.

A new method of cleaning clothes is suggested. Dip the clothes brush in the yolk of an egg, so that the bristles are quite wet. Allow it to dry and then use. This treatment has, it is said, the effect to make the brushing especially effective.

Tommy Argues the Case.—"I don't see what's the use of me being vaccinated again," said Tommy, baring his arm reluctantly for the doctor. "The human body changes every seven years, Tommy," replied his mother. "You are 11 years old now. You were in your fourth year when you were vaccinated first, and it has run out." "Well, I was baptized when I was a baby. Has that run out, too?"—Chicago Tribune.

Convicts Get Twenty Days.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Coxey, Browne and Jones were sentenced by Judge Miller in the Washington police court to twenty days in jail for violating the statue of the United States, prohibiting the display of partisan banners in the Capital grounds, and Coxey and Brown were fined $500 each additional for trespassing on the grass, the alternative being another ten days in jail. Jones was acquitted on this last charge.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 22, 1894.

The stock of wheat at Chicago amounts to 19,205,000 bushels.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—There was no grain in and prices are purely nominal.

Cable advices state that Grand Trunk stocks in London have touched the lowest point yet. The quotations were:—First preference, 36½; 4 per cent. guaranteed, 45.

The amount of wheat on passage to Europe is 44,944,000, a decrease of 400,000 for the week. A year ago the amount afloat was 43,440,000, and two years ago 32,492,000.

The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: English wheats have been weak and dull, and foreign wheats have fallen 9d in view of the approach of the time of delivery, June 1. July barley and corn have dropped 6d and rye 1s. Oats have been steady.

In Chicago wheat opened and closed ¼c higher, after a session of notable activity with a range covering 1¼c. The extraordinary weather conditions prevailing throughout the country, frost reports coming from every section, and unexpectedly higher markets at Berlin and Paris due to frosts in Germany, caused the advance. Corn closed steady. Oats were steady, closing at a fractional advance.

In Buffalo cattle were fairly active and steady, except for heavy grades which were 10c lower. Choice to best exporters $4.20 to $4.30. Medium and good butchers' and shippers' $4 to $4.25. Rough, heavy, fat, $3.50 to $4. Light to fair weight butchers' $3.65 to $4. Oxen $3.25 to $3.50. Butchers' cows, good and mixed, $3 to $3.65; bulls, choice butchers to exports, $3 to $3.50, choice stockers $2.25 to $3. Choice feeders $3.50 to $3.70. Yearlings $2 to $2.50.

In New York Sugar certificates, as was expected by cool observers, showed evidence of renewed staying powers. In the first few minutes the stock broke 2½ points more to 92½, a price not touched since the second week of April, and far below the level at which the recent crazy movement took its start. But from this the recovery was prompt to opening figures with a still further rally in the afternoon, brought about by desultory covering of shorts.

QUEER FACTS ABOUT A WATCH.

Screws So Minute as to Be Indistinguishable From a Speck of Dust.

The watch carried by the average man is composed of ninety-eight pieces, and its manufacture embraces more than 2,000 distinct and separate operations.

Some of the smaller screws are so minute that the unaided eye cannot distinguish them from steel filings or specks of dirt.

Under a powerful magnifying glass a perfect screw is revealed. The slit in the head is 2-1,000ths of an inch wide. It takes 308,000 of these screws to weigh a pound, and a pound is worth $1,585.

The hairspring is a strip of the finest steel, about 9½ inches long, 1-100th inch wide and 27-10,000ths inch thick. It is coiled up in spiral form and finely tempered.

The process of tempering these springs was long held as a secret by the few fortunate ones possessing it, and even now is not generally known.

Their manufacture requires great skill and care. The strip is gauged to 20-1,000ths of an inch, but no measuring instrument has as yet been devised capable of fine enough gauging to determine beforehand by the size of the strip what the strength of the finished spring will be. A 20-1,000th part of an inch difference in the thickness of the stop makes a difference in the running of a watch of about six minutes an hour.

The value of these springs, when finished and placed in watches, is enormous in proportion to the material from which they are made. A comparison will give a good idea.

A ton of steel made up into hairsprings when in watches is worth more than 12½ times the value of the same weight in pure gold.

Hairspring wire weighs one twentieth of a grain to an inch. One mile of wire weighs less than half a pound.

The balance gives five vibrations every second, 300 every minute, 18,000 every hour, 432,000 every day and 157,680,000 every year.

At each vibration it rotates about one and one-fourth times, which makes 197,100,000 revolutions every year.

In order that we may better understand the stupendous amount of labor performed by these tiny works, let us make a pertinent comparison.

Take, for illustration, a locomotive with 6 foot driving wheels. Let its wheels be run until they have given the same number of revolutions that a watch does in one year and they will have covered a distance equal to 28 complete circuits of the earth.

All this a watch does without other attention than winding once every 24 hours.—New Moon.

Frank Brown says Dodd's Kidney Pills Give Universal Satisfaction—The Reason is They Never Fail to Cure.

SHELBURNE, May 14.—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: "In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of ascertaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say, that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of their wonderful curative properties.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

MR. STRATTON'S THIRD MEETING.

Mr. G. M. Roger on the License Question.

TWO IMPORTANT ADDRESSES

Mr. Roger Lucidly Deals With the Local Licenses—Mr. Stratton's Comprehensive and Convincing Address on Provincial Matters—A Review of the Agricultural and Labour Interests—His Record and Relations to the Constituency.

Last evening Mr. Stratton's third meeting of the campaign was held in Middleton's school house, Smith. The weather was vile, but Mr. Stratton's friends not being of the fair weather variety, the school house was comfortably filled. One feature of the m eting was that no proxies for Mr. Winch put in an appearance, they being evidently discouraged by the indifferent success attained by them at previous meetings. Mr. William Tully occupied the chair. After the object of the meeting had been stated, Mr. G. M. Roger was called upon. He commenced by regretting that Mr. Burnham, who had referred to him personally at a meeting the other evening, was not present, as he intended to criticize some of the arguments advanced by him. Considering the many long years that Sir Oliver Mowat had been in power, was it not surprising to the electors that little could be brought forward against him during the present campaign. As a supporter of the Government, he himself was surprised, because, even in our own every day lives, we sometimes make mistakes, and it is simply wonderful that so few trifling complaints are advanced against the policy of the party. He believed that any candidate seeking the suffrage of the electors in opposition to the Government at the present time should be able to point out how the condition of affairs could be bettered by a change. Until this was done, he was prepared to stand by the Government who had done so well. He referred to the inexhaustable which the province possessed, and it was a serious matter to place in the hands of a party these great interests, unless it was thought that they would be dealt with in a manner different from what the same party had dealt with our affairs in Ottawa. If the resources of this country are to be developed, it can only be done by the encouragement of and aid to the producer, which in our province means the great agriculture class.

After referring to the policy pursued by the Government at Ottawa and comparing it with that of the Ontario Government, and dwelling on the financial aspect of Provincial affairs, he referred to the qualifications of the candidates before them. For his part he was satisfied that the interests of the country would best be served by having the services of an experienced, resourceful and capable man like Mr. Stratton, who had served them faithfully for eight years, rather than by a man who has been hitherto unknown to the political world, knew little of Provincial politics, and who cannot be said to be at all experienced in public affairs other than as gained by a short term in the town council. Personally, Mr. Winch was what was called "a nice fellow," but it required something more than "niceness" to make a successful representative.

Alluding to the course pursued by the License Commissioners in connection with the by-law of the town council reducing the number of licenses, in which he had

by reason of his support of the by-law to which Mr. Burnham made a special reference at a previous meeting. Mr. Roger said the Commissioners were bound, and he was assured always intended, to respect the by-law and make the reductions in due course. The law gave the commissioners authority to extend any license which they did not intend to renew for a period of three months, presumably for the purpose of enabling the licensee to dispose of his stock, a not unreasonable provision. The commissioners were quite within the law in granting the extension they did. While it would have been more satisfactory to him had they disposed of the matter at once, he could not see that the interests of temperance had suffered by the course pursued, much less that they would be advanced by espousing the cause of the opponents of the Government. The Reform party had given the country all the temperance legislation it had ever enjoyed. The Tory party which was notoriously allied with the liquor interests had sought to nullify it. Sir Oliver Mowat had pledged his government to the enactment of a prohibition liquor law so soon as their power to enact such had been established. In the Province of Ontario there are 808 municipalities, in 568 of them there is not a single shop license, and in 185 of them about ¾ of the whole, there is no license of any kind granted whatever. Since 1890 local option by-laws have been carried in 28 municipalities and in 12 municipalities in the province, in which formerly 28 licenses were issued. In 1889 there were issued 3,560 licenses in Ontario. In 1890, 3,523; in 1891, 3,414; in 1892, 3369; in 1893, 3,195,—a falling off in four years of 365 licenses. In 1875 there was one license granted to each 275 of the population; in 1893 one for every 633 of the population, this in comparison with the States in the American union is a great showing for Ontario. The reduction has been steady throughout the Province and rapid and is largely due to legislation advanced by the Government of Ontario. On the other hand, when the temperance people approached the premier of the Dominion at Ottawa a few months ago, he refused their appeal for a prohibitory law.

By Sir Oliver Mowat's adoption of a prohition platform at the mandate of the plebescite, he had earned the support of all those who had voted for prohibition. He had placed himself in their hands, and for Prohibitionists to go back on him now meant their permanent discredit, and gave rise to the suspicion that they were actuated by other motives than the real advancement of temperance interests. Sir Oliver Mowat had so identified himself with the temperance cause that his defeat necessarily meant its humiliation. It was like the opponents of the Government, who are themselves adepts in political artifice, to seek to mislead the people by magnifying a trivial matter of detail to the exclusion of the much larger and really vital question with which the electorate were now called upon to deal.

After an eloquent appeal to his audience to stand by the Government in the coming election Mr. Roger closed his remarkably strong and convincing address, after being on the platform forty minutes.

THE CANDIDATE SPEAKS.

Mr. Stratton, who was well received, after a few preliminary remarks in explanation of the objects of the meeting, and referring to the dissolution of parliament, went on to say that during the past two parliament he had had the honour of being elected to represent West Peterborough, and it was for the electors to say whether he had discharged his duties faithfully or not. A representative who after almost every sitting of the Legislature, had visited all parts of the constituency explaining the legislation of the previous session and conferring with his constituents to ascertain their views upon proposed or desirable legislation, was a representative who he felt deserved the support of the people. The electors of this riding he believed, as a whole, were better informed upon the acts and policy of the provincial government than any other constituency and consequently should be in a position to poll a more intelligent vote. His opponents, Mr. Stratton pointed out, had the same opportunity between sessions of pointing out the defects of legislation and administration, but they had not sufficient interest in the riding to take the chance offered, but the fact that they did not, but waited till the heat of an election campaign, when political prejudices and feelings were aroused, to formulate their attacks, showed that the course of the representative must have been of too satisfactory a character and it was only in the last hours of a parliamentary term, that they hoped to prejudice the electorate by violent attacks and secure a snatch verdict. Mr. Stratton said that he had nothing in particular to say of Mr. Winch the Conservative candidate—he had never known of his doing any particular good or any particular harm. At any rate he had no political record—he had always followed the leadings of the ward politicians in town, and when a personal friend of his own was a Liberal candidate he would not record his vote for him. In his representative capacity, Mr. Stratton said he had not only tried to faithfully discharge his duties as a representative, but had been of as much service as he was capable, in attending to the more personal wants of individual electors; and when he was trying to reduce the taxes of every elector in Smith, by procuring grants to be expended upon roads in the northern part of the township, he was bitterly opposed by the Conservative party and his actions denounced as corrupt in motive. And it was asked, who could truthfully deny that this money was not well and prudently spent or that the improvements effected by it were not urgently needed, and of great benefit to the township, and which at an early day would have to have been done by the direct taxes of the ratepayers if the Government had not at his (Mr. Stratton's) solicitation provided the money. And did not the $40,000 spent in the townships of Smith Harvey, Galway, Cavendish and Ennismore enable the farmers to reach town much more frequently (which in the former condition of the roads could not have been done) and did not the town gain directly by the expenditure of the money of all of those farmers and indirectly by the expenditure on these roads and, directly also, for the great bulk of the money spent in building and improving roads found its way to Peterborough and Lakefield, the natural markets of these farmers. And was not the money placed in the hands of

for expenditure, irrespective of political opinions so long as the main object was gained, the selection of a man who could be depended upon to possess the experience, judgment and uprightness to make judicious expenditure? While every year, every effort was being made to better the condition of the settlers of the constituency, was there one word of commendation or encouragement from the local party organ, which pursues a policy of personal abuse and misrepresentation, without giving one thought to the benefit of the riding of West Peterborough? (Applause.) There was not a farmer in the audience who did not know that the statements he had made were absolutely correct. Mr. Stratton next inquired what platform his opponents had in this campaign. Although nominated seven months ago, Mr. Winch, the Opposition candidate, had been as dumb as a dead oyster upon the subject of his platform and policy. What can be expected from a candidate who needs seven months to open his mouth, and when he does so has nothing to say? On Friday evening at the Grange Hall and on Saturday evening at Springville he had two proxies present, neither of whom threw any light on the subject. In fact they would not agree as to what little they had to say. What Mr. Burnham on Friday night denounced as "utter rot," was uttered the following evening by Mr. Dennistoun as excuse for argument. Neither of these proxies of Mr. Winch, or any one in his behalf, being present tonight, it is to be inferred that they are putting their heads together to concoct some policy or platform to be presented to Mr. Winch for his adoption. If that platform would not suit they could follow the example of a former Conservative candidate, who had an adjustable platform, varied according to the township in which he spoke, and, considering the platformless condition of Mr. Winch and his party, perhaps this gentleman could be induced to break the silence he had kept so long and take the stump and give to the people the stories he has been rehearsing all winter. It had been said by the opponents of the Mowat Government that Ontario has no surplus, in the face of the statement made by the Provincial Treasurer when delivering his budget speech, that the Province had a

SURPLUS OF ABOUT SIX MILLIONS

and assets ranging between eighty and a hundred millions of dollars. When all other provinces of the Dominion are plunged in debt, Ontario has no debt (according to the Dominion blue books, too) but has abundant means to meet the requirements of the province at the past rate of expenditure for a hundred years to come, and ready means to assist in relieving the burdens of municipalities by returning as it has done to the municipalities in the past twenty-two years, twenty-three million dollars, about a million a year, of which Peterborough's share had been $780,000; and in the twenty years of its administration the Government has handled millions of public money, and neither by itself nor by any of its officers has it been shown that a single dollar of that money has been corruptly spent. (Hear, hear.) It is a most remarkable circumstance, too, that in that long period the officers appointed by the Government have been so wisely chosen that with one or two exceptions there have been no defalcations, and such as did occur were of so trifling a character as to be scarcely worthy of notice. The entire loss to the Treasury from the dishonesty of its officers in 22 years was less than $25,000. In the same time the defalcation of municipal officers, according to a return brought down last session, amounted to $273,754. So much for

of our finances. It had been charged by our opponents that the Government had been squandering our assets. But previous to Sir Oliver Mowat assuming office and during the four years of the Sandfield Macdonald government, which is quoted by the Conservatives as the model government there were sold 635 square miles of timber for $165,362 on an average of $260 per square mile. The Blake Government sold in one year 5031 for $592,601, or $117.79 per square mile. But the average price obtained by the Mowat Government during its term of office has been $1,205 per square mile, and in connection with this great increase in price received by the Mowat Government it must be remembered that the ground rent has been increased from $2 per square mile, and 75 cents dues to $3 and $1.25 respectively. The Sandfield Macdonald Government held a sale every year. The Mowat Government has had six sales in 22 years, or one every four years. The timber has been carefully preserved and always sold to the highest bidder. It is necessary to have sales as settlement advances. The Government is bound to provide timber for the industries of the country. If this were not done all our saw mills would be shut down and all the industries dependent upon them would be closed and

THOUSANDS THROWN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

To-day every willing worker can find employment in Parry Sound, Muskoka and Nipissing. From the town every year hundreds of men go to the lumbering districts to find the employment they cannot get at home. These circumstances justify the course taken in reference to our timber by the Mowat Government. Mr. Meredith was not satisfied with British precedent, but had to go to the United States for a policy and comes down with his biennial (every two year) sessions of parliament.

On the eve of election he grasps at it in the hope of catching a few votes. In those of the States where biennial sessions prevail there is the greatest amount of corruption and jobbery. "Yankee" institutions stank in the nostrils of oppositive politicans a few months ago; now they are everything that is desirable and Mr. Meredith makes a bold attempt to transplant Tammany to Toronto. How would it do for township and county councils to meet every two years? No, the small amount saved by biennial sessions could be better saved by a reduction in the number of representatives. The abolition of Government House was briefly dealt with showing another charge of base on the part of Mr. Meredith and the Opposition. The policy of the Government in relieving human suffering and providing for the unfortunate by liberal expenditures on hospitals, asylums and refuges, and the relief to the municipalities thereby were pointed out, as were the benefits to the farmers by the existence of the Eastern and Western Dairymens' Associations, the Creamery Association, the Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association, the Ontario Poultry Association, the Eastern Poultry Association, the Beekeepers' Association, the Ontario Experimental Farm, the Agricultural Society, the Agricultural College, the Experimental Union, the Travelling Dairy and Farmers' Institutes were all referred to as practical evidences of the interest taken in the wellfare of the backbone of the country by the Ontario Government.

IN THE INTERESTS OF LABOUR.

While on the subject of agriculture Mr. Stratton said he might refer more particularly to one prominent feature of the Bureau of Industries. Dealing with the interests of labour it was fitting that this should be attached to the Department of Agriculture. The Bureau of Industries was established in 1882, and provides for the publication of a summary of the answers to questions sent out by the bureau and supplied by labour organizations and others interested. The answers comprise information relating to the officers of organizations and returns in detail respecting them, the total membership, the average wages and days of employment, the benefits paid to members and members' families, financial statistics relating to labour organizations, information respecting strikes and lock outs, supplied by employers, etc., etc., in fine a vast fund of information of interest to and in the interest of the workingman. The interest shown in the men that toil is not shown alone by collecting statistics. The legislation enacted by the influence of the Ontario government has been of a very comprehensive character, aiming to settle in a practical way the problem of how best to secure a fair distribution of national wealth without interfering with private rights or enterprises. The extent to which the Government and Legislature of Ontario have moved in this direction is shown by the fact that since 1872, the Ontario Government has procured the passage of no fewer than forty specific measures tending to promote the financial interest, safety and benefit of the working man and his family. A few of these might be mentioned with the dates of their enactment.

1873—"An act to facilitate agreements between masters and working men for participation in profits"; The Trades Arbitration Act," to facilitate the settlement of disputes between employers and employees; "An Act to establish Liens in favour of Mechanics, Machinists and others."

1874—"An act to amend the Law relating to the Attachment of Debts, in respect of the Wages and Salaries of Mechanics and others." This Act exempts from garnishee wages up to and including $25, except in cases of debt or board or lodging; "An Act respecting Industrial Schools." This Act makes provision for the reclamation and care of children found begging, receiving alms, wandering about without settled homes.

1878—"An Act to amend the Mechanics' Lien Act," to afford greater protection to the earnings of working Mechanics, Labourers and Suppliers of materials.

1880—"An Act to Protect the Goods of Lodgers and Boarders against Distress for Rent due Superior Landlord"; "An Act respecting Municipal Assessments and Exemptions," providing that "the deduction of $400 from the income of a person having an income exceeding that amount shall not be made in case such income exceeds $1,600.

1881—"An Act to make provision for the Safety of Railway Employees and the Public," to provide a fair and reasonable measure of protection against the occurance of accidents to railway employees, as to frogs, wind-rails, guard rails, freight cars, etc., provisions are made.

1882—"An Act to establish a Bureau of Industries." This Department effects much good in collecting and giving very valuable and reliable information as to the supply of labour, rate of wages prevailing, etc., in Ontario; "An Act to make further provision respecting the Lien of Mechanics and Labourers"; "An Act to provide for the establishment of Free Libraries." This Act provides that on petition to council, signed by not less than 100 electors of a city; not less than 60 in a town, and not less than 30 in an incorporated village, the council may pass a by-law giving effect to the prayer thereof as to the establishment of a free library.

1885—"An Act to amend the Mechanics' Lien Act," and still further improving that important measure; "An Act to secure to Wives and Children the benefit of Life Insurance"; "An Act to extend the Provisions of the Revised Statue respecting Master and Servant."

1885—"An Act respecting Wages." This Act provides that "in cases of assignment for the benefit of creditors, the assignee shall pay in priority to the claims of the ordinary or general creditors of the person making the same, the wages or salary of all persons in the employment of the assignor.

"An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Franchise, and to confer the right of franchise on wage-earners who earn $250 annually.

1886—"An Act to amend the Franchise and Representation Act, 1885," permitting an employe for the purpose of voting, to absent himself from employment from the hour of noon until the hour of two of the clock next, such voter, because of absenting himself, not being liable to any penalty or suffer or incur any reduction of wages; "an Act to amend the Revised Statues respecting Master and Servant," still further improves that law in favor of the servant. "An Act to secure compensation to Workmen in certain cases." 1887—"An Act to amend the Mechanics' Lien Act." "An Act to amend the Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act," by omitting therefrom the words: "lapse of one year from and after the commencement thereof," and inserting instead the words: first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight." By the insertion of the words just quoted the law was made to apply to the Grand Trunk Railway, which was exempt under the Act prior to 1888, so as to enable the employees of that company to make answer to a series of questions propounded by a committee of the Legislature as to the value to them of the insurance system in connection with that railway. The amendment also extends the provisions of the Act of 1886 so as to apply to other employees than those being members of the G. T. R. insurance association; "an Act respecting Distress for Rent and Taxes." This Act exempts goods and chattels exempt from seizure or distress by a landlord, except as provided; "an Act relating to Exemptions from Seizure under Execution," by which wearing apparel, certain household effect and necessaries, etc., are exempt from seizure under all circumstances.

"Revised Statutes of Ontario, chap. 193." —Exemption from Taxation: "The annual income of any person derived from his personal earnings, provided the same does not exceed $700: the annual income of any person to the amount of $400, provided the same does not exceed $1,000." 1888—"An Act to establish Manhood Suffrage for the Legislative Assembly"; "An Act to regulate the closing of shops and hours of labour therein for children and young persons"; "An Act to amend the Free Libraries Act"—to establish evening classes for artizans, mechanics and workingmen in such subjects as may promote a knowledge of the mechanical and manufacturing arts"; 1889—"An Act to amend the Ontario Factories' Act." This amendment applies the law where five (instead of twenty) or more persons are employed"; "an Act to amend the Ontario Shops Regulations Act," and extending its provisions; an Act respecting the employment of girls and women and boys under 17 yerrs of age, and limiting a weeks' work to 48 hours (or 8 hours a day) in one week; two acts to amend the "Mechanics Lien Act" and the "Trades Arbitration Act" and the "Master and Servant Act"; an amendment of the municipal act to permit the establishment of local schools for the training and education of artizans and mechanics; an Act respecting compulsory school attendance; the "Woodman's Lien for Wages Act;" An act to amend the act respecting wages provides for the wages of a person in the employment of an absconding debtor having preference; "An act for the compensation to workmen for injuries in their employment for which employers are responsible; "An act to amend the landlord and tenant law: besides many amendments intended to strengthen and improve the acts previously passed for the benefit of and in the interests of the true wealth producers of the country. Mr. Stratton mentioned that the acts he had referred to were not taken for any government record but were taken from the report of the Legislation Committee of the Trades and Labour Congress of the Dominion, held at Ottawa in 1890, and were therefore a true reflection of the high estimate the representatives of labour place upon the efforts of the Mowat Government in the direction of advancing the interests and securing the rights of the great working classes. While the Ontario Government had, according to the report of the Trades and Labour Council, passed some thirty-nine or forty acts in the interest of the labouring classes, the Dominion Government had in 25 years passed only seven act in this direction, and these chiefly in the interests of immigrants and sailors. True, none of the legislation of the Mowat Government had been revolutionary nor had worked any great changes still it had been in the right direction and had a direct tendency to improve the interests of the working classes and served to show that so far as legislation could give labour its rights and fair protection of its interests, the Ontario Government might be expected and would give it as far as it was wise and practicable to proceed. For himself, personally, Mr. Stratton felt that he always been the friend of the working man and had done all in his power to make his representative capacity useful and helpful to the working classes and he would continue to use his best endeavors to promote any enactments that would better the interests of the true producer of wealth, the working men.

IN THE INTERESTS OF HARMONY.

In conclusion Mr. Stratton, after referring to the different platforms adopted by the Ontario Opposition for the past twelve years, said that any policy that appealed to a class, a creed or to a race—a policy that did not appeal to the better instincts to be found in all classes, all creeds and all races, is stamped with inferiority. We were a country composed of all elements—English, German, French, Irish and Scotch—each with its own traditions and prejudices and it should be the policy of the true patriotic Canadian statesman to unite these nationalities on a common platform of love for Canada and Canadian institutions and make them all Canadians, and that would be the speaker's aim and here, in the midst of a gathering composed largely of loyal Orangeman, he would reiterate that that was his object. Whether elected or defeated he would go to the polls on the broad principles that underlie the Liberal platform—justice and equality to all. Mr. Stratton said he desired to be judged by his actions and he asked the electors to judge the Government upon their record of honest administration and wise legislation and not by the narrow guage principles of partisan opinion.

The meeting closed with cheers for the Queen and the Liberal candidate

AVOIDABLE FARM EXPENSES.

It costs money to neglect repairing the fences while the ground is soft.

It costs money to have a poor fence around pastures, for the cattle to break through.

It costs money to allow the manure to lie under the eaves and fertilize the road-side or nearest stream.

It costs money, in the extra feed required, to keep cattle and horses together loose in the same yard.

It costs money to let the cows become poor during the winter, and take all summer to recover condition.

It costs money to let the manure lie in piles all winter when labor is cheap and work scarce, and draw it out in spring when labor is high and work abundant.—American Agriculturist.

John Tyndall's Generosity.

The ordinary tests of generosity are very defective. As a rightly measured, generosity is great in proportion to the amount of self-denial entailed; and where ample means are possessed large gifts often entail no self-denial. Far more self-denial may be involved in the performance, on another's behalf, of some act which requires time and labor. In addition to generosity under its ordinary form, which Prof. Tyndall displayed in unusual degree, he displayed it under a less common form. He was ready to take much trouble to help friends. I have had personal experience of this. Though he had always in hand some investigation of great interest to him, and though, as I have heard him say, when he had bent his mind to a subject he could not with any facility break off and resume it again, yet, when I have sought his scientific aid, information or critical opinion I never found the slightest reluctance to give me his individual attention. Much more markedly, however, was this kind of generosity shown in another direction. Many men, while they are eager for appreciation, manifest little or no appreciation of others, and still less go out of their way to express it. With Tyndall it was not thus; he was eager to recognize achievement. Notably in the case of Faraday, and less notably, though still conspicuously, in many cases, he has bestowed much labor and sacrificed many weeks in setting forth others' merits. It was evidently a pleasure to him to dilate on the claims of fellow-workers.—From Herbert Spencer's Tribute to the Memory of John Tyndall.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

A Shipment of Canadian Cattle Passes the Inspector.

TRUTH ATTACKS THE CANAL

Honors Conferred on Isaac Pitman and the President of the Y.M.C.A.—Capt. Mahan Banqueted—Preferential Trade Among the Colonies.

LONDON, May 23.—The Queen has knighted Isaac Pitman, the inventor of the Pitman system of phonetic shorthand.

Isaac Pitman was born in Trowbridge Wilts, England, Jan. 4, 1813. He was obliged to leave school at the age of twelve years and entered the counting house of a clothing manufacturer. After a six years' service as a clerk he received six months training in the Normal College of the British and Foreign Schools Society, and in 1831 was appointed master of the British school at Barton-on-Humber. He established the British school at Wotton-

SI ISAAC PITMAN.

under-Edge in 1836. His first treatise on shorthand "Stenographic Sound Hand" appeared in 1837, and he thus became the originator of the spelling reform to which, and the propagation of his system of phonetic shorthand, he devoted his entire attention since 1843 when the phonetic society was established. His system of shorthand was renamed in 1840, and was entitled "Phonography, or Writing by Sound," and his "Phonographic Reporter's Companion" appeared in 1846. Mr. Pitman's phonetic institute at Bath is really a phonetic printing office and a publishing house for the despatch of phonetic books to all parts of the world. He edits and prints the Phonetic Journal, besides printing his own instruction books for teaching phonetic shorthand. Mr. Pitman has issued a little library of about eighty volumes printed entirely in shorthand, ranging from the Bible to "Paselas."

The Queen has also knighted Mr. George Williams, president of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Canadian Cattle Pass the Inspector.

LONDON, May 23.—The first shipment of Canadian cattle to the British Isles has arrived and passed the special Government inspector. There were 370 head in this shipment and not one animal is reported to have been regarded as suspicious. The beasts in this herd, which are useful, but not of the best quality, brought from 4¾ to 5 pence per pound. It is now thought that if the 6,430 Canadian cattle afloat pass the same examination, it should enable Hon. Herbert Gardiner, President of the Board of Agriculture, to remove the obnoxious embargo. This course he will undoubtedly pursue if no further suspicion arises. The Lancet in this week's issue gives medical support to Canada's case.

Entertained an American Officer.

LONDON, May 23.—Captain Alfred T. Mahan, commander of the United States cruiser Chicago, was entertained at a banquet given in his honor by the English publishers of his works, Sampson, Low, Marston & Co. A large number of guests were present. Mr. Marston, in the course of a speech, said that the French translation of Capt. Mahan's "History of Sea Power" had been completed and that the German translation of the work was progressing rapidly. Capt. Mahan said he was engaged in the preparation of a third section of naval history, reaching to 1815 and covering the busy life of Lord Nelson.

Manchester Canal Attacked.

LONDON, May 23.—Truth, in an article endorsing the Lancet's views on the Manchester ship canal, makes an unmeasured onslaught on the work. The canal, it says, is little better than an open sewer. The water is in a filthy condition, receiving as it does the sewerage of the city and a number of towns, thus endangering the lives of thousands of employed in its vicinity. Owing to the filthy state of the canal the Queen's voyage from Ilam to Manchester has had to be abandoned.

Regarding Preferential Trade.

LONDON, May 23.—In the House of Commons Mr. Charles E. H. Vincent, member for Sheffield, gave notice that on Monday next he will ask the Chancellor of the Exchequer if the Government had reached any decision in regard to amending the Customs Act of 1873, with a view to enabling the colonies to conclude preferential trade arrangements one with another.

FIGHT WITH WHITECAPS

These Lawless Cranks and Deputies Have a Lively Encounter.

AN OFFICER KILLED IN THE FRAY

Two Other Officers Receive Very Serious Wounds—The Leader of the Whitecaps, Who Started the Fight, Also Lies Dangerously Wounded.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 23.—One killed and three seriously wounded is the result of a pitched battle between officers of the law and a gang of whitecaps at Forest City, St. Francis county, Ark., yesterday. Several weeks ago Detective Webster, of Memphis, was employed by the sheriff of St. Francis county to run down the whitecaps, and as a result forty arrests followed some of them being prominent citizens. The people demanded that speedy justice be meted out to the whitecaps.

A special term of the criminal court was ordered and the court convened at Forest City to try the cases. Shortly after the adjournment of court Detective Webster, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Sherman and two or three court bailiffs, stepped into a saloon to get a drink. As the officers entered they met several members of the gang of whitecaps who are out on bail. Henry Gore, who is charged with being a member of the whitecaps, opened fire on the officers, which was the signal for a general fusilade.

After the smoke had cleared away, Detective Webster was found with a bullet hole through his heart, while beside him lay Deputy Sheriff Sherman and P. D. Gowling with serious wounds, while a few feet further Henry Gore was seriously wounded. The sheriff soon arrived and arrested the whitecaps.

HAWAIIAN REPUBLIC.

The New State of Affairs on the Island Assuming Shape.

NEW YORK, May 23.—A Honolulu special says: The new constitution has been drawn up by the council and will be presented to the convention on May 30. The new government is to be called the Republic of Hawaii. There are to be a President and an Executive Council of five. Fifteen Senators will comprise the Upper House of the Legislature. The Lower House, to be the Assembly, shall consist of fifteen members. Meetings of the Legislature are to be held every two years, each session to last no longer than ninety days.

President Dole will probably retain his office for two years, the next president to be chosen by the people.

It is asserted that the Royalists are ready to make a bold move for the reinstatement of Lilinokalani as soon as the new Republic is declared. They believe Admiral Walker will aid them, thinking he will carry out the original policy of President Cleveland.

From inside sources it is learned that Minister Thurston will not return to Washington, but will accept the portfolio of Minister of Foreign Affairs in Dole's Cabinet. A. S. Hartwell, a prominent lawyer, will succeed Thurston at Washington.

Minister Willis is gaining in favor among Hawaiians, and his recent actions have tended to allay the feeling of distrust against him.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Advices from Honolulu of May 15, per steamer Gaelic, say: President Dole has issued a proclamation calling upon delegates and other members of the constitution convention to convene on May 30, in the Judiciary building at Honolulu. There have been rumors for several days of a proposed attempt by Royalists to capture the executive building by corrupting the guards. The loyalty of the commanding officers is relied on and the Government is not apprehensive of any untoward act.

The Brokerage Swindling Case.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Herman Clarke, the third member of the firm of La Montagne, Clarke & Company, the brokerage firm accused of swindling Florence M. David, of Montreal, was arraigned before Justice Taintor in the Tombs police court. Clarke, through Joseph Moss, of Hough & Hummel's office, waived examination. Justice Taintor made his bail $15,000, instead of $10,000, in which La Montagne and Fulton were held. He did this because Clarke is under another indictment on another criminal charge.

Fighting With Bandits.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 23.—News has reached here of a desperate battle between deputy sheriffs and a body of bandits at Yukon, a small place east of El Reno, in which two officers, Sam Ferris and James Snider, and one of the outlaws, were fatally wounded, and several residents of the place who were engaged in the fight were slightly injured.

Dangerous Anarchist Arrested.

PARIS, May 23.—The police have arrested an anarchist who has been in communication with the anarchists responsible for the recent bomb explosion in Leige, Belgium. The man's identity has been established as the organizer of an international association of anarchists, whose members are chosen by lot to destroy by means of the bomb the enemies of the anarchy in Europe.

Solicitor Thomas Committed.

LONDON, May 23.—Howell Thomas, the solicitor who recently acted on behalf of Col. Jacques, the American claimant of the Townley estates, and who was arrested at Brighton on April 11, charged with obtaining money from Jacques by fraudulent pretenses, was fully committed for trial yesterday.

A Scare for an Editor.

PARIS, May 23.—A large can, containing a gallon of petroleum, a quantity of gunpowder and other explosives and bits of iron, nails, etc., with a lighted fuse attached, was found outside the main entrance to the house of Abbe Garnier, editor of Le Peuple Francais.

Coal Porters Strike in Egypt.

PORT SAID, May 23.—Two thousand coal porters who struck on Saturday for higher wages have been rioting in the streets and have fought the police called out to subdue them in a dozen encounters. Some twenty-five strikers and several policemen have been injured.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Government Manages to Control Another Private Members' Day.

MR. MULOCK URGES HIS BILL

He Asks the Government to Take Charge of His Measure Relating to Ocean Rates for Cattle—Mr. McCarthy's Bill Again Blocked.

OTTAWA, May 23.—The question of the House standing adjourned until Monday in honor of the Queen's birthday came up in the House yesterday, when Sir John Thompson moved that Government orders have precedence over other business today, and when the House adjourns it should stand adjourned till the following Monday.

Hon. Mr. Laurier agreed and the motion was adopted.

Mr. Mulock made a long speech upon the question of ocean freight rates on cattle. He emphasized the arguments he had used speaking upon this same subject a month ago. He desired the Government to take charge of his bill dealing with this question.

Sir Charles H. Tupper said that upon two occasions he had met representatives of the cattle shipping industry in the presence of Mr. Mulock. They were urging legislation of the character embodied in Mr. Mulock's bill, and had promised to furnish him (Sir Charles H. Tupper) with certain documents which would prove the clearness of their position and furnish certain information regarding the subject. The information promised had not been forthcoming and he supposed that the cattle shippers were still looking for it. The Government would have to receive this information before they could undertake the responsibility of such a bill. It was evident that the cattle men were not so urgent now as they were a few months ago, else their information would have been forwarded.

Dr. Sproule thought that the cattle shippers should immediately send authentic information, as promised, to the Government.

Sir John Thompson said that he would give the bill his earnest consideration. He could not promise, however, that the Government would adopt the measure.

Mr. McCarthy thought the bill one of the most important of the session. He saw the difficulties in the way of passing such a bill. No measure should be passed which would injure the shipping trade of Montreal. He did not agree with the Government in taking private members' day for the discussion of the tariff. A bill which he had introduced had not yet been reached on the list of private members' bills.

Col. Amyot said that it was all very well for members who were daily in their seats in the House to complain of delay, but for a man such as Mr. McCarthy to make such a complaint was ridiculous, since he spent the greater portion of his time attending to his private business, and only came to the House when he desired to make trouble.

Hon. Mr. Curran said that Mr. McCarthy's bill had been reached, but that he was absent, and the bill had been allowed to stand at the request of Mr. McCarthy's friend, Mr. Martin, of Winnipeg. If Mr. McCarthy had been in Parliament attending to his duty his bill would have been argued before the House long ago. It was his own fault if the bill had been placed down on the list.

Mr. McCarthy said that it was true that his bill had been reached, but he was absent because of sickness in his family.

Hon. Mr. Laurier asked if the Government intended to introduce other measures in addition to those, notice of which had already been given by the Prime Minister.

Sir John Thompson, in reply, said that there would be other bills introduced by the Government besides those of which notice had already been given. The Government proposed to introduce bills relating to the French treaty, the fast Atlantic steamship service, and joint stock companies, and there would also be the insolvency bill from the Senate. He could not remember any more at present that the Government had formed the intention of introducing. Whether they would deal with the question of the redistribution of Quebec would depend largely upon the length of the session.

Hon. Mr. Foster announced that the tariff was about completed, and that with the exception of the consideration of two or three unimportant items the tariff was decided upon, and that there would be no more changes of great moment.

The House then went into committee of supply to consider the estimates.

After recess the House went into committee of ways and means, but no important business was done. The House rose at 10.30 p.m.

Rather a Peculiar Case.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 23.—William Fullerton, aged 24, of Amherst, was being brought to Halifax to be placed in the insane asylum. He was on a lounge in the baggage car in charge of his brother. The latter went out of the car for a time and when he returned the man was dead. The body was brought to Halifax and given in charge of an undertaker, who embalmed it, and was to send it back to Amherst by the train in the morning. Last night another undertaker and the coroner went to the first undertaker's establishment and took the body, which was encased in a handsome casket, the coroner saying he proposed holding an inquest into the cause of death. The first undertaker thereupon swore out a warrant against the coroner and the other undertaker for stealing the casket and body-snatching, and they were arrested.

Bay de Verde Elections.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 23.—The Bay de Verde contest is over, and result will be made known to-night. Although voting closed yesterday the ballot boxes were not taken to Western Bay, the counting place, until this forenoon, the officers being unwilling to travel at night time fearing an attack and destruction of boxes.

THE COUNTY CHEESE BOARD CONVENES.

Mr. Fitzgerald Gets First Choice at 9 11 16 Cents—A Goodly Number of Salesmen Present.

The following is the report of the first meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board which as stated, was crowded out of yesterday's issue. The buyers present were Messrs. Fitzgerald, Wrighton and Cook, and 1789 boxes were boarded. There was a large attendance of salesmen and the president, Mr. J. M. Drummond, occupied the chair.

After the opening of the session Mr. Cook moved a resolution which was carried to the effect that the Board hereafter open at 12 o'clock sharp on the days of meeting and close at one o'clock in order to give the outside buyers an opportunity of leaving by the train.

Cheese was boarded by the factories as appended:—

Keene	84	Warminster	112
Shearer	100	Central Smith	45
North Smith	140	Cherry Grove	20
Warsaw	80	Westwood	100
Oakdale	63	Norwood	75
Melrose Abbey	42	Lakefield	80
Pine Grove	56	Peterborough	40
Otonabee Union	33	Maple Leaf	90
Lang	104	Fraserville	47
Manchester	20	North Dummer	46
Lakeview	60	Trewern	20
Benafort	60	Stony Lake	20
Ida	33	Millbrook	16
Mount Pleasant	30	Bladstock	42
Daisy D	50	Fleetwood	45
Lorneville	36	Brooklin	40

Mr. Cook, for Hodgson Brothers, bid 9c. for selections, which bid was raised to 9½c. by Mr. Wrighton, whose offer, in turn, was again raised by Mr. Cook to 9¼c. Mr. Fitzgerald then took a hand in and offered 9½c., when Mr. Cook raised to 9⅝c. Mr. Fitzgerald's final offer of 9 11-16c. was accepted, when he picked the makes of the following factories:—Keene, Lang, Lakefield, Shearer and Pine Grove all of which accepted. For further choice Mr. Cook bid 9¼c. and took Brooklin, Blackstock, North Smith, Westwood, Norwood, Maple Leaf, Lakeview, North Dummer, Warsaw, Oakdale, Peterborough, Otonabee Union, Fraserville, Benafort, Fleetwood, Mount Pleasant, Daisy D., Central Smith, Warminster, Cherry Grove, Trewern, Stony Lake and Manchester, all of which acceded with the exception of Brooklin, North Smith, Westwood, Norwood, Warminster, Oakdale, Peterborough, Fraserville and Daisy D. Mr. Cook secured, at 9½c., Warminster, Oakdale, Melrose Abbey, North Smith, Warsaw, Westwood, Peterborough, Norwood, Central Smith, Millbrook, Daisy D. and Ida.

On behalf of all the factories an agreement has been signed to the effect that a forfeit of $15 shall be charged to the account of every factory selling off the Board.

A sample of the big cheese, which had been forwarded to the Board, was tasted by many, who certified to its good condition. A vote of thanks will be forwarded Prof. Robertson for his kindness in remembering the members.

The Board adjourned for two weeks.

RECORD BREAKERS.

Frank Brown says Dodd's Kidney Pills Give Universal Satisfaction—The Reason is They Never Fail to Cure.

SHELBURNE, May 14.—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: "In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of ascertaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say, that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of their wonderful curative properties.

Our band is practising with a will that bespeaks excellence at an early date. Our citizens will hear them make their debut in public soon.

Messrs. Cyrus Rutherford and C. H. Shield left for Norwood last Tuesday. We understand they contemplate the management of a general store in that town. We wish them the greatest success.

A grand pic-nic is being arranged for on June 1st. It will be held in the grove of Mr. Scott Rutherford, just west of here. The committee are getting out the bills and a variety of amusements is guaranteed. They have almost concluded arrangements for a band; they mean to have a baseball tournament, terpsichorean exercises, swings, etc., etc. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

MILLBROOK.

From our own Correspondent.

A meeting was held in the Royal Templars lodge room last Friday evening, when the delegates from the different temperance organizations throughout the riding discussed the present political situation. It was finally decided to call a convention to assemble at Millbrook some day next week for the purpose of deciding what course they should take in the coming provincial elections. It is not at all likely they will bring out a candidate of their own, but will simply endorse one of the candidates now in the field. The temperance people are not very well satisfied at Mr. Campbell's action in voting against the plebiscite. Mr. Fallis, the Tory candidate, although a temperance man, has not yet declared his views on prohibition. If the Liberals come forward with Mr. W. H. McCallum, of Port Hope, as their candidate and if he endorses prohibition he will certainly carry East Durham.

Mr. Thomas Thorn, who lives on the first concession of Cavan, was awakened at about half-past three o'clock Friday morning by the crackling of fire, when he discovered his fine residence to be in flames. Mr. Thorn, after removing some of the contents of the house, made for the stables and with some difficulty let loose the horses which came very near falling victims to the flames. Very little of the contents of the house were saved. The cause of the fire is unknown. Insurance on the house, $1,500. There was no insurance on the contents.

The 24th of May celebration will no doubt prove a great success. The greatest attraction will no doubt be the lacrosse match, Millbrook vs. Junior Peterboroughs.

Millbrook defeated Cobourg at cricket Thursday by eight wickets.

'If all the gold in mine or bank,
All earthly things that men call wealth
Were mine, with every titled rank,
I'd give them all for precious health."

Thus in anguish wrote a lady teacher to a near friend, telling of pitiless headache, of smarting pain, of pain in back and loins, of dejection, weakness and nervous, feverish unrest. The friend knew both causes and cure and flashed back the answer, "Take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." The distressed teacher obeyed, was restored to perfect health, and her daily duties once more became a daily pleasure. For lady teachers, saleswomen and others kept long standing, or broken down by exhausting work, the "Prescription" is a most potent restorative tonic, and a certain cure for all female weakness. Guaranteed to cure in every case or money returned. See printed guarantee around each bottle.

EXCURSION.

The Executive of the town Local Union have decided to go down the river to Jubilee Point this year on the new steamer City of Peterborough. The date is Friday June 15th. The tickets are 50c for adults, and 25c for children. The hotel bar at the Point will be closed that day and everything will be looked after in true Endeavour style. The sail down our beautiful river is hard to beat even in this favoured district, and we feel sure that many will avail themselves of the pleasure of this delightful sail.

CLEVELAND.

Rev. J. Z. Taylor, chairman committee of '94, says, "All things are now ready. The work of providing for the entertainment of the 13th International Convention of Christian Endeavour has been a delight." He speaks thus to all Christian Endeavourers who read this. "You cannot afford to miss this convention. It promises to be the largest and best ever held in the history of the Christian Endeavour movement. Word comes in from every quarter that arrangements are being made for larger delegations than ever before. Delegation managers find that their first estimates were too low, and they write for more accommodations. Railway and steamboat lines are making most favourable rates. No pains or expense is being spared in preparing the programme. The best speakers are being secured. There will be nothing dull or second rate from the opening rallies on Wednesday evening, July 11th. to the closing convention service on Sunday evening July 15th. The music will be a great feature. Everything is being done to make this the very best convention it is possible to have. You cannot afford to miss it. It is the opportunity of a lifetime. Times may be hard and money scarce, or there may be some other place of interest you have been planning to visit or—well, it matters not what your excuse may be, the fact still remains, you cannot afford to miss the great International Convention of Christian Endeavour to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, July 11th to 15th, 1894. Come prepared to get the greatest possible good out of it. Send a two cent postage stamp for our map of Cleveland. Study it. Leave every care behind, but bring your sweetest disposition. Thousands of people will be here and you know there are some inconveniences in a great crowd. Expect that. Don't worry. Bring your best friends with you. Have a note book, so that you will not have to depend upon your memory for the thousand and one things you will wish to remember. Make spiritual preparation for the convention. Remember its deep and vast religious purpose. Pray God's blessing upon it. Seek to make it fruitful in good to others as well as to yourself. Come to the opening meeting and remain for the closing service. All things are now ready, we wait to welcome you.

LAKEFIELD LOCAL UNION.

The E. L. of C. E., the B. Y. P. U. of C. E., and the Presbyterian Society of C. E., held a very helpful social gathering in the Methodist Church, on Thursday evening, May 17th. The Rev. Mr. Bartlett, pastor of the Methodist church, presided in his usual happy manner. The main object of the gathering was the election of officers for the Local Union of Christian Endeavor.

The Secretary of the nominating committee read the following report of nominated officers:—President, Mrs. (Rev.) McDonald; Vice-Presidents, the Presidents of the several societies, viz. Miss Sherm of the Methodist church, Mr. Girvin of the Baptist, Mr. Benson of the Presbyterian, and the pastors of the churches represented by the societies; Sec.-Treas., Miss Duff. The report was adopted and the newly-elected president welcomed. The programme of work for the evening was well carried out. Special mention should be made of an address to C. E. by A. R. McDonald, B. A., on "An Open Bible." In a few strong, well-chosen and impressive words he urged a more intelligent knowledge of the book as a whole. From it and it alone can we receive inspiration and help for life's varied and manifold duties. It should be our daily food. We should seek to know the book.

Misses Hendren, Fitzgerald, White and Galvin added much to the pleasure of the evening by their well-chosen and beautifully rendered musical selections.

A standing vote of thanks was accorded Rev. Mr. Bartlett for the able manner in which he presided and for the unique, tastefully arranged and neatly executed programme he prepared for the occasion.

The Mizpah Benediction brought a pleasant social evening to a close.

The meeting was marked throughout by a warm, brotherly feeling, which should be a characteristic of all Christian Endeavour gatherings.

I. DUFF, sec.-treas.

THE SOCIAL PART OF OUR PICNIC.

A meeting of the social committees of the respective societies is called for Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in the parlours of the Young Men's Christian Associations for the purpose of discussing some form of programme for our picnic. It is my desire that all societies should be well represented. Come and bring a couple of ideas along with you.

ST. PAUL'S SOCIETY.

The meeting on Monday night was fairly well attended considering the unfavorable weather. Mr. W. F. Nelson took the topic and read a very practicable paper bearing on the subject. The meeting throughout was lively and very instructive every active member taking part. Beside the Monday night meeting the society has a prayer meeting on Sunday mornings at 10.30 attended by old and young, and a very profitable half hour is spent in prayer and song.

JUNIOR JOTTINGS.

The Junior rally in Toronto, Friday evening, was a great success. The pavilion was crowded and over 2500 children were present. Out of 32 societies that attended 8 were represented by their full membership. We do not expect as many at our meeting next Saturday, but there is no reason why the proportion should not be large. May we urge the parents and friends of the children to make an effort to be present. It is disappointing, not only to the Superintendents, but to the boys and girls to find little apparent interest taken in their work. We think the programme will please you. The members of the Y. P. S. C. E. should also do what they can to encourage their younger brothers and sisters. Some of you don't know what they are doing perhaps. You will be specially interested then in the two minute reports. You can also help see that every member of your Junior Society is present. Remember the meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on Saturday, May 26th, at 4 p. m. If your society has not got a Junior Branch then try and arrange to have your Pastor and other workers present. Try and arrange this anyhow.

The Wakefield Presbyterians Juniors of Germantown Penn., have a famous Superintendent, no less a person than Miss G. R. Alden, better known under the name of "Pansy," who has moved to that city.

Take K. D. C. Pills when a laxative is required.

ORMEMEE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Sunday services were considerably interfered with owing to the rain. Mr. MacKay will preach on the Campbell heresy subject next Sabbath.

The Cardwell House is making extensive preparations for the 24th of May to entertain visitors from Peterborough and other places.

We hear Mr. Jno. Sheridan was reappointed village constable. Peace and good order may be expected, or the boys will have to pay dear for their fun.

Farmers are busy bringing their hogs and other live stock to the Peterborough market.

The Omemee band, recently organized, promises to be one of the best in any village in the Dominion, and will discourse sweet music all day on the 24th of May.

Political matters are quiet as yet. Mr. Thurston is the candidate for East Victoria, a Patron of Industry man. Mr. Carnegie, son of Mr. J. Carnegie, Peterborough, is the Conservative candidate. A keen contest is looked forward to.

The Italian camp at Doube's bridge has been disbanded for the present for want of coal to run the engine.

We hope to see a large number by drive and bicycle attend the 24th of May celebration. Bicyclists from Lindsay, Millbrook and Bobcaygeon are expected to contest, also Bobcaygeon and Chemong canoeists in acquatic sports.

In all cases, where a mild but effective aperient is needed, Ayer's Pills are the best. They improve the appetite, restore healthy action, promote digestion, and regulate every function. No pills is in greater demand, or more highly recommended by the profession.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The recent heavy rains have caused the water in the river to rise considerably. It has also done a vast amount of good for the farmers in this vicinity as the crops were rather backward owing to the small amount of rain that has fallen this spring.

Messrs. P. P. Young, Wm. McFarlane and P. A. Kearney were in Ottawa during the past week. They went down as delegates from this place with the deputation that waited on the Government urging the advisibility of the speedy construction of the Trent Valley Canal. Of course they returned with the old story that a sum would be placed in the estimates at once to construct at least one section of the canal. We only hope that their words may come true but time will tell.

Two of our energetic young men have embarked in a new enterprise, namely, the lumber business. We are sorry to say that they were rather unfortunate at the start as a block of their logs broke loose in one of the heavy wind storms of last week, and they have had considerable difficulty in locating the lost timber ever since. They have now quite a large boom in Clear Lake narrows, from which place the steamer Mary Ellen has been engaged to tow them down Clear Lake. We wish them every success in their new undertaking.

The steamer Mary Ellen has been busily engaged during the past two weeks towing wood from Deer Bay to Bridgenorth for W. J. Young from which place he intends drawing it to Peterborough during the coming winter.

The G.T.R. being unable to furnish cars owing to the scarcity of coal the steamer has had to cease towing stone from the Eel's Creek quarry.

Miss Nellie Young is visiting friends in Peterborough.

Miss Maggie Young is confined to the house with a very severe cold.

Master John Lynch, of North Bay, is visiting his aunt here.

Mr. Joseph Kettles, who for the past five years has been in Oscoolo, Mich., and other parts, has returned home to make a short visit with his friends.

A Great Good Fortune.

Mr. C. Leonard, South Boston, Mass., writes: "I have suffered a great deal from dyspepsia the last five years; have tried about everything but with little benefit. Having the good fortune to hear of K. D. C. I thought I would try it; it worked wonders in my case, and I am now as well as ever. I earnestly recommend it to all those suffering from Dyspepsia or indigestion. Try it and you will be convinced."

Dyspepsia causes Dizziness, Headache, Constipation, Variable Appetite, Rising and Souring of Food, Palpitation of the Heart, Distress after Eating. Burdock Blood Bitters are guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia, if faithfully used according to directions.

Every Lady Uses It.

Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses for her chapped hands or lips as it effectually cures in every instance. Try it. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

Skin Diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B. B. B. cures the following Skin Diseases: Shingles, Erysipelas, Itching Rashes, Salt Rheum, Scald Head; Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, by removing all impurities from the blood from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore.

NERVE BEANS

NERVE BEANS are a new discovery that cures the worst cases of Nervous Debility, Lost Vigor, Failing Manhood; restores the weakness of body or mind caused by over-work, or the errors of youth. FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Picnic in Norwood.

Grand picnic in Norwood on the 24th of May. Music and dancing platform are provided. The many friends of Rev. Father Conway who reside in Peterborough will be given an opportunity to enjoy themselves on that day. The picnic will be held in Mr. Roxburgh's grove. Single fare by C.P.R. Caledonian games for good prizes. Good platform and good music for dancing. All are invited to come. 1d

The performance of Gorton's Minstrels is strictly refined, entirely fit from start to finish for a lady audience. It is a white minstrel organization and should not be confounded with the coloured minstrel companies that run out now and then and make a living off Mr. Gorton's well earned reputation as "The New Orleans Minstrels." Gold band free open air concert at 12.30 day of performance, Monday, May 28th, at Hunter and George streets. Parade to follow at 1 p.m. Popular prices.

Lakefield Pic-nic.

A large crowd is expected at the pic-nic in Lakefield on the 24th of May. Many in town are speaking of going out. The celebration will take place on the exhibition grounds, where a varied programme of athletic sports and games will entertain all—old and young. Should the weather prove unfavourable, ample accommodation may be found in the spacious exhibition building on the grounds. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., will address the gathering in the afternoon. Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Train leaves G. T. R. station at 8.55 a.m. and 1.15 p.m. A special train will leave Lakefield at 7.30 p.m., so that all may reach home at a seasonable hour. Return tickets 35 cents. 2d120

PETERBOROUGH LODGE BECOMES OF AGE.

FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH

Successful "At Home" of Lodge Number 111.

A Magnificent Set of Jewels Presented—Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., Takes the Chair—Address by Grand Secretary King—A Most Pleasing Programme—Dancing.

Peterborough Lodge's "At Home," in commemoration of the twenty-first anniversary of its creation, is now a thing of the past, but the knowledge of the great success attained will long remain a pleasant memory in the minds of those who were accorded the privilege of attending. About 600 invitations were issued and, including the members of the lodge, there must have been present, among them being quite a number of visitors from out of town.

Early in the evening the large lodge room, in which chairs had been placed, was filled to the doors, even the platform being utilized for seating room. The inner anteroom and hall leading to the lodge room were also crowded with guests anxious to hear at least portions of what was being said and done. Many gave up the attempt to obtain positions within hearing distance of those who occupied the platform during the course of the evening and took seats around the card tables in the reception room and passed the earlier part of the evening in playing euchre and pedro.

All the rooms were most tastefully decorated with flags and bunting for the occasion, and potted plants and cut flowers were profusely distributed around the window sills, in the corners and on the platform. They were supplied by Florist Frank Wise.

The magnificent suite of apartments now occupied by the lodge, jointly with Otonabee, was the subject of universal and pleased comment throughout the evening. The visitors had nothing but praise to give, as every detail, as arranged for, has been carried out to perfection. The selection of the different tints for the coloring and papering had been left in the hands of a competent committee, and in their selections they have shown that they were equal to the task imposed upon them.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., occupied the chair and, on behalf of the members of Peterborough Lodge, to the guests who had honoured the occasion with their presence. He said that, as they were aware, Peterborough Lodge had reached its majority—this gathering being for the purpose of assisting the brethren in celebrating the twenty-first anniversary of the inauguration of the lodge. Most families held gatherings for congratulations and festivities on the arrival of the son and heir at the important stage of twenty-one years, and Peterborough Lodge having come of age, they were met to offer hearty congratulations, both upon the fact that the twenty-first year had been reached and also upon the fact that unexampled prosperity had characterized the score and one years it had filled an honoured place in the ranks of beneficent and fraternal societies. The speaker referred to the phenomenally rapid and substantial growth of Oddfellowship on this continent. Seventy four years ago the first lodge of Oddfellows was established in Baltimore, with a membership that could be counted on the fingers on one hand. To-day the order numbered nearly a million. This extraordinary growth could be accounted for only on the grounds that the principles of the order appealed to the higher instincts of our nature—the desire to enjoy social intercourse, and to make human sympathy a practical help to the brethren and those dependent upon them. The tree was rooted in deep and true soil and thus it grew and flourished like the Scriptural green bay tree. The three links that bound this great fraternity together—were founded upon principles that every true Oddfellow carried out in his daily life. They were not mere lodge room ornaments and emblems, like the jewels of the officers, but were every day implements for working out in practice the great principles of the order. Reference was made to the growth in Peterborough of the order, and this growth was not represented alone by numbers, but also by the character of the membership. It would be remembered that the late W. H. Scott was a member of Peterborough Lodge when he was elected a member to the Legislative Assembly, that Mr. James Stevenson, M. P., for West Peterborough for 8 years, is a member of the Otonabee Lodge, and another member of Peterborough Lodge—"your humble servant" had been the representative of West Peterborough for two terms, and the membership of the lodge counts on its books representatives of every walk in life—every trade, calling or profession. During the past twenty-one years 428 candidates had been initiated and the lodge to-day had a membership of 242. This apparent deficit of 186 can be accounted for by withdrawals and deaths, but it was not to be thought that these withdrawals represented a loss to the order in general—many of them had removed and joined other lodges, and many others with true missionary zeal had gone to benighted communities that did not enjoy such blessings and established Oddfellowship there; others had passed away, it was hoped, to the Grand Lodge above. Of the charter members of the lodge, Bro. Elder was in California, Bros. Walton and Mitchell are in Manitoba, and Bro. Quincey is in Chicago, Bros. Foote, Green, Hinchcliffe and A. J. Johnson, three pioneer members of No. 111, were present. Bros. W. H. Scott and S. White, charter members, were dead. During the first three years of Peterborough lodge no draft had been made upon the funds of the lodge, but in the past eighteen years there had been paid in sick benefits the large sum of $3,351.43; for funeral benefits, $408.83; for medical attendance, $1,429.50; for special aid, $140; for widows and orphans, $252; making a total relief paid of $5,881.76—equivalent to an annual payment for $327. Notwithstanding this large expenditure it that the lodge had a sum on hand to meet possible emergencies of $6,118.42—not including furniture, regalia, etc.; which were a valuable asset. While the total membership of the order was nearly a million the increase last year was over 50,000. In Canada benefits had been paid to the amount of $3,015,979.43, and in the same direction there had been paid by the order at large about sixty-one millions of dollars. Mr. Stratton then read the following letters of regret:

EXTENDED A HEARTY WELCOME

FRENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH

WAS GRATIFYING TO KNOW

LETHBRIDGE, April 26th, 1894.

W. J. Green, Secretary Peterborough Lodge, I. O.O.F., No. 111:

DEAR SIR AND BRO.—I received your invitation to attend the "At Home" celebrating the 21st Anniversary of the institution of No. 111 in Peterborough.

Need I say, it is with regret, (owing to the distance) I am unable to attend. During the years of my absence my thoughts have frequently carried me back to the old times and familiar faces of other days.

I believe I am the Senior Past Grand now in good standing in the lodge, and that yourself, Fred Foote, Billy Hinchcliffe and my brother Alf. are the only members now in good standing who joined in 1873. Many have joined us since that time. Some of these have passed the portals of the tomb. Each day, each year, we leave behind us an influence for good or evil. How have the living and the dead been influenced by our lives? We are taught that death is the common lot of all. Should we not therefore improve the opportunities lying around us and try to help our brethern and teach them to look to our Heavenly Father for guidance in the journey of life.

When thinking of by-gone days in the old lodge rooms on Water and Simcoe streets, I recall many pleasant meetings and many laughable scenes, and yet one cannot help thinking of those who have gone out from us. We had with us in those days our first Noble Grand, the eloquent W. H. Scott, and the genial and business-like Samuel White (both now deceased) and brothers who have since been scattered far apart.

After a few years in that lodge room we moved to the Cox block on George street where our membership was greatly increased.

Since I left in 1882 you appear to have had the right kind of men to take the reins, for the lodge has made such rapid strides, that if I were to return I would feel like Rip Van Winkle, unknown and knowing none.

Wishing that you may have a pleasant time and that No. 111 as well as Otonabee Lodge may grow and prosper.

I remain yours in F. L. & T.
GEO. H. JOHNSTON.

BOX H, GILBERTVILLE, MASS.,
April 24th, 1894.

To W. J. Green, Secretary of Anniversary "At Home" Committee, Peterborough Lodge No. 111:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Your kind invitation and souvenir badge received, for which please accept my heartiest thanks. I am very sorry to say I cannot be with you on the evening of the 21st birthday of old 111, but if I cannot be present in body I shall be with you in memory and heart.

It is without the least egotism or flattery when I tell you, in all my visits to lodges in the U.S. there has not been a single one of them that could excel in floor work—your initiation and degree work is A No. 1, none better. Of course there are some grand lodge rooms and they have beautiful regalia and splendid music, but they lack in patience and training, everything is American, all done in a rush; they want to give you all for your money—three degrees in one night.

When I recall the very happy hours I have spent in Lodge 111, I do so with pleasant feelings, that carries me back to Peterborough and the dear fellows and brothers, all of whom I hold in the highest esteem and regard. Give my respects to all inquiring friends and brothers. With best wishes for your further success and happiness and that you may all live to see Peterborough Lodge 111 have its 42nd birthday.

Yours in F.L. and T.,
FENWICK UMPLEBY.

TYRONE, ONT., May 11th, 1894.

To W. J. Green, Secretary of Committee:

DEAR SIR AND BRO.—Your kind invitation to attend the "At Home" in the Oddfellows Hall in commemoration of the 21st anniversary of Peterborough lodge, No. 111 was received by me on May 8th.

What a desire filled my heart to be present on that convivial occasion! How I would like to be present at your "At Home" and enjoy old faces and friends once more! but, alas, I cannot. "Duty must be done," and on the evening of the 22nd the ministers of Bowmanville district are assembled in Orono; therefore, as one of their number I must be there.

Kindly convey to the brethren my sincere thanks and best wishes for their future welfare. Oftentimes I feel sorry that I am so far away from my old friends in Peterborough. "Peterborough is but a name, yet I feel, where e'er I roam, that my heart is still the same. Peterborough is still my home."

As a society we have much to be grateful to Almighty God for. A little over one-fifth of a century He has smiled upon us, and His hallowed streams have flowed in our hearts, and as brethren our souls have bathed in the noontide love of God.

No society in this great land of ours has done more to alleviate pain, to provide for the widow and orphan, and to perform over and over again that kind Samaritan act than have the members of this society.

Oh! what a society ours is for the uplifting of humanity. May God in His infinite wisdom use us more than ever for His honour and His glory.

And now, friends assembled, permit me to say, ere you leave these attractive rooms, "To all, to each, a fair good-night, and pleasing dreams and slumbers light."

Yours in F., L. and T.,
A. J. HARVEY STRIKE.

MODESTO, CAL., May 16th, 1894.

W. J. Green, Peterborough, Ont.

DEAR BRO. GREEN,—Your favour of the 9th inst., inclosing badge and invitation to be with you at your At Home, on the 22nd, was duly received. If I was within a hundred miles of Peterborough I would be with you sure, but as it is, all I can do is to wish No. 111 success and a pleasant evening. Remember me to all the boys that used to know me twenty-one years ago. Thanking you for your invitation, I am,

Yours Fraternally,
ROBERT ELDER.

MEDICINE HAT, May 18, 1894.

To the Officers and Members of Peterborough Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 111:

DEAR SIRS AND BROS,—I regret very much that I am unable to attend an "At Home" on the eve of the 22nd inst., being your 21st anniversary. I can assure you it gives me pleasure to know that I am not forgotten when you have your gatherings in commemoration of a lodge which I may say I was one of its founders and I am pleased that the lodge stands to-day in such a proud position. No doubt some of the members will be present at this grand assembly who at the organization of the lodge will remember the difficulties we experienced in getting started, but I am happy to say that we worked together in harmony, and the members to-day may well feel proud of belonging to a lodge which has done so much good. May God bless and protect you all and give you strength to continue at your noble work. With best wishes on behalf of myself and family for your future prosperity.

I remain, yours fraternally,
EDG. WALTON.

CHICAGO, May 14th, 1894.

To W. J. Green, Sec'y Peterborough Lodge No. 111, Peterborough, Ont.

MY DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—I am in receipt of your kind invitation to attend an "At Home" of Peterborough Lodge No. 111, in commemoration of the Twenty First Anniversary of the Lodge, Tuesday, evening, May 22nd. It is hardly necessary for me to assure you and my brothers of your Lodge how deeply I regret being compelled to send regrets. The opportunity recently offered me to visit you in your Lodge was greatly enjoyed. To see many of the old faces, to receive the same old grip, full of honour and brotherly affection, left no uncertainty that came from the heart, and words of welcome coming from the lips of friends of by gone days, reminded me of the poet's thoughts as he visited the school of his boyhood days:

"The same old bricks are in the walls
The bell swings to and fro.
Its music just the same dear boys
As twenty years ago."

Congratulations cannot be showered upon you more than you deserve. Success has crowned your efforts and to-day you are indeed a credit to your Order, to your City, to those who were instrumental in laying the foundation stone of your Lodge, and last by no means the least, a credit for yourselves, and the honour of men and the blessing of The Father, I pray will ever be your portion in the future as it has been in the past.

The material good Peterborough Lodge No. 111 has done, you can find by a glance at your books of account, but the great benefits bestowed by a kind word, a cordial welcome, a helping hand in time of trouble, all of those "little deeds of kindness" known only to those who enacted them, will only be rewarded when you have passed from this lodge room to the one beyond, and hear the Supreme Noble Grand say "inasmuch as you have done it to one of these, you have done it unto Me."

My brothers, time has not only brought you joy and success, but it has also brought you sorrow. I look over the old membership roll and find many whose names have been transferred to the Book of Life. Among those who were instrumental in forming your lodge, and have passed over the river, the names of Hon. W. H. Scott and Mr. Samuel White come to me to-day in all the strength of my memory. The former, our wise counsel brilliant, powerful and courteous. The latter, active, forcible and positive, characteristics necessary to bring to a successful issue any enterprise into which they could be brought. Without detracting from my co-laborers, who were charter members, I may truly state that to those two men you owe your success. Our lodge at the start was composed of young men, and they brought us through many difficulties, which, if left to our younger minds and limited experience, no doubt would have resulted in a much less degree of success, and as one who personally benefitted by their advice and wisdom, to-day I strew the Forget-me-nots of love and affection upon their graves, and now and forever, as I know you will, cherish in memory the lives of both.

Often have I thought of the lessons learned in the old lodge room. When away from home and friends, the cheering words of a brother would come to my mind, and with new vigor and firm resolution I take a new hold in the battle of life. My brothers you are doing to-day what the old members did twenty-one years ago. You are schooling some brother or brothers for life's great battle. Are you doing it well? Are you patient? Are you charitable? Are you forgiving? When the little differences of opinion arise, are you willing to bend in order that harmony may exist? If you are, you are the "true" Oddfellow. See to it that the silver cords of Friendship, Love and Truth are woven in your lives, that when you are bound to others, no power will break the links which bind us on both this and the other side of the grave.

It has been my desire to have your lodge receive some memento from me to show the members that while we are separate in the flesh, we are present in the spirit and as I learn you are about to enter your new abode, I feel that the time has come on this your twenty-first anniversary to take this opportunity of presenting the lodge with this set of Officers' Jewels and Gavel, trusting that they will ever be used by as honourable men in the future as have officered the lodge since its beginning. Accept these with love, friendship and truth to the old friends and the new. Wishing the lodge prosperity and the members long life, peace and happiness, I remain as ever,

Yours fraternally,
T. S. QUINCEY.

After reading Mr. Quincey's letter, Mr. Stratton in a few remarks suitable to the occasion, presented through Bro. W. J. Green to Bro. John White, Noble Grand for Peterborough lodge, a full set of magnificent officers' jewels and ebony gavel, the whole being of great value, both intrinsically and on account of the evidence of loyalty to old Peterborough lodge exhibited by Bro. Quincey, who in the far west, where his interests are materially centred, still has a warm corner of his heart for his Peterborough brethren and friends.

Bro. White, in a neat little speech on behalf of the lodge, accepted the splendid gift, expressing the pleasure it afforded him to do so. It was not necessary for him to say much in Mr. Quincey's praise. All knew that he was a true Oddfellow as well as a jolly good fellow, and that his gifts came from his heart as well as his pocket. Bro. White's remarks were followed by loud and long continued applause.

Mr. Stratton on behalf of Bro. W. J. Green, F. Foote and W. Hinchcliffe, also presented as the contribution to the commemoration of the 21st anniversary, three portraits in crayon, handsomely framed, which decorated the wall that evening, as they do hereafter, a silent memorial of the work of these gentlemen in the interests of Oddfellowship in connection with good old No. 111. In making the presentation Mr. Stratton suggested that it would be a good thing if the Past Noble Grands would follow the good example of these gentlemen and donate their portraits to decorate the walls of the lodge room.

The musical part of the programme was opened by Mr. Mulligan, the new leader of St. Andrew's Church choir, who sang "The Raft" in a way which was most satisfactory and pleasing.

A vocal duet, entitled "In the Starlight," was admirably rendered by Mrs. Mein and Mrs. Johnston. Mrs. Grant followed with a difficult instrumental piano solo, which was executed most skillfully, after which Mr. Jones rendered a violin solo, which was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Mein's vocal solo, "Bittersweet," was a pretty selection and was sung in a most pleasing manner.

The overture and later waltz selection, as played by the Fire Brigade Band Orchestra, under the leadership of Bandmaster Miller, were most excellently rendered. The members of the orchestra are gradually attaining a rare pitch of perfection in the handling of their instruments.

Bro. J. W. King, the indefatigable and veteran Grand Secretary of the order, congratulated the Oddfellows on the acquisition of such and regretted the unavoidable absence of the Grand Master, who he stated was a much more gifted orator than himself. He made a pleasing reference to the fact that the "At Home" was being held in celebration of the 21st anniversary of the creation of Peterborough Lodge and warmly congratulated the members on the pitch of perfection to which they had raised their branch of the Order.

Oddfellowship, he stated, was undoubtedly flourishing in Peterborough and the Order was just as undoubtedly most popular with the citizens, as evidenced by the large number of guests present, among whom he was pleased to notice so many ladies.

He, himself, had been an Oddfellow for 28½ years and was each year becoming more fully convinced of the good work the Order was doing and the absolute necessity for its existence. The results in general attained through membership were then briefly dealt with by the Grand Secretary. He urged the establishment of a Lodge of Rebecca, which, as it was known, enabled the brothers to receive much better care in times of sickness, as a woman's tenderness in a sick room was more fully appreciated than that of the sterner sex. After referring to the principles of the Order, he closed a suitable and neat speech by wishing the members of the lodges in Peterborough the success which their efforts and ambition most certainly entitled them to.

At the close of this part of the programme, the chairman, Mr. Stratton, on behalf of the lodge, invited all to remain and partake of the hospitality of the members. A few minutes later the large doors leading into the spacious dining-room were thrown open and the guests thronged in to refresh the inner man after the intellectual treats of the evening were concluded. The collation was served by Caterers Louis and Hooper and was most excellent and heartily enjoyed. The lodge was and the refreshments were bountifully supplied. The members turned to with a will in their efforts to make their guests feel perfectly at home and looked after the hundreds of visitors in a manner which called forth unstinted praise. Although the dining room is a spacious one, and can accomodate several hundred guests, it was emptied and refilled repeatedly.

The strains of music proceeding from the reception room soon drew large numbers of the younger guests to that apartment where the floor had been previously waxed and was now cleared of tables and chairs for dancing. The first number on the programme was the "I.O.O.F. Circle," and all who could find room on the floor participated in honour of the Lodge, which was entertaining its guests on so munificent a scale. Afterwards came a succession of the usual waltzes, jerseys, etc., and the scene that followed was a bright and gay one indeed, the flashing uniforms of the members of the Canton coming out in strong relief against the more sombre attire of the other gentlemen, while the exquisite toilets of the ladies lent an air of brilliancy, which raised the effect produced to one of unusual beauty.

In the meantime the older people and those not inclined to worship at the feet of the Terpsichorian Goddess, assembled in the large lodge room and spent the remainder of the evening in playing cards and other games.

The committee of management are entitled to the greatest credit for the signal and brilliant success which they attained last night in carrying forward the "At Home" to such a pitch of perfection. The arrangements were perfect in every detail and not a jar of any kind occurred to mar the evening's enjoyment.

Mr. W. J. Green, secretary of the anniversary committee received to-day—too late for publication—two letters of regret from Mr. Geo. L. Mitchell, Winnipeg, and Mr. Harry Rubidge, of Chicago, the former being a charter member of No. 111.

LACROSSE.

The Peterborough senior lacrosse team will be chosen from the following players to compete for the medals at Campbellford tomorrow:—Dobbin, Mein, Heap, McDonald Brown, McCabe, Glover, Phelan, Wasson, Lipsett, Hendren, Lewis, Gaffney, Thompson, Davidson, Borland, Quinn.

In spite of the sloppy weather scores of lacrosse players crossed the river for practice last night. Both the Shamrocks and Peterboroughs will play in the Campbellford tournament and will send strong teams.

The Peterborough's have secured a strong defense man in Mr. J. Macdonald formerly of Cornwall, who has obtained a position in town and will play with the above team for the season.

CRICKET.

Mr. Charles Halliday has chosen the following team to play against the senior eleven of Trinity school, Port Hope, which comes to Peterborough on Saturday next: Messrs. R. B. Rogers, S. Ray, G. J. Horkins C. Halliday, Perry Goldsmith, Thos. Allison Montgomery, Walter Stocker, McKee, W. A. Kenner and Hal. Burnham. Some few changes may yet possibly be made.

A special meeting of the club is called for this evening in Mr. R. B. Rogers' office, to discuss matters of great moment in which the club's position financially and otherwise will be considered. The members are urgently pressed to make a strong effort to be in attendance.

THE GUN.

In a 25 bird match yesterday the following scores were made by members of the gun club:

Rutherford	21	Norris	16
Ray	19	Collins	15
Tivey	17	Neil	14
Bunting	17	Webb	12
James	16	Ferguson	10
Kingan	5

The following members will go to Campbellford on the early train to compete with the gun club there. Messrs. Tivey, James, Neil, Bunting, Collins, Rutherford, Ray, Ferguson, Dayman and Webb.

BASEBALL.

The following team will represent Peterborough in Lindsay to-morrow:—Catchers, O'Brien and Drain; pitchers, Murray and McCabe; 1st base, King; 2nd base, Pomfret; 3rd base, Burnon; short stop, Duckworth; left field, Cathcart; centre field, Evans; right field, Dolan. The boys seem confident of victory, and as the Lindsay team is A-1 in every respect this year a most interesting contest will ensue. An effort should be made to have the Lindsay team play a return match here on Dominion Day.

Mr. W. Madill guarantees every bottle of his Cough Syrup to cure, or money refunded.

Things to Eat.

At this season of the year when the palate grows tired of the ordinary requirements to sustain life, the taste may then suggest to your mind that you try Mason & Co. for canned mushrooms, or a fine pickle which contains just enough spice to render the flavour rich and racy, or some canned corn beef, lunch tongue, ox tongue with canned vegetables.

Makes People Well Quick.

Life is short and if you can strike the right spring medicine at the first shot, time and nerve energy is saved. Three doses a day of that celebrated Sarsaparilla for sale at Lynch's drug store puts you "in fighting trim" in quick order, gives you a strengthened system, a pure skin, a toned liver and pure blood. Lynch's, 108 Hunter street.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

A Beautiful Display.

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

A Flourishing Local Firm.

The firm of J. J. Turner & Co. received a telegram last night from Minneapolis calling for the shipment of half a dozen tents by the 11:40 p. m. train. The order was filled. A large tent capable of covering 500 people was also shipped yesterday to Orillia and another large tent and fancy striped awning was shipped to Campbellford. Belleville has also ordered 300 flags with which to decorate for the reception of the Governor-General. Mr. Turner reports a great rush in the business these days. It is the reward of enterprise and strict attention to business.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL DEPUTATION.

Report of the Board of Trade Delegates.

A meeting of the council of the Board of Trade was held in the committee room of the council chamber on Tuesday evening to receive the report of the delegates of the Board to Ottawa re Trent Valley Canal. Mr. H. S. Macdonald occupied the chair.

A communication was received from the secretary of the Kingston Board of Trade, asking the Peterborough Board to endorse the nomination of Mr. J. Muckleston for the position of post office inspector for the Kingston district now vacant.—Received.

The secretary was instructed to call a meeting of the Board of Trade to consider the measures to be taken re the vote on municipal union.

Mr. A. L. Davis, the delegate representing the Board on the Trent Valley Canal deputation, reported, detailing the movements of the delegation and the interview with the Government. Mr. Haggart had assured the delegation that a section of the Trent Valley Canal would be put under contract this year and that Sir John Thompson, speaking on behalf of the Government, had endorsed Hon. Mr. Haggart's views on this question.

Mr. Fair added that the visit was most satisfactory and the delegation got more than they expected. The report was adopted and the council adjourned.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

DASHED DOWN WITHOUT MERCY.

10 INDISPUTABLE ARGUMENTS WHY GOUGH BROS. CAN, WILL, AND DO BEAT ALL THEIR COMPETITORS:—

I. GOUGH BROS. Buy the Largest Lots, Sell the Largest Quantities, Get the Largest Discounts, and can afford to make the Lowest Prices.

II. GOUGH BROS. clothe both ends of man—from head to foot. They always give a heaped up, pressed down, overflowing measure of value for every dollar spent in their stores.

III. GOUGH BROS. always keep a "bear" among the Clothing Manufacturers, and make prices dance downwards for the benefit of their customers.

IV. GOUGH BROS. form the largest syndicate of Clothing dealers in Canada. They own Clothing, Hats, Boots and Shoes, secured on contracts, made at prices that cannot be repeated.

V. GOUGH BROS.' buying power commands for their customers the Lowest Prices for everything, whether people know the values or not, and this is the mainspring for the ever-rapid movement of their merchandise.

VI. GOUGH BROS. select the cream from all the manufacturers, in a falling market, for their syndicate of stores. Ceaseless selling means ceaseless supplies, and their command of the market creates extraordinary bargains.

VII. GOUGH BROS. sell Clothing at prices that actually do not represent the cost of labour in making, or the bare material.

VIII. GOUGH BROS. have in stock piles of All Wool Suits made from Auburn Woollen Mill Tweed, which can be bought for less money than was paid for the seven yards of cloth to make the suit.

IX. GOUGH BROS. know that when wheat, cotton and wool must be sold for next to nothing, Clothing must be sold for next to nothing also, and they keep watch for snaps for their customers.

X. GOUGH BROS. have no hankering for being "Manufacturers of Clothing." They can do better. Just as wheat can be bought for 60c. a bushel, at a loss to the farmer, so Clothing can be bought at Gough Bros'. at a loss to the manufacturer.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

A GENTLE CORRECTIVE

is what you need when your liver becomes inactive. It's what you get when you take Dr. Pierce's Pellets; they're free from the violence and the griping that come with the ordinary pill. All medical authorities agree that in regulating the bowels mild methods are preferable. For every trouble of the liver, stomach and bowels, these tiny, sugar-coated pills are most effective. They go about their work in an easy and natural way, and their good lasts — they strengthen and tone up the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, thereby promoting digestion. Sick and Bilious Headache, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Dizziness, are prevented, relieved, and permanently cured. They're the cheapest pill for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. H. T. Buck is making considerable improvements on his residence on Peterborough street. A wind mill has been erected, which with a tank will furnish waterworks to spray the lawn. The house has been wired throughout for electric light. It is also receiving a coat of fresh paint on the outside.

The brick work of Mr. Jas. Cumming's house, Belmont street, has been completed and the roof put on.

The pupils of our High School may now be recognized by their badges. Some time ago a committee was appointed to select colours for the school and they have chosen dark green with a narrow band of red on each side. The Latin students of the school also have their colours, being a light blue with a strip of dark blue on each side.

Last Wednesday evening, during the excitement of a fire at J. Finlay's factory, several lamps were left standing in Mr. C. Hetherington's house on a table, all the family having run to the fire. While they were away one of the lamps exploded and set fire to the table and wall. Mr. R. Payne happened to be passing, and noticing the flames, ran in and extinguished the blaze. In a very few minutes the fire would have been beyond control, but happily no serious damage was done.

The Norwood High School is sending up the names of sixty candidates for the coming departmental examinations in July, distributed as follows: Six for matriculation—part for honors; eighteen for junior leaving or second class certificates and thirty-six primary candidates. This is the largest number writing in the school in any one year. It is to be hoped this popular institution will continue to hold the enviable position it has for some time maintained among the schools of the province.

Rev. M. Scott, of Campbellford, will dispense the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Rev. J. Cragg, of Trent Bridge, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Buchanan, of the Methodist church.

Mr. R. C. H. Sinclair, B.A., formerly pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Bay City, Mich., is the guest of Rev. J. A. McDonald, B.A., at the Manse. Mr. Sinclair conducted special services on the evenings of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. J. B. Pearce, reeve, attended the Trent Valley Canal convention in Ottawa last week as a delegate from the village council.

A meeting of the supporters of Mr. Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., will be held next Monday evening in his committee rooms in Baskin's block, opposite the town hall.

Last Thursday a cow belonging to Mr. Henry Herring escaped from the pasture field and got on the railway track. It crossed the cattle guard and was struck by the 4 o'clock train which come along a few minutes after. It was knocked about five rods and instantly killed.

A number of our crack shots have been shooting at a loon on our little lake, but the loon swims yet.

A district missionary convention was held Thursday under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church. A number of delegates were present from the surrounding district. In the evening a very interesting address was given by Miss Munroe, a returned missionary from Japan, on the schools established there, the customs of the people and the rise of Christianity. Mrs. Kendry, of Peterborough, was also present, but owing to the lateness of the hour did not speak as expected.

The annual meeting of the members of the Mechanics' Institute was held in the rooms on Wednesday evening of last week. The following officers were elected for the year:

Honorary President—J. B. Pearce.
President—W. P. Plant.
Vice-President—W. Ebbs
Secretary and Treasurer—D. Booth.

Directors—P. W. Reynolds, J. Pengelly, J. G. Keefer, A. R. Anderson, Geo. Duffield, R. Nicoll, Wm. Rutherford, Dr. Ford, Thos. Rork. A meeting of the directors was held Monday evening, the President in the chair. Messrs. Pearce, Keefer, and the Secretary were appointed a committee and empowered to purchase papers and magazines from the following with power to enlarge the list:—Montreal Daily Star, Daily Mail, Register Grip, Dominion Illustrated, Ladies' Home Journal, Harper's Weekly, Review of Reviews, Peterborough weekly Review & Examiner. The directors constituted themselves a committee to canvass the town for members. The secretary was empowered to call in all books which have been outstanding for long periods.

It is expected that the Hon. G. W. Ross will visit the school here about the first of June and deliver addresses on education. The Board of Education are making preparations for his reception.

Wednesday evening of last week a fire was seen at the eastern end of the village. The alarm was given and the engine brought out. In the meantime a fire was discovered on the roof of Finlay's factory and after some trouble the fire company were turned and went to the factory. They arrived too late however as the fire had already been put out with pails. The other fire was found afterwards to be nothing but a swamp.

A Chance for the Miners.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 23.—All the bituminous coal miner operators in the Central Pennsylvania or Clearfield and Allied districts met here and voted unanimously to give their men until May 28 to return to work. If they do not then come back at the old rate of 40 cents a ton the operators will throw open their mines to whoever seeks employment, and will protect the workers by every means in their power. Between 10,000 and 12,000 miners are employed in these districts, and though they have been out of work for five weeks have had no help from the outside and are suffering much. The operators think more than half of the men will return to work if not interfered with.

A Shot at Col. Breckenridge.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 23.—The resolution bearing on the Breckenridge case was reported back to the Presbyterian general assembly by the committee on bills and overtures, to which it was referred and passed without opposition. The resolution makes no direct reference to Col Breckenridge, but is a pronounced declaration for purity in the lives of church members, and expresses condemnation of those who do violence to the seventh commandment.

Disturbances in Transylvania.

VIENNA, May 23.—Two battalions of troops have been sent to Blassendorf Transylvania to quell the riotous disturbances of the Roumanians at that point. The trouble grew out of the recent trial of Roumanian "Patriots" for treason at Klausenburg.

Centre Bruce Nominations.

WALKERTON, May 23.—At the Centre Bruce Liberal convention held at Glammes yesterday, W. M. Dack was nominated as the party candidate in the coming election. Mr. Macdonald is the Patron candidate in the riding and it is expected the P.P.A. party will bring out a candidate in a few days.

Canadian Wins at Tentpegging.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Lieut. Quincy, formerly of Belleville, Ont., won the Tattersall's gold medal for tentpegging, and the Murray gold medal for tilting the rings at the Hussar tournament last evening.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 23, 1894.

Local security market is quiet and firm.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Business very dull, owing to unfavorable weather, and prices are nominal.

Cables from Liverpool report receipts of cattle light, with the tone of the market firmer. Finest steers 10c, and good to choice 9½c.

Chicago wheat market was unsettled. Lower cables and contradictory reports as to damage by frost led to this condition. The close showed a loss of ½c for the day. Corn closed easy. Oats were active, closing ½c above yesterday.

At the London wool sales the better parcels sold readily. Melbourne and Victoria greasies were in active demand by continental buyers and cross breeds sold readily, especially to Yorkshire buyers. Some of the best New South Wales scoured wools were brought in. There was also keen bidding for Queensland scoured wools.

At the Buffalo cattle market outside of some held over stock there was nothing offering and the hold overs were of classes not wanted. Trade nearly nominal. Sheep and lambs—Twelve cars on sale; steady to firm; good to best wethers, $4 to $4.40; fair to good mixed, $3.25 to $3.35; good to fancy lambs, $4.40 to $4.65; good to extra spring lambs, $5 to $7.

American Sugar proved to be the sensation at the New York stock exchange, fully 93,000 shares having been traded in. The stock opened at 96½, advanced to 97⅛, fell to 95¼, jumped to 100, receded to 97⅛ and closed at 99⅛. The rise was due in part to reports from Washington that the sugar schedule will pass the Senate as incorporated in the so-called Gorman bill. Chicago Gas was also active. The railway list was weak in the early trading in sympathy with London.

Don't Forget

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old

EXCELSIOR

Life Insurance Company.

HEAD OFFICE, - TORONTO

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING-DIRECTOR,
E. F. CLARKE, Ex-Mayor of Toronto

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the report of the business for 1893 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.
Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891, 61 per cent
Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 37 per cent.
Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1891:—

Excelsior Life,	415%	North American Life,	125%
Dominion Life,	301 "	London Life,	118 "
Federal Life,	144 "	Sun Life,	114 "
Manufac'rs' Life,	144 "	Confederation Life,	113 "
		Tem'ce and Gen'l,	144 "
		Canada Life,	113 "
		Ontario Mutual	105%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, 1st, as low a death rate; 2nd, as low a ratio of expenses. See our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bonds before insuring elsewhere.

SCROFULA
CURED BY
B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

A ROUNDABOUT CALL.

Waking a Sleepy Operator by a Cable Dispatch.

There is a good story about a telegraph operator who once worked the land wires in the Duxbury (Mass.) cable office, going to sleep one night and a message having to be sent 6,000 or 7,000 miles to wake him up. The operator is now a practicing physician in Cambridge, Mass., but before annexing M. D. to his name was one of the gilt-edge telegraphers of the country.

One night while on duty in the Duxbury office, he fell asleep at his key. The sleep was a sound one. The New York operator called till out of patience, when he sent a message to Boston requesting the chief operator in charge to tell Duxbury to answer New York. The sleeper, however was as deaf to Boston's "Di," "Di," as to the impatient characters flashed on from New York.

In the cable-room next the sleeping operator was the cable artist. The room was dark and he was watching the mirror for the tiny sparks that in those days went to make up a message. To him the Morse alphabet was all Greek, so the sleeper slept on.

Seeing no other way out of the muddle and thinking the operator asleep. New York called Canso in Nova Scotia, and addressed a message to the cable operator at Duxbury. The message read:

"Go into the other room and wake up that operator."

Canso sent it to Heart's Content in Newfoundland; Heart's Content rushed it across to London, thence to Dover, and across the Channel to Calais and to Brest. Brest kept it moving on to Miquelon, and Miquelon gave the cable operator at Duxbury a unique surprise. The sleeper was then aroused, about eleven minutes having been taken by the grand round of the cablegram. He tried to explain matters by telling New York that he was out of adjustment. The story didn't impress the officials as being truthful, and in a day or two there was a vacancy in Duxbury.—Donohue's Magazine.

The man who is full of expedients is the one who gets along in the world. If what he wants is not at hand, something else is substituted, and matters progress as though every facility were available.

This applies especially in mechanics, where it is impossible to provide a tool for everything, and when just the tool required—even though there be such a tool—is not at hand.

Our artist recently saw a mechanic who, desiring to unscrew a pipe, and not having pipe tongs or any of the usual appliances for such work, picked up a wrench and a piece of a round file and applied them in the manner shown in the out. In an instant, and without difficulty, the pipe was loosened.—Scientific American.

Iron Ore on the Dutiable List at Forty Cents a Ton.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—During the session of the Senate eight items of the metal schedule were disposed of. The most important of them being that which puts iron ore on the dutiable list at the rate of forty cents a ton. This item has been discussed for the greater part of two days and was eventually agreed to without a division and by a practically unanimous vote a proposition to make the rate sixty cents a ton having been laid on the table by a vote of 32 to 21. This result was not reached until after a couple of hours discussion, during which a good many bitter remarks were exchanged between the opposite sides of the chamber.

The most noticeable speech of the day was one made by Mr. Teller (Rep., Col.,) in which he discountenanced the practice of taunting Democratic Senators with inconsistency. They had explained, he said, the cause of their inconsistency and their defence was absolute and perfect. He declared that he would join them in putting the bill through in the best possible shape, that the bill was ample for the protection of American industries, and that it was a better bill than he had expected, or that any which the Republican side of the chamber had hoped to get.

Three Young Men Drowned.

STE. ARMAND, Que., May 23.—Three young men named George Spaulding, an engineer on the Philipsburg Junction railway, Chester Fleming and Wm. Symms, went out boating on Missisquoi bay on Sunday. On Monday, as none of them had put in an appearance at their homes, search was begun and has been going on ever since, without revealing their whereabouts. It is quite certain they were drowned, as the boat, sail, oars, etc., were found on the sandbar near the mouth of Pike river. No one, however, saw the accident and there is no trace of the bodies. When the boat and sail were found they were at quite a distance from each other and the former was overturned. The sail boat when last seen was making its way towards Jamieson's Point, near which place it was found on Monday. Fleming was a married man, the other two unmarried. All three were steady, industrious men.

Dow Dies of His Injuries.

HAMILTON, May 23.—David Dow, contractor, who fell 30 feet from the second storey to the basement of a house on Hess street on Saturday, died yesterday from his injuries. It was strongly suspected that Dow tried to commit suicide, as his throat was badly cut by a handsaw, but during his conscious moments before death he assured his family that the injuries were received from the fall and he did not attempt to take his own life.

Run Over by a Train.

OTTAWA, May 23.—George Hagan, a five-year-old son of James Hagan, of the Inland Revenue Department, was run over by a train on the Canada Atlantic railway at the Bank street crossing yesterday afternoon, and died from the injuries received a few hours afterwards. The lad was returning from school at the time the accident occurred. The cars ran over one of his legs, which was afterwards amputated.

East Kent Reformers.

RIDGETOWN, May 23.—A convention of Liberals for East Kent was held here yesterday. Mr. Robert Ferguson of Thamesville was unanimously chosen as the candidate to contest the coming provincial elections. Hon. R. Harcourt and W. D. Balfour, M.P.P., were present and addressed the meeting.

Drowning in Gull Lake.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., May 23.—Thomas P. Kenyon, a well-known character about town for many years, while going up Gull lake with Hugh Wylie was upset and drowned. Wylie clung to the boat and drifted ashore.

ACCOUNTING THE LOSS.

Deluged Districts Estimating the Damage Done by the Flood.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—Now that telegraphic communication has been practically restored to all points in the State, an estimate of the damage done by the flood of the past three days can be made. Reports received from all parts of the State, with the exception of Johnstown, show that the flood is going down. At Johnstown it rained heavily yesterday and fresh torrents are pouring down from the mountain and again swelling the Conmaugh and threatening another overflow. Williamsport emerged from beneath the water today and took an account of the damage done. The loss in that city and Lycoming county is about $3,000,000.

Lockhaven was also badly washed out and there, as at Williamsport, the greatest loss resulted from the breaking away of the log booms. Many people at Lockhaven were driven from their homes for three days, but no lives were lost. The few casualties all through the State resulting from the flood is particularly to be rejoiced at. A dozen deaths from drowning will cover the loss of life from the freshet.

The railroads were badly washed out, but are rapidly recovering. The Pennsylvania railroad to day resumed its train service on nearly schedule time on all its divisions except the main line to Pittsburg. Public meetings have been called in many cities to aid the homeless.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incursble, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

THE CITIZEN SOLDIERY PARADES IN THE ARMOURY.

Orders for the Week—No Buffet in the Sergeant's Mess—Highly Satisfactory Audit.

The volunteers turned out fairly strong last night for parade and after an hour or so were dismissed, the following orders for the week being read:—

Orders by Lt.-Col. J. Z. Rogers, commanding the 57th Battalion, Peterborough Rangers:

1. To be officer of the week, Capt. Lech, "D" Company; next for duty, Capt. Schofield, "B" Company.

2. Leave of absence has been granted the following officer from parade this evening:—Lieut. A. Stevenson.

3. The battalion will parade and march out on Tuesday evening, May 29th, with both bands, pioneer and ambulance corps.

4. Thursday, May 24, being a public holiday, there will be no drill on that evening.

5. The commanding officer has been pleased to make the following promotion:—To be color-sergeant of "A" Company, Sergt. W. Crossley R.S. of I., vice Harvey, resigned.

6. Attention is called to a previous order: "No privates will be promoted to corporals until they have passed the regimental examinations, and no corporal or private will be made sergeant until they have passed the sergeant's examination.

By order.
E. F. MASON, Captain,
Adjt. 57th Battalion.

It is the intention henceforth to adhere rigidly to the rule regarding promotions. No non-commissioned officer receives his stripes until he is fully qualified and has passed the required examinations.

The Colonel informally announced that he would veto the mooted scheme of establishing a buffet or bar in the quarters of the Sergeants' Mess. Not that he thought the men would abuse the privilege, but the fact that a bar had been established in the mess would cause much adverse outside comment, and it is desirable that the fair name of the battalion be kept above reproach.

A meeting of the auditing committee, comprised of one man from each company, was held, and the books of the secretary-treasurer with the vouchers, minutely examined. It was the pleasant task of the committee to announce to the officers that no error was found to be existing. The books had been previously audited by a committee chosen from the officers and the report of both committees was highly satisfactory.

The special amunition for the league matches was received by Adjutant Mason to-day and a portion of it will be sent out to the ranges in the morning.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Whee At Home and Abroad.

Thirty-five men have been discharged from the Grand Trunk shops here owing to the depression in the company's business and lack of freight. There now only a few of the older hands at work, and if things do not pick up, even they may be laid off. The company have plenty of coal here yet, but they may have to ship it to other points very soon. They have sent to England for soft coal, the Nova Scotia mines not being able to supply sufficient to meet the demand.—Belleville Intelligencer.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

FRENCH CABINET CRISIS.

The Ministry Defeated on the Miners Eight Hour Bill.

PARIS, May 23.—There was great excitement in the Chamber of Deputies when Deputy Guesde introduced the miners eight hour bill, and demanded a vote of urgency upon it. The bill was, by a vote of 401 to 94, referred to the ordinary labor commission.

Premier Casimir-Perier demanded the order of the day, pure and simple, and the demand was rejected by a vote of 265 to 225. All of the ministers thereupon withdrew.

The cause of the crisis, though seemingly trifling, related to the general policy of Premier Casimir-Perier, and also to the Premier's aspirations to the presidency. The workingmen's syndicates, under the law of 1884, had become a powerful and terrorizing machine under Socialist control. The government had determined to repress the system, and, therefore, by continuing M. Dupuy's policy of closing the labor exchange, endeavored to preven the railwaymen's congress.

Premier Casimir-Perier took the defeat of the Ministry calmly, turning his face in the direction of his colleagues and laughing as he was leaving the Chamber. As the Ministers left the Chamber, the Radicals acted like a crowd of schoolboys, clapping their hands and jumping up and down, shouting and indulging in all sorts of antics indicative of delight. Several deputies rushed across the Chamber and embraced Miller and Ouvre. The deafening noise within the Chamber was heard outside. The Socialists deputies acclaimed their victory with shouts of "This is our revenge for the outrageous treatment of Thivrier (the communist deputy who was arrested and suspended for shouting "Vive la Commune" in the chamber a few months ago. M. de Ramel's final words from the rostrum were: "The Government must not take democratic attitudes at banquets and then, when they come to act, refuse workingmen the right to join syndicates."

In the evening the ministers left the private room, in which they had been conferring, and proceeding in a body to the Palais d'Elysee formerly tendered their resignations to President Carnot. As they left the Chamber the Socialists shouted: "Long live the social republic" and "Long live the commune."

Some spectators say that M. Casimer-Perier clapped his hands for joy when the vote against the government was announced. Whether he did so or not it is certain that he welcomed the defeat. He is apparently convinced that the combined efforts of his enemies to upset his candidacy for the presidency have recently been covertly abetted by President Carnot.

King Alexander's Fiat.

VIENNA, May 23.—King Alexander says in his proclamation that when the passions of the disloyal shall have been allayed and order restored throughout the kingdom, he will, in harmony with his people, frame a new constitution. The Polische Correspondence Universalle, official, says that Prince Karagorg, the pretender to the Servian throne, has left St. Petersburg for Roumania.

Russia and Austria have exchanged notes on the subject of the Servian coup d'etat and have agreed to act in concert if intervention is necessary. It is understood Russia does not think of supporting Prince Karageorgevitch.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Face Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Four Doctors but Little Benefit. Cured by Cuticura.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at. Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too highly. I enclose my portrait.

Enlarging and Stock-Clearing Sale

Scores a Genuine Success!

ECONOMICAL BUYERS REAPING A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST!

Carrying Out Our Programme!

The Second Week of our Unavoidable Stock-Clearing Sale will be a brilliant one. The First Week was a good beginning—very good—from start to finish—a surprise even to the sanguine management. We carried out our promises to the letter; customers were assured and delighted, and a multitude of Bargains went forth to advertise the sale for the second week.

ALL THIS WEEK

Every department will be literally honey-combed with Remarkable Values, and we confidently expect that the Sale will prove the largest, intensest and most satisfactory which the ladies of Peterborough and district have ever witnessed. We have things to show and things to sell that no other store will care to compete against.

$30,000 WORTH

Of New and Fashionable Summer DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, MANTLES, &c., must ABSOLUTELY be cleared out to make room for the early Enlarging and Remodelling of our premises. Complete stocks of everything that a self-respecting store should have is here. Ladies need scarcely be reminded about such a stock as we carry—

—SILKS	—DOMESTICS	—PARASOLS
—DRESS GOODS	—SHAWLS	—UNDERWEAR
—PRINTS	—BLOUSES	—EMBROIDERIES
—LINENS	—CORSETS	—MILLINERY
—FLANNELS	—GLOVES	—MANTLES
—COTTONS	—HOSIERY	—NOVELTIES

Whatever is new, worthy and cheap in Dry Goods of every sort, is brought together here from all parts of the world. Sound, warrantable goods—and not a yard or piece of these will be reserved during this Stock-Clearing, if we can prevent it.

All the country now know of our substantial reasons for disregarding the item of profit at this sale. Workmen cannot do their work with a store full of goods, and we've no place to store them whilst

The Walls Are Coming Down

And the contractor is bound to have our building ready for occupation in time for early trade. It is impossible to attempt anything like a complete list of the remarkable values. They'll be found on every corner of the house; and as our name has always been associated with an honesty of purpose to carry out all we undertake, we are bound to maintain our reputation.

An additional staff of efficient salesmen and saleswomen had to be taken on last week, and ladies are assured that a further increase will be made to cope with the increasing demands upon us.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in in width; Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels at 75c. Tapestries down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

BULLETS FOR STRIKERS

A Little Battle Between Riotous Coal Miners and the Police.

FOUR OF THE RIOTERS KILLED

The Attempt by the Mob to Prevent Non-Union Miners From Working Precipitates the Row — The Strikers Scattered After a Hot Chase.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 25.—A riot occurred at the Washington run mines of the Washington Coal and Coke Company yesterday. Thomas Kenan of Wood's run and three foreign strikers were instantly killed and twelve or fifteen wounded. Some of these are dangerously hurt and will die.

The first shot was fired by a deputy, who, in the excitement which attended the rush of strikers discharged the rifle in the air and fled. In an instant the conflict was on, and before the shooting ended four strikers were lying on the public road dead and twelve or fifteen others wounded. Among the wounded are four deputies.

The strikers assembled near the works about midnight. The united forces numbered 2000 men. Many of them were armed with Winchesters, shot guns, revolvers and clubs. Committees were sent to the men and the deputies, warning them that any attempt to start mines would precipitate a deadly riot.

The officers of the company were notified early in the evening of the contemplated attack, and massed all the deputies from their other plants and at the hour of the attack 73 men were on the ground. These men were placed in charge of Capt. Anderson, of Pittsburg, who arrived there from the city with 25 men.

The certainty of an attack caused the company to delay starting the mine until daybreak and the workmen, realizing what was in store, would not venture out of their houses except in squads of ten or fifteen under the protection of armed guards. The first delegation had nearly reached the mines before the strikers saw them. The mob shouted to the men to return to their homes. Fearful of the results they turned around and started home. The deputies, who had been massed near the mines, rushed out and escorted the men towards the mines. Instantly the strikers set up a yell, and without waiting for further developments, made a rush at the deputies. One of the deputies discharged his gun. The strikers say he fired into the crowd and wounded one of the men, but deputies say the shot was fired into the air. In a moment bullets were flying in all directions.

The strikers were unable to endure the deadly fire and fled down the public road. The deputies followed, firing at them. The narrow defile of the road prevented the strikers scattering. A large number rushed into a narrow cut and blocked the passage. The deputies neared the surging mass of men and continued to shoot directly at them. This caused a stampede and about 600 men tore through a barbed wire fence and escaped in a wheat field. Here again they were compelled to pass within short range of their pursuers and received another raking volley. The deputies overtook the strikers half way across the field and made sixty-six of them prisoners. These men were closely guarded and taken back to the mines where they were locked in box cars and taken to Uniontown. All the men captured were armed. Those who escaped made their way to Fayette City, reaching there two hours after the rest. Many strikers, worn out by marches and excitement, fell exhausted by the wayside. The last of the mob did not reach home until late in the evening. John Troy of Fayette City is among the mortally wounded. Further bloodshed is feared, as the leaders have lost control of the strikers.

NO FOREIGNERS WANTED.

New York State Will Hereafter Employ Only Americans for State Work.

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 25.—A bill has been signed by the governor which makes it a misdemeanor for any municipality in this state or any contractor doing business for any city, village, town, county or the state to employ other than citizens of the United States in such work.

The bill seems to have got through both branches of the legislature without much publicity, but it is one of the most important in character which the state has ever had placed on its statute books.

It not only affects a very large number of Canadians, but will necessarily deprive of employment many thousands of Poles, Italians and Hungarians.

So quietly has this legislation been carried that not a city official has as yet seen a copy of the bill.

Insurrection in Corea.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 25.—Chinese advices tell of a premature outbreak at Sing-La-Too, of what was intended to be a widespread revolution in Corea. The governor and forty officials were put to death, and at the date of the despatch the Insurgents were en route to Seoul, it is feared with every chance of further success.

A Rope-Walker's Tumble.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 25.—While George Charist, a professional wire-walker was attempting to walk a steel cable stretched across the public square at Shelbyville, Tenn., and carry his wife the cable snapped and both fell to the stone macadamized ground 35 feet below. Charist's hip is broken and he is terribly bruised. His wife is seriously injured and will die.

Banquet in Honor of the Officers of the American Cruiser Chicago.

ROSEBERY'S MAJORITY SOLID

The Predicted Defeat Did Not Materialize —Test of Dowe's Bullet-Proof Coat —Successful Operation on Mr. Gladstone's Eyes—Belgian Diplomacy.

LONDON, May 25.—The dinner to Rear Admiral Erben, Captain Mahan and the officers of the United States cruiser Chicago was given at St. James Hall last evening. Lord George Hamilton, formerly First Lord of the Admiralty, presided. Rear Admiral Erben sat on his left and Ambassador Bayard on his right. The walls of the hall and the balustrades were draped with the colors of the United States and Great Britain. After reading letters of regret from Lord Rosebery, Lord Northbrook and others, Lord George Hamilton proposed toasts to the Queen and President Cleveland. Of the Queen he said: "During her long reign she has exhibited those rare qualities which have made her occupancy of the throne the ideal of a constitutional monarchy. Nowhere has this fact been recognized more generally than on the other side of the Atlantic. (Cheers.)

Of President Cleveland he said: "Mr. Cleveland is a man of pre-eminent ability and character. His fellow-citizens have recognized this fact in twice electing him to the highest position in the United States. His sobriety of language and fixity of purpose have excited as much admiration on this side of the Atlantic as on the other (cheers).

May the subjects of both drink this toast: 'Long may their influence continue to sway the national policy of their respective countries.'"

The next toast, "America," was drunk standing and amid expressions of great enthusiasm. Ambassador Bayard, in responding to it, spoke in part as follows:

"I am sincerely grateful for the manner in which this toast has been received. I feel very deeply the honor of being the envoy of my country to this kingdom. This banquet is certainly a happy omen, coming as it does upon the birthday of the Gracious Lady whose devotion to public duty, and clear and beautiful life have endeared her not only to those living under her benignant sway, but also to all right-minded and right-thinking men and women in America even as fully as in England (loud applause). Well may the British subject congratulate himself as he contemplates with affectionate admiration the home life of the true mother of her country. Turning his eyes across the Atlantic, well may every American, whatever his party, congratulate himself that the virtues of graceful and refined womanhood, of innocent and guileless childhood, of lofty integrity and perfect manhood are clustered round the hearthstone of the President of the United States. (Loud applause).

Dowe's Bullet-Proof Coat.

LONDON, May 25.—Herr Dowe, the Mannheim tailor, gave an exhibition and practical test of his bullet-proof coat at the Alhambra in London in the presence of the Duke of Cambridge and several hundred naval and army officers. The garment was a cuirass two inches thick. A committee consisting of well-known officers were supplied with Lee Milford Germany army rifles charged with cordite regulation cartridges. The committee first fired at a target composed of elm logs thirty inches thick and pierced it through and through. Shots with the same rifles and similar cartridges were then fired at the cuirass, but beyond a slight impression of the impact of the bullet it was not injured. The Duke of Cambridge and others examined the cuirass after the firing and pronounced the test a complete success. Herr Dowe will shortly furnish for purposes of testing a smaller and lighter cuirass.

British-Belgian Treaty.

LONDON, May 25.—A treaty concerning the Congo Free State has been concluded between King Leopold and the British Minister to Belgium. The latter abandons to England a small strip territory in the Region of the Upper Congo and Lake Tanganyika, thus giving England access northward to the Nile. In exchange England grants the King until the end of his reign the left bank of the Nile up to the seventeenth degree. This is considered the most important African treaty concluded for many years, and is a master stroke of diplomacy on the part of King Leopold, as it shuts out France from the Nile basin and places the Congo Free State under the obligation of fighting the Soudan dervishes.

The British Budget.

LONDON, May 25.—It was fully expected last night that the Rosebery Government would go to pieces on the budget. The proceedings, however, were attended with only a few profitless debates. Several Opposition motions and amendments were rejected by majorities ranging from 30 to 40. The Government finally assented to Mr. Balfour's resolution to report progress, and the House adjourned.

Mr. Gladstone's Eyes.

LONDON, May 25.—This bulletin was issued last evening: "Mr. Gladstone's condition is in all respects satisfactory. He has passed a comfortable day and is free from all pain.' Both the Prince and Princess of Wales and the Duke of York congratulated Mrs. Gladstone on the success of the operation on her husband's eye.

Fatal Electric Storm.

MCKINNEY, Tex., May 24.—A cyclone struck McKinney. Three houses were demolished, trees uprooted, fence signs and awnings were wrecked. Lightning struck three houses and killed one man. The storm caused great damage to crops.

THROWN INTO A WELL

Two Little Children Deliberately Drowned by Their Mother.

SHE DID IT WHILE INSANE

The Demented Creature Fancied She Was Directed to Take the Lives of Her Three Children But Her Heart Failed Her and She Saved the Baby.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 25.—A most distressing affair took place at Upper Economy, Colchester county, by the drowning of two children in a well by their own mother.

Mrs. Charles Jackson, the mother of eleven children, who was insane about ten or twelve years ago, had a return of the malady lately, but apparently in a mild form and was thought to be better. On Wednesday she had at home with her a baby, a little boy about six years old and a girl a year or two younger. She tore up the cover of a well, which had been nailed down, and threw the little boy and girl both in and left them to drown. She then went to Mrs. Feelton's, her nearest neighbor, and told her what she had done, Mrs. Feelton scarcely believed her, but ran to the house and called to some of the nearest neighbors for help, but they only arrived in time to take the dead bodies of the children from the well.

Dr. Fulton held an inquest and a verdict was returned in accordance with the facts. Mrs. Jackson stated to the jury that she did the deed as she had been directed to kill the three children, but her heart failed her when she came to the baby. Mr. Jackson was away at the time.

PATRICK MUST COME BACK.

A Canadian Carpenter Denied Entrance to the United States.

BUFFALO, May 25.—Patrick Finnegan, of Eton, Ont., is a carpenter. He attempted to enter the United States, bringing his outfit of carpenter's tools with him, but Inspector de Barry frustrated his plans.

Finnegan went home last November from Philadelphia, where he had been employed for nine months by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. Finnegan said that Oscar Sterner, assistant superintendent of the road, ordered Foreman O'Donnell to write to Canada for him to come to Philadelphia to work. Finnegan took out his intention papers at Port Huron on Dec. 10, 1892, but the papers are void, as he did not thereafter remain in and under the jurisdiction of the United States. Canadians have frequently made use of the intention papers scheme to secure employment in this country. Inspector de Barry will take this case up with the inspector in Philadelphia and also with the railroad company.

THE STONE-THROWING CASE.

Aldward Acquitted of Blame in Connection With McDermott's Death.

INGERSOLL, Ont., May 25.—The adjourned case against George Aldward came up for its final hearing, and the prisoner was discharged, there being no evidence that he was guilty of anything more than minding his own business when attacked. In giving judgment the magistrate commented severely on the reprehensible practice of stoning peaceable citizens, which appears to have been prevalent for some time past, and while he sympathized deeply with the afflicted family, he at the same time said that if young men would deliberately go together for the purpose of committing an unlawful act they must bear the consequence.

Drowning Near Sudbury.

SUDBURY, Ont., May 25.—A sad drowning occurred about 15 miles north of Wahnapitae village, on Wahnapitae Lake. Omer Roy, in company with two others from Sudbury, were going across the lake to visit a mine owned by the former, and when about three quarters of a mile from shore Roy took what is supposed to have been a fit. His friends tried to sustain him, but he ultimately toppled overboard, upsetting the canoe, and was drowned. The other two men succeeded in reaching the shore by swimming. Omer Roy was a resident of this town for a number of years, and his friends are greatly shocked at his untimely end. He leaves a wife and two children.

Destructive Fire in Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 25.—Last night the firemen were called out for a fire that had started in a large brick building on Vitre street, occupied by the Montreal Silk Mills Company and the Montreal Watch Case Company. The fire started on the engine room floor and had spread to the warehouse by the time the firemen arrived. The fire was a very difficult one to handle, and before it was got under control it did great damage. The warehouse was stored with valuable silks which were almost totally destroyed by fire and water. It is difficult to estimate the damage, but it is placed at between $10,000 and $15,000. The premises of the Montreal Watch Company were also considerably damaged.

Run Over by a Trolley.

TORONTO, May 25.—In attempting to board a street car Raymond Hathaway of Canton, Ohio, slipped and fell, the front wheel passing over his left arm, crushing it severely between the wrist and elbow. He was taken to the General Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the limb at the elbow. Hathaway, who came to the city to attend the races, took out on Tuesday two accident policies in the Hartford for $15 a week each. Altogether he held accident policies entitling him to $50 per week. He is a married man with two children.

Power House Boiler Explodes.

MONTREAL, May 25.—Last night the boiler of the East End power house of the Royal Electric on Water street exploded. The force of the explosion blew out the wall of the station. One of the foremen who injured, but not fatally. The power house is situated next to Sohmer Park, a popular place of amusement, and when the explosion occurred there was great excitement. Fortunately there was no serious results. Owing to the explosion the whole of the east end of the city was plunged in darkness.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent

We have been favoured with heavy rains for the last four days, but as the ground was very dry no damage has been done so far, and if frost does not follow we will have an abundant crop, especially of fruit.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Ed. Wigg, of Burleigh, has lately shown symptoms of insanity and during the last few days has become so violent as to necessitate her removal to the Toronto asylum as soon as there is room for her, it now being full.

An untagged cur went through the glass of Carter's green house a day or two since, breaking 8 or 10 lights and damaging a number of plants.

Constable Doidge has a couple of gangs of men at work constructing new sidewalks on Queen and Bridge streets.

Mr. H. Patterson our watchmaker has removed to Campbellford this week considering he could do better. We are sorry to see Harry go.

The village is very quiet having got over the wild excitement raised by the Council refusing to pay for a delegation to go to Ottawa, and as party politics have not got into full swing yet.

Mr. Timothy Buckley, youngest son of Mr. Jas. Buckley, Douro, died on Monday. Every one in the village knew "Tim," and all regret his early death, his sister Mrs. Lynch died only a week since.

Lakefield and Stony Lake will be illustrated and written up in next Saturday's Globe, which will afford a good opportunity to our citizens to let distant and absent friends have an idea of what Lakefield is like at the present time.

We desire to call the attention of the Smith council to the dangerous condition of the bridge over the creek below Mr. Amey's. It is broken through and well nigh impassable for light rigs, while a heavy load may send it through. It is a disgrace to a wealthy township like Smith.

ASHBURNHAN C. E. NOTES.

On Monday evening instead of the regular League meeting, the Mission Band took charge of the meeting and rendered the following excellent programme, Rev. James Thom, B. A., chairman:

1 Opening Hymn, "The Light of the World."

6 Motion Song.....Members of the Band.
7 Dialogue—"Stirring up the Gifts,".....by four [Members.
8 Recitation—"The Gain of Giving," Edna Nield
9 Collection—Singing by the Band, "What shall [I do my love to show."
10 Dialogue.....Ida Armstrong, Dot and [Minnie Dormer'
11 Singing—.....'Tell me the old, old Story."
12 Recitation—"The Story Told,".....by Minnie [Hamilton.
13 Dialogue—"Naaman the Leper," by 5 Band [Members.
14 Benediction.....Rev. Mr. Thom.

Owing to change of occupation, our President, Mr. Fred. Bickle, has been forced to resign his position. While we regret his resignation, we are pleased to report the name of Miss E. Smith as our newly elected President.

The North end cottage prayer meeting is to be held at Mr. Telford's, Concession street, Friday evening.

Next Monday evening is our regular business meeting. Convenors of committees will please bear this in mind and have their reports with them.

Skin Diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B. B. B. cures the following Skin Diseases: Shingles, Erysipelas, Itching Rashes, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, by removing all impurities from the blood from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore.

Do not neglect coughs, colds, asthma, and bronchitis, but cure them by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Editor Freed Steps Out.

HAMILTON, May 25.—Mr. A. T. Freed, editor in chief of the Spectator, has severed his connection with that journal to occupy the position of inspector of Inland Revenue for this district caused by the superannuation of Mr. T. H. McKenzie. Mr. Freed has been connected with the editorial staff of the Spectator for eighteen years. He will be succeeded by Mr. J. R. Cameron, the managing editor of the paper.

Bay de Verde Election.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 25.—Government and Whiteway nominees and supporters have returned from Bay de Verde. Whitewayites are boasting they won a great victory, and a demonstration in their honor was carried out here. The Whitewayites charge that ballot boxes at Bay de Verde were stuffed by the Government side, and say they will enter prosecution.

Assaulted an Armenian Traitor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 25.—Simon Bey Makusd, a prominent Armenian resident, of Constantinople, was recently attacked by three Armenians armed with revolvers and daggers and is lying at the point of death. Two of the assassins have been caught. They say that Makusd had betrayed the Armenian cause to the Porte.

Karageorgvitch's Claims.

PARIS, May 25.—Prince Karageorgevitch, the pretender to the throne of Servia, has written a letter to the Figaro, in which he says that not only will he not abandon his claim to the Servian throne, but that he is prepared to support his legitimate right to it.

Emile Henri's Papers.

PARIS, May 25.—Judge Meyer has taken possession of voluminous papers which the Anarchist Emile Henri left in his cell in the La Roquette prison. The papers will be carefully read by the judge, who expects that they will be very useful in future examinations of Anarchists.

"Great Plague" in China.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 25.—Advices from China say an epidemic similar to the "Great Plague" which devastated London during the seventeenth century, is now prevalent in Canton. A number of people are affected.

Reign of Terror in Servia.

LONDON, May 25.—A despatch to the Central News from Vienna says: Despatches smuggled across the Servian frontier tell of a reign of terror in Belgarde and throughout Servia.

Will Execute Strikers.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 25.—The Chinese Government has decided to adopt drastic measures to stop strikes, the offenders being tried for high treason and promptly executed.

Police and People Fight.

BERLIN, May 25.—The people of Cassell have been excited for several days by reports concerning the ill treatment of prisoners by the police. About 3,000 persons gathered in the old market square, mobbed the small force of police there and sang the Marseillais. A strong force of police which was sent to disperse them was stoned and beaten back. The Hussars were called out to clear the streets. They rode down the crowds, scattered the rioters and restored order throughout the city. Many persons were injured. Sixty-eight persons were arrested.

Preparing for War in Samoa.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 25.—Advices from Samoa of May 17 are that King Malietoa gave the Aana rebels until May 19 to lay down their arms. If they refused he would attack them at Atua. The Government troops were ready for action. The rebels seemed inclined to fight.

Nine Hundred Drowned in a Flood.

VICTORIA, B.C., May 25.—Chinese advises state that a flood in the Yang Tse Kiang River destroyed 320 junks and 900 lives.

"If all the gold in mine or bank,
All earthly things that men call wealth
Were mine, with every titled rank,
I'd give them all for precious health."

Thus in anguish wrote a lady teacher to a near friend, telling of pitiless headache, of smarting pain, of pain in back and loins, of dejection, weakness and nervous, feverish unrest. The friend knew both causes and cure and flashed back the answer, "Take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." The distressed teacher obeyed, was restored to perfect health, and her daily duties once more became a daily pleasure. For lady teachers, salesladies and others kept long standing, or broken down by exhausting work, the "Prescription" is a most potent restorative tonic, and a certain cure for all female weakness. Guaranteed to cure in every case or money returned. See printed guarantee around each bottle.

This price holds good for 30 days—not for a single bargain day decoy, or a Saturday night catch-penny—but for a whole month, by daylight or gaslight.

Make no mistake about it. This is the biggest Print offering in Peterborough this season, and will be a money saver to all who buy now, at

MISS RUDKINS'

Crystal Block, George Street, Opposite the "Examiner" Office.

Our Wretched Memory.

We had intended to tell you about a lot of Wall Papers we bought at a great bargain, direct from the manufacturer, but we have so many bargain lines to talk about, our memory sometimes fails us.

That recalls the wonderful memory that old black cat of ours had. She did have the most remarkable memory of any cat almost we ever knew. Why, she once came into the kitchen and sat down on a hot stove lid, and do you know that ever after that, as long as we had her, she never sat down on a hot stove lid again. She wouldn't even sit down on a cold stove lid—at one time we thought it was her sagacity, but now we believe it was her memory, but to realize a few facts! Here they are:—

Do you think that you could remember a few facts! Here they are:—

1st. That we have the cheapest and prettiest lot of Wall Papers ever shown in Peterborough.

2nd. We have the largest and most complete stock of Window Shades, with Fringe, Applique, Lace and Dado, mounted on best rollers, and our prices are the lowest.

3rd. Our stock of Cornice Poles comprises all the daintiest patterns and prettiest woods.

4th. We lead in every line we carry.

BOLD BANK ROBBERY.

Four Men Make a Successful Daylight Attack on a Texas Bank.

LONGVIEW, Tex., May 25.—Two bold robbers made a daylight raid on the First National Bank of this city, securing about $3,500. A general fight between the robbers and citizens ensued in which two persons were killed and several injured. The killed are George Buckingham of Longview, who was firing upon the robbers, and George Bennett, one of the robbers.

At just about the closing hour, while the cashier, Thomas Clemmons, was getting ready to remove the cash from the counter to the vault, two roughly dressed men, both heavily armed, entered the bank. The only persons in the bank were the cashier and President Joseph Clemmons. One of the men approached the cashier, and, after a moment's conversation, ordered him to hold up his hands. The other man had in the meantime walked carelessly around to the side door of the counting room, and, acting simultaneously with his accomplice, made a leap for President Clemmons, and throwing him to the floor pinioned him there. The cashier by this time had his hands up, and robber No. 1, covering him with a revolver in one hand, emptied the coin and bills from the till into his pockets. The amount secured was about $2,500.

While this was going on two other members of the gang, who were in an open space in the rear of the building had aroused the suspicions of City Marshal Mickleroy, who happened to be near, and that officer started for help. The two opened fire on him, one ball striking him in the abdomen, bringing him to the ground probably mortally wounded.

The shooting quickly drew a crowd from the stores near the bank building. George Bucking, a merchant of this place fired at the robbers, wounding one of them in the face, but he was instantly killed by a bullet from the revolver of one of the men who had been drawn from their work inside the bank by the shooting.

The quartette made a break for their horses, firing at the crowd as they ran. One fell dead from a bullet fired by one of the attacking party, but the others escaped apparently unhurt. Despite the uncertain aim of the fleeing robbers three of the citizens' party were wounded, one, J. W. McQueen, a saloon-keeper, fatally. The injuries of Leonard and Clemmons will not prove serious.

President Clemmons at once offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the bandits, dead or alive, and an additional reward of $300 was offered by business men of the town. A posse was formed and the chase was begun.

TROUBLE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

A Story Circulated That Means a Big Sensation For the States.

CHICAGO, May 25.—A daily paper here publishes a sensational story from Washington to the effect that there is a rupture between President Cleveland and his wife, that there are practically two families in the White House, and that Mrs. Cleveland and the babies might just as well have had their residence in Boston for all of their society that the President enjoyed. The President, it asserts, never sees Mrs. Cleveland except upon the rare occasions when it becomes necessary for her to appear at some public function, a concession that she makes to him because of her pride and desire to keep the tongue of gossip quiet.

The rupture is claimed to be due to the personal convivial habits of the President, which have given great offence to a woman like Mrs. Cleveland, brought up in the strictest fashion. The despatch states that these habits of the President had induced a determination on the part of Mrs. Cleveland to withdraw entirely from society during the rest of her stay in Washington. Not only that but, after the expiration of Mr. Cleveland's term, it was her intention to seek a divorce from him.

Mrs. Cleveland is at present in Buffalo, staying with her mother, Mrs. Henry E. Perrine. Mrs. Perrine refused to allow Mrs. Cleveland to be interviewed on the matter, which she thought was the work of some malicious person, who wished to spoil her daughter's visit.

PROFESSOR ROMANES DEAD.

He Was a Canadian and Was an Author of Considerable Repute.

LONDON, May 25.—Prof. Romanes died suddenly on Wednesday.

George J. Romanes, F.R.S., LL.D., was born in Kingston, Canada, May 20, 1848, his father being the late Rev. Professor Romanes, M.A., LL.D. He spent his boyhood in England, France, Germany and Italy and was educated by Tutors and in private schools. In 1867 he entered Conville and Cain's College, Cambridge. He graduated in natural science in 1870 and was Burney prize essayist in 1873 and Croonian lecturer to the Royal Society in 1875. Having published a series of papers on the nervous system of medusae, he was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1879. In 1881 he received the honorary degree of LL.D., from the University of Aberdeen.

While still at Cambridge he formed an intimate acquaintance with the late Mr. Darwin, and afterwards continued to be an ardent member of the Darwinian school. His work on the "Origin of Human Faculty," and his paper on "Physiological Selection," an additional suggestion on the origin of species, have given rise to animated discussions. His "Jelly fish, Star fish and Sea urchins" is a popular exposition of his royal society papers. Mr. Romanes was Fullerian professor of physiology in the Royal Institution of London and Rosebery and lectured on natural history in the University of Edinburgh. His extensive treatise entitled "The Philosophy of Natural History Before and After Darwin" is a copiously annotated publication of the lectures delivered in both these capacities. He was also well known as a lecturer at the Royal Institution and was an active contributor to periodical literature on matters of scientific and philosophical interests.

Had a Tussle With Burglars.

GEORGETOWN, Ont., May 25.—Burglars entered the residence of Mr. Gibbard, principal of the high school here. A noise in the parlor downstairs aroused Mr. Gibbard, who jumped out of bed and was surprised to find a man already in his bedroom. The robber cried halt, but Mr. Gibbard made for him, and was struck with a club and knocked down. In falling he covered his pants, lying on the floor. The burglar then grabbed Mr. Gibbard's coat and vest and ran. Mrs. Gibbard saw three men running through the yard. Gibbard has been receiving considerable money from the students that are going to try the examinations, and had just drawn his month's salary. With the exception of the stolen clothes and a few shinplasters that were in the vest, and a very ugly wound on his head, the principal came out very fortunately.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Edward Crapp and seconded by John Barnicutt, Esq., of Manvers, That the ministers and laymen of the Methodist church assembled in Millbrook at their annual district meeting would hereby express their grateful recognition of the great kindness of Dr. Goldsmith, of Peterborough, in attending several of our ministers and their families in cases of severe and protracted illness, free of charge."

The Late Miss Jennie Mercer.

It is with great regret that the public and especially the many friends of the family will receive the announcement of the death, on Thursday, May 24th, of Miss Jennie Mercer, daughter of the late William Mercer, after an illness of about two months. During her illness it had only been necessary for her to take to her bed occasionally. On Wednesday, however, Miss Mercer suffered a relapse which terminated fatally the following day. Dr. Cameron, of Toronto, was called in on Thursday but, of course, could do nothing to baffle the disease. She leaves behind her three sisters and three brothers, who will have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. JAS. J. BREALY COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Detective Murray and County Crown Attorney Wood Weave a Chain of Evidence Around the Accused.

James Brealy was this afternoon committed for trial by County Police Magistrate Edmison on a charge of arson, consisting in having feloniously fired the building known as the Grange Hall, which was worked up against him by Government Detective John Murray. In the evidence which was adduced it was shown that Brealy had stated openly that if the Grange Hall was burned down it would settle all the difficulty. Again he had stated that he would prevent Mr. Stratton from holding a meeting in the hall even if he had to go out with his rifle and stand in the door. Again the detective had compared the tracks in the mud around the hall and leading off towards Peterborough with Brealy's boots and found they corresponded, Brealy's boots being half-soled and the tracks bearing evidence of having been made with boots repaired in this manner.

Brealy had been told by the magistrate to produce witnesses to prove where he had been between the hours of six and eight o'clock on the evening in question, when the hall was burned. Brealy had not done as directed, therefore the supposition was that he could not prove he was not at the hall.

Opera House Attraction, Saturday, May 26th.

May Smith Robbins, who is starring in the musical comedy "Little Trixie," is fast gaining recognition as one of the most versatile soubrettes now before the public. She is said to be one of the greatest dancers in America, and her comedy work is far above the average in its quaint humor and charming artlessness. Her company is a very strong one and includes the celebrated "Imperial Quartette" and the "Trixie Mandolin Trio." The play is bright, breezy and funny, and at the same time refined, interesting and pleasing. Popular prices.

Died at Ottawa.

Mrs. Wm. Johnston died this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. McJanet, of Ottawa. Mrs. Johnston was 68 years of age and had been ailing for some time and therefore her death was not an unexpected one. Among the children who mourn her loss are George H., of Lethbridge, Alberta; Alfred J., of Peterborough; Mrs. McJanet, of Ottawa, and Mrs. J. H. Billington, of Maryapolis, Man. The deceased was born in the township of Emily and was a daughter of the late Thomas Mitchell. She had resided in Peterborough since 1847, at which time she was married to the late Wm. Johnston, a well known citizen. The remains will be brought to Peterborough for interment.

Henry Bros.—Change in Firm Name.

M. L. Henry & Co. have been in business a little over one year, and during that time the management was entirely in the hands of Mr. Myles L. Henry. The business has now grown to such an extent that it is found necessary for Mr. Peter Henry (one of the partners), to devote the whole of his time to the interests of the firm. While both partners have the same interests in the welfare of the business, Mr. P. Henry will particularly look after the books, while Mr. M. L. Henry will attend to the selecting and purchasing of goods, the careful performance of which duty during the past year no doubt had a great deal to do with the wonderful success of the business. We speak for the firm bright prospects among the business houses of Peterborough. In consequence of this arrangement the name of the firm will hereafter be "Henry Bros," which will, doubtless, soon stand as high in popular favour as the old firm name. 2d122

Death of a Well-Known Banker.

On Monday Mr. R. W. Travers, Bank of Montreal, Brockville, received a cablegram from Paris, France, conveying the sad intelligence that his father had died in that city. The late Mr. Travers was born in Cork, Ireland, sixty-eight years ago. He came of a family distinguished in the military annals of Great Britian. His father, Major-General Sir Robert Travers, C.B., K.C.M.G., K.C.F.M., was one of six brothers who all served in the profession of arms. He was in active service in Holland, Spain and other countries, and was killed by a fall from his horse in 1834. The late Mr. Travers, whose death we record to-day, was one of nine brothers who all entered Her Majesty's military service. Retiring from military life, he entered the service of the Bank of Montreal, and was in the employ of that great financial institution for upwards of 40 years. In 1864 he was appointed manager of the Brockville branch, which position he held until 1878, when he was transferred to the more responsible position of manager in the city of London, from which in two or three years time he moved to Hamilton, taking charge of the branch there. About eighteen months ago, owing to illness, he retired from the Hamilton agency of the bank, and shortly afterwards he and Mrs. Travers left for Europe in the hope that his health would be benefitted thereby. The news of his death will be learned with deep regret by the many friends of deceased. He was a man of sterling character and commanded the respect and esteem of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance whether in public or private life.

He leaves a widow and two children, Mrs. A. R. Allan and Mr. R. W. Travers, both of Brockville, to whom the sympathy of the community goes out in their sad bereavement.

Mr. R. W. Travers left this afternoon for Paris to bring his mother home.—Brockville Times.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Not an arrest yesterday.

—City Lodge I.O.G.T. meets to-night.

—Street Inspector Pope has his men at work to-day cleaning off the crossings.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—Mr. Warrington shipped 1300 boxes of cheese from here to his Belleville warehouse to-day.

—The government has agreed that there shall be no more traffic through the Murray canal on Sunday.

—One of the officers of Canton Peterborough who visited Campbellford yesterday was taken by some of the passengers as Salvation Army staff officer.

— Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—The Cottage Prayer meeting in connection with Charlotte St. Epworth League will be held at the residence of Mrs. Campbell, 159 Stewart street, this evening at 8 o'clock.

—Open Air Concert—Gorton's famous Gold Band will appear in open air concert at 12.30 Monday, May 28th at Hunter and George sts. The uniformed parade will occur at 1 o'clock.

—The Brothers Elliott, noted for their good looks, refinement, expert dancing and exceptionally clever singing, are with Gorton's Minstrels this season. One night, Monday, May 28th.

—The band will not play in the park this evening as the Society is afraid that the ground is too soft to be submitted to the trampling which is bound to ensue when the band plays.

—The band boasts a new acquisition in the way of a monster mastiff owned by Mr. William Crowe. "Wallace" is to be trained to drag a "little red waggon" containing the music in front of the band.

—Very Musical, Refined and Funny briefly describes the performance given by the old favorites—Gorton's Minstrels. Two and one-half hours of long remembered enjoyment for you. One night, Monday, May 28th.

—The Bellewille Cheese Board met Tuesday afternoon and was one of the largest on record. Fifty-two factories boarded 3,095 boxes—1,965 white and 1,130 colored. Not many of the factories sold, the price ranging from 9¼c. to 9⅝c.

—Royalty has its disadvantages and drawbacks. The Queen can't do what millions of her loyal lady subjects can and do do—she can't remain 45 years of age for fifteen years. Her age is a matter of record and she can't make herself a day younger.

—Owing to the death of Miss Jennie Mercer, Secretary Junior Local Union of Christian Endeavour, the rally to be held to-morrow has been postponed until further notice. The Junior Executive will meet this evening at 7.15 in the Y.M.C.A. rooms.

—A lady's parasol was taken from the I.O.O.F. lodge room on Tuesday evening in mistake, a couple of others were left behind. Those wishing to remedy the mistake can do so by calling at Mr. W. J. Green's merchant tailoring establishment, where a number of pairs of rubbers, gloves etc., await claimants also.

—Chief Inspector Gilchrist, says the Campbellford Herald, was in town during the past week looking after culprits. Government officials always seem to be a little too late. Rumor not only says maskinonge have been caught but thousands of pounds shipped to Toronto during the spawning season from this locality. This is going too far and should be put a stop to, also Sunday fishing.

—Mr. Andrew Johnston, proprietor of the 30 ft. steam yacht "Ethel," gave a few of his friends a pleasant and swift trip down the river yesterday. The party left the Locks at 8:20 a. m., arriving at the Jubilee wharf at exactly 10:43, making the trip (which is considered to be twenty-one miles) in 2 hours and 21 minutes. Mr. Johnston is confident that he can make his little "water horse" do even better than this, as he had a large canoe in tow, which pulled pretty hard behind, and he kept on an average of only 80 lbs. of steam pressure on her.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Turnbull put in the 24th at Toronto.

Mr. A. E. Wood spent yesterday in Bensfort.

Mrs. T. Bradshaw and her sister Mrs. W. Dawson, of South Monaghan, spent the 24th in Toronto visiting friends.

Mrs. William Crowe and child, who have been spending the winter in Sarnia, returned to town Thursday evening.

Miss Edith Wright, Point St. Charles, Montreal, is visiting with Mrs. J.T. Craig, Elizabeth street Ashburnham, for a few days.

Mr. J. R. Stratton will address a meeting at Kinmount this evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Kinmount Methodist Church.

Mr. Fred Irwin, who formerly played in the Fire Brigade Band here, is in town visiting his parents. He accompanied the band to Campbellford yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Neil, of Ashburnham, accompanied by her daughter, Miss "Allie," are on an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. John Scott, and immediate friends in Galt, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Long and child have started on their trip to the Old Country. They will remain in Moscow until Monday, when they proceed to Montreal, from which port they sail on the 30th.

The many friends of the family will be pleased to learn that Miss Ella Ada Bennett, daughter of Mr. Henry Bennett Ashburnham, passed the examination of the Lady Stanley Institute for trained nurses at Ottawa at the head of the list. Miss Bennett was honored by receiving at the hands of her Excellency, Lady Aberdeen, a valuable book as a final prize in recognition of having taken the highest number of points in the examinations.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

HER MAJESTY'S SEVENTY-FIFTH.

NO QUEEN'S WEATHER GREETS THE HONOURED ANNIVERSARY.

Excursions, Picnics and Outings—The Weather Makes Bad Breaks in the Programme.

Yesterday her Majesty Queen Victoria reached her seventy-fifth birthday, spent in the "fierce white light that beats upon a throne" without the revelation of a blemish to mar her stainless character as a womanly queen or a queenly woman. No other monarch has ever lived who won and held a warmer place in the hearts of her subjects and of those of the world at large who reverence true womanly dignity and womanly virtue. And in no place in her wide dominions is the anniversary of her birth more loyally and enthusiastically celebrated than in Canada. When a steady downpour ushered in the Twenty-fourth, millions of Canadians, their hearts beating high with expectation of a day of festivity and enjoyment, were deeply disappointed. Yesterday broke the record and "Queen's weather" was not associated with the dull, drizzling downpour In town the day was a dull one, a few, comparatively, to what would have gone had the day been fine, went by G.T.R. and C.P.R. to Toronto to take in the races and enjoy the other festivities in the Queen City. The eager school children were to have taken part in the great Driving Park demonstration. Many of them turned out, but the day being more suitable to a naval than a military display, the celebration was postponed till Friday, June 1st, when the programme will be carried out in its entirety. A few went to Lindsay, a few to Millbrook, a large company to Campbellford, about 300 to Lakefield, and the Daisy carried her capacity of patrons of the True Blues' excursion. In the afternoon there was a temporary break in the clouds and this tempted several canoeists and steam launch parties down the river.

Elsewhere will be found detailed reports of the day's doings.

LACROSSE.

The medals offered by the citizens of Campbellford to the winning lacrosse team playing in the tournament held yesterday were won by the Peterborough team after a well contested and gentlemanly game with the Shamrocks, town. Both clubs left on the 8.20 train, accompanied by a number of friends and, arriving at Campbellford, put up at the Bisnet House.

The following players lined up before Referee Drennan about two o'clock:

Peterborough.		Shamrocks.
Dobbin	Goal	Rogers
Mein	Point	Temple
Heap	Cover point	Boland
McDonald	Defence field.	Jno. McDonough
McCabe		Jos. McDonough
Davidson		McNamara
Wasson	Centre	T. McDonough
Phelan	Home field	Galley
Latimore		Hickey
Borland		Carroll
Glover	Outside home	Lebar
Lipsett	Inside home	McMahon
P. Doris	Field Captain	Simons

The first game was scored for the Shamrocks by Galley, who played a good individual game throughout.

The second by Lipsett for the Peterboroughs on a good side shot. In this game Lipsett made some good runs and Temple for the Shamrocks relieved his goal well.

The second and last scored by the Shamrocks was taken by Lebar on a clean shot. Dobbin up to the end of this game had too much to do but played his part well making some long throws.

From this till the end of the match the Peterboroughs had the best of it; their team play was very noticable. The following players putting the ball between the flags made the score 5 to 2 in favor of the Peterborough seniors, Phelan, Glover, Lipsett, Glover.

Borland played well on home field—a new position for him.

Heap was in very poor condition, had he been playing his game there might have been a change in the score.

Phelan and Wasson made good shots on goal while McCabe and Mein kept the home busy.

For the Shamrocks Galley, McDonough, Carrol and Hickey were the principal workers.

Everybody is requested to keep in mind the game with Port Hope here on June 8th.

The Peterborough Juniors were beaten by three straight games by the Millbrook's yesterday at that village.

The members of both teams were pretty well battered up during the game. Ernie Wason in particular receiving some very severe blows. McCabe had his injured hand hurt again and nearly all the boys are pretty well knocked out.

CRICKET.

The following have been elected officers of the Lindsay cricket club for the season:—Hon. President, Hon. John Dobson; president, Lt. Col. Deacon, P. M.; vice president, Edward Flood: sec.-treas., Thomas Brodie; executive committee, Messrs. Grace, Barron, Sisson, McCann, Veitch, Paton and Porter. A good team will be put on the field this season.

THE GUN.

The Peterborough Gun club won from the Campbellford team at that place yesterday by a score of 126 to 98. The individual scores of the members of the two teams was as follows:—

Campbellford		Peterborough.
J. Mitchell	17	S. Ray	19
E. G. Burke	12	T. Rutherford	15
N. B. Denike	8	F. Ferguson	15
W. Mitchells	14	H. Neill	20
C. B. Burke	16	R. Tivey	13
J. W. Burke	10	C. James	12
Fred. Linton	12	W. Buntin	13
C. Neill	9	J. D. Collins	19
	98		126

A sweepstake 10 bird match was afterwards shot off with the appended result:—

E. Burke	9	Mitchell	6
C. James	8	Jolly	6
T. Rutherford	8	Neill	5
W. Buntin	8	Collins	5
S. Ray	7	Ferguson	5
Sinclair	6	Tivey	5
C. Burke	6	Neill	5

BASEBALL.

The Peterborough baseball team was beaten in Lindsay yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. The game was a close and interesting one and the return match will be looked forward to with pleasure.

The Junior wine clerks are playing the Auburn mills nine this afternoon, the game starting at 3 p. m.

THE WHEEL.

Mr. Orville Shortly has just purchased a new wheel of the Brantford make. It is only 24 pounds in weight and is specially adapted for racing being fitted with a Tagar racing saddle. It has the new wooden rims and is geared up to about 64 inches. Mr. Shortly used it yesterday in Campbellford. He was successful in winning first place in the half mile race and was second in the mile scorch, thus securing a gold and silver medal. Mr. W. G. Walker, also of Peterborough, took first place in the mile race winning a gold medal.

The Peterborough Book Store is offering a guaranteed first class tangent spoked bicycle, with cork handles, ball bearings to all parts and mud guards and brake for $75.00.

THE TURF.

Mr. Seagram's entry was again victorious yesterday in winning the Queen's Plate for him for the fourth consecutive time. The local sports all backed Joe Miller for the plate and in consequence are jubilant this morning over the result. Appended is an account of the historic race clipped from a Toronto exchange:

"The Queen's Plate was of course the event on which the public interest was most centered, and Joe Miller, the popular favorite, carried the reigning colors to victory through the mud in right good style. Next to him was the Vicar of Wakefield, and on the way home these were the only horses left in the race. They made a pretty finish between them. Those who saw the two colts warm up had no doubts about their fitness to go through the mud, and they did it nobly and well. Dictator was warmed up a mile before the race, and Ben Hur took a short breather. Eleven horses joined in the parade past the grand stand, led by Secretary Ogden on his ubiquitous but sturdy black pony. The field was larger than expected and the horses presented a fine array as they followed in order. The two Seagram horses were looking in the finest of condition, hardy and trained to the hour for their heavy journey. Lochinvar was looking remarkably well and many people marked him for the winner. Lou Daly was strong and in the finest of condition whi. Thorncliffe although perhaps higher in flesh than the others, because he runs that way, excited many admiring comments. The story of the race is quickly told, there were only four horses in it at any time, Joe Miller, the Vicar of Wakefield, Lou Daly and Lochinvar. Just as the first mile was nearing completion, Lochinvar had shot his bolt and was brought home under the whip and hard effort. Lou Daly hung on well all the way and deserves her third place. Thorncliffe, though being a thorough gentleman, ran into fourth place, but as his friend Mr. Alf. Smith might say he did not seem to be taking the thing seriously. After a couple of races he may show his speed. Regan, the successful jockey of the day, rode with the greatest judgment. When questioned after the race he said: "I never had any doubt of it all the way. I knew the race was mine. The colt was running easily and strong under me, but he wanted the Vicar to be by his side, and it was only on the way home when Brooker came up close to me that my horse really exerted himself. He had plenty left in him." After all, those Springfield colts have shown considerable courage and stamina in spite of not being fair to look upon.

After the race Mr. Seagram was presented, amid loud cheering, by the Lieutenant-Governor with the scrip that entitles to the Queen's Guineas.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

A number of canoeists started down the river at about two o'clock yesterday afternoon thinking it was about to clear up. When the rain came on the canoes shot for the shelter of the shore or else ran over to one of the many steam launches which were out. It was few, indeed, who escaped a wetting.

The True Blues unfortunately could not have the new steamer City of Peterborough for their excursion to Jubilee Point yesterday as Inspector Donnelly prohibited her going out until a new pipe of either steel or wrought iron had been put in. The present one is of cast iron. The "Daisy," however, took a good many of the members of the lodge and their friends down to the Point, where a pleasant day was enjoyed in spite of the frequent showers.

INDUCTION AT HAVELOCK.

Rev. Dr. Cleland Inducted as Presbyterian Pastor.

Havelock, May 23.—The induction of Rev. Dr. McClellan of Toronto into the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church here took place this afternoon. Rev. Messrs Torrance, McWilliams and Scott took part. In the evening a grand welcome social was given by the ladies, which was largely attended. Addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. McWilliams and Coon of the Methodist church, and Hockley of the Anglican, and by the new pastor. The choir and others rendered excellent music. Mr. Richard Childs acted as chairman during the evening.

Things to Eat.

At this season of the year when the palate grows tired of the ordinary requirements to sustain life, the taste may then suggest to your mind that you try Mason & Co. for canned mushrooms, or a fine pickle which contains just enough spice to render the flavour rich and racy, or some canned corn beef, lunch tongue, ox tongue with canned vegetables.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

DASHED DOWN WITHOUT MERCY.

10 INDISPUTABLE ARGUMENTS WHY COUGH BROS. CAN, WILL, AND DO BEAT ALL THEIR COMPETITORS:—

I. GOUGH BROS. Buy the Largest Lots, Sell the Largest Quantities, Get the Largest Discounts, and can afford to make the Lowest Prices.

II. GOUGH BROS. clothe both ends of man—from head to foot. They always give a heaped up, pressed down, overflowing measure of value for every dollar spent in their stores.

III. GOUGH BROS. always keep a "bear" among the Clothing Manufacturers, and make prices dance downwards for the benefit of their customers.

IV. GOUGH BROS. form the largest syndicate of Clothing dealers in Canada. They own Clothing, Hats, Boots and Shoes, secured on contracts, made at prices that cannot be repeated.

V. GOUGH BROS.' buying power commands for their customers the Lowest Prices for everything, whether people know the values or not, and this is the mainspring for the ever-rapid movement of their merchandise.

VI. GOUGH BROS. select the cream from all the manufacturers, in a falling market, for their syndicate of stores. Ceaseless selling means ceaseless supplies, and their command of the market creates extraordinary bargains.

VII. GOUGH BROS. sell Clothing at prices that actually do not represent the cost of labour in making, or the bare material.

VIII. GOUGH BROS. have in stock piles of All Wool Suits made from Auburn Woollen Mill Tweed, which can be bought for less money than was paid for the seven yards of cloth to make the suit.

IX. GOUGH BROS. know that when wheat, cotton and wool must be sold for next to nothing, Clothing must be sold for next to nothing also, and they keep watch for snaps for their customers.

X. GOUGH BROS. have no hankering for being "Manufacturers of Clothing." They can do better. Just as wheat can be bought for 60c. a bushel, at a loss to the farmer, so Clothing can be bought at Gough Bros'. at a loss to the manufacturer.

—over to good health and rendered impervious to disease when the blood is pure and the liver active. For the liver is the sentinel which permits or forbids the germs of disease to enter the circulation of the blood.

You ought to be germ-proof against Grip, Malaria, or Consumption; you will be—if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

When your flesh is reduced below a healthy standard, when you are troubled with pimples and boils, or if you have dizzy, weak and sleepless spells—it's best to heed the warning.

Build up your strength, purify the blood, and set all the organs of the body into activity, by taking the "Discovery." It's guaranteed to benefit or cure all the diseases resulting from impure blood or inactive liver, or the money paid is refunded.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Mr. McMullen Attacks a Sinecure—Government Measures.

OTTAWA, May 25.—At Wednesday's sitting of the House Government bills were taken up.

The bill by Mr. Ives to amend and consolidate the acts respecting the Northwest mounted police force was read a first time.

The bill defines the position and duties of the controller, by statute. It relieves the police from the enforcement of municipal bylaws in the territories; it provides that a deserter or constable under imprisonment must make up lost time by service. Clauses are introduced to improve the discipline, to increase the pay of the men, and providing for the appointment of 12 buglers.

Four bills by Mr. Wood were read a first time, namely, in restraint of fraudulent sale or marking, to further amend the Petroleum Inspection Act, to amend the Cullers Act, to amend the General Inspection Act.

These bills by Sir John Thompson were read a first time: To amend the criminal code of 1892. To amend the Revenue and Audit Act.

Mr. McMullen asked the number of miles of Government railways operated by the Department of Railways during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1893, the number of stations, the number of stationporters, the number of stationmasters and assistants, the number of telegraph operators and assistants, the gross number of employes engaged in the operating of the lines, including all laborers, mechanics and all classes of employes, including the railway staff at Ottawa.

Hon. Mr. Haggart replied that the number of miles were 1,375; there were 256 stations and 3,600 employes, which number was very much less than for years past. The rolling stock was in splendid condition. The fiscal year would end on June 15 next, when, he trusted, he would be able to produce a very satisfactory report.

When the House went into Committee of Supply Mr. McMullen raised the question as to the interest served by the continuance of the office of High Commissioner to England. Mr. McMullen attacked both the office and its incumbent, and in the course of his remarks provoked some amusement by saying it was "a farce to keep a political Belshazzar dancing about London at $16,000 to $18,000 a year." The item, however, passed without further comment.

Capital Notes.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 25.—Archbishop O'Brien of Halifax, who is here attending meetings of the Royal Society, in an interview, expressed himself, in comparing his province with Ontario, as follows: "In religious good feeling, your people in Ontario are fully 90 years behind Nova Scotia. Down in Nova Scotia Protestants and Catholics recognize each other's rights and try to live in peace and harmony. They agree to differ, and as a result things go on very nicely. The people up this way, however, seem to be, religiously speaking, just where we in Nova Scotia were 90 years ago. To my mind there is no necessity for religious strife." Speaking of Canada's future, the Archbishop said: "The day must come sooner or later when Canada must cease to be a colony. To my mind her natural place is in an Imperial League. We do not want annexation, and there are too many obstacles in the way of independence."

A project is on foot to establish a new Presbyterian Church in Ottawa, with Rev. T. W. Winfield, chaplain to the Governor-General, as pastor. Mr. Winfield is very popular with many, and there is considerable feeling in Knox Presbyterian Church at the course of recent discussions, in which his nomination to the vacant pulpit there was opposed.

A deputation from the hackmen waited on Lord Aberdeen and urged their protest against the street railway company being allowed to run their track to Rideau Hall.

RECORD BREAKERS.

Frank Brown says Dodd's Kidney Pills Give Universal Satisfaction—The Reason is They Never Fail to Cure.

SHELBURNE, May 14.—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: "In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of ascertaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say, that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of their wonderful curative properties.

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the report of the business for 1893 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.

Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891, 61 per cent

Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 27 per cent.

Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1891:—

Excelsior Life,	415%	North American Life,	125%
Dominion Life,	201 "	London Life,	118 "
Federal Life,	144 "	Sun Life,	114 "
Manufac'rs' Life,	144 "	Confederation Life,	113 "
Tem'ce and Gen'l,	144 "	Canada Life,	113 "
Ontario Mutual			106%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, 1st, as low a death rate; 2nd, as low a ratio of expenses. See our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bonds before insuring elsewhere.

SCROFULA
CURED BY
B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Worthless
Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

HORRIBLE ILLUSIONS.

Tricks Played by the Camera of a French Photographer.

Amateurs in photography are doing much more to introduce novelty into their work than are the professional photographers. This is perhaps because the professionals follow in the beaten track and strive for perfection rather than variety. Certain it is that since the discovery of the dry plate, which made amateur photography possible, people have begun to learn some of the astonishing and amusing facts which the camera may be made to disclose.

People have become so accustomed to regard a photograph as the record of a single scene taken by a quick exposure that they never stop to think that two, or even three, exposures may be made in completing a picture, and that meanwhile the subject may have been shifted.

This is the way the accompanying picture was made, showing the head on a plate, as well as others showing a decapitated man looking at himself, showing a head on a table looking at the man about to begin his meal, and one showing the head in a wheelbarrow. The originals are almost as horrible to look at as any of the guillotine photographs which French realists have been taking at actual decapitations "in the interest of science," as they carefully explained.

The picture herewith reproduced is the work of Mr. R. Riccart, of Sainte-Foix-les-Lyon, in France, and has excited the wonder and admiration of boulevard crowds in Paris, who morbidly gloated over the horrible details and exclaimed that science had made another great step forward, bringing scenes of blood and carnage within reach of the poorest man. This is the view of the subject which regards dreadful sights as a rich morsel hitherto reserved for people of wealth or daring, and heaven only knows what the French will not produce in the way of photographs when the next great European war begins to afford a wide variety of "subjects."

One absolutely indispensable requisite in making photographs such as these which Mr. Riccart has produced is a natural black background. Mr. Riccart secured this through the open door of a dark room, combined with diaphragms skilfully arranged in the interior of the apparatus between the objective and the sensitized plate. This is the surest method of obtaining the desired effect with the greatest precision without the junctions being visible and with perfect clearness for the section of the parts removed.

An Adventurous Mariner.

A novel experiment in ocean navigation is to be attempted by a Nottingham enthusiast who has been occupying himself for a year past with the construction of a boat in which he proposes to cross the Atlantic during the forthcoming summer. The vessel, which is built of iron, and is entirely of his own design and make, is only 10 feet 6 inches long, with 3 feet beam and 2 feet 6 inches in depth, and is thus the smallest craft that has ever attempted such an adventurous voyage. It has what is known as a "whaleback" deck, and the cabin, lighted by glass windows at the side, will be completely water-tight when closed, fresh air being obtained by pipes. Should the tiny craft be overturned the inventor claims that it will automatically right itself. She will be fitted with a ten-foot mast from the foredeck with jib and mainsail, and additional motive power will be supplied by a geared handscrew. The navigator intends to start from Nottingham, sailing down the Trent to Hull, and making for the Atlantic by way of the English Channel. He expects that the trip will occupy him something over a month. —London Telegraph.

Traits of the Horse.

It is difficult to understand how the legs of horses stand the wear and tear of work in our great cities, where every step of their iron-shod hoofs is upon a hard, unyielding road. There is no other creature living, with the exception of the donkey or mule, which can long bear the constant battering entailed by rapid locomotion over a paved surface. But if we look at the structure of the horse's legs we see how it is that the jar and vibration do not injure him more. His "pasterns," the part just above the hoof, yield a little at each step, and so break the force of the concussion. He is, in fact, mounted on springs. This is one chief reason why he is a pleasant animal to ride. Anyone who has tried riding a cow or ox has found the difference between the easy, elastic movements of the horse and the jolting and jogging of a horned mount.—North American Review.

The vast facilities of the J. C. Ayer Co., of Lowell, Mass., enable them to place The Superior Blood-purifier—Ayer's Sarsaparilla—within easy reach of the poorest invalid. Don't be induced to take a "cheap" substitute. Always remember that the best is the cheapest.

FRUIT BUDS.

That fruit which is worth having is worth planting.

Are you after money in apple culture? Plant quite a proportion of good early fall sorts.

A little protection in fruit growing often goes a great way. An instance is told of an apple tree standing near the barn, at one edge of a large hot pile of manure. The side warmed by the manure was loaded with fruit, the other side barren.

Protecting Buds from Birds.—An English gardener, whose currant and gooseberry bushes were being stripped of buds by the birds, and who was unable to get cheap netting, kept the birds off by covering the bushes with white worsted, twisted and tangled in all directions.—American Gardening.

The southern states may have a monopoly on profits in pecan culture, but not on nut culture generally. As the Rural says, nut growing will pay in forty-three other states besides Louisiana. There will be a time when chestnuts and walnuts, and possibly butternuts and hickories, are quite commonly planted in orchards and groves.

An Old Woman's Misfortune.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Mrs. Sarah Meyer, aged 102, came to the Union Market police station and asked to be cared for. She was ragged and bent with age and had been tramping all through the rain of the last few days. On her left arm she had a deep burn that had been uncared for for some time. The sergeant asked her if she had any children and she replied that they had faded from her memory. Neither had she any friends. For two years she had been without a home, she said. An ambulance was summoned and she was removed to Bellevue hospital.

Uneasy Rests the Czar's Head.

BERLIN, May 23.—It is said that Prince Kropotkin, the celebrated Nihilist, returned to Russia in disguise some time ago, and was arrested when the Russian police threw out their drag-net some three weeks ago. Letters from St. Petersburg say that the plan to hold manoeuvres round Smolensk next fall has been abandoned owing to the discovery of documents which point to a plot to kill the Czar during his proposed visit.

How to Make Whisky.

It is a very simple matter to make an illicit still. A man who knows how can make one in a very few minutes, and it will cost practically nothing. The moonshiner frequently takes an old sprinkling can and solders the top on tight. Then he arranges a bucket of water and cuts a hole near the bottom of the bucket to allow the rubber hose, which he will attach to the spout of the sprinkling can, to pass out after he has coiled it in the bucket and thus made a worm. Then he pounds up some corn and puts enough water with it to make a mush, fills his sprinkling can, builds a fire under it, and there he has a still. The steam which arises from the mush is condensed as it passes through the hose, and when the condensed liquid tickles out of the other end it is whisky.—Kansas City Journal.

Hypnotism.

"There has been a great deal of stuff and nonsense written about hypnotism, as if it were something very abstruse," said an Arch street physician. "In fact, it is an every-day phase of mental abstraction. Any one may hypnotize himself in a few minutes by closing his eyes, directing them inward and downward, and then, imagining his breath to be vapor, watching its inhalation and expulsion from the nostrils. Babies invariably look cross-eyed before going to sleep, in this way producing what hypnotists call 'transfixion.' Fishermen often hypnotize themselves watching a cork on a surface of shining water. An hour passes as if it were a few minutes."—Philadelphia Record.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The funeral of Alfred York, of South Monaghan, took place yesterday, he being buried in the Baptist burying ground of this place, with the Salvation Army rites. Although the weather was against them quite a crowd assembled.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham, of Warsaw, N.Y., who were called over home by the death of her mother, returned home Wednesday morning.

Diphtheria is reported in the village.

The ways of providence are seemingly out of gear somewhere just now. No one ever heard tell of a tramp being bitten by a mad dog. If there are any mad dogs around this place they have the world of a chance to commit this terrible crime, as we have had lately on an average from five to six per day of these travellers.

Thieves take warning, we now have a cooler in this place, or at least we guess that light fingered party thought so when he was accosted by the least whom he expected when in the act of helping himself to grain. Take our advice old man and do not commit this offence again, or the detectives will not be as easy on you as they have been.

Great damage has been done to the crops in this vicinity by the recent heavy rains.

ST. PAUL'S SUCCESSFUL PICNIC.

The Annual Picnic at Lakefield a Great Success in spite of the Rain—Report of the Proceedings—Speeches by the Local Candidates—Record of the Sports and Games.

The picnic held in the Agricultural grounds, Lakefield, yesterday under the auspices of St. Paul's Catholic Church of that village was attended with signal success in spite of the frowns of Jupiter Pluvius who looked so black at times as to completely shadow the sun.

During the afternoon a number of speeches were made on the grounds. Rev. Father Scholard, who is now in charge of the parish made a brief address of welcome to the many visitors and after kindly thanking them for their attendance introduced Reeve Casement of the village, as the chairman. The Reeve expressed his appreciation of the honour accorded him in calling upon him to preside and called upon Mr. Harry Winch for a speech.

In complying Mr. Winch stated that although he felt perfectly at home in the gathering, he did not feel at all at home on the platform making a speech. In his brief remarks he took occasion to congratulate the ladies present on their good looks and expressed the hope that the picnic might result in some of them making acquaintances which would induce them to call in the services of one of the clergy later on.

The chairman then introduced Mr. J. R. Stratton M. P. P. who was accorded a hearty welcome. In opening his address he remarked on the fact that a dual object had drawn the assemblage together—to assist in a good cause and to celebrate the anniversary of the birthday of the Queen, who had just completed her 75th year and who had ascended the throne fifty-seven years ago.

Mr. Stratton made a pleasing reference to the flag which floated over his head and called upon his hearers never to forget that wherever that flag waved it was a guarantee that British subjects would meet with British justice, British liberty and British fair play. No matter where that flag had waved it had NEVER YET BEEN SOILED.

Applause.) The colonies which had been built up under it would never allow the mother country to decay. (Applause.) He did not believe in any prophesies regarding the downfall of the British Empire. It was too mighty for that. (Applause.)

The Scotchman talked of his great glens and magnificent hills, the Englishman boasted of his scenery, and the Irishmen were proud of their romantic lakes, but Canada, fair Canada, could boast of glens as imposing, scenery as beautiful and lakes as romantic as any, and was to-day one of the fairest countries under the sun. (applause.) We have here, continued Mr. Stratton, all that tends to make a country prosperous, and Canadians should never be remiss in their patriotism or neglect to inculcate the germs of loyalty in the minds of the rising generation. The day, he added, he was sure would never come that would see Canada annexed to the republic to the south.

The acreage of the Dominion was stupendous. If the land was divided up now every man, woman and child would receive 64 acres. No other country could boast of a territory so large in comparison to its population.

Canada, he stated, was a united Canada. In spite of the fact that it was populated with English, Irish, Scotch, French and Germans, each with their own traditions and prejudices, yet no dividing religious question had yet been raised of any importance. Small disputes had arisen which had barely sufficed to ripple the placid surface of Canadian life, but these had blown away, as he hoped all other questions of this nature would do, and that all nationalities would work together for the purpose of building up a great nation on the soil of the Dominion. (Applause.) Mr. Stratton closed his patriotic address by quoting the following most appropriate stanza adapted from Macaulay:—

Then none were for a party:
Then all were for the state;
Then the great man helped the poor
And the poor man loved the great!
Then the lands were fairly portioned—
The spoils were fairly sold.
The Canadians were like brothers
In the brave days of old.—(Loud applause)

Mr. J. Hull, who was also seated upon the platform, addressed a few neat remarks to those present, after which Rev. Father Casey made a characteristic address in which he congratulated the ladies present on their good looks and evident intelligence and gave other pleasing evidences of having kissed the Blarney Stone, when last on Erin's soil. He was sure the principles of truest patriotism which Mr. Stratton had tried to inculcate into the audience had taken root if not in existence in the honour of the people before.

Father Scollard returned thanks to those present for their attendance on such an unpleasant day and proposed three cheers for the Queen which were heartily given. On Father Casey's suggestion, three more were given for the two candidates and on a hint from Mr. Stratton three rousing ones were given for the clergy.

THE GAMES.

During the afternoon two representative football teams from Warsaw and Lakefield played for a silver cup. In the lower part of the field the water was ankle deep and when a player went down, it was a soused looking mortal that gathered himself up. Notwithstanding this fact, however, the game was played for all there was in it. In the first half each side side scored a goal, but in the latter half the Lakefields scored again and were successful in keeping their adversaries from doing the same. The silver trophy thus goes to Lakefield. In the other sports the results were as follows:—

200 yards race (men)—1, Wm. Heffernan; 2, Wm. McAuliffe.

100 yards race (boys under 15)—1, Simpson; 2, McPherson.

100 yards race (boys under 12)—1, Bell; 2, McGrath.

100 yards race (men)—1, Heffernan; 2, Fallis.

Three-legged race, 100 yards—1, Fallis and McAuliffe; 2, Laplant and Cronin.

50 yards race (girls under 12)—1, Florence Simpson; 2, M. Connell.

Mile race—1, Mcauliffe; 2, Ridpath.

Running High Jump—1, Wilson; 2, Ridpath.

Standing High Jump—1, Ridpath; 2, Heffernan.

Mr. Edward Quinn had charge of the games and sports, while Messrs. Timothy Sullivan and Michael Harrigan overlooked the grounds in general.

The three refreshment tables under the supervision of Messrs. T. Sullivan, of Lakefield, Mrs. Chamberlain of Lakefield and Mrs. M. Hynes of Douro. They were assisted in looking after the guests by Mrs. Martin Coughlin, Mrs. Edward Foley, Mrs. M. Ryan, Mrs. Hourahan, Mrs. (Dr.) Blanchard, Mrs. T. Nolan, Mrs. D'O'Connell, Mrs. P. O'Conner, Mrs. F. Young and Misses Ella and Jenny Harrigan, Lizzie and Nellie Buckley, Mianie Sullivan, Minnie Hynes, Josephine Phelan and Miss Scholard.

The familiar faces of Cornelius Young and Edward Foley peeped out from the box office, while the many friends of Messrs. Michael Lynch and Patrick Hogan recognized them as the gate keepers. Messrs. Alex. Carney Maurice Hynes and Martin Coughlin were kept busy throughout the day in disposing of tickets for the refreshment tables, the large sale gave ample testimony to their hustling powers. Mr. M. Halpin looked after the cigars and soft drinks. The dancing platform was well patronized and the orchestra was kept going for hours.

MR. STRATTON'S FOURTH MEETING.

A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL GATHERING.

A Cordial Reception to the Liberal Candidate—Convincing Speeches by Mr. Stratton and Mr. Roger—Mr. Hampden Burnham Delivers a Graceful Address.

Mr. Stratton addressed the electors of Smith at the Grange Hall, fifth line, on Wednesday evening. The hall was comfortably filled, nearly all the electors of that neighbourhood being present. Mr. Thos. Hall occupied the chair.

Mr. Roger and Mr. Stratton both defended the administrative and legislative record of the Mowat Administration, and forcibly presented its claim to a renewal of the confidence they have enjoyed for the past 22 years. Mr. Hampden Burnham appeared on behalf of Mr. Winch, and presented what he had to offer as arguments in a pleasant and decisive manner. He made his points well and remembered what many forget—to be courteous and gentlemanly in the style of his address, altogether making, from his point of view, a good speech. The new matter dealt with was a complaint of the large expenditure upon High Schools and Collegiate Institutes—a rather singular position for Mr. Burnham to take in view of his active and liberal interest in the local Collegiate Instute. The meeting was altogether a success and Smith promises to better the record of the past and give Mr. Stratton an increased majority.

Enlarging and Stock-Clearing Sale

Scores a Genuine Success!

ECONOMICAL BUYERS REAPING A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST!

Carrying Out Our Programme!

The Second Week of our Unavoidable Stock-Clearing Sale will be a brilliant one. The First Week was a good beginning—very good—from start to finish—a surprise even to the sanguine management. We carried out our promises to the letter; customers were assured and delighted, and a multitude of Bargains went forth to advertise the sale for the second week.

ALL THIS WEEK

Every department will be literally honey-combed with Remarkable Values, and we confidently expect that the Sale will prove the largest, intensest and most satisfactory which the ladies of Peterborough and district have ever witnessed. We have things to show and things to sell that no other store will care to compete against.

$30,000 WORTH

Of New and Fashionable Summer DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, MANTLES, &c., must ABSOLUTELY be cleared out to make room for the early Enlarging and Remodelling of our premises. Complete stocks of everything that a self-respecting store should have is here. Ladies need scarcely be reminded about such a stock as we carry—

—SILKS	—DOMESTICS	—PARASOLS
—DRESS GOODS	—SHAWLS	—UNDERWEAR
—PRINTS	—BLOUSES	—EMBROIDERIES
—LINENS	—CORSETS	—MILLINERY
—FLANNELS	—GLOVES	—MANTLES
—COTTONS	—HOSIERY	—NOVELTIES

Whatever is new, worthy and cheap in Dry Goods of every sort, is brought together here from all parts of the world. Sound, warrantable goods—and not a yard or piece of these will be reserved during this Stock-Clearing, if we can prevent it.

All the country now know of our substantial reasons for disregarding the item of profit at this sale. Workmen cannot do their work with a store full of goods, and we've no place to store them whilst

The Walls Are Coming Down

And the contractor is bound to have our building ready for occupation in time for early trade. It is impossible to attempt anything like a complete list of the remarkable values. They'll be found on every corner of the house; and as our name has always been associated with an honesty of purpose to carry out all we undertake, we are bound to maintain our reputation.

An additional staff of efficient salesmen and saleswomen had to be taken on last week, and ladies are assured that a further increase will be made to cope with the increasing demands upon us.

A STRONG PILLAR

Of the Golden Lion store is its DRESS GOODS Department. By it we are winning trade every day, because we keep faith with the ladies. It's Fair's way.

Materials were never finer, shades were never richer, qualities were never better, and prices were never lower. No room here for aught save the best and most fashionable that money can buy.

Just space to-day to mention a few

Talking Prices.

1,000 yards All-Wool Summer Dress Goods, such as may be seen quoted as worth 50c. and 75c. a yard, we are actually selling at 25c. and 35c.—less than one-half.

1,500 yards Best French Printed DELAINES, well worth 35c. a yard, and that would pay to keep in reserve rather than offer them now, as we are doing, at only 25c. a yard.

A Job Line of FRENCH DELAINES to be seen in other windows ticketed at double the figure, can be bought at the Golden Lion for only 12½c. a yard.

ROBE DRESS COSTUMES, matchless value, as follows:—

$12 00 Dress Costumes, now only $9 00
$11.00 Dress Costumes, now only $7.50
$10.00 Dress Costumes, now only $7 00
$9.00 Dress Costumes, now only $6.50
$8 50 Dress Costumes, now only $6.00
$7.50 Dress Costumes, now only $5.50
$6 50 Dress Costumes, now only $4.50
$6.00 Dress Costumes, now only $3.75

500 yards PRINTED PONGEE SILKS, regular price, until now, 50c. a yard, we now offer at 25c.

500 yards SHOT SURAH SILKS, worth easily 75c. a yard now 35c.

1,000 LADIES' COTTON BLOUSES at prices that have struck the lowest ebb, and never were equalled for values. Nothing newer under the sun. It's Fair's way.

Unparalleled value in PRINTS, CHAMBRAY'S, KRINKLE CHAMBRAY'S, SEERSUCKERS, DELAINETTES.

LACES AND INSERTIONS. WHITE, CREAM and TORO TONE Laces. Greatly admired by the Ladies. Lovely Black and Coloured SILK LACES that have been extolled for their beauty, variety and low price.

What Fashion Demands.

In Millinery and Mantles, Ribbons, Veiling and other novelties for the Ladies are to be found here, with all the prices running below the ordinary. The services of skilled Milliners at your command.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in. in width; Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels at 75c. Tapestries down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.

Umbrellas Re-covered while you wait.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

Comments on the Banquet to the American Officers.

DALY NOT TO BE RELEASED

Home Secretary Asquith Thinks it is Not Yet Time—Justin McCarthy's Appeal—Arab Slavers Defeated by the British—The Samoan Question.

LONDON, May 26.—The comments of the evening newspapers on the banquet in honor of Admiral Erben and the officers of the United States cruiser Chicago, expresses the most friendly sentiments toward the people of the United States. The following from the Evening Standard is a fair sample of the references to the event: "The sentiments of good-will expressed towards America must have the effect of leaving, as time goes on, the inclination to expect good-will and kindness from Great Britain. It would be useless to deny that many citizens of the United States feel no such inclination at the present time. We have but to continue proving to them the fact which to us seems too absurd for demonstration, that every Englishman feels friendly towards the United States and its people. In due time that will be understood, and so soon as the truth is grasped the kindness will assuredly be returned."

Daly Not to Be Released.

LONDON, May 26.—In the House of Commons James O'Connor asked Home Secretary Asquith to reconsider the case of John Daly, the dynamiter, with a view of releasing him from confinement. The extreme penalty imposed upon the Anarchist Polti was only ten years, while Daly had already been in prison more than ten years. Mr. Asquith said the comparison between the two sentences was misleading. It should be remembered that the Anarchist Farnara was condemned to twenty years in prison and by the same judge who sentenced Daly. The time had not yet come when Daly's sentence could be remitted. William Redmond said the Government had broken faith. During the last general election they had promised amnesty to Daly and other Irish prisoners. It was an outrage to detain Daly in prison a day longer.

Justin McCarthy's Appeal.

LONDON, May 26.—Justin McCarthy, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party has issued an appeal to the Irish people in pursuance of a unanimous resolution of the party, declaring that without immediate and generous help they cannot hope to maintain for the remainder of the session the constant attendance of the Irish members in Westminister. The appeal says: "Our friends in the United States and Canada have contributed most generously to our Parliamentary fund during the past year. But, in view of the industrial depression there and in Australia, we cannot expect large assistance from abroad." He adds: "Without a prompt and generous response, it is impossible to prepare for the general election, which cannot very long be delayed."

Arab Slavers Attack British.

LONDON, May 26.—Advices from West Africa state that the Arab slave trader Makanjira with 2,000 men recently made an attack upon Fort Maguire, a British stronghold near Lake Yassa. The fort was garrisoned with 200 men, who opened fire at the Arabs and after a sharp battle repulsed them with a loss of 110 killed. Makanjira was pursued and compelled to surrender.

The Samoan Question.

LONDON, May 26.—In the House of Commons J. A. Pease gave notice that on Monday he would ask the Government as to the truth of the report that they had informed the agents of Australia in London that Great Britain was taking steps to reconsider the Berlin agreement in regard to Samoa; also whether it is true that United States Ambassador Bayard had intimated that his Government desired to retire from participation in the operation of the Berlin Act.

Those Stolen Plans.

LONDON, May 26.—In the House of Commons Sir Ughtred-Kaye Shuttleworth, Secretary of the Admiralty, said in reply to an interrogation by Mr. Robert G. Webster that the Government had no information as to whether or not the stolen plans of the torpedo destroyer Havoc had found their way to the United States navy department.

Cattlemen Must Wait.

LONDON, May 26.—Mr. A. Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Henry Chaplin, said that it was probable the expert examination of the lungs of imported Canadian cattle now in progress would not be concluded before the end of June, when the report would at once be submitted to Parliament.

American v. Irish Bacon.

LONDON, May 26.—John Ross will ask the Government on Monday whether they are aware that the Northern railway of Ireland is carrying American becon at a lower rate than that charged for the transportation of Irish bacon to the detriment of Ireland.

TROUBLE IS BREWING

Situation of the Coal Strike Steadily Becoming More Serious.

NON-UNION MEN INTIMIDATED

In Several Cases They Are Compelled to Quit Work by the Violence of the Mobs—Coal Centres Alarmed—4000 Strikers Return to Work.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., May 26.—The striking miners destroyed much property near this town, but notwithstanding that many conflicts seemed inevitable all were averted and there was no bloodshed. All is now quiet, but hostilities will doubtless be renewed. Seventy deputies have left here to guard the mines four miles distant at Victor. Twenty of them were surrounded there and their arms and ammunition taken away. Twenty-three managed to reach the Independence mine, where they remained. The shaft house was next surrounded by 300 armed men and the alternative submitted the deputies to stack their arms and surrender or be blown up with giant powder which had been placed in beer kegs with fuses attached and ready for business on an adjoining hill. The guards agreed to leave and were escorted about a mile by a heavy guard and then permitted to return to the city. The balance of the force returned here by a circuitous route.

COAL BLUFF, Ind., May 26.—Five thousand miners held a meeting here yesterday and decided to march en masse to Pana, Ills., and force the miners there to quit work. The hour of departure is kept secret. The situation in this district is becoming serious.

OTTAWA, Ill., May 26.—Great excitement prevails here on account of a rumor that a mob of 1,000 strikers from Spring Valley and La Salle are on the march to this city to liberate the two ring-leaders imprisoned in the county jail. Mayor Schoch has a guard of 1,000 special policemen detailed to watch the roads leading into the city. The condition of affairs at Marseilles, where the miners are still at work and prepared to defend themselves, is about the same as in this city. Five hundred strikers from La Salle marched into Utica and stopped a small gang of men from digging coal. The wagons, tools, dump-carts and clothes belonging to the miners were burned by the mob. Ex Representative David Ross is in the city on behalf of the strikers, endeavoring to have the two men now in jail liberated. The mob want the men to have a hearing at La Salle, but Sheriff Taylor says they will get a preliminary hearing.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., May 26.—A special from Cripple Creek states that when the 200 deputies arrived in Victoria at noon they were surrounded by 400 miners and a battle ensued immediately. The deputies hid behind rocks and fired, scattering those who retreated. No injuries are reported. Miners are now moving on the Pharmacist Burns Summit and other mines to blow up the buildings. The Independence shaft has been destroyed.

DECATUR, Ill., May 26.—All but twelve of the miners working in the shafts near here were forced to quit work by a mob of 200 strikers. The non-union men made a show of resistance and ten of them were severely pounded by the miners. They re-crossed the Missouri River bridge and massed their forces about the Kansas and Texas shaft. Here they induced about one-third of the 2,500 employes to join them, and with this encouragement they went to the North Leavenworth shaft, the largest in the district, and 300 of the employes joined the union.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 26.—The 4,000 miners of the Coal Creek district who went out on strike on April 31 have all returned to work. They were compelled to return to work or starve.

Mrs. Cleveland's Mother's Denial.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 26.—A Buffalo paper publishes an interview held with Mrs. Perrine, mother of Mrs. Cleveland, as to the alleged trouble between the President and his wife. In regard to the story Mrs. Perrine said: "It is probably the work of some malicious person who wishes to spoil my daughter's visit, and I refused to allow her to read it or to think about it at all. All through the season in Washington Mrs. Cleveland entertained at the White House. There was a constant round of gayety; so much, in fact, that when the season closed she was thoroughly tired and much in need of rest and quiet. But she has continued to give her Monday receptions even after the season had closed and nearly all of the Cabinet ladies had left the capital."

Horsethieving Gang Arrested.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O.T., May 26.—Thirty well-known citizens of Tecumseh, an Indian town fifty miles east of this place, have been indicted for horse-stealing. Seventeen have been arrested. The organization extends from Arizona to Arkansas. Many murders have been committed by the gang.

Where Australia Beats Us.

LONDON, May 26.—Australia is leaving Canada far behind in the butter markets. Since the month of October Australia has sent to Great Britain 11,754 tons, displaying the continental butters in the British markets.

The French Cabinet Crisis.

PARIS, May 26.—M. Brisson has been asked by President Carnot to form a Cabinet. He promised the President to talk with his supporters and to-day will give his decision whether or not he would undertake the formation of a Ministry.

Guarding Against Cholera.

BERLIN, May 26.—The Koenigsberg press announces that as a precaution against the importation of cholera an order has been issued to compel all Russians entering Prussia to come via Illowo, where the strictest sanitary regulations are enforced.

Roberts Will Succeed to Ireland.

DUBLIN, May 26.—The Freeman's Journal says that General Lord Frederick Roberts, former commander-in-chief of the army in India, will succeed General Lord Garnet Wolseley, in the autumn, as commander of the forces in Ireland.

Drowned in the Baltic.

BERLIN, May 26.—A fishing boat capsized off Memel, on the Baltic, yesterday. Five persons were drowned.

CAUGHT ON HIS TINTYPE

An Escaped Murderer Entrapped by His Photograph in Montreal.

HIS STORY TO THE DETECTIVES

He Represented Himself as Being Entitled to a Reward for Unearthing a Supposed Plot in Massachusetts—The Man Is a Lunatic.

MONTREAL, May 26.—Yesterday a tall fair man, dressed in a rough gray suit, walked into the Central Station and asked Capt. Smith where the detective's office was. The officer showed him the way, and he met Chief Detective Quimet and Detective Robinson, to whom he told a strange story. He explained that a few years ago he was hired to help unravel a conspiracy which was afoot to burn up some of the principal public buildings of Chicopee, Mass. He was successful in this and the ringleaders were sent to the state prison, but the reward which was expected never came. He asked the detectives to help him to obtain his share of the reward, which he declared to have been $5,000, but he modestly intimated that he would be content with two or three hundred dollars as his share.

While he stated his case, however, the detectives had been comparing his face with a photograph which the chief detective has been carrying in his pocket. When the man finished his story, he was asked his name. "Samuel Alexander," was the reply. "Oh, yes, we have heard of you before," for the name on the back of the photo was Charles Alexander. His name was written on the list and a charge of murder made.

The facts of the case as given to the authorities are that Charles Alexander and a man named James Nesbitt enlisted together in the British army and served for six years in the 27th regiment. They emigrated together to this continent and settled in Chicopee, Mass. Both were married and their wives were like sisters. Alexander wanted to leave the place, but his wife refused, as he had such a violent temper and she did not wish to go where she had no friends.

Alexander got the idea into his head that the Nesbitts were the cause of this, and one day, meeting Nesbitt on the street, he shot him four times, killing him instantly. He was arrested and at his trial in the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts the plea of insanity was raised and he was committed to the sheriff of Hampden county with an order signed by the Chief Justice the Hon. Albert Mason and Justices Newry and Hopkins, to confine him in the State lunatic hospital at Worcester until released by order of the court. He was received there by the superintendent, Dr. Quimby, on July 1, 1892, and remained in the institution for a little over a year, when he escaped.

The matter was not reported at the time and it was only when his friends received letters from him dated from Montreal, in January last, that his escape became known. Mr. J. H. Whitney, one of the State officers, came here in search of him. Decoy letters were sent to him at the Montreal postoffice, but he was not to be caught. The letters were not called for. Mr. Whitney was obliged to return without having secured any further clue. It was then believed that he had left the city, but it was recently found that he was still here. Alexander is 38 years of age. The American officers have been wired and are expected here to-day.

PULLED DOWN THE FLAG.

The Q.O.R. Accused of Insulting the Stars and Stripes.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., May 26.—The American flag in front of the United States consul office, this city, was torn down and destroyed by some members of the Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto while under the influence of liquor. Some other members of the regiment who were in the crowd protested against the outrage, but were unable to prevent their excited companions from carrying out their intention. Lieut.-Col. Smith, D.A.G., apologized to United States Consul Willis for the act, but Mr. Willis would not accept the apology and notified the heads of his department at Washington and Ottawa. The incident is looked upon here as merely the result of too much whiskey, and while it is generally deplored by the citizens it is hoped that nothing serious will result.

TORONTO, May 26.—The officers of the Q.O.R. here say that the flag was not taken down by the men of their regiment, but by some youths who were under the influence of liquor.

The Affair Will Be Investigated.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The State Department last evening received a despatch from Consul-General Riley at Ottawa, stating that the Canadian authorities officially disavowed any knowledge of the alleged insult to the American flag at St. Thomas and gave him assurance that an investigation into the affair had already been instituted by the police. The consul says the occurrence was probably the act of some irresponsible individual and in nowise reflecting Canadian feelings.

Politics in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 26.—Ex-Premier Whiteway's supporters here decided to give him a public welcome and reception on Thursday. Bands were engaged, banners and transparencies were prepared, and a throng gathered at the railway depot to greet him. But when the train arrived it was found that neither Whiteway nor his lieutenant, Bond, were aboard, they being ashamed to face the ridicule of the city. All St. John's is laughing over the fizzle. It has done Whiteway's cause great harm. Even some of his supporters admit that his chances of ever recovering the Government are slight.

Hotelkeeper Suicides.

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., May 26.—Felix Morin, aged about 70 years, hotelkeeper in the Township of Malden, hanged himself last evening in his barn. He is an old resident of this section and leaves a number of daughters and sons in different parts of the county.

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1894.

THE PROVINCIAL SITUATION.

The Provincial general election contest is now under full way throughout Ontario and the situation looks exceedingly favourable to the re-election of the Ontario Government to power by a decisive majority. True, the forces at work in opposition are somewhat of an unknown quantity, whose importance as a factor in determining the result are somewhat more difficult of computation, than if the opposition had dared to face the Government on a square issue. The sympathy, however, of one of these new elements with the opposition is shown to a large extent, by the revelations of Mr. Meredith's "policy" speech at London on May 21st. Mr. Meredith devoted the major portion of his address to the sectarian issue, upon which he has fought several elections—with what success is a matter of record—and that he expects any better now shows a sanguine spirit that has survived many knock-down blows at the hands of the electors. The fatuous persistence with which he clings to this hobby is not understandable. Facts, repeatedly presented and obviously existent, show that there is not the slightest danger from the religious minority in this province, and the record of one Roman Catholic statesman, Hon. C. F. Fraser, is a decisive answer to all the oratorical froth and sectarian philippics ever uttered by Mr. Meredith and his allies. For twenty-one years Hon. Mr. Fraser has administered the Public Works Department of Ontario, spending in that time for public purposes the enormous sum of $8,150,487.71, over eight millions of dollars and there never has been made the charge that a single dollar of this immense amount went astray or that a single cent was corruptly or improperly expended. Where is there another province or state that can boast such an impeccable administrator? What Government ever had such an honest Minister of Public Works? What statesman in Canada can be held up, as an incorruptible and honest incumbent of a great trust, to the children of Ontario as a type of political manhood to be revered and imitated; and, though Hon. Mr. Fraser be one of Mr. Meredith's "common enemy," his name will go down in history, to borrow the words of an independent journal, as that of a man whose "fiercest opponents never questioned his title to rank as one of the most faithful administrators of public money who ever held office in any government or any country." Here is the answer, incarnate in Hon Mr. Fraser, to Mr. Merrdith's repeated assaults on the honoured ex-minister's co-religionists. What else composed the platform of Mr. Meredith improvised for the Opposition for this election? A puerile attack on the timber policy of the Mowat Government, the "Yankee" fad of biennial sessions, a relegation of the liquor licenses to the ward politicians, a better ballot system, and the abolition of Government house. These few shattered planks and a policy of petty detraction and scandal by his journals and co-workers form the basis of Mr. Meredith's newly-framed policy with which he expects to defeat the Mowat Government.

In contrast to the shreddy and temporary programme of Mr. Meredith and the opposition, is the solid practical policy of the Mowat Government. This policy is not a thing of yesterday, but the result of an evolution for twenty-two years of practical, wise, prudent and statemanship, a development of deeds, like the British constitution, built upon a careful study of the wants of the people, an answer to the demands of palpable needs. A solid substantial record is the policy of the Mowat Government, not a mere paper theory flung together for the occasion to catch the approval of passing public opinion. The Mowat Administration goes to the country on its record and by its record it will either stand or fall. The Mowat Government has looked after every interest.

It has legislated wisely for the farmer and spent in twenty-two years the large sum of $3,233,094 in aid of agriculture. No one will say that this money has not been wisely spent.

In connection with Crown Lands it has pursued a conservative and, at the same time, progressive policy; it has wisely administered the provincial domain, developing new settlements, and, in this direction, has spent on roads and bridges in new districts $2,500,000, and has in every way sharply looked after the interests of the province.

The Ontario Government's record as to Education is a proud one. It has followed the advice of Dr. Ryerson, the greater, (the less is trying to undo his work), in placing the department under a responsible minister. It has improved the school system on fifty distinct lines and made it the most complete and effective of any similar system in the world. It has spent in twenty-two years twelve million dollars for the education of the children of the province and out of every $6 spent for all other purposes, $1 goes to the schools. The Ontario Education Department took the first and only prize for a complete system of Education at the World's Fair.

The record of the Mowat Government as to the labouring classes is a splendid one. It has, according to the report of the Dominion Trades and Labor Council, passed forty acts of the Legislature to improve the condition of the working men; it collects and publishes valuable statistics on labour, wages and cost of living; it has passed acts to secure compensation to working men for injuries; to secure to wives and children the benefit of life assurance; to enable labour organizations to incorporate and many other acts which make the Ontario Government's labour legislation regarded as the most advanced and progressive of any self-governed country.

The Mowat Government has protected provincial rights upon a series of appeals from the decisions of the Dominion Government to the Privy Council, winning victories in every case (eight), and winning substantial advantages to this province.

The Mowat Government has established manhood suffrage and provided for the registration of manhood suffrage voters in cities, and generally improved the condition of the franchise, tending to purity of representatition and general suffrage.

The Mowat Government has effected radical law reforms making law less costly and greatly simplifying procedure. The Mowat Government has produced a municipal law which in the opinion of Chief Justice Harrison "forms the most complete and perfect code of the kind he knew of in any country of the world." It has distributed $3,388,777 to municipalities under the municipal loan fund and loaned $1,180,175 for drainage works. The Mowat Government has expended since 1872 a total of 71½ millions and of this sum, over 60 millions or 84 per cent. have been returned to the people in a way to lessen municipal taxation. This is done in grants to education agriculture, asylums hospitals, etc., etc. In addition to this liberal expenditure the province has a surplus of $6,135,480, and no debt. That all this money was wisely spent is shown by the fact that the Opposition only objected to only $200,000 out of 32 million or one half of one per cent.

The Ontario Government has in 22 years paid out $5,959,084 to help build 3000 miles of railway to open up new country and give settlers access to markets. It has spent 14 million in 22 years upon hospitals, charities and asylums, for the relief of the afflicted and the unfortunate who, but for this expenditure would have to have been maintained by the municipalities at great cost or left to suffer and constitute a reproach to Christian civilization.

There are many other points of the Mowat Government's record which could be referred to with equal credit but space will not permit at present. With a policy founded on such a record, which will be bettered in the future as experience and circumstances permit, the Mowat Government goes to the country, and the indications are that the sober common sense of the electorate, undeterred by the cries of faction, will record another verdict of approval on the 26th of June.

And the indications are that both West and East Peterborough will contribute to the retention of the Mowat Government in power. Mr. Stratton is meeting with the most encouraging assurances of support in every quarter. His record for the past eight years has been an excellent one. The manner in which he has exerted himself to the utmost of his power and ability to serve the best interests of the riding, has won public commendation to a very large degree. Detraction and petty carping on unessential details represent the only available grounds of opposition. A record of true and proven efficiency is one that will commend itself strongly to the practical support of the electorate.

THUS is what Mr. Meredith said at London in his great policy-brewing speech respecting what his policy was in the interests of the farmer, the mechanic and the labourer:—

Mr. Meredith's speech is reported in the Empire to the length of ten columns. Mr. Meredith bestows three and a half columns of this to a denunciation of the "common enemy" and to stirring up sectarian strife and bitterness, but he could not find time to say one word of what he intended doing for the great toiling classes, the mechanic, the farmer and the labourer. Seeing that about a thousand million dollars are invested in the farming business and seeing that the workers, that is the people who work with their hands, are two-thirds of the whole population, it would be thought that they were worthy at least of a "mere mention" by Mr. Meredith. When he proposes to draft a policy to govern Ontario he should not overlook seven-tenths of his constituency. Mr. Meredith might condense his policy into a line—"the Opposition wish to get into office."

THE Mr. A. F. Wood who drew $12,086 from the Dominion Government in 1891, 1892 and 1893 is the same Mr. A. F. Wood who delivered a virtuously indignant speech in the Legislature over the alleged fat fees of Sheriffs and Registrars in Ontario. Besides drawing this $12,086 the same Mr. A. F. Wood drew $1,800 as a legislator and attended to his private business as well. The fees of which he complained average from $1,000 to $1,500 a year. The duties for which Mr. Wood drew his $12,086 would not consume one-third, perhaps not one-quarter, of his time. Either Mr. Wood was overpaid, is ungenerous to Sheriffs and Registrars, or thinks himself five or six times as valuable a man.

THE Protestant Protective Association has twenty-seven candidates in Ontario constituencies running for the legislature. Of these, no fewer than seventeen are or have been Conservatives. There seem to be no former Liberals among their candidates. Eleven of their candidates are Patrons of Industry, and one of them is an 'Equal Righter.' It seems, therefore, that while the Patrons of Industry are mostly Liberals or of Liberal sympathies, the Protestant Protective Association is mostly made up of Conservatives.—Witness.

ONTARIO is "not in it." The statistical record, a "blue book" compiled by Dominion statistican Geo. Johnson, contains a statement of the debts of the several provinces of the Dominion, but omits Ontario from the list. This slight put upon the first province of the Dominion might at first be put down to partizan malice, the Ottawa Government being Conservative and the Ontario Liberal. But the true explanation is that Ontario is "not in it"—Ontario has no public debt.

THE Toronto World very much in the spirit of the boy who whistles in the dark to show he's not afraid, heads its report of the London meeting of Mr. Meredith with "Mowat's Death Knell," and describes his policy as "Energy, Economy, Efficiency and Equal Rights." The jingle of alliterative rubbish is not a very formidable death knell. The World evidently intends Sir Oliver to die E-sy.

ONTARIO, which has been governed by the Mowat Administration for twenty-two years, is the only province in the confederation that has no public debt.

WITHOUT SOLICITATION.

Paine's Celery Compound is Strongly Indorsed by an Ontario Lady.

Three Bottves of the Wonderful Compound Effebt a Great Change—Nervousness and Constant Sick Headache Banished—Sleep is Sweeter and Better—General Health Vastly Improved.

MRS. E. WILCOX.

Mrs. E. Wilcox, of Creemore, Ont., is one of the best known ladies in that section of country. Young and old in and around Creemore are acquainted with this worthy and honoured lady, and implicitly rely on any statemet she makes.

Mrs. Wilcox for some years suffered terribly and keenly from nervousness and continual sick headache. Her condition was serious and alarming at times, owing to the fact that she was unable to get sufficient sleep to rest a weary and run-down body.

For a long period money was spent for medicine and doctoring that wrought no good results. A grand and happy change was immediately effected when Mrs. Wilcox commenced to use Paine's Celery Compound. The virtues of the great medicine proved as efficacious in her case as it has in thousands of others.

Mrs. Wilcox, desirous of recommending Paine's Celery Compound, writes as follows:—

"I take this opportunity to express my gratitude for the good that I and my friends have received from your valuable discovery, Paine's Celery Compound.

"For years I have suffered from nervousness and constant sick headache; at times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks.

"I have tried many medicine's and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundreth part of the value from them that I obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have done for years.

"Being one of the earliest settlers in this place, I am known to all the surrounding country. I feel it a duty to let others know about the medicine that has done me so much good. I send this testimonial without any solicitation.

OTTAWA NOTES.

Teachers Favor Establishment of Industrial Schools for Incorrigibles.

OTTAWA, May 26.—The Ottawa Teachers Association has passed a resolution favoring the establishment of industrial schools for incorrigibles.

W. R. Meredith, leader of the Opposition in the Ontario Legislature, is in the city. He is here on Supreme Court business, and refuses to say anything of the prospects of the approaching provincial election.

John Bruce, contractor for the city contagious disease hospital, which has gained considerable notoriety through its condemnation by Provincial Health Inspector Bryce, has applied for the issue of a mandamus to compel the city to hand over to him again the buildings on which the city ordered work stopped on May 3, pending an investigation into alleged irregularities. He wants the buildings returned in the same condition as when work was stopped. This is practically impossible, as the foundations have since so crumbled that to replace them would cost almost as much as the buildings are worth.

The Countess of Aberdeen has left for New York en route to England. She is accompanied by her secretary, Miss Wilson, and Mr. Erskine, A.D.C. Her Excellency will return to Canada in July, when she will join Lord Aberdeen at Halifax. His Excellency intends to remain in Ottawa for the intercolonial conference which commences June 23.

At the meeting of the Royal Society Archbishop O'Brien of Halifax read a paper on "The Supernatural in Nature Considered in the Light of Metaphysical Science." Prof. Prince, Commissioner of Fisheries for the Dominion, and Sir James Grant of Ottawa gave a technical account of the process by which the yolk sac is absorbed by young fishes.

Queen's Birthday Honors.

LONDON, May 26.—The Gazette announces that the Queen has conferred the honor of Knighthood upon the following gentlemen: Mr. Frank Smith, member of the Canadian Senate; Judge Le Casault of the Superior Court of Quebec; Arthur Renwick, Commissioner of Sydney, New South Wales, to the World's Fair at Chicago, and J. J. Grinlinton, Commissioner of Ceylon to the World's Fair at Chicago. These honors have been also announced: William C. Van Horne, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, appointed Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George; C. E. de Boucherville, Canadian Senator, Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George; Viscount Wolseley, Commander of the forces in Ireland, and Sir Donald Stewart, Commander-in-chief of Her Majesty's Forces in India, field marshals.

A HORRIBLE AFFAIR.

Ed. Bull Cuts His Wife's Throat and Attempts Suicide.

KEANEY, N.J., May 26.—Ed. Bull cut his wife's throat while she was asleep and then after watching her die cut his throat. Bull wrote a letter, in which he declared his wife was in a delicate condition as a result of intimacy with his brother. Mrs. Bull and her ten-year-old son retired about 12 o'clock. The boy was awakened by a struggle in the dark between his mother and father. He saw in the dim light his father kneeling on the bed, grasping his mother by the right shoulder, and in his hand a razor, with which he was gashing her throat. The boy shrieked in terror and ran to an adjoining room, where an older brother was stopping. The two returned and as they entered the room they saw their father fall with the blood streaming in torrents from his throat. The mother was dead. Bull was taken to the hospital and may recover.

The charges made in the letter are denied by every member of the family and the family physician. The dead woman was industrious, but her husband was a shiftless and surley.

JAMES TYNAN'S BOOK.

The Notorious "Number One" Will Tell of the Phœnix Park Murders.

LONDON, May 26.—The St. James Gazette announces the approaching publication of a book written by James Tynan, the notorious "Number 1" who was so long sought after in connection with the Burke and Cavendish murders in Phœnix Park, Dublin, in 1882. The book, it is announced, will give the full story of the murders and deal exhaustively with the movements of the Irish revolutionary and parliamentary parties since 1861.

The Gazette, in commenting on the book, says: "It is not generally realized in England how tired the American revolutionists have become of the constitutional home rule movement. These disclosures are a symptom of the increased unrest of the physical force party, and are not unlikely to hasten the breaking up of the Irish party."

A Few Words to Mothers.

Baby's Friend and Protector Found in Lactated Food.

Only a few words dear mothers about baby foods; this is a matter you are interested in. If your baby is not gaining in flesh, health and strength, depend upon it, you are using the wrong food. Baby's life depends upon the quality of it daily nourment.

The majority of prepared foods are unfit for infantile life; they are indigestible, produce irritation and inflammation, and cause serious disturbances of the digestive organs.

Mothers, you have a perfect substitute for breast milk in Lactated Food—a diet possessing all the constituents that are found in pure human milk. Physicians know this, and strongly urge mothers to use Lactated Food for their infants.

It is well-known that cholera infantum and dysentery result from poor foods. It is an established fact that ordinary cow's milk often carries with it disease and death. In the hot weather it is imperative to avoid poor foods and suspicious cow's milk. A daily diet of pure and life-giving Lactated Food is baby's only salvation, its only security against prevailing summer troubles. Lactated Food justly claims to "Save Babies' Lives."

WILL SUE FOR FIVE MILLIONS.

Archdeacon Nouri's Proposed Action Against the United States.

LONDON, May 26.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes the story of the alleged grievances of Nouri, archdeacon of Babylon, who accuses Dr. G. S. Smith and others of having wrongfully secured his incarceration in an asylum at Oakland, Cal. Nouri declares his purpose of suing the United States Government for $5,000,000 damages and demands the intervention of Great Britain on the ground that the time of his detention in the asylum he was an ambassador from the Queen's subjects in Malabar.

Finding Buried Cities.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A Recorder special from Mapami, Mexico, says: The party of American archæologists who left here a week ago on an exploring trip to the recently discovered silent and deserted city in the Sierra Madre mountains have just returned. They bring a sensational story of the discovery of another hidden city in the same locality, about five Spanish leagues north of the first find. The leader of the party is C. W. Pantione, who states that the second of these cities is very similar to the first in appearance, and that they were evidently at one time twin capitals of a great and wealthy empire that existed long before the time of the Aztecs. The two cities are connected by a series of underground passages, hewn out of the solid rocks in the precipitous mountains.

Explosion Among German Soldiers.

BERLIN, May 26.—A terrific explosion occurred in the balloon department of the army in the Tempelhoffer field. The explosion took place in a section of the department where the field cylinders were being charged with gas. One of the cylinders exploded, causing the explosion of a number of other charged cylinders, and the flames from these communicated to the gas reservoir containing the main supply. Although pieces of glass were flying in every direction, not one of the soldiers was hurt. The explosions were almost simultaneous.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Matthews' Pork Packing Scheme.

Ottawa Free Press, May 19th:—"The heads of the various committees of the Hull city council met last evening to consider an offer which has been made the city by Mr. Geo. Matthews, pork packer, of Lindsay, to erect a large slaughter house and pork packing establishment beside the Canadian Pacific railway in Hull. Mr. Matthews, who was present, explained that if the city chose to grant him exemption from taxes for a certain number of years he would start the business in question, which would employ from fifty to one hundred men. He also said that in the near future he might transfer his barrel manufactory from Peterborough to Hull. After listening to Mr. Matthews' statements and asking a number of questions, it was decided to bring the matter before the next meeting of the city council on Monday night. Mayor Aubry was seen on the matter and said he thought the requests of Mr. Matthews were exceedingly fair.

Grand Orange Lodge.

The Grand Orange Lodge of British America will meet in Lindsay on Tuesday, May 29th, when it is expected that at least two hundred delegates will be present. Representatives will be present from the Maritime Provinces in the East, to the fertile plains of Manitoba and the North-West Territories in the West; the largest representation, however, will be from our own Ontario. The first session of the Grand Lodge will commence at two o'clock on Tuesday, when the chair will be taken by Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, Grand Master and Sovereign. The Grand Black Chapter will meet on Monday, 28th, in the lodge room of L. O. L., No. 357, Bro. Sir Knight R. Weir, Grand Master, presiding. Members who may not have a vote in either of the grand bodies will be welcomed as visitors. The grand Orange lodge will be opened in the royal scarlet, the grand chapter in the red cross degree, but both are afterwards reduced to admit visitors, the one to the Orange and the other to the black, so that any member in good standing can attend the meeting.

New Fancy Goods Store.

Mrs. McEachern, who did the largest fancy goods business in Peterborough twelve years ago, has opened out again in the store No. 422 George street, just two north of her former place of business and next door to Foot and McWhinnie's. Mrs. McEachren will doubtless be remembered by many of our townspeople, as she carried on business in the same line here for about ten years, and had a well-established trade. Her present stock consists of all lines of goods usually found in a fancy goods store, with the addition of ladies' and children's underwear, children's hats and similar wares. Look for her business announcement next week. 1dw

Henry Bros.—Change in Firm Name.

M. L. Henry & Co. have been in business a little over one year, and during that time the management was entirely in the hands of Mr. Myles L. Henry. The business has now grown to such an extent that it is found necessary for Mr. Peter Henry (one of the partners), to devote the whole of his time to the interests of the firm. While both partners have the same interests in the welfare of the business, Mr. P. Henry will particularly look after the books, while Mr. M. L. Henry will attend to the selecting and purchasing of goods, the careful performance of which duty during the past year no doubt had a great deal to do with the wonderful success of the business. We speak for the firm bright prospects among the business houses of Peterborough. In consequence of this arrangement the name of the firm will hereafter be "Henry Bros," which will, doubtless, soon stand as high in popular favour as the old firm name. 2d122

The Albion, of Ashburnham.

It's easy enough, if you know how—to run a hotel and make a success of it. Even when you think you know how—as Goliath did before he was struck on the head with a little stone—it has sometimes proved that they knew about it after all. Mr. T. Hogan, of the Albion Hotel, Ashburnham, is one of those lucky fellows that seem to "know how." The Albion has been well conducted, and is so liberally patronized by farmers and the public generally that its success is well known, especially in East Peterborough. So encouraged is Mr. Hogan with his business, he has commenced to make some extensive improvements that will add to the appearance of the house. New wall paper has been put on the sitting room, dining room and bar room, and these are also to be painted and otherwise improved. Mr. Fred Cook has the job in hand.

The Boy Orator.

The "Boy Orator" pleased the audience that assembled to hear him in the Methodist church last Thursday night, and those who have a knowledge of execution gave him credit with having an extraordinary memory and excellent power of articulation. The little fellow delivered his piece with comparative ease. His rendering of "Belshazzar's Night Feast," for one so young was most creditably done. Under proper training the lad will become an elocutionary star. Mr. Stuart, father of the boy, spoke on the power of evil habit, mentioning many, but confining himself to a few. His address contained good thoughts and was clearly delivered. Had his lecture been given by some one with a title to his name it would have been considered a fine effort. About three hundred people listened to him and his talented little son.—Campbellford Herald.

—Certain local sportsmen wonder if they can still catch fish with rod and line. Does the act apply to still fishing? It might be well to say that any kind of bass fishing is unlawful during the close season. Fishery overseers, however, do not worry the ordinary angler.

—The studio of G. W. Mulligan is now open for pupils. Owing to the hard times Mr. Mulligan will give lessons in Voice Culture and Sight Reading at half his regular price so as to give all a chance rich and poor. Studio 274 Hunter Street. Open from 8 a. m. till 9 p. m.

Silver collection taken at the door.

—The season has already opened at Jacobs' Island and dates are being made for pic-nics and excursions by those who know and appreciate this popular summer resort. The Citizen's Band of Lindsay take an excursion there on the 20th, the farmers of Victoria go on June 9th, and the Independent Order of Foresters of Bridgenorth and Selwyn intend holding a pic-nic about the 12th.

—Norwood High School will send up sixty candidates for the July exams. There are six writing for matriculation in arts, part of these will try the honour exams; 18 for junior leaving or second class and 36 primary. This is the largest number ever writing here and it certainly appears to be very large from a school of this size. We have no doubt, judging from the exceeding hard work done during the past year by both staff and pupils, that a great many of these will pass and the school maintain its enviable reputation.—Norwood Register.

—Some men catch more fish than other men do. It is supposed that this is because they are more skilful. Those who take careful note, however, observe that the more successful fisherman devotes more time to it. He begins early, sticks more closely to it, and quits later. The conclusion is that the man who catches most fish fishes most hours. It is precisely the same way with advertisers. Some are skilful, some are not. The most successful advertiser is always the one who does the most of it, and keeps it up the longest.

—Mr. James Cain, hog buyer for Mr. Geo. Matthews, shipped to the Peterborough packing house on Monday last four car load of very fine hogs. An extra fine load of seven berkshires was brought in by Mr. J. C. Parish, of Powle's Corner. The hogs were but six months old and weighed nearly 200 pounds each.... Mr. Jas. Fleury shipped from Mariposa station, on Tuesday last, a car load to the Peterborough packing house, and on Wednesday a car load was shipped from Cannington to the same place, also by Mr. Fleury.—Lindsay Post.

—An exchange says:—Only a man who has "been there" could have written the following:—Sing a song of penitence, a fellow full of rye; four and twenty serpents danced before his eye. When his eye was opened he shouted for his life; wasn't he a pretty chump to go before his wife? His hat was in the parlour underneath a chair, his boots were in the hallway, his coat was on the stair, his trousers in the kitchen, his collar on the shelf; but he hadn't any notion where he was himself. When the moon was breaking someone heard him call; his head was on the ice-box and that was best of all.

Frank Brown says Dodd's Kidney Pills Give Universal Satisfaction—The Reason is They Never Fail to Cure.

SHELBURNE, May 14.—Frank Brown, the well-known druggist here, says: "In the past eighteen months, I have sold 119 dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Considering the quantity I have sold, I have had an opportunity of ascertaining whether the pills give satisfaction or not. I can say, that during my fifteen years' experience in the drug business, I never sold a medicine that gives the universal satisfaction that Dodd's Kidney Pills do. I am satisfied any person suffering with kidney trouble only requires to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial, and he will be convinced of their wonderful curative properties.

ENNISMORE'S ANNUAL PIC-NIC.

A Great Day of Enjoyment Promised—An Exciting Canoe Race.

The annual pic-nic of St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, will be held in a beautiful grove at Gannon's Narrows on Thursday, June 14th. One of the great attractions of the occasion will be a canoe race for a prize of $10 in gold, or, for those who do not wish to risk their amateur standing, a silver cup of equal value. This event is open to the two counties of Peterborough and Northumberland, and already there are two entries, which insure a speedy and game canoe contest. The conditions governing this race are:—Distance, 1¼ mile—three-quarters of a mile with turn; canoes must not be more than 17 feet in length nor less than 28 inches beam. The two entries already made are Mr. Geo. Taylor and Gardiner Nicholls, two old rivals, who will doubtless put up an exciting race. But the entries are not confined to these two; any other canoeist in the two counties can enter the contest. In addition to this grand canoe race there will be a full programme of sports and games, excellent dinner will be provided and speeches appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. Special reduction in railway and steamer fares for the occasion. Remember the date, June 14th. and watch posters for particulars.

A Reminiscene.

Sergt. Major Rundle called on the EXAMINER this morning and stated that the paragraph in Friday's issue, recording the death at Paris, France, of Mr. Travers, puts him in a remeniscent mood. Sergeant Major Rundle's regiment, when he was in actual service, was Her Majesty's 17th (Leicestershire) regiment and when it was garrisoned in Toronto, in 1838, one of the nine sons of the late Mr. Travers, who were in the army, was Capt. J. O. Travers, of "C" company. He was one of the finest officers of the mess, and popular with all ranks of the regiment. In 1839 the 17th was removed to Dublin, Ireland. Capt. Travers was acting brigade-Major and Sergeant Major Rundle, who was drill instructer of the regiment, had the duty of instructing Capt. Travers in the field duties of his new position. He speaks in terms of the highest praise of Capt. Travers' sterling qualities as a soldier and a gentleman.

THE CASH SYSTEM

Is All We Claim and Find it to be.

OUR REPLY TO "POINTS TO BUYERS."

The letter that appeared in this week's papers entitled, "Points to Buyers," might as well have been addressed to our firm, as many of the points referred to do not apply to any other house in the trade.

Owing to its many extreme exaggerations, we feel that, in justice to our system of doing business, as well as to all our customers who are paying Spot Cash for their goods, that a short reply will be quite in order.

We claim that our competitor, who wrote the article in question, tried to mislead the readers of our papers by clothing his remarks in such a manner as to give the readers of it the impression that his views were solicited by the newspapers and written by them, concealing the fact that he was paying so much a line for it in addition to his regular space as an advertisement.

At the outset, let us state that our brother merchant undertook to write about a subject (The Spot Cash System of doing business) of which he knows nothing, reminding us of a bachelor minister who undertook to preach, or rather, lecture, on the subject of "Marriage is a Failure," after which an old lady said to him:—"If you were only married you would have a different story." We might say to our friend if he would only try the Spot Cash System we are quite positive that he would write in a different strain.

He maintains that in a business where a certain amount is credit and the balance spot cash, a great deal of trouble would arise by having two prices.

We maintain that no man can do a cash and a credit business without having two prices, unless he shows favours.

Of course we are well aware that a man doing a credit business would like to hide, from those who pay him cash down, the fact that they are paying the same price as their neighbour who gets a year's credit more or less.

As far as the difference between the prices of a house doing cash trade and that of one doing a large and long credit, being 25 per cent., we do not hold that this applies to every article, as we do not get this profit on all the goods we sell; but we can prove, and have done so to our customers, that we are selling many lines 25 per cent. cheaper than credit houses are selling a like quality, although we maintain there should not be quite so much difference. It may be possible that with cash on hand, going direct to the manufacturers, we may have bought 10 to 15 per cent. cheaper than they did.

He states "That on a careful credit system his business has been built up, and that spot cash is almost unknown." Regarding the first of these statements, we can say, having had experience, that if a merchant, in days gone by or even now, could do a large credit business for a few years without having a large percentage of bad debts, he would, of course, very soon roll up a large capital account. But the days for building up a live trade on a credit system is gone by, as too many of the buying public are prepared to pay cash at the time they make their purchases, as in this way they find they never buy a cent's worth until they want it. We only need refer you to such houses as you find in all the large cities, who are doing the most successful business in the matter of volume of sales, although, in some cases, the profits are very small, which, of course, must be a benefit to the customers of that house.

Or, if you ask any man doing business in whatever line, how he would like to carry on his trade, Cash or Credit, without exception he says CASH, and, if we are not mistaken, our friend would say the same thing if it was not for the fact that the few months' credit he gives seems to be his only drawing card to those who cannot pay spot cash, and he fears the result of a change.

As to spot cash being almost unknown, we say, without fear of contradiction, that while he was writing that statement he knew it to be false. He maintains that cash and 30 days credit are the same, and that the wholesale usage is four months; we find that we can do better with the wholesale trade and get larger discounts by paying for them in ten days from date of invoice. Of course if we wanted to take the four months the y would only be pleased to charge them at the advance price, and in no case do we find a wholesale merchant preferring his client taking the time, as money in hand to them means volumes of purchasing power.

Besides all this we venture to say that even a small precentage of his customers pay cash when they buy, but he would like to cover that up so that they would be ignorant of the fact of their paying the same price as those obtaining credit.

More than this our business is all spot cash and we could give our friend a surprise in the matter of the trade the cash system has brought us.

He further states that to ask a man to pay cash for his goods would be equal to a slap in the face. All we need say is that our customers like the slapping process, as when they get slapped on one side this week, after having got some genuine bargains they are sure to come back again, risking to get the other side slapped.

As to his losses in bad debts averaging yearly ½ of one per cent, well,—every merchant doing a credit business will laugh and say:—what a whopper—if he does it, I can't.

He also states that there are very few people who can pay spot cash for their goods. As to this, we can only sympathise with him for his misfortune in trading with that class of people, as we find that in no town of its size are their so many well to do people as there are in Peterborough, and who, to our good fortune, are quite willing to pay cash down for their goods from day to day.

As to going personally to Europe to buy goods, all we need say is, that as soon as his business is large enough and he has capital enough, our friend will be quite ready to go. As far as buying here from nine-tenths of the so called manufactnrers agents is concerned, we would much prefer to buy from the best wholesale houses in the country, as these so called agents are travellers who are located in Montreal or elsewhere and who have a large commission on all they sell, and said commission is always added on the price by the manufacturer.

Our experience is that only the smallest manufacturers give their samples to such agents, and to compare the chance of getting a good assortment from three or four trunk fulls of samples, with buying direct from hundreds of manufacturers who can always give turns and terms no agent can give, and with a ware house in each case full of samples; we say the chance of choice is not to be compared.

Besides, these agents who come here, nearly all of them give us first call and we can buy the cream of their goods if we wish, but in no case have we seen the value to tempt us doing so, although they always quote prices to us from a private book, as our syndicate always gets the lowest wholesale price. For instance in buying say 40 thousand dollars worth of goods, contrast the agents 10 per cent. with the cost of going across to buy and you can readily see which is the cheaper.

As to being away from business, we think we put in as many hours at our business as he does, after we deduct the European trip. If, as he says, we are apt to overload by going to Europe and have to cut prices to unload again, we would like to know who gets the benefit, not us, not our competitors, but the public who take advantage of these sales. We are quite confident that there is no danger of our friend overloading from the small assortment it is his misfortune to have to select from.

He states that he is quite satisfied with his business; if so, why go to the expense of the "advertisement letter." We have no illwill to any one, we are simply pushing our trade in a fair, square, above board manner, at least towards those who buy from us. We could not be expected to turn in and help our competitors or to ask any of our customers to go and buy elsewhere. We think the whole trouble with our friend is that he sees too many people going round the corner wending their way up the side street to the People's Popular Cash Store.

CLIMAX OF THE FEUD OF YEARS.

J. J. BRAELEY IN THE TOILS.

He is Committed for Trial on a Charge of Arson.

Detective Murray Thinks he Has Run the Perpetrator of the Crime to Earth—Dmaging Evidence Adduced—The Footprints Compared—Where was Braeley that Night?

For the past four or five years there have been wars and rumors of wars out in North Monaghan in the vicinity of what is known as the Grange Hall. Later, the rumors took definite shape and the law was evoked and from time to time since 1890 the name of one James J. Braeley has been periodically figuring in the courts.

Snatches of the strange history connected with both the man and hall occasionally crept into the papers and the public, from time to time, were furnished with additional information connected with the case. Still, only coming by scraps and at intervals, the thread of the interesting story was lost by many and a brief resume may not be out of place as the climax appears to be approaching, since one of the principal actors in the drama, which at times threatened to develop into a tragedy, has been placed under arrest and committed for trial with the grave charge of arson hanging over his head.

In 1878 the residents living on the various side lines in North Monaghan within a radius of several miles of the farm of James J. Braeley resolved to establish a branch of the order known as the Grange, among themselves. A charter was procured in due time and the members looked around for a convenient hall in which to hold their meetings. Not finding anything to suit them in the neighborhood the proposition of erecting one which could be used at their own convenience was talked of and the idea and plans were drawn for the erection of the proposed hall.

Mr. Braeley was one of the most active workers in the interests of the new lodge and generously leased about a quarter of an acre of land on the corner of his farm to the Grange at the nominal rental of one dollar per annum for 21 years.

A strange provision was inserted in the lease to the effect that if the lodge at any time faltered by the wayside and became defunct, that in such case the lease was to be considered null and void and the land would revert to its owner.

Mr. Braeley was time and again elected to the highest position it was in the power of the lodge to bestow, and the new hall, the key of the building was at all times left in his charge.

About ten years after the formation of the Grange Mr. Braeley, it is alleged, became dissatisfied for some reason and lost all interest in the proceedings. Meetings were only called at irregular periods and long lapses of time were permitted to pass in the intervals between each one. In 1890 he moved into Peterborough with his family and shortly afterwards claimed that the Grange had become defunct, and announced his intention of taking possession of the land again. The locks on the doors were changed and the seal and charter of the Grange mysteriously disappeared. In vain the Grangers remonstrated and pointed out that the local branch of the organization was a live and flourishing one. Braeley would pay no attention to what they said and so the Grangers, it is stated, took the law into their own hands one evening and again changed the locks on the doors for others, of which they held the keys.

THEN THE FUN BEGAN, or, at least, what was termed fun by those who were not interested in the bitter quarrel which ensued.

Braeley, it is said, again changed the fastenings on the doors and made dire threats against any who would dare trespass on what he termed his property. The Grange, however, continued to hold its meetings in the accustomed place, managing to obtain an entrance in some way.

One night, however, a rude interruption occurred in the placid course of events. When the members turned up to hold their usual meeting they found that Braeley had esconsed himself within, and barricading the doors appeared as though he was master of the situation. In vain were the windows and doors tried. All were securely fastened and no entrance could be obtained Farmer Braeley chuckled aloud in his glee at having outwitted his former friends of the Grange, but he reckoned without his host if he thought that the stalwart sons of toil were to be so easily bested or turned from their purpose.

A determined effort was made to force the door. It bent in with the combined weight of half a dozen men pressed against it. The hinges began to crack and the lock to strain and groan with the pressure brought to bear, when suddenly the sharp rifle rang out from inside, again and again it spitefully spit out a messenger of death in the shape of a bullet, but none of the three which were fired found a billet in the body of any member of the Grange. The first bullet had flown wide and pierced the door at the top and before the others came tearing their way through the door the Grangers had abandoned their perilous position and estimating discretion as the better part of valour, had betaken themselves out of range.

A council of war was held, but as none wished to be shot down like dogs without being able to see their enemy, it was decided to allow Braeley to remain in possession for the time being, but to bring an action against him for the murderous assault they considered he had made upon them. Police Magistrate Dumble was seen, but as the action had taken place outside the town limits he could do nothing, as it was not within his jurisdiction. He referred the complainants to the county magistrate who in turn directed them to seek the advice of the county crown attorney. When this official was seen he cast a wet blanket on the hopes of the Grangers, as he decided in view of the fact that the ownership of the property was in question, that the court might hold Braeley was perfectly within his rights when he defended the hall against invasion.

The Grangers had more than

though, and resolved to take the law into their own hands, which as the sequel goes to show they accordingly did.

Anticipating that on the next meeting night Braely would again be on hand with his rifle, a couple of the members secreted themselves in the hall. Sure enough he came and fully armed as suspected. When he entered the hall the men sprung upon him suddenly and taking him by surprise disarmed him and bound him hand and foot in the twinkling of an eye. In another twinkling he was stretched out on the sward. He was not long kept in doubt as to the fate which his captors had in store for him. They disappeared for a minute and when they came back they were accompanied by a few companions. All had provided themselves with and despite his womanish screams and prayers for clemency Braely was submitted to one of the most severe horse whippings that any man in the county is ever known to have received.

The next day several arrests were made in the township, and later Braely was awarded $250 damages against those who had taken part in the thrashing. The case went through a couple of courts and the costs were assessed in such a way that, although the case was an expensive one for the Grangers, Braeley did not get one cent of damages, as the $250 was all eaten up by his costs.

Another action was brought later on before Police Magistrate Dumble. The case was dismissed, but Braeley didn't like the way in which he was treated and brought suit against the magistrate in which he was again unsuccessful.

He then made an appeal to the courts to confirm him in his possession of the property, but in this he was once more worsted, as a judgment against him with costs was handed down in the early part of the month.

The "litigious crank," as he is known, apparently grew most bitter, as time and again he was worsted in the law courts and made open threats, it is alleged, of how he would rather than allow the Grangers to come into possession. This passion seemed to take the form of a mad frenzy on Tuesday, May 15th, when he heard that the Grangers had rented the hall to Mr. Stratton and that a meeting was to be held in it. As afterwards proven he threatened to again go out to the hall with his rifle and shoot the first man who crossed the threshold. That night

THE HALL WAS IN ASHES.

The fire was observed by some of the farmers living in the vicinity at about 11.15 p.m. and it had then gained so great a headway that nothing could possibly save the structure. As may be supposed the blame for the deed was instantly laid at the door of Braeley on account of the litigation which had taken place. A light had been seen in his farm house, during the evening, of which he held the key and which has been vacant for some time. Footprints were traced cutting across some fields from the main road into Peterborough to this house and from there to the scene of the fire. The same footprints were followed from the hall across the fields to the road again, where the trail was lost.

One of the Grangers in driving into Peterborough only next day met Braeley on the way out; after passing the suspect, the Granger descended from his buggy and after minutely examining the footprints had no hesitation in saying that they corresponded exactly with those which were found crossing the fields. Suspicion was thus fastened more strongly than ever on the accused and, when after a few hours in town, it was ascertained that a citizen was prepared to swear that he passed Braeley on the road out to the farm the evening upon which the fire occured, the suspicion seemed so well founded that the services of Provincial Detective John Murray were called into requisition.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END.

Other than working up what evidence had been already obtained and interviewing the witnesses, there wasn't much left for Mr. Murray to do but arrest his prisoner, which he did Wednesday afternoon. The case came up for a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Edmison yesterday and the accused electing to be tried by a jury the evidence was found to be sufficiently strong to warrant a committal. The magistrate refused to grant bail.

County Crown Attorney Wood has the case in hand and with Mr. Murray thinks that things look pretty black for the prisoner.

As stated in the EXAMINER exclusively, last night, Braeley was committed for trial at the June assizes.

He states that he can prove where he was until after eight o'clock on the night of the fire, but he will be asked to do more than that. He will have to produce the testimony of reliable witnesses to show conclusively that he was not at the farm any time before midnight, at least so Detective Murray thinks. Braeley states too that he can prove who made the tracks across the fields, but strange to say seemed to prefer spending a few weeks in jail to summoning witnesses whose evidence he declared could clear him.

Things to Eat.

At this season of the year when the palate grows tired of the ordinary requirements to sustain life, the taste may then suggest to your mind that you try Mason & Co. for canned mushrooms, or a fine pickle which contains just enough spice to render the flavour rich and racy, or some canned corn beef, lunch tongue, ox tongue with canned vegetables.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

DASHED DOWN WITHOUT MERCY.

10 INDISPUTABLE ARGUMENTS WHY GOUGH BROS. CAN, WILL, AND DO BEAT ALL THEIR COMPETITORS:—

I. GOUGH BROS. Buy the Largest Lots, Sell the Largest Quantities, Get the Largest Discounts, and can afford to make the Lowest Prices.

II. GOUGH BROS. clothe both ends of man—from head to foot. They always give a heaped up, pressed down, overflowing measure of value for every dollar spent in their stores.

III. GOUGH BROS. always keep a "bear" among the Clothing Manufacturers, and make prices dance downwards for the benefit of their customers.

IV. GOUGH BROS. form the largest syndicate of Clothing dealers in Canada. They own Clothing, Hats, Boots and Shoes, secured on contracts, made at prices that cannot be repeated.

V. GOUGH BROS.' buying power commands for their customers the Lowest Prices for everything, whether people know the values or not, and this is the mainspring for the ever-rapid movement of their merchandise.

VI. GOUGH BROS. select the cream from all the manufacturers, in a falling market, for their syndicate of stores. Ceaseless selling means ceaseless supplies, and their command of the market creates extraordinary bargains.

VII. GOUGH BROS. sell Clothing at prices that actually do not represent the cost of labour in making, or the bare material.

VIII. GOUGH BROS. have in stock piles of All Wool Suits made from Auburn Woollen Mill Tweed, which can be bought for less money than was paid for the seven yards of cloth to make the suit.

IX. GOUGH BROS. know that when wheat, cotton and wool must be sold for next to nothing, Clothing must be sold for next to nothing also, and they keep watch for snaps for their customers.

X. GOUGH BROS. have no hankering for being "Manufacturers of Clothing." They can do better. Just as wheat can be bought for 60c. a bushel, at a loss to the farmer, so Clothing can be bought at Gough Bros'. at a loss to the manufacturer.

A GREAT MANY CHILDREN

—have been cured of scrofula and other skin diseases—as well as thousands of grown people, by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Besides, it builds up wholesome flesh and strength; not merely fat like Cod liver oils. A scrofulous condition of the blood invites Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. We're all exposed to the germs of consumption, grip, or malaria—yet only the weak ones suffer. When you're weak, tired out, and debilitated, or when pimples and blotches appear—heed the warning in time. The "Discovery" sets all the organs into healthy action—especially the liver, for that's the point of entrance for these germs, then if the blood is pure, they'll be thrown off. There's no risk. If it fails to benefit or cure in all cases of impure blood or inactive liver, your money is returned.

The key to the situation

—if you suffer from Catarrh, you'll find in Dr. Sage's Remedy. No matter how bad your case may be, the proprietors of the medicine promise to pay $500 if they can't cure you. You're cured, or you're paid.

FROM SUFFERING TO HEALTH.

THE EXPERIENCE OF A WELL-KNOWN BRUCE COUNTY FARMER.

He Tells the Story of the Disease That Afflicted Him, the Sufferings he Endured and How he Found Release—Other Sufferers May Take Hope From His Release.

From the Teeswater News.

Of all the ills that flesh is heir to perhaps none causes the sufferer keener anguish and few are more persistent and more difficult to eradicate from the system than that nervous disease known as sciatica. The victim of an aggravated form of this malady suffers beyond the power of words to express, and it is with the utmost reluctance that the disorder yields to any course of treatment intended for its cure. Hearing that a rather remarkable cure had been effected in the case of Mr. William Baptist a respected resident of the township of Culross, a News reporter called upon that gentleman to ascertain the facts. Mr. Baptist is an intelligent and well-to-do farmer. He is well-known in the section in which he resides and is looked upon as a man of unimpeachable integrity. He is in the prime of life, and his present appearance does not indicate that he had at one time been a great sufferer. He received the News representative with the utmost cordiality, and cheerfully told the story of his restoration to health, remarking that he felt it a duty to do so in order that others afflicted as he had been might find relief.

Up to the fall of 1892 he had been a healthy man, but at that time while harvesting the turnip crop during a spell of wet, cold and disagreeable weather, he was attacked by sciatica. Only those who have passed through a similiar experience can tell what he suffered. He says it was something terrible. The pain was almost unendurable and would at times cause the perspiration to ooze from every pore. Sleep forsook his eyelids. His days were days of anguish and night brought no relief. Reputable physicians were consulted without any appreciable benefit. Remedies of various kinds were resorted to and his condition was worse than before. The limb affected began to decrease in size, the flesh appeared to be parting from the bone, and the leg assumed a withered aspect. Its powers of sensation grew less and less. It appeared as a dead thing, and as it grew more and more helpless it is little wonder that the hope of recovery began to fade away. All through the long winter he continued to suffer, and towards spring was prevailed upon to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He commenced using them and soon felt that they were doing him good, and hope began to revive. By the time he had taken three boxes the pain was eased and the diseased limb began to assume a natural condition. He continued the use of the remedy until he had taken twelve boxes. In course of time he was able to resume work and today feels that he is completely cured. He has since recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to others with good results.

An analysis shows that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or from an impairment of the nervous system, such as loss of appetite, depression of spirits anaemia, chlorosis or green sickness, general muscular weakness, dizziness, loss of memory, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus' dance, the after effects of la grippe, and all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, &c. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all dealers or direct by mail from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company at either address. Beware of imitations and substitutes.

Captured Illegal Fishers.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., May 26.—The steamer Northern Belle, which has arrived, brings news of the capture of two fishing boats and twenty-two trap nets by the Government steamer Cruiser for illegal fishing at the Bustards. The trap nets were burned. An attempt was made to capture the fishermen with some success. One man who jumped in the water to escape was fired at, but gave himself up and was taken to French River, and there tried and fined $40. One of the captured fishermen named Noisly turned Queen's evidence. Further particulars are not known here, but serious trouble is expected.

BRICK BUILDING CAVES IN.

One Man Killed Instantly and Three Thought to be Buried in the Ruins.

BROOKLYN, May 26.—Yesterday a four-storey brick building at No. 201 and 203 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, caved in. Fourteen men were at work in the building at the time. One of them, Emil Erickson, was killed almost instantly.

The house was used as a storage warehouse by Lattimer & Sons, dealers in furniture and dry goods. After the crash came most of the men succeeded in escaping from the cellar, where they were working. Three men are still missing and are supposed to be buried in the ruins.

Shortly before the accident Henry Johnson, who had charge of a gang of men concreting the cellar, felt the building shaking. He went upstairs and after sounding the walls returned to work. Twenty minutes later one of the walls facing Court street caved in, carrying the upper two floors with it. Johnson succeeded in getting all of his workmen up through the coal hole in the street.

FRANCE SUES THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Million Dollar Claim for Damage to Goods of French Subjects.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Suit for $1,000,000 damages was begun in the United States Circuit Court yesterday by the French Republic against the World's Columbian Exposition.

The litigation grows out of the French government's claim for damages to exhibits of French subjects injured during the manufactures building fire.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 26, 1894.

Receipts of wheat at Liverpool the past three days were 121,000 centals, including 33,000 centals of American. Receipts of American corn same time 137,000 centals.

The reserve fund of the Bank of England increased $1,544,000 during the week, and the proportion of reserve to liabilities is now 67.24 per cent., the greatest on record.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Street receipts of grain small. One load of white wheat sold at 62c, and one of red at 61c; goose nominal at 58c. One load of barley sold at 41½c and one load of oats at 41c. Peas quoted at 60c.

The Vanderbilts and Grangers were very strong on Wall street the first hour. The St. Paul statement gives evidence that earnings will be near if not quite 4 per cent. on the stock. Insiders are accumulating stock.

The Chicago wheat market was weak. A weakening feature was the offering of freight room for wheat free from Baltimore to Antwerp without takers. The market closed with a net loss of ½c for the day. Corn was easy; prices were ¼ to ½c lower. Oats were quiet.

At the Buffalo cattle market two cars were on sale; steady. Sheep and lambs, 35 cars; slow but fair clearances; good to best export wethers, $4 to $4.75; good mixed sheep, $3.75 to $4; good to best lambs, $4 75 to $5.10; spring lambs, common to best, $3 to $6. Hogs—Twenty cars; quiet; Yorkers, $5.05 to $5.10; good choice to heavy, $4.95 to $5; roughs and stags unchanged.

Don't Forget

That to remove corns, warts, bunions in a few days, all that is required is to apply the old and well tested corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, painless. Putnam's Corn Extractor makes no sore spots hard to heal, acts quickly and painlessly on hard and soft corns.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

Mother Urged Me

EXCELSIOR

Life Insurance Company.

HEAD OFFICE, - TORONTO

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING-DIRECTOR,

E. F. CLARKE, Ex-Mayor of Toronto

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the report of the business for 1893 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.

Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891, 61 per cent

Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 87 per cent.

Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1893:—

Excelsior Life,	415%	North American Life,	135%
Dominion Life,	201 "	London Life,	118 "
Federal Life,	144 "	Sun Life,	114 "
Manufac're Life,	144 "	Confederation Life,	113 "
Tem'ce and Gen'l,	144 "	Canada Life,	113 "
		Ontario Mutual	105%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, as low a death rate; 2nd, as low a ratio of expenses. See our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bond before insuring elsewhere.

SCROFULA
CURED BY
B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $80, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

THE WORLD'S CHARITIES.

Over £2,000,000 are annually given in Great Britain to maintain the Bible societies.

In Chili and Buenos Ayres the beggars ride on horseback and often have very good horses.

The charity schools of Great Britain are maintained at an annual expenditure of £4,200,000.

In England over $1,000,000 worth of medicine is annually distributed gratis at the dispensaries.

As long ago as 1840 the endowed charities of Great Britain amounted to £1,500,000 annually.

Charitable organizations in England and Scotland own and rent out 154,000 acres of land.

John Wesley habitually gave away in charity from one-half to three-fourths of his income.

A board for the management of charitable bequests was established by act of parliament in 1764.

It is said that in Rome alone over $10,000,000 are annually given away by the associated charities.

The value of property held for charity in Italy is £65,000,000, an average of $12 to each inhabitant.

Vincent de Paul began his charitable labors by working among the galley slaves of France in 1622.

Ireland has 107,774 paupers—that is, inmates of the almshouses or in receipt of outdoor assistance.

A regularly organized system of relieving poverty has been in vogue in China for more than 2,000 years.

POULTRY NOTES.

The cover of the eggshell has nothing whatever to do with the quality of the egg itself.

Skim milk, buttermilk and whey, mixed with bran and corn meal, should be used freely for laying hens.

The Asiatic breeds of fowls lay very dark shelled eggs, while the Mediterranean varieties lay clear white eggs.

Clover for fowls should be chopped finely, steamed for some time, and then mixed with grain and meat scraps.

The proper way to catch a fowl is to grasp both legs at once with a firm, tight, quick hold and then raise free from the ground and hang the body down clear of any obstacle.

It is proposed that the large slaughterhouses should add poultry to their other business and ship it along with dressed beef and provisions to their customers. If the movement were successful it would revolutionize the poultry trade.

ART NOTES.

The monument to Mary Washington at Fredericksburg, Va., has been dedicated.

The Hungarian government has just commissioned the painter Munkacsy to paint a picture representing the appeal of Maria Theresa to her subjects in 1741, when her country was menaced by Frederick the Great.

Visitors to Rome this year will have the benefit of a series of little handbooks on the sculptures and paintings in public and private galleries, issued by Prof. Venturi of the ministry of public instruction. Photographs of important works are given in these manuals, which appear as volumes in the Edelweiss collection. The Borghese gallery is the latest to appear.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

A London Editor's Victory.

LONDON, May 26.—The trial of the action for libel brought against the Westminster Gazette by Mr. Henry Seymour Foster, M.P., has resulted in a verdict for the defendant. Mr. Foster asked for £5,000 damages, claiming that the paper had libelled him in an article on the management of the Industrial Investment Corporation of London, of which he is managing director, and the Colonial Finance Company, of which he is deputy chairman. Mr. Foster also brought suits on similar grounds against the Chronicle, the Statist, the Financial Times and other papers, but it is not likely that they will be tried.

Roumanian Nationalists Sentenced.

BUDA PESTH, May 26.—Twenty members of the executive committee of the Roumanian National party were sentenced in Klausenburg to terms of imprisonment varying between eight months and five years. Three others were found not guilty and were released. The twenty-eight prisoners were accused of sedition and treason in publishing a pamphlet which denounced the act of union of Austria and Hungary.

Coal Collieries Drenched.

PITTSTON, Pa., May 26.—Owing to the recent heavy rains the Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s reservoir at Avoca, containing 350,000 gallons of water, broke and the water flooded the Last Chance and Dry Bread mines of the Hillside Coal and Iron Co. The collieries were completely drowned out, and 500 men and boys are thrown out of employment. The damage cannot be estimated.

Mme. Joniaux's Fourth Victim.

BRUSSELS, May 26.—The Independence Belge prints a report, with reservation, that the authorities are about to exhume the body of a fourth victim of Madame Joniaux, the prisoner—that of her nephew, Lionel Ablay, who was supposed to have been drowned in a pond at Winghein in November, 1890, while training for a sack race.

Worsted Spinners Fail.

LONDON, May 26.—Craven & Craven, worsted spinners in Bradford, have failed for £200,000. Their assets are large. The failure is said to be due to their loss in the American market owing to the prolonged agitation of the tariff question.

The Strike in Egypt.

PORT SAID, May 26.—The striking coal porters rioted yesterday in the streets and began attacking the officers of several shipowners. The police charged with fixed bayonets and put the mob to flight. About a dozen men were wounded.

Germany's Silver Coinage.

BERLIN, May 26.—Ludwig Bamberger has submitted to the imperial currency commission his work on the history of the German currency. Dr. Arendt made a statement that 42,000,000 marks worth of silver thalers had been coined on private account, and had been circulated illegally in response to the denial of the public for more silver coins. This fact alone, Dr. Arendt said, illustrated clearly the necessity of extending Germany's silver coinage.

Shot a Desperado.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 26.—Ben Hoffenbach, a notorious desperado, who was wanted at Monroe, La., for murder, was shot and killed by a sheriff's posse near Greenwood, Miss., while resisting arrest. Hoffenbach was from Buffalo, N.Y., and his mother and sisters now reside there.

Failures of the Week.

NEW YORK, May 26.—R. G. Dun & Co. reports the failures for the week to be 183 in the United States, against 259 last year. In Canada 28, against 14 last year.

Wiman's Trial Postponed.

NEW YORK, May 26.—By an arrangement between District Attorney Fellows and Gen. Tracy, Erastus Wiman's trial has been postponed until Monday, June 4.

Another Gas Gusher Struck.

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., May 26.—Another gas gusher has been struck at Mr. Reeb's new well, two miles west of this place, at the depth of 675 feet, throwing water and cuttings off the well high into the air. Flow of gas is about half a million.

Dufferin Conservatives.

SHELBURNE, May 26.—At the Conservative convention held here yesterday Dr. Barr, M.P.P., was chosen to again contest the riding in the approaching elections.

WITH THE ELECTRICIANS.

The Bell Telephone company of Missouri is putting in a number of cables in St. Louis and the citizens are rejoicing over the reduction of aerial wires thereby.

Something new in the telephone line, intimates the Electrical Review, may be announced any day. It will be a practical telephone system, backed by a name that will convince all who are at all familiar with telephone history of its value and importance.

The Bernese Oberland Railway company of Switzerland is said to be contemplating the substitution of electric traction for steam. The scheme is a very important one, comprising two hundred horse-power locomotives, with ten trains on the line simultaneously.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive nevelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

The Peterborough and the Auburn Baseball club are playing a match this afternoon in Riverside Park.

LEAGUE MATCH.

The first of the league matches took place on the 15th, and considering the conditions of the weather, some good scores were made, several of the Martini teams beating their former records. Lieut. Geo. Matthew heads the list with 94, being one of the highest scores ever made on the Peterborough range. Other good scores follow close, making the average of the team 85 1-10. THE ANGLER.

Dr. Sphon and son, of Penetang, with Mr. McCausland, one of the officials of the reformatory prison there, recently went out fishing for bullheads in Mud lake, between Penetang and Midland. They used as bait chickens' wings and legs, which were attached to strings and placed in the water. When the fish surrounded the dainty bait a landing net was dropped and the haul made. Dr. Sphon says that the largest catch at one time was thirty-seven fish. The party returned to Penetang with 3,636 fish, which is pretty good fishing for one day.—Orillia News-Letter.

CRICKET.

The cricket match with the Trinity School, Port Hope, eleven was started at 10 o'clock this morning. The local men went to bat and retired with a total of 14 runs, the bowling of Trinity's professional coach being very deceptive, and the Peterborough men, with the exception of one or two of the older heads, giving evidence of being badly rattled. The school boys were successful in piling up 56 runs before they were retired. The home team expect to do much better this afternoon, when the second innings will be played.

THE COAL FAMINE.

Its Effects on the Railways—The Question of Local Freight.

While at the Grand Trunk station this morning an EXAMINER representative called on Mr Hayden the Co's agent at point, and asked him as to the situation in regard to the threatened coal famine, and how it would likely affect the freight business from this district.

Mr. Hayden replied that, although he had received the circular No. 296, sent out to all agents in Canada, notifying them of the suspension of the movement of heavy traffic, such as lumber, timber, cordwood and all forest products, together with hay, straw, ice, ashes, fertilizers, stone, brick and all building material, yet a subsequent letter modifying the circular had been received by him, whereby exceptions will be made, when at all possible, in respect of business from this station.

"In the event of any traffic offering of the description referred to in the list of suspended freights," said Mr. Hayden, "my instructions are to wire the general freight agent, who will arrange to move the same if it can possibly be done.

"Of course, you will understand that these instructions in circular No. 296 do not apply for the present to light general merchandise, or such articles as are necessary and perishable, viz: live stock, flour, grain, provisions, butter, cheese, eggs, vegetables, fruits, etc., all of which will be handled as usual.

"It will be the aim of the company, as I understand it, notwithstanding the threatened coal famine, to meet the public requirements in the matter of freights to the best possible satisfaction in every case."

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

The Perth C. P. R. carshops are closed and the shops at Carleton are also closed down owing to hard times.

The Grand Trunk have about 400 empty cars standing on the old Cobourg and Harwood railroad.

It is rumoured in G.T.R. circles that hereafter the pay car will be dispensed with, and payment made by sending a cash pouch to the large centres.

The Chicago and Grand Trunk have just opened a monster freight depot in Chicago that will admit the unloading of 140 freight cars at a time. The depot is fitted up with every facility for handling the freight.

A Lehigh Valley locomotive has, in face of a strong wind, ran at the rate of 82½ miles an hour. It is expected that the engine will average 70 miles an hour with a heavy passenger train. It is fitted with every modern improvement known to locomotive builders, and is a perfect piece of mechanicism.

A Family Friend.

No family should be without Perry Davis' Vegetable PAIN-KILLER. It can be given to the infant for the Colic, and to the adult for Rheumatism. ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

IS COMING!

The Attention of Every Lady and Gentleman that has THIN HAIR or that is BALD is called to the visit of

PROF. DORENWEND

To PETERBOROUGH, who will be at

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL

—ON—

Saturday, June 9.

There are indeed very few Ladies or Gentlemen in America but what have heard of the skill of PROF. DORENWEND as a manufacturer of Hair Goods of all styles, and there are very few places on the globe but what one or more of his styles are worn. Those that live closer to his manufacturing place, like all the Ontario cities and towns, are more fortunate than people of United States, Australia or England, and it is because he visits this place at least once a year, they are able to see his Goods before ordering and having then tried they see the effect his Hair Goods Coverings give to their general appearance, but his business has so rapidly grown in the last few years that he is unable to visit these places so often, for this reason. All who require these Goods should not miss the opportunity given by this visit.

See his beautiful LADIES and GENTS WIGS, TOUPEES, SWITCHES of every LENGHTH and SHADE, BANGS in every shape, heavy or plain fronts, etc.

Remember he is at the GRAND CENTREL HOTEL, June 9th.

ENTERTAINMENT AT KINMOUNT.

A Successful Gathering—Good Addresses and a Splendid Programme—Receipts From Entertainment $2.45

An interesting and successful entertainment was held at Kinmount on Friday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Kinmount Methodist church and was well attended.

Rev. Mr. Rowe, the pastor, in his opening remarks spoke of the pleasure that it gave him and the congregation to see present the representative for West Peterborough, Mr. Stratton. He had done much to develop the northern portion of his constituency and had also rendered valuable services in aiding other good work. He had always heard him well spoken of and he was extremely glad to see that he had not disappointed them in his presence that evening. He then placed the gathering in Mr. Stratton's hands as chairman. During the evening addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Neville, Bobcaygeon; Rev. Mr. Rowe, Mr. Thurston and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P. The choir rendered several selections. The following is the programme:—

Anthem	Choir
Chairman's speech
Reading	Mr. Cummings
Solo	Miss Rowlison
Address	Rev. P. H. Neville
Solo	Mr. P. F. Rowlison
Address	Mr. Thurston
Solo	Miss Hopkins
Recitation	Mrs. P. F. Rowlison
Solo	Miss Graham
Address	J. R. Stratton M. P. P
Duet	Misses Graham and Hopkins
Song	Mrs. P. F. Rowlison
Recitation	Miss Wedstood
Song	Mr. P. F. Rowlison
Recitation	Mrs. P. F. Rowlison

A beautiful autograph quilt was disposed of during the evening, by Mr. Rowlison on behalf of the Ladies Aid. After considerable lively bidding it was knocked down to Mr. Stratton, who presented it to the President of the Ladies Aid, who, in return, had it "put up" again, when it was disposed of to another gentleman. Altogether the entertainment was a very successful one, and as a result, netted about $245, which will be of much assistance towards paying off the debt of the parsonage. After the usual votes of thanks, a number repaired to the parsonage where refreshments were served. Rev. Mr. Rowe is a popular minister and is doing a good work in the Northern portion of the district.

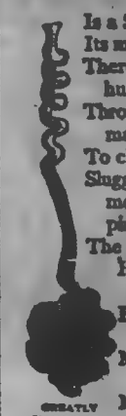
THIS CURIOUS THING



Is a Sweat Gland.
Its mouth is called a Pore.
There are 7,000,000 in the human skin.
Through them are discharged many impurities.
To close them means death.
Sluggish or clogged pores mean yellow, mothy skin, pimples, blotches, eczema.
The blood becomes impure.
Hence serious blood humors.
Perfect action of the pores
Means clear, wholesome skin, pure blood,
Means beauty and health.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT

Exerts a peculiar, purifying action upon the skin, and through it upon the blood.

Hence its cures of distressing humors are speedy, permanent and economical.

Like all of the CUTICURAS, it is pure, sweet, gentle, and effective. Mothers are its warmest friends.

Of the Golden Lion store is its DRESS GOODS Department. By it we are winning trade every day, because we keep faith with the ladies. It's Fair's way.

Materials were never finer, shades were never richer, qualities were never better, and prices were never lower. No room here for aught save the best and most fashionable that money can buy.

Just space to-day to mention a few

Talking Prices.

1,000 yards All-Wool Summer Dress Goods, such as may be seen quoted as worth 50c. and 75c. a yard, we are actually selling at 25c. and 35c.—less than one-half.

1,500 yards Best French Printed DELAINES, well worth 35c. a yard, and that would pay to keep in reserve rather than offer them now, as we are doing, at only 25c. a yard.

A Job Line of FRENCH DELAINES to be seen in other windows ticketed at double the figure, can be bought at the Golden Lion for only 12½c. a yard.

ROBE DRESS COSTUMES, matchless value, as follows:—

$12 00 Dress Costumes,	now only	$9 00
$11.00 Dress Costumes,	now only	$7.50
$10.00 Dress Costumes,	now only	$7.00
$9 00 Dress Costumes,	now only	$6.50
$8.50 Dress Costumes,	now only	$6.00
$7.50 Dress Costumes,	now only	$5.50

500 yards SHOT SURAH SILKS, worth easily 75c. a yard now 50c.

1,000 LADIES' COTTON BLOUSES at prices that have struck the lowest ebb, and never were equalled for values. Nothing newer under the sun. It's Fair's way.

Unparalleled value in PRINTS. CHAMBRAYS, KRINKLE CHAMBRAYS, SEERSUCKERS, DELAINETTES.

LACES AND INSERTIONS. WHITE, CREAM and TORO TONE Laces. Greatly admired by the Ladies. Lovely Black and Coloured SILK LACES that have been extolled for their beauty, variety and low price.

What Fashion Demands.

In Millinery and Mantles, Ribbons, Veiling and other novelties for the Ladies are to be found here, with all the prices running below the ordinary. The services of skilled Milliners at your command.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in. in width; Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels at 75c. Tape-trims down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

Store News

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

COAL TRAINS HELD UP

The Striking Miners Determined to Play a Winning Game.

THEY DESTROY MINE PROPERTY

Depredations Committed at Several Mines—A Fatal Set-to at Cripple Creek—A Mob of Seven Hundred Set Out to Attack Pana, Illinois.

TERRE HAUTE, May 28.—The striking Indiana coal miners are still determined that no coal shall be shipped through this district. All trains on the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad were held up at Shelburne, south of here, and examined by the miners. If no coal was found the trains were allowed to proceed, but when coal was found the cars were side-tracked. At Lyford, on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, there was some excitement early in the morning when a train crew from Danville, Ill., attempted to recover a number of cars captured from the Terre Haute detectives. The miners refused to let the coal be moved. They climbed on the cars and set the brakes. The crew were compelled to return without the coal.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 28.—Governor Altgeld has received telegrams from Elmwood and Minonk calling for arms, as trouble was feared from the striking miners. A later telegram from Minonk said the mob had seized an Illinois Central train.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., May 28.—The report sent out from Denver that sixteen men were killed in a battle between striking miners and deputy sheriffs yesterday was exaggerated. The latest news from the scene of the trouble is that one miner was killed and four wounded. A report that a deputy sheriff had been killed has not been verified. The deputies took eight of the strikers prisoners.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., May 28.—The first destruction of property in this section as a result of the miners' strike took place at Woodland, when a number of miners completely destroyed the tipple at Overley's mine, which had been at work for several days shipping coal by rail. Several deputy sheriffs were on guard, but the striking miners managed to draw the deputies away, and the property was destroyed.

PANA, Ills., May 28.—The city is in a state of wildest excitement over the news that 700 strikers are en route from Terre Haute, Ind., to Pana. The home guards and 500 deputies are getting in readiness. Preparations have been made to close the mines and place 100 guards around each mine. The miners will be taken out of the mines by operators to protect their property. Every citizen is armed with a gun or a revolver. Mayor Hayward has wired Governor Altgeld for 300 guns and ammunition. As soon as it is learned that the mob is approaching the town the home guard with 200 Winchesters will march east two miles, tear up tracks and endeavor to drive off the mob.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 28.—Three thousand miners attended the funeral of the victims of the Washington Run battle. There was no disturbance.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., May 28.—Another skirmish has occurred between the miners and the deputies in the vicinity of Victor and three miners were killed.

A RELIGIOUS RIOT.

Serious Trouble in a Polish Church in Pennsylvania.

HAZELTON, Pa., May 28.—The trouble over which the congregation of St. Casimir's Polish Catholic church at Freeland has been divided for a year or more, culminated in a bloody riot in which four men were shot, two of whom will die. A number of others were seriously injured. A large number of parishioners sustained numerous cuts and bruises, being hit with clubs and to escape fled.

The priest, Father Mazzokas, is a Lithuanian and a number of the members are Poles. It was rumored that the Poles would attack the priest if he attempted to say mass. Father Mazzokas was determined to say mass however, and escorted by Police Officer Jones, he approached the sacristy of the church. As he mounted the steps a number of Poles hurled themselves upon him and threw him to the ground. The priest then tried to gain entrance to the front door, but was again repulsed by Poles who stood guard. An attack was made, and Officer Jones was hit in the face with a stone. Chief Gallagher, who had detailed other officers to preserve order, endeavored to control the mob, but only precipitated the attack. Chief Burgess McLaughlin escorted the priest home, and while drafting recruits and deputies the fighting became general, and guns and clubs were used with terrific effect. When order was finally restored the place resembled a battlefield. Most of the belligerents fled.

Spanish Bull Fighter Killed.

MADRID, May 28.—In the end of a bull fight here the matador (Esparetdo) was about to plunge his sword into the neck of the bull when the brute made an unexpected movement, threw him down and gored him. Esparetdo died in a few minutes. He had a national reputation as a bull fighter.

A Foolish Wife's Deed.

BATH, N.Y., May 28.—Mrs. William Andrews, of Mitchellville, a little settlement a few miles from this village, committed suicide by taking a dose of poison. The only known reason for the commission of the rash act is that her husband went to prayer meeting against her protests, leaving her at home alone.

UNIONISTS WEAKENING

Lord Rosebery's Opponents Divided on the General Programme.

AGITATION AGAINST THE LORDS

Public Sentiment Calls for Strong Measures to be Adopted by the Liberals—Mr. Gladstone's Coolness During the Operation and His Eye.

LONDON, May 28.—The Government, strengthened by a series of defeats of the Opposition on the budget, hopes to pilot its way through the session. The sudden weakness displayed by the Opposition has been a surprise all around. Various causes have been assigned for this, but probably none of them is the real one. The Unionists' whips say that no strenuous efforts has yet been made on their part to muster the full strength of their party, the leaders preferring to bide their time until some other contentious proposal is made up for consideration upon which the Government can more easily be defeated. The truth is, however, that a section of the Unionist party, chiefly Unionists Liberals, decline to follow the lead of the Tories in offering root and branch opposition to the budget, and will not allow themselves to be controlled by the Tory leaders merely for their gratification in annoying the Government.

Lord Salisbury's eagerness to defend the interest of the land owners has affected the states-manlike proposal. In this course the Conservative ex-premier has not the sympathy of, the followers of Mr. Chamberlain, and the London and other urban Conservative members with feelings similar to those of the Unionists have been voting with the Opposition only under strong compulsion. Numbers of these gentlemen have absented themselves rather than to vote against their convictions. On the other hand the Welsh malcontents are abandoning their mennced hostilities to the Government and returning to their allegiance to the Liberal party. The Redmonites (Parnellites) have over-reached themselves. They have split over their irreconcilable policy, and part of them now vote with the Conservatives and part with the Government. Unless the position thus outlined shall change materially, of which there is no indication, the budget is out of danger. With the subsidence of the storm and consequent lessening of the likelihood of an immediate crisis, the talk of dissolution is less frequently heard.

Some over sanguine supporters of the Government now express their belief that the Ministry of Lord Rosebery will hold on until the programme outlined at the beginning of the session is completed, but the Ministerial preparations all point to a dissolution in July. Mr. Balfour, speaking before the Junior Conservative Club, predicted that the circumstances would become too strong for the Ministry before many months.

With a view of securing the labor vote in the next general elections, Lord Rosebery has made overtures to John Burns, M.P., and other leading laboring men on the subject of their accepting office in the Cabinet. Mr. Burns was offered a post in the Ministry and report says that he declined it with thanks.

The Question of the Lords.

The committee of the National Reform Union has prepared a resolution which will be submitted to the conference of the union on June 5, declaring that the House of Lords must be abolished. Apparently under the realization that the demand for the total abolition of the Upper House is putting it a little too strong the resolution goes on to say that the Government ought to introduce in the House of Commons during the present session a bill depriving the peers of power to reject or alter any bill that has twice passed the House of Commons. The enormous number of adhesions to the union from all parts of the country promise to make the union a very formidable body and compel the National Liberal Federation to advocate stronger anti-lord measures than that organization is now committed to. Any milder treatment of the Lords will fail to satisfy the Radicals.

Blunder in the Budget.

According to Conservative reports Sir Wm. Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has made a huge blunder in the budget. Under the calculation of the Treasury officials Sir William stated in the house that the estate duty would realize for the current year an increase of £1,000,000. As a result of inquiry instituted by Lord Salisbury it is shown that the increase will not be £1,000,000, but probably £10,000,000. Lord Salisbury communicated his discovery to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, but Sir William Harcourt contests the ex-Premier's estimate and adheres to his own statement.

Gladstone May Resume Public Life.

Mr. Gladstone's recovery from the effects of the operation performed upon his eye has been so marvellously swift that many of his old colleagues are hopeful that he will resume public life in the early autumn and take part in the election contest. An interesting incident of the operation has been related. There were four persons in the rooms besides the patient, three doctors and two nurses. Counting them Mr. Gladstone said, in mock terror: "What, five of you to hold me down?" He continued his jocular mood until Dr. Hettleship began to scrape the film from his eye, to which cocaine was applied prior to cutting. Immediately after the operation was over he resumed his lively conversation as though nothing had happened.

Her Majesty's Birthday.

The Queen celebrated her birthday at Balmoral in a very quiet manner. After the family dinner in the evening her Majesty was entertained with tableau vivants, in which Prince and Princess Henry of Battenburg and the Princess of Saxe-Coburg took part. Her Majesty received hundreds of congratulatory telegrams, many of them from America.

Canadian Pacific Mail Route.

Mr. James E. Huddart, the chief promoter of the Canadian Pacific mail route to Australia, by way of England, says that no contracts for vessels will be given out until the Government at Ottawa decides upon the amount of subsidy to be granted the company. The contracts, however, will stipulate that the vessels must be delivered by the spring of 1896. Their required draft, thirty feet, will possibly have the effect of throwing Liverpool out of the competition as an English port of call, owing to the difficulty vessels of that draft would have in crossing the Mersey bar.

Eleven Killed by an Explosion.

BRUSSELLS, May 28.—A fire damp explosion occurred in the Anderlues mine near Charleroi. Eleven miners were killed and five severely injured.

TRIED TO BRIBE SENATORS.

The Senate Committee Finds the Guilt on Butts of Dakota.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of attempted Senatorial bribery on the part of Charles W. Butts have submitted their report to the Senate. Butts is found by the committee to have made the attempt as bribery charged, and Senators Hunton and Kyle are exonerated from all blame.

The report of the committee says in part: "It appears from the testimony submitted that a certain Charles W. Butts, of North Dakota, has been in Washington since December last, at the house of Senator Hunton, in Warrenton, Va., during the absence of the Senator, and to his son, Eppa Hunton, Jr., that he would pay him a contingent fee of $25,000 if he would, by presenting arguments as to the pending tariff bill, induce his father, Senator Hunton, to vote against it.

"This offer was declined at once and peremptorily by Eppa Hunton, Jr., and the whole matter was communicated by him to his father. Senator Hunton availed himself of the first opportunity to disclose the matter to certain of his friends in the Senate.

"It is also established that the same Charles W. Butts approached Senator Kyle, of South Dakota, with a proposition that $14,000 would be paid to him (Senator Kyle) if he would vote against the pending tariff bill.

"Senator Kyle is shown by the testimony to have communicated his interview with Butts and the offer made to him to several Senators shortly after the said interview took place."

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., May 28.—Richard Mercer was shot and instantly killed by David S. Randall in the Board of Trade rooms in this city. Mercer, who is a cotton manufacturer, and Randall, a cotton broker, both members of the board, were seated in the rooms, and Randall was showing his friend a new revolver when the weapon, which he supposed was empty, was discharged, the bullet passing through the palm of Randall's left hand and lodging in Mercer's abdomen, causing instant death. Randall, who is a son-in-law of State Secretary Clark, was placed under arrest, but when it was shown that the shooting was entirely accidental he was released. Mercer leaves a widow and one child.

Mr. Chickering's Retaliatory Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The representative of the Canadian Pacific railway, A. C. Raymond, of Detroit, has submitted to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, a protest against the bill introduced by Representative Chickering, of New York, for retaliation in case of discrimination against American interests by Canada. He says that this is no occasion for placing the arbitrary power proposed in the president's hands, and that his bill is opposed to the provisions of the treaty of 1871, providing for reciprocity, and would prove a boomerang to American interests by diverting to Canadian ports and transportation companies wholly within Canadian territory through the United States in bond.

The Murder of Patrick Donovan.

DUBLIN, May 28.—Upon the strength of facts given to the police by an informer John Twiss and Eugene O'Keefe have been arrested and locked up in the Clare jail charged with murdering Caretaker Donovan on Glen Lara farm, in County Cork, late in April. The prisoners' food has been taken to them daily by O'Keefe's friends. After eating breakfast yesterday Twiss went into convulsions. The jail physician said he showed symptoms of strychnine poisoning. Twiss recovered somewhat under treatment, but is still in a critical condition. The motive of those who administered the poison is not known.

Heavy Storms in England.

LONDON, May 28.—Heavy storms were reported from many points along the south of England coast. Much wreckage has gone ashore at Broadstairs and Ilfracombe. The camp of the East Kent militia regiment at Shorncliffe has been flooded. The tents were blown away and the bedding and clothing were drifting about last evening in some eighteen inches of water. The grain crops and fruits further inland have been badly damaged. Off Fecamp, north of France, two vessels have been wrecked. A sailor was swept off the deck of a ship at Bologne.

French Cabinet Crisis.

PARIS, May 28.—M. Brisson having informed President Carnot that it would be impossible for him to form a ministery the President again summoned M. Bourgeois, who repeated his refusal to undertake the task of cabinet making, though he expressed his willingness to accept a portfolio in a ministry formed by some one else. M. Carnot then summoned M. Dupuy, who consented to attempt the construction of a cabinet in order to end the period of uncertainty. It is not known whether M. Dupuy intends to accept the premiership or merely to bring together a stop-gap ministry with some one else as the responsible head.

Re Cruelty in the Cameroons.

HAMBURG, May 28.—Herr Leist, the author of the atrocities in the Cameroons, has arrived here and was immediately served with a summons from the government ordering him to surrender himself to the authorities in Berlin and prepare to defend the charges against him, which will be tried before a special court to be held in Potsdam.

Murdered a Norwegian Sailor.

LONDON, May 28.—Hamilton Spree, the first mate of the German barque Paul Isenberg, which has just arrived here from Sufran, was arraigned in the Bow street police station, charged with murdering a Norwegian sailor named Peterson. It is alleged that Peterson was systematically tortured by Spree until he died.

IN THE INTERESTS OF WORKINGMEN.

THE LEGISLATION OF THE MOWAT GOVERNMENT.

List of Laws Relating to Labour—The Evidence of the Statute in Favour of the Government's Interest in the Workingman—Details of Wise Enactments.

While the Mowat Government in its 22 years of existence has, in its legislative and administrative action, had in view the promotion of the intesests of every class and calling in the community, it seems to have had special regard for the interests of the great mass of the community, the working classes. These enactments are a practical recognition of the rights of the toilers of the land—the real wealth producers of the country. Though there may be nothing revolutionary in this legislation it is the outcome of sober consideration of industrial problems, and a desire to meet these conditions. Really beneficial and permanent legislation is not revolutionary in its character; great reforms necessarily move slowly and in this respect the Mowat Government has hastened gently, giving such legislation as the interests of workingmen demanded, and as rapidly as the advance of public opinion would warrant respect for it sufficient to secure its effective enforcement. The same Government which has done so much for the workingman is prepared to continue the work, because the legislation they have enacted is founded upon principle and a recognition of undeniable rights. Labour can confidently look to the Mowat Government for the legislative assistance it deserves—for it is a Liberal Government and Liberalism has been, and will always be, arrayed in favour of the masses as against the classes, and while it denies no rights to the latter, it seeks to give full rights to the former. The following is a pretty full record of the legislation enacted by the Mowat Government in the interests of the workingman, and workingwomen and their children:

MECHANICS' LIEN.

The Mechanics' Lien Act of 1873 was passed soon after the Mowat Government assumed office and was intended to protect mechanics, machinists, builders, miners and contractors from loss on account of labour or material furnished in the erection of buildings or the construction of machinery. The Act not merely recognizes the new form of liability, but provides the means for establishing and enforcing claims arising under it. The original Statute has been amended to make it more simple and perfect in its working, two of the most important amendments being:

"The lien given by the preceding Section (i.e., one for thirty days' wages, without prejudice to any other lien the labourer may have under the lien Act), shall operate, notwithstanding any agreement between the owner and contractor for excluding a lien, and notwithstanding that the labour is in respect of a building, erection or mine which belongs to the wife of the person at whose instance the work is done."

The next section provides that the lien for wages shall, to a certain amount, have priority over all other liens, and over any claim by the owner against the contractor on account of failure to complete his contract. In 1896 Mr. Mowat amended the Land Titles Act of 1885, for the purpose of protecting persons entitled to liens against land brought under the Torrens system of registration.

In 1890 an Act was passed to simplify procedure for enforcing Mechanics' Liens. One clause provides that "without issuing a writ of summons or taking any other preliminary proceedings, the plaintiff may file a statement of claim in the office of a master or official referee having jurisdiction in the county wherein the lands are situate." It is also provided that "any number of lien-holders may join in one action."

An Act to further facilitate the enforcement of the just rights of wage-earners and sub-contractors, enacted in 1896, provides that "every device by any owner or contractor, which shall be adopted in order to defeat the priority of wage-earners for their wages under the several Acts relating to Mechanics' liens, shall, as respects such wage-earners, be null and void."

EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY.

For years past in England an Act of Parliament has been in force which makes employers liable, under certain circumstances, for injuries to their employees. That Act was, at the instance of the House of Lords, limited in its operation to five years, but it has given such general satisfaction that it will, undoubtedly, be made permanent, as indicated in legislation now being considered by the British House of Commons, and will probably at the same time be given a wider application. In the session of 1886, an Act was passed by Mr. Mowat to secure compensation to workmen in certain cases for personal injuries caused (1) by defective machinery or works; (2) by negligence of fellow employees entrusted with the duty of superintendance; (3) by conforming to the orders of fellow employees placed in authority; (4) by the operation of the employer's regulation, or (5) by the negligence of railway signalmen. The different kinds of defects that make a railway company liable are specified, and the maximum amount of compensation is fixed at three years' earnings. Contracting out of the liability is not allowed, except when there is some other consideration than being taken into employment, which consideration must be, in the opinion of the Court trying an action, "ample and adequate," and on the side of the workman not "improvident," but "just and reasonable." This Act provides a simple method of enforcing claims arising under it.

An amendment in 1887 applied the provisions of the Act to railway companies and employers who had established provident and insurance societies for their men, even though the workmen injured had not connected themselves with such societies.

A further amendment in 1889 makes the employer for whom the work is done, as well as the contractor, liable for injuries received by the workmen, —it being provided, however, that double compensation shall not be recoverable for the same injury. This amendment also provides that, even if the workman was aware of the defect or negligence which caused his injury, he should not therefore be deemed to have voluntarily incurred the risk of being injured.

At the session of 1892 all the Acts just referred to were consolidated into one.

In the session of 1893 this Act was amended by substituting therefor: (3) "Workman does not include a domestic or menial servant, or servant in husbandry, gardening or fruit-growing, where the personal injury caused to any such servant has been occasioned by or has arisen from or in the usual course of his work or employment, as a domestic or menial servant, or as a servant in husbandry, gardening or fruit-growing; but, save as aforesaid, means any railway servant, and any person who, being a labourer, servant, journeyman, artificer, handicraftsman, hired or otherwise engaged in manual labour, whether under the age of twenty-one years or above that age, has entered into or works under a contract with an employer, whether the contract be made before or after the passing of this Act, be expressed or implied, oral or in writing, and be a contract of service or a contract personally to execute any work or labour."

THE FACTORIES ACT.

"An Act for the Protection of Persons Employed in Factories" was passed in 1884. It contained a proviso that it should not come into force until proclamation should be made by the Lieutenant-Governor, the object being to secure, either by concurrent Dominion legislation, or by a decision of the Supreme Court, that the validity of the law would not be disputed. All efforts to induce the Dominion Government to aid in removing the uncertainty having failed, the necessary proclamation was issued in October, 1886, and the "Ontario Factories Act, 1884," became law. It provides, among other things, (1) that the employment in a factory of a child, a young girl, or a woman, in such a way that the health is likely to be permanently injured, shall be an offence punishable by imprisonment or fine; (2) that no boy under twelve, and no girl under fourteen, shall be employed in any factory, and that children under fourteen and women shall not be employed more than ten hours a day, or sixty hours a week; (3) that women and children shall not be allowed to clean machinery, while it is in motion; (4) that working extra hours in a time of emergency shall be done only with the consent of the Inspector under the Act; (5) that factories shall be kept in proper sanitary condition; (6) that machinery and and other sources of danger to employees shall be properly guarded; (7) that each factury shall be supplied with the means of extinguishing fires, and also with fire escapes if the building be a high one; and (8) that the inspector shall be notified promptly when loss of life results to employees through fire or accident. The Act clothes the Inspector with the powers necessary to enable him to discharge his duties efficiently, and provides a simple means of enforcing its provisions. The putting of this admirable measure into operation places the factory laborers of Ontario in as good a position in the matter of protection as is enjoyed by such labourers in any country in the world.

In 1887, an Amendment was passed, providing that boys under 12 and girls under 14 might be employed in the summer months in gathering and preparation of fruit or vegetables for canning purposes,—such preparation not to involve cooking, and to be done in a different room.

An Act analgous in its provisions to the Factory Act was passed in 1888, which gave power to Municipal councils, on application of three-fourths of the employers in any class of shops, to pass by-laws for the closing of all such shops at the hours mentioned in the application. This has the effect of shortening the hours during which children and young persons may be confined in such shops. It is also ordered that seats be provided for female employees; also, that no young person should be employed in or about any shop longer that 7 hours, including meal hours, in any one week, nor longer that 1 hour including meal meals hours, on any Saturday,—notice to this effect to be posted up in the shop. This provision not to apply in cases in which the employees are members of the families of the employers. This Act was amended in certain of its provisions in 1889.

In 1889 an amendment to the Factories Act made several new and most important changes, governing and for the protection of young persons engaged in factories, gave a detailed list of lines of business to which the Act applied, and, most important of all, sub-section 2 of section 3 of the Act of 1889 declares that "Section 2 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting therefrom the words 'provided that where not more than twenty persons are employed in any place coming within the foregoing definition of a factory,' and inserting instead thereof the words 'provided that where not more than five persons are employed in any place coming within the foregoing definition of a factory.'"

THE RAILWAY ACCIDENTS ACT.

In 1891 the Ontario Government appointed a special committee to inquire into the cause of the loss of life from accidents on railways. Much valuable information was taken, and many of the most useful suggestions offered were the following year embodied in an Act "To make Provision for the Safety of Railway Employees and the Public." The preamble to that Act is as follows:

"Whereas frequent accidents to railway servants and others are occasioned by the neglect of Railway Companies to provide a fair and reasonable measure of protection against their occurrence; and whereas a proper construction of railway bridges, and certain precautions in the construction and maintenance of railway frogs, wing rails, guard rails, and freight cars would greatly lessen, if not entirely prevent, the happening of such accidents."

The Act goes on to specify the improvements which railway companies are required to make in their bridges, tracks and freight cars; and in the event of accidents to their employees caused by failure to do so, the latter are placed in as good a position, with respect to the right of compensation, as if they had not been in the company's employ. In other words the great principle embodied in the Act securing compensation for injuries is anticipated by this provision of the Railway Accidents Act, just as the principle that railway companies and factory proprietors should be compelled to make proper provision for the safety of the public was anticipated by the Act of 1874, which requires the owners of machines to properly guard those parts likely to cause injury to persons coming in contact with them.

WORK AND WAGES.

In 1873 two Acts were passed, one intended to facilitate agreements between masters and workmen for participation in profits; the other intended to facilitate the adjustment of disputes between masters and workmen. With reference to these two measures, and the Mechanics' Lien Act passed in the same session, the Hon. Attorney-General Mowat made the following remarks in a speech delivered in Toronto on the 8th of January, 1879:

"We have passed laws securing the mechanics, labourers, and others, a lien for their pay on the property on which their labour is expended or their materials used, so far as this seemed practicable without prejudice to persons not concerned in the transaction. We have passed laws in the interest of masters and workmen, for facilitating agreements between them for for sharing the profits of the business in which they may be engaged. The object of that law is of great importance to the working classes. It is by such means that their status is to be raised. Those who have given attention to this subject seem to be unaware of any method by which so large an amount of good can be looked for to the great mass of our working population as some method which may enable them somehow to share the profits of the business in which they are employed. In framing these laws we had the advantage of what had been done elsewhere, and we have placed on the Statute book the best laws that the example or experience of other places enabled us to devise.

"We have also passed a law to facilitate, by means of a machinery found useful elsewhere, the amicable settlement of disputes between employers and employed."

Our Wretched Memory.

We had intended to tell you about a lot of Wall Papers we bought at a great bargain, direct from the manufacturer, but we have so many bargain lines to talk about, our memory sometimes fails us.

That recalls the wonderful memory that old black cat of ours had. She could have the most remarkable memory of any cat almost we ever knew. Why, one once came into the kitchen and sat down on a hot stove lid, and do you know that ever after that, as long as we had her, she never sat down on a hot stove lid again. She wouldn't, even at stove lid again. She wouldn't, even at one time down on a cold stove lid—at one time we thought it was her memory, but now we believe it was her memory.

Do you think that you could memorize a few facts? Here they are:—

1st. That we have the cheapest and prettiest lot of Wall Papers ever shown in Peterborough.

2nd. We have the largest and most complete stock of Window Shades, with Fringe, Applique, Lace and Dado, mounted on best rollers, and our prices are the lowest.

3rd. Our stock of Cornice Poles comprises all the daintiest patterns and prettiest woods.

4th. We lead in every line we carry.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Beboige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 35 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Li-le Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Coloured Skirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 2000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

SIR FRANCIS JOHNSON DEAD.

He Was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Quebec. His Useful Life.

MONTREAL, May 28.—Sir Francis Johnson, chief justice of the Supreme Court of the Province of Quebec, died at his residence in this city yesterday after a lingering illness. Chief Justice Johnson was one of the oldest and most eminent members of the Canadian judiciary. He was in England in 1806 and was the son of General Johnson, a prominent English military officer. His mother was a daughter of Sir George Bishop, who distinguished himself at the battle of Queenstown Heights. He was educated in France and Belgium, and came to Canada at an early age, where he took up the study of the law and was admitted to the bar before he was twenty-one years of age. He was, in his younger days, one of the most eminent criminal lawyers in the country and took a prominent part in the famous seignorial beats in the fifties. He was also employed by the Canadian Government in many important matters. After the first northwest insurrection in 1871 Judge Johnson was appointed by the Government to proceed to the Northwest as commissioner to settle the claims arising out of the rebellion, a task he successfully fulfilled. He also took a leading part in establishing the judicial system of the Northwest shortly after the Northwest was erected into a province. Judge Johnson was offered the governorship, but declined, preferring his judicial position. In 1890 he was formally appointed chief justice and was knighted in 1893.

WILL RECEIVE ALL SHIPMENTS.

The Grand Trunk Rescinds the Order Limiting Shipments.

MONTREAL, May 28.—The Grand Trunk Railway Company have rescinded the order limiting the shipments over the road during the coal strike, and are prepared to receive consignments as heretofore.

The Worth of His Brain Power.

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 28.—The unique suit of Gallagher vs. Horne just concluded has been followed with great interest. Horne is a wealthy citizen of Vancouver with political aspirations. He made overtures to W. H. Gallagher, editor of the Vancouver Telegram. Gallagher was to supply "the brains" and he was to supply the money. Horne's pocket paper cost him some $10,000 before it collapsed, but he was elected to the Provincial Assembly. Gallagher then put in a bill for $1,600 for writing all Horne's election speeches, hearing him recite them and coaching him in committee work. Horne refused to settle and Gallagher sued him. The jury, after a trial of three days, awarded Gallagher $500 for the "brain power" supplied to Horne.

Death From a Kick.

TORONTO, May 28.—On Queen's birthday a sad accident occurred at the farm of Mr. Robert Green, Scarboro Township. James Spence, an employe of Mr. Green, was kicked in the stomach by a horse which he was grooming in the stable. Dr. Clapp was called in, but he was unable to save the young man's life. He died within 24 hours after the accident happened. The funeral took place on Saturday. Mr. Spence was 23 years of age and was one of two sons of a widow.

Newfoundland Political Crisis.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 28.—The Whiteway party has played a desperate card. The Telegram published an article demanding the home authorities to recall Governor O'Brien and remove Justice Winter from the bench. It declares the former's action subversive to the principles of the constitution and antagonistic to the wishes of the people.

A Quebec Farmer Suicides.

ST. HILAIRE, Que., May 28.—At Petit Rang, about two miles west of St. Madalin, a well to-do bachelor farmer named Aime Benaime rose in the morning and proceeded to his barn, where about an hour after he was found hanging from a beam. He had been ill for some time, which seems to have affected his brain.

One Minute Cure for Toothache.

Toothache, the most common and one of the most painful affections, is instantly cured by the application of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline is a combination of powerful anodynes, and it strikes at once to the nerves, soothing them and affording in one minute total relief from pain. Mothers, try it for your children's toothache. Nerviline is sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all druggists.

Stubborn Children readily take Dr. Low's Worm Syrup. It pleases the child and destroys the worms.

Skin Diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B. B. B. cures the following Skin Diseases: Shingles, Erysipelas, Itching Rashes, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, by removing all impurities from the blood from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore.

Steamer Cambria Ashore.

KINCARDINE, Ont., May 28.—The steamship Cambria went aground about four miles north of this port in a fog. She is in about five feet of water. It will be some days before she is taken off as the tugs in this neighborhood are not powerful enough to move her.

Decorations for Volunteer Officers.

LONDON, May 28.—It is announced officially that the long service decoration for volunteer officers, which was granted in 1892, will be extended to India and the colonies.

Planing Mills Destroyed.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., May 28.—Nearly the whole of the Royal City Planing Mills have been consumed by fire. Loss $100,000.

Pulp Mills Destroyed.

BULSTRODE, Que., May 28.—The Dominion Paper Company's pulp mill at Maddington Falls was burned and is a total loss.

THE FLAG INCIDENT.

American Authorities Will Not Make Special Inquiry Into the Matter.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"The Stars and Stripes have been torn down and insulted in this city," was the substance of a despatch received here at the State Department from the American Consul at St. Thomas, Ont. When further particulars were received from the American Consul-General to Canada the flag incident was shown to have been of little moment.

It appears that a Canadian looked upon the wine when it was red and then tore down the flag. The Canadian Government is making a full investigation and has given assurances that the offender will be severely dealt with.

State Department officials say that in view of the stand taken by the Canadian Government, they will not make a special inquiry into the matter.

German Professor Dead.

PRINCETON, N.J., May 28.—Earnest Otto William Mildner, professor of German in Princeton College, is dead. He was born in 1848 in Silesia, Prussia. For the past eight years he had been practically the musical director of the college. He formerly lived in Cooperstown, N.Y.

The Divided Skirt Forbidden.

EL PASO, Tex., May 28.—The city council has passed an ordinance forbidding women wearing on the streets of the city what is known as the divided skirt.

Two Fishers Drowned.

LITTLE FERRY, N.J., May 28.—August Conrad and William Sullivan, of Little Ferry, were drowned while fishing in the Hackensack river yesterday.

An occasional bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla does more to correct the tendency of the blood to accumulate humors, and keep the organs sound and healthy, than any other treatment we know of. "Prevention is better than cure." Try it this month.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

It has been decided, after careful consideration, to hold the postponed Public Schools' celebration on the afternoon of Saturday next, June 2nd. On that day the pupils of the Public, Separate and High schools of the town and county will be free to attend if they wish. Moreover, as several of the large factories of the town close on Saturday at noon, many of their employees will be likely to attend. The Fire Brigade band has been engaged for the celebration and probably other attractions besides those already advertised will be added.

Peterborough Registry Office.

Owing to the testimony of ex-Deputy Registrar Grundy before the Public Accounts Committee of the Local Legislature and to his subsequent actions, the Peterborough Registry Office has been brought into considerable prominence. It will be remembered that Mr. Grundy gave certain testimony before the Public Accounts Committe, which was afterwards modified by explanations made by himself under oath. Subsequently a letter appeared in the Toronto Empire over Mr. Grundy's name, showing so much personal animus against Mr. Morrow, that the latter felt it his duty to relieve Mr. Grundy of his duties. The matter of his dismissal was brought up in the House by the leader of the Opposition, claiming the dismissal was due Mr. Grundy's evidence before the committee. The Attorney-General, Sir Oliver Mowat, promised to inquire into the matter and in pursuance of this promise Mr. James Fleming, of Toronto, inspector of legal offices, is here to-day to investigate the matter. He is accompanied by a stenographer and the inquiry began at the Court House at three o'clock.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—Last evening a large crowd of small boys engaged in a spirited game of "pig in the hole" on the market square. There is room for a Sabbath Observance Society in this hyar town.

—A dozen more summons were issued this morning for owners of dogs which have not been registered. The Chief is bound that not a cur shall not escape his eagle eye this year.

—The river keeps steadily rising as the high water caused by the rains comes in from the back country. Since a week ago Thursday it has risen three feet, one inch by actual measurement.

—Mr. J. Graham Weir, Otonabee, had his barns and contents destroyed by fire last night between nine and 10 o'clock. The blaze illuminated the sky and could be plainly seen from town. It was caused by the lightning.

—The owners of three horses which were found running at large yesterday were before the magistrate this morning. All had excuses to offer and were let off with a warning. The magistrate states that the by-law relating to this nuisance will be strictly observed hereafter "if the court knows itself."

—Mr. Martin Connors, of the Hub, was the only citizen of Peterborough who successfully placed the three first horses in the Queen's Plate race on the 24th. He sent his guess in to the Toronto Mail, which to-day announces its correctness. Martin is acknowledged to be one of the keenest judges of horseflesh in the province.

—That peerless little comedienne May Smith Robbins was greatly appreciated in "Little Trixie" Saturday evening by the large audience who attended the presentation of that play in the Opera House. The dancing by different members of the company was above the average, Stella Blair being exceptionally good in her Highland fling and high kicking.

Store Awnings, Window Awnings

Hotel awnings, office awnings, verandah awnings, steamboat awnings, factory awnings, and summer awnings of all kinds and patterns in white or coloured duck manufactured and fitted in proper manner to any desired frames on the most reasonable terms by ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker, Water street, opposite the market.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

Mr. LeBrun Enjoyed It.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—"Did you ever sit in the gallery of the House of Commons and look down into the political pit. Its funny. One night last week the assembly was in committee and in the course of a couple of hours four members addressed the chair and the House in French. The chair was occupied by a gentleman who did not know French from a Scotch lilt, the House with the exception of two who might have been listening, were reading, writing and talking, and about the only man in the galleries who knew what was going on was Mr. LeBrun, of Peterborough. The sole object of the eloquent orating and book quotations was to keep the bill in hand under discussion till adjournment so as to throw out other bills which they were afraid to meet squarely and knock out with a straight vote. Our legislative halls are great institutions."

CHURCH CHIMES.

The Quarterly Board of George street church meets this evening at eight o'clock.

A meeting of the session of St. Paul's church will be held on Thursday evening next.

Miss Montgomery took the solo most acceptably in the first anthem sung in St. Paul's church last night.

The Trustee Board of the George street church will meet on Wednesday evening after the prayer meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Fraser Mission Band of St. Paul's church will be held on Saturday afternoon.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew meets to-morrow evening in the rooms of Rev. Mr. Kenrick, Hunter street. The Junior branch will meet this evening instead of Thursday night.

Mr. Holdsworth, organist of the Wesleyan church, Kidderminster, Eng., presided at the organ in George street church yesterday. In the afternoon he made a short address to the scholars of the Sunday school.

Two anthems were sung in St. Paul's church last night and both were greatly appreciated. The first one was entitled "Now the Day is Over," and the other "God said let the Earth." Mr. W. F. Wilson took the solo part in the latter.

Rev. Mr. Pickford will deliver a sermon at 9:30 o'clock next Sunday morning to the Junior Branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in St. John's church. At seven in the evening a Brotherhood sermon will be delivered in the church by Rev. Mr. Davidson. Corporate communion will be attended by to members of the Brotherhood at 8:30 o'clock in the morning.

The Charlotte street Methodist church pulpit was occupied Sunday by Rev. Dr. Griffin, Toronto, who preached morning and evening to good congregations. The reverend doctor spoke in the evening on "The Mystery of the Gospel," taking his text from the second chapter of Corinthians, 7th verse: "But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery." The sermon was an intellectual treat, full of spiritual thought and given from a actual, living experience.

Yesterday morning the congregation in St. Andrew's Church was exceptionally large, the morning being fine. The people from the country were present in large numbers, whilst there was present a number of strangers. Rev. Mr. MacWilliams' text was Matt., xi, 28-30. The sermon was quite original and powerful and was listened to with great interest. The evening congregation was not quite so large as usual. The music both morning and evening was superior. This choir, possessed of excellent talent, will no doubt now, under the training of Mr. Mulligan, greatly excel.

Rev. J. W. Bell, B.D., missionary superintendent of the Royal Templars, delivered a most interesting sermon in George street church yesterday morning from the texts: "In that day shall there be upon the 15 bells of the horses holiness unto the Lord; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar," and "Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the Lord of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them and seethe therein; and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts," being the last two verses of the last chapter of Zecariah.

Preaching yesterday in St. Luke's Church from the text, "Here have we not continuing city, but we seek one to come," the rector said in reference to the late Mary Bradfield:—"An old member of St. Luke's has been removed from us and one who was deeply attached to our church. A long and painful illness tried her as gold is tried in the fire, but the stored up strength of a life of quiet Christian piety and sincere piety enabled her to 'endure as seeing Him who is invisible.' If prolonged physical pain troubled the surface of the waters of life, beneath the surface the current of her faith flowed steadily and strongly. Such lives are the glory of the Anglican Church. They are like the stars in the firmament of heaven. There is nothing sensational about them, but there is a steady shining more and more unto the perfect day. Their beauty is not as the garish but fleeting splendour of some exotic plant; it is, rather, like that of some heavenly flower that sheds its gentle fragrance round about it, which we do not mark so much whilst with us, as miss when removed from us."

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWHICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

Things to Eat.

At this season of the year when the palate grows tired of the ordinary requirements to sustain life, the taste may then suggest to your mind that you try Mason & Co. for canned mushrooms, or a fine pickle which contains just enough spice to render the flavour rich and racy, or some canned corn beef, lunch tongue, ox tongue with canned vegetables.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

PERSONAL.

Mayor Stevens, of Napanee, is in town this morning.

Miss Kelso, of Toronto, will spend a few weeks with Miss Bradburn.

Messrs. Jacob Wilson and David Price, of Belleville, are up on a business trip.

Mr. Richard Nagle, of Ottawa, is in town, the guest of his son-in-law, Mr. Harry Phelan.

Miss Lizzie Greer, of Peterborough, is the guest of Mr. C. Minaker, Division street.—Cobourg World.

Mrs. A. Brignall and Miss Irene Brignall, of Belleville, who have been visiting friends in town since the 24th, leave to-day for the City on the Bay.

Mr. Gordon Wright and family, formerly of Smith, latterly from Carberry, have returned to Peterborough after an absence of seventeen years, and proposes taking up their residence here.

Very many in Peterborough will hear with regret that Mr. Frank Mulvey, a well known barrister of Winnipeg, was drowned in the Red River on Saturday night. Mr. Mulvey was a prominent member of the Canadian Order of Foresters and an officer of the High Court of Canada in that city. He spent a few days in Peterborough last summer on his return from the High Court at Ottawa. While here he was a guest of Mr. Andrew Macfarlane, a sister of his being married to a brother of Mrs. Macfarlane.

The Kooteny Mail, published at Revelstoke, B. C., has the following in its issue of the 19th inst.: "Dr. McLean returned home on Tuesday after six weeks absence in the eastern cities. The doctor has been a very busy man during those six weeks, having taken a course of study at the hospitals of Toronto and New York and attended a brilliant social function in St. Thomas' church, Belleville, in which he and Miss Maud Hamilton, of 'Belvidere' were the central figures. Mrs. McLean accompanies her husband, and we hope she will be so pleased with our mountain air, scenery and people as to settle down and become one of us. On behalf of the town we tender Mrs. McLean a cordial welcome." Mrs. McLean is a granddaughter of the late Dr. Beatty, of Peterborough.

ASHBURNHAM BRIEFS.

Mr. William Wand, Lake street, has sufficiently recovered to be out again at his place of business.

Mr. William Joy and family, Mark street, who have been up west for some weeks have returned and are occupying their premises which have been closed since they left last winter.

Mrs. W. Neild who has been very ill for some days is fast recovering and hopes soon to be out again.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

CRICKET.

The local cricketers met with a woeful defeat on Saturday at the hands of the first eleven from Trinity School, Port Hope—in fact it was what is termed a regular Waterloo. The fearful drubbing which was administered by the school boys will only serve to spur the local eleven on to greater effort; no discouragement is felt. All the members have had it plainly demonstrated to them that no team, however good, can afford to go on the field unless "fit," and this the home team decidedly was not. Several members, in fact had only been on the field once before this season and none had practiced more than half a dozen times, with the exception of a few of the colts, who were taken on the first eleven for the day.

Another factor which has to be considerd in the discomfiture of the Peterboroughs is that they had to face wonderfully stiff bowling. Houldsworth, the school's professional coach, bowls a wonderfully deceptive ball, which was most effective in the first innings. In the second innings he was a bit off the wickets and was hit hard at times, Montgomery batting him to the tune of four, three times in succession. Goldsmith in this innings made two hits for three, besides a number of other good ones. Unfortunately, though, as Houldsworth's pitching fell off, that of Senkler improved, his ball coming in with lightning like shoots directly on the wicket.

By the time the first eleven play the return match the team will, it is hoped, have put in a little more practice and will recover their lost laurels. As it is, the fielding of the Peterborough's is sharp and quick and hopes are entertained that they may yet prove themselves worthy of upholding the reputation which the club held, as an A. 1. organization, when Attwell coached the team and piloted it to victory.

The score, which was looked after by Guy Rogers, was as follows:—

CREASTLINGS.

Allison, in whom the home team thought they had a tower of strength, was unable to play.

The crease was in splendid condition and the fast balls took to it well.

The second eleven have an A 1 all round man in Guy Rogers. He has a good eye for bowling and his balls are never wide. He is seldom hit hard in the practices and his form is very noticeable. The younger boys in general are taking great interest in cricket.

The second eleven go to Port Hope next Saturday to play Trinity's second team. As the colts have been practicing assiduously for some time past, it is thought they will make a better showing than the senior team.

Mr. Sam Ray kept the wickets Saturday and the plain statement of the fact that only one bye was scored by the visitors is ample proof that he was "the right man in the right place."

Mr. Van Norman, the official scorer for the international matches, umpired the game, together with Dr. Burnham. The decisions of both gave the utmost satisfaction.

One objectionable feature, which frequently crops out in the practices, is that the players are too apt to leave the field directly after their time at the bat has expired, apparently forgetting "there are others," besides themselves who enjoy wielding the willow and who require some one to chase the balls. Such action does much to raise a feeling of dissatisfaction.

No ladies graced the game with their presence.

At the conclusion of the match a scratch game between two teams of colts was played. Messrs. Drope, McKee and Guy Rogers rolled up scores in the twenties.

Montgomery played an exhibition game at the bat. His three hits for 12 runs were splendidly executed. The ball was sent out of the grounds each time.

A scratch match is announced for Wednesday afternoon between teams captained by Messrs. Sam Ray and R. B. Rogers. The names of those taking part will be published to-morrow.

BASEBALL.

A game of baseball was played between the Peterborough and Auburn Mills nines, Saturday afternoon, at Riverside Park. Quite a large number of spectators watched the match, which was a most interesting one. Murray was in the box for Peterborough and did good work, as did McCabe, Dolan and Pomfret. The battery for the Auburn's was composed of Weeks and Cowan, who are exceptionally good men, as are Melrose and Arsnou. The game was umpired by C. Lebrun and was claimed by the Auburn's as the home club did not provide sufficient balls to carry on the game. Up to the eighth innings the score was as follows:

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

ENNISMORE'S ANNUAL PIC-NIC.

A Great Day of Enjoyment Promised—An Exciting Canoe Race.

The annual pic-nic of St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, will be held in a beautiful grove at Gannon's Narrows on Wednesday, June 13th. One of the great attractions of the occasion will be a canoe race for a prize of $10 in gold, or, for those who do not wish to risk their amateur standing, a silver cup of equal value. This event is open to the two counties of Peterborough and Northumberland, and already there are two entries, which insure a speedy and game canoe contest. The conditions governing this race are:—Distance, 1½ mile—three-quarters of a mile with turn; canoes must not be more than 17 feet in length nor less than 28 inches beam. The two entries already made are Mr. Geo. Taylor and Gardiner Nicholls, two old rivals, who will doubtless put up an exciting race. But the entries are not confined to these two; any other canoeist in the two counties can enter the contest. In addition to this grand canoe race there will be a full programme of sports and games, excellent dinner will be provided and speeches appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. Special reduction in railway and steamer fares for the occasion. Remember the date, June 13th, and watch posters for particulars.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Anson Cartwright and family, and some friends went down the river on Saturday on a trial trip in the "Curlew." The hull was built by the Canadian Canoe Company and reflects great credit on that firm. Everything in her is of the best material and she is well finished off. The engine and boiler were built by Moffat & Kinch, two young men who have lately come to town, but have had experience in building marine engines for some years below Brockville. J. J. Turner, the "old reliable" of town, supplied the anchor, lights, buoys, awnings and flags. Peterborough need not take a back seat when it has firms like the above, who can turn out good material and workmanship, and Mr. Cartwright being an old salt can be proud of his boat.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $13 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself.—the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $13, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 00
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
2 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

Read our advertisements. We are the people that quote the lowest prices. We excel every other store on George street in actual Bargains. The cheaper we sell, the more we sell, and the more we sell the cheaper we sell.

FATAL RAILWAY WRECK

A Landslide Causes a Fatality on the Baltimore and Ohio.

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN KILLED

The Charred and Mutilated Bodies Found Underneath the Locomotive — Wrecked Cars Catch Fire— The Messenger Rescued From a Burning Car.

CUMBERLAND, Md., May 28.—Yesterday a disastrous wreck occurred near Pine Grove, two and a half miles east of Rockwood, Pa., on the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The train was the New York and Pittsburg express, which left this place with two express cars, a common express and a mail car and several day coaches.

The coaches were well filled with passengers, and the train was running at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Suddenly the engine dashed into a large landslide, sending the engine down into the creek, where it still lies. The combination express and mail car and regular express cars were crashed into the engine with terrific force and in a few minutes were on fire. The coaches were jammed together but did not leave the track, and none of the passengers were injured.

As soon as the train stopped the passengers rushed to the burning express cars, where they found Messenger Stahl struggling to escape from his car. He was rescued, but not until he had received serious injuries about the head and body and probably internally, but it is thought he will recover.

The dead body of Fireman Rhinehart was found under the locomotive. One of his feet was burned off. Here was also found the charred body of Engineer Nicholson. The remains of Engineer Nicholson and Fireman Rhinehart were taken to Glenwood, Pa., where they leave families. All traffic was suspended for five or six hours.

Two Railway Men Killed.

AUILLA, Tex., May 28.—The engine and six cars of a freight train on the Texas Central railway jumped the track here Friday night. Engineer John Elliott and Brakeman Arthur Woddal were crushed to death beneath the debris.

OTTAWA NOTES.

The MacWherrell Case—Gauthier Sentenced to Three Years.

OTTAWA, May 28.—A letter was received on Saturday at the Department of Justice from Mr. T. C. Robinette, counsel for MacWherrell, the condemned murderer, stating that he had abandoned his application to the Court of Appeal at Toronto for a new trial and now relies entirely on the action of the executive at Ottawa.

John Connolly, a Canada Atlantic railway brakesman, on Saturday morning fell from a moving freight train at Bearbrook and had his head split open. He will probably die.

John J. Gauthier, an inmate of St. Patrick's Orphans' Home, Ottawa, who set fire to the orphanage a few weeks ago, was on Saturday sentenced to three years' imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary.

Inquest on Fullerton's Death.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 28.—The coroner's inquest on the body of the young man Fullerton, who died on the train on Tuesday, has been concluded. This is the case in which Coroner Hawkins created so much talk by forcing an entrance into the undertaker's premises and carrying away the body. The verdict was: "That deceased, Wm. H. Fullerton, came to his death last Tuesday while under the influence of narcotic drug while on the train from Amherst to Halifax, not having the attendance of a physician which he should have had, and this jury recommends that the Provincial Government should take some steps for the transportation of violent lunatics to the insane asylum from their homes." It was brought out in evidence that two grains of morphia had been injected into the patient before leaving Amherst.

Although it is not claimed that Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures every ill to which flesh is heir, yet, as a matter of fact, it comes nearer doing this than any other medicine ever compounded. In purifying the blood it removes the source of nearly all disorders of the human system.

Stole a Seven-Year-Old Child.

THREE RIVERS, Que., May 28.—Delima Charette, a servant at Louiseville, stole away from her mistress' roof and took with her the 7-year-old daughter of the house. On missing the child and girl the next day the mother drove towards St. Barnaby, following the tracks of the fugitive. She came up with her child at 11 at night and took her home and laid a complaint with the clerk of the parish here. On Thursday High Constable Bellefeuille caught the servant at midnight and took her into custody. The girl says she took the child with her for company's sake. It appears that a few years ago this same girl abducted a child some three years of age and took her in a hand cart as far as Louiseville, when the child was taken away from her.

Unknown Man's Body Found.

THOROLD, Ont., May 28.—The body of an unknown man was found in Davy's pulp mill raceway of the Welland Canal here Saturday evening. It had evidently been in the water several days, and was that of a man about 60 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height, bald headed and weighed about 140 pounds. He had on a dark coat and vest and light striped trousers. The chief of police is inclined to believe it to be the body of a tramp named James McLaughlin, although he is not positive.

South Essex Conservatives.

WINDSOR, Ont., May 28.—Dr. Allworth, president of the South Essex Conservative Association, has called a meeting of the party at Kingsville for Wednesday, when it will be decided whether Candidate Buchanan will be given the support of the party or another candidate named. Buchanan was the nominee of the Conservative party, but a large number have withdrawn their support from him since he declared himself a member of the P. P. A.

Committed for a Heinous Crime.

NORWOOD, Ont., May 28.—John Huffman, a part negro from Campbellford, was arrested on the charge of criminal assault committed on Bertha Warner, a little twelve-year-old daughter of Peter Warner of this place. Reeve J. B. Pearce, J. P., held court here, and after hearing evidence, committed Huffman to the county jail to stand his trial at the next assizes.

Verdict for Eighteen Thousand.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Mrs. Ada Dow Currier, who was the directress of the Julia Marlowe Company, and sued Theatrical Manager David Henderson to recover damages of $50,000 for injuries she received at the Chicago Opera House in 1887 by the fall of one of the scenes, recovered a verdict for $18,000 in the Supreme Court.

Death of a Famous Savant.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Rev. Dr. Alexander Kohunt is dead. He was identified with many institutions, especially the Jewish Theological Seminary. His principal work, and the one by which he is best known in the scientific world, is the "Aruch Completum," a Talmudic dictionary, which was completed after 23 years' labor.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. MRS. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

THE DOCTRINE OF WORK.

Worry May Kill, but Labor is Life, According to Sir Andrew Clark.

It is well known that the late Sir Andrew Clark had a contempt for the view that hard work hurts a man. From the latest of the series of articles reproducing in the Lancet instructions given by him in clinical medicine at the London Hospital, is made the following interesting quotation, reviving, in his own words, a bit of autobiography, with the substances of which our readers are already familiar: "Labor is the life of life. And especially is it the life of life to the delicate. And when any organ is sick it is then truer than in health that even in sickness and delicacy it is better for the organ to do what work of its own it can, provided it can do it without injury. And I can say to you from a considerable experience of tuberculous pulmonary disease, I can say with perfect confidence, that those who have done the best have usually been those who have occupied themselves the most. I never knew my own parents. They both died of phthisis.

"At the age of twenty-one I myself went to Madeira to die of phthisis. But I did not die, and on coming back I had the good luck to get into this great hospital, and in those days they were not very pleased to have the Scotchmen coming to London to occupy such appointments. The members of the staff had heard that I had tubercles, and they wagered 100 to one that I would only have the appointment six months at most. The reason given for that was that I did not eat and worked too hard. I got the appointment. Thirty-eight or thirty-nine years have gone since that time, and it is all the other doctors that are gone. Only I am left here on the staff—an old gentleman—not dead yet." There was one little mistake here, as the editor of the Lancet points out. Sir Andrew Clark had for the moment forgotten that Dr. W. J. Little was still alive.

Labor is life, said Sir Andrew Clark, but he continued in the lecture above quoted: "Worry is killing. It is bad management that kill people. Nature will let no man overwork himself unless he plays her false—takes stimulants at irregular times, smokes too much or takes opium. If he is regular and obeys the laws of health and walks in the way of physiological righteousness, nature will never allow him or any other person to work too much. I have never yet seen a case of breaking down from mere overwork alone; but I admit that it is necessary above all other things to cultivate tranquility of mind.

"Try to help your patients to exercise their wills in regard to this—for will counts for something in securing tranquility—to accept things as they are, and not to bother about yesterday, which is gone forever; not to bother about to-morrow, which is not theirs; but to take the present day and make the best of it. Those affectionate women who will continually peer into what lies beyond never have any present life at all—they are always grizzling over the past or prying into the future, and this blessed to-day, which is all that we are sure of, they never have."

Birds That Can Sew.

Sewing seems so ingenious an art that it must be reserved for the human species alone. Yet the tailor bird, the Orthotomus longicauda, and other species possess the elements of it. They place their nests in a large leaf which they prepare to this end. With their beaks they pierce two rows of holes along the two edges of the leaf; they then pass a stout thread from one side to the other alternately. With this leaf, at first flat, they form a horn in which they weave their nest with cotton or hair. These labors of weaving and sewing are preceded by the spinning of the thread. The bird makes it itself by twisting in its beak spiders' webs, bits of cotton, and little ends of wool. Sykes found that the threads used for sewing were knotted at the ends.—Popular Science Monthly.

Return of the Reticule.

Parisians have now very generally adopted the reticule or bag, which they carry about slung on their left arm not only in the daytime but also in the evening, when, of course, it is chosen so as to harmonize with the toilet. The black bag is the only one considered proper for the streets and promenades, although small bouquets brocaded in color on the black satin or watered silk of which it is made are tolerated, and, moreover, the lining will frequently be of colored surah, and many bags are cut down three or four inches on either side so as to fall down in two flaps, thus showing a good deal of lining.

Decidedly Frenchy.

A rich foreigner settled in Marseilles and built a very costly villa. Two years ago he made elaborate preparations for dying by his own hand whenever he decided that the moment had come. He built a vault, which could be hermetically sealed, in a corner in his garden, furnished with a reclining chair, two large candelabra, and two pans filled with charcoal ready to light. He entered the vault frequently, but not until a week ago did he close the door and light the charcoal. He was found dead in the chair.

An Odd Railroad.

Almost every winter a railroad is laid across the St. Lawrence at Quebec. The ice there is often ten or twelve feet thick, and will bear all the weight that can be heaped on it, so a locomotive is a mere trifle for such ice as that. The ties are laid in a graded road-bed cut in the ice, the rails are spiked on, then water is poured in to the excavation and in half an hour or so is frozen as hard as a stone, and the road is done.

TALKS ON ASTRONOMY.

The Planet Ceres Which Travels Between Mars and Jupiter.

Mary Proctor writes: If you could take a trip to the sky and travel from planet to planet you would find that there is a very wide gap between the planets Mars and Jupiter, and that in this gap hundreds of small planets or asteroids travel. But it was a long time before astronomers made this discovery, and they often observed this wide gap through their telescopes and wondered if some planet had not traveled there in the days gone by.

At last they began to ask whether there might not be such a planet, and they searched very carefully with their most powerful telescopes. Four and twenty astronomers turned four and twenty telescopes towards different parts of the heavens, and they were determined to find the fugitive planet. They had their charts on which were marked all the stars which had already been discovered, and lists of stars made by other observers. If they saw a star which was not to be found in the charts, or in the lists of stars, they watched the star to see if it moved. If it did not move they would know it was a fixed star that had not yet been observed, and if it moved they knew that it was a planet. But although the astronomers were all very anxious to have the honor of finding the new planet, yet an astronomer named Piazzi, who was not looking for it at all, made the discovery by accident.

He was looking at a certain part of the heavens where he had noticed a small star which was not marked on the charts. Next evening, when he turned his telescope towards the same star, he found that it had moved away from its former place. He watched the star for several nights and found that it was still travelling along just as a planet would. He had first seen the star on New Year's Day, 1801 (the first day that is, of the present century), and he followed it on its course until Feb. 11, when he fell dangerously ill, and he could not watch it any longer. He had written to the astronomers who were watching for the new planet, and told them about his discovery, but though he had sent off his letters on Jan. 24 they were not received until the end of March, for in those days letters traveled much more slowly than at present. The planet by this time had become lost to sight in the sun's light and the astronomers scarcely knew where to look for it, as Piazzi had not observed it long enough to notice on what path it was traveling. But fortunately a very skilful mathematician named Gauss, by careful study, was able to calculate where the planet would be when it came to view again, and again on Dec. 31—a year from its first discovery—it was found again. Piazzi called it Ceres.

Now this small planet was found to travel just where the astronomers had looked for the new planet, that is, between the paths of Mars and Jupiter. It was a very tiny body compared with even the least of the planets before known; but still it was a planet, and the astronomers were only too pleased to make the little wanderer welcome. They were rather surprised at this tiny planet traveling by itself in lonely grandeur round the sun, but they were still more surprised when they found that it was anything but lonely, for now no less than three hundred asteroids have been discovered traveling along in the same direction.

A Story With a Moral.

Politeness means much. Yesterday I saw two collisions. A cable car was humming up Broadway and collided with an express wagon at Tenth street. "D——your eyes!" yelled the driver. "D—— your own eyes!" answered the gripman, after which the air was blue with profanities and vulgarities, which ought to have resulted in some head punching, and probably would had it not been for the interference of a policeman, who, oddly enough, turned up at the right time. After that everybody went along, out of temper, cross, red-faced and ruffled. Not long after that a hack was rumbling along Fourteenth street and nearly upset a light wagon, in which two young sports were speeding. The pole of the hack caught between the spokes of the wagon wheel, and would have caused considerable damage, but the quick eye of one of the young men saw the danger. "Ah, there, Johnnie," said he good-naturedly, "look out, old man, or you'll break your stick." The hackman answered in the same vein, and away they went, laughing, each about his own affairs. Yes, molasses is better than vinegar, and politeness is the grease of the human axle.—New York Recorder.

The Soldiers of the Sun.

Along the margin of the world
They march with their bright banners furled,
Until, in line of battle drawn,
They reach the boundaries of dawn.

They cross the seas and rivers deep,
They climb the mountains high and steep,
And hurry on until in sight
Of their black enemy—the Night.

Then madly rush into the fray
These armies of the Night and Day.
Swiftly the shining arrows go,
While bugling Winds their warnings blow.

Strive as He will, the Night is pressed
Farther and farther down the west,
With golden spear and gleeming lance
The colorts of the Day advance.

Thus, daily, is the battle won
By the brave soldiers of the Sun!

—Frank Dempster Sherman, in Harper's Weekly.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease. Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

SONS OF ENGLAND ATTEND WORSHIP.

LANSDOWNE LODGE NO. 111.

REV. MR. TORRANCE DELIVERS THE ANNUAL SERMON AT ST. PAUL'S.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan Serves as a Theme upon which the Discourse was Delivered—Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself—Who Then is my Neighbor?

The members of Lansdowne Lodge No. 111, S. O. E., attended Divine Service in a body last evening. Their annual sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Torrance, of St. Paul's, and the Lodge turned out to the number of over four score, each member wearing old England's emblem of the rose in his buttonhole.

The church was filled and the sermon was based upon the Parable of the Good Samaritan.

The man who asked the question, which led to the utterance of the parable of the Good Samaritan, can hardly have been friendly to our Lord. The question "Master what shall I do to inherit eternal life," while one of momentous importance, was put to our Lord by this lawyer, tempting him. While not actuated, perhaps, by actual malice, as were those who sought to entangle our Lord in His talk. He seems to have had no higher object than that of making proof of the knowledge of Jesus, by whose words he had been struck. He was not a sincere seeker after truth, he had never felt the importance of his question as bearing upon his own spiritual interests.

In answer to the question of the lawyer our Lord asked another, "What is written in the law? how readest thou?" The lawyer replied by quoting two passages which contain an epitome of all moral duty, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thyself." Jesus said, "Thou hast answered right, this do and thou shalt live."

The first question of the lawyer "Master what shall I do to inherit eternal life" was asked tempting Jesus; his second question "And who is my neighbour" was asked to justify himself. He would fain have the significance of the term 'neighbour' so narrowed down that he might make himself believe that he had loved his neighbour as himself. The question was asked in a wrong spirit, as it was with a view to self justification, and it indicated a misunderstanding of the real nature of love. To this question, "And who is my neighbour" Jesus replied in the parable of the Good Samaritan. The parable was not a direct answer to the lawyer's question. The lawyer had asked "And who is my neighbour," Jesus showed "Who the one is who acts as a neighbour," thus fixing our attention rather upon the one who is to show the love, rather than upon the one to whom the love is to be shown.

THE PICTURE OF THE PARABLE.

The parable presents us, in the first place, with a picture of a man in extreme need.

"A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead."

The road from Jerusalem to Jericho over which this traveller passed ran through a desolate and rocky region which was then, and still is, infested with robbers. There was a particular portion of the road called the "Way of Blood," so many having there been plundered and slain. On the occasion here referred to, the thieves among whom this traveller fell maintained the infamous character of the road, stripping him of his raiment and wounding him and departing, leaving him half dead.

A picture of man in extreme need. The condition of that traveller sets forth the condition of fallen man. Man has fallen from the state in which he was at first created into a state of sin and misery. He has been stript of his original glory and sadly wounded by Satan, the thief into whose hands he fell. He is lying half dead, unable to lift up himself or to recover what he has lost. Yes, in the condition of this traveller lying stripped of his raiment, wounded and half dead, we have a picture of fallen man. But there are many individual cases of man in extreme need which are represented by this traveller. There is one who has brought himself into a pitiable condition by reckless indulgence in sin. He was a young man, perhaps, of kindness of heart and of generosity of nature, well liked by all who knew him. But, alas, he fell into bad company, and he was led into habits of intemperance and extravagance. In course of time he lost the confidence of his employer and was turned out of his situation. He is now in a condition like that of the traveller, lying stripped of his raiment, wounded and half dead.

There is another who has come into a condition of poverty through no fault of his own. His health broke down and he was unable to work and there were heavy debts incurred in connection with his illness. Or a time of financial depression came and heavy business losses were incurred. These are just samples of cases which might be mentioned of persons being in a similar condition to that of the wounded traveller.

PASSED BY ON THE OTHER SIDE.

Thus the traveller was lying in a half unconscious condition, probably resigned to his fate, "And by chance there came down a certain priest that way and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place came and looked on him and passed by on the other side."

The terms here rendered "by chance" really mean "by coincidence," by that falling in of one event with another which is brought about in the providence of God. There is really no such thing as chance. What seems to be chance is really the working out of the divine plan. The providence of God is universal in its extent, embracing matters which seem to us quite trivial as well as matters which are most important. Without our Father in heaven not a sparrow falls to the ground, and by him the hairs of our head are all numbered. It is not by accident merely that one needy brother is placed in our way. It is for our own sake as well as for his—it is that we may be blessed in giving as well as he be blessed in receiving.

In accordance then with the divine purpose in order that he might have an opportunity of practicing that mercy which he was accustomed to preach, a priest passed near the place where the wounded traveller lay. Perhaps he was on his way to Jerusalem to execute his office before God in the order of his course, or perhaps having accomplished his term of service he was returning to his home. At any rate, instead of helping his needy brother he passed by on the other side. No doubt he had excuses to offer to his conscience for what he had done. The robbers might be in the neighpourhood, so that there would be danger to his own life. The wounded man was probably too far gone to derive any benefit from his help. However, the priest did not act, as he would have wished another to have acted toward him. He did not love his neighbour as himself.

A Levite who passed by soon afterwards was just as remiss in his duty as the priest. His conduct is painted in even a more unfeeling light, for he came and looked on the sufferer and then passed by on the other side. He was quite unmoved by the pitiable condition of the wounded traveller. At any rate he was not willing to incur any risk or to put forth any effort on his behalf.

THE INABILITY OF THE LAW.

If in the wounded traveller we have a picture of the condition of the fallen man, in the Priest and in the Levite, we have a picture of the inability of the law to help man in his fallen state. The Priest and the Levite may be taken as representations of the law both moral and ceremonial. As the wounded traveller desired no assistance from either Priest or Levite, so does the sinner desire no assistance from the law whereby he may be saved. This is clearly brought out in many places in the Epistles. Thus we read "If there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law." "For I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died." "For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh." The law convicts of sin. It shows how hateful and deadly sin is. But the law cannot bring life. It is like Elisha's staff, which failed to raise the dead child. Again, if in the wounded traveller, we have a picture of one in extreme need; in the conduct of the Priest and Levite, we have a picture of the failure of those to render help, from whom help might justly be expected. Who ought to have been so ready to render help to this wounded traveller as a Priest or a Levite—the official representatives of the Jewish religion? Yet how often have men, holy by profession and occupation, come short in the duties of humanity, so divorcing holiness from charity, religion from morality. The official representative of the Christian religion ought to be the readiest to render help to those in need.

PILLAR OF THE CHURCH NEGLECTFUL.

This is one of the very purposes for which the church exists. And yet in too many cases the office bearers and members of the church fail to do their duty in this respect, leaving it to be done by those outside the church. "But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed came where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him. And went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him." The conduct of this Samaritan appears in all the more praiseworthy a light, when we remember the hostility which existed between the Jews and the Samaritans. This hostility originated in difference of race and was kept alive by difference in religion. The Samaritans erected a temple on Mount Gerizim in opposition to the one at Jerusalem, and regularly maintained their prescribed forms of worship. To this the woman of Samaria referred in her conversation with Jesus, and expressed surprise that He, a Jew, should ask drink of her, a woman of Samaria.

We would have expected the priest and Levite to have rendered help and the Samaritan to have passed by on the other side.

LOVE AND COMPASSION.

The Samaritan had compassion on the wounded traveller. His heart was touched and this was the cause of the trouble, which he took on the sufferers' behalf. Love in presence of human suffering takes the form of compassion, and love in all its forms tends to express itself in action; compassion issues in help. Herein lay the secret of the difference between the conduct of the Samaritan and that of the priest and Levite. He was moved by love; they were moved by selfishness. His love made him unmindful of his own danger and of the nationality of the wounded man.

If, in the wounded traveller, we have a picture of the condition of fallen man, and if, in the priest and Levite, we have a picture of the inability of the law to help man in his fallen state, in the Samaritan we have a picture of Christ, Who has come to our relief. As the love of the Samaritan is seen, in relieving one who belonged to a hostile race, so God commendeth His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. It was love which brought the Son of God from heaven to earth. It was the compassion inspired by the sense of man's terrible need which led Him to make so great a sacrifice on man's behalf. "And He saw that there was no man and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore His own arm brought salvation unto him and His righteousness it sustaineth him."

CHRIST EXEMPLIFIED.

Christ is the good Samaritan who came to the place where sinners lay, stripped, wound and half dead. Christ is the One who binds up their wounds, pouring in the oil of His blessed spirit and the wine of his precious blood. He took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses. By the shedding of His blood, we have remission of sins; by the work of His Spirit within, we are made holy. He has discharged all the debts, which we have contracted and He is our surety for the time to come.

Having finished the parable, Jesus said to the lawyer, "Which now of these thinkest thou was neighbour unto him that fell among thieves." The question clearly evinced our Lord's wisdom compelling the lawyer to give a different answer from what he desired and to commend one of a hated race.

"And he said he that showed mercy on him." Then said Jesus unto him go and do thou likewise."

If Jesus is himself the perfect exemplification of the good Samartian. He expects his people to follow Him in this respect. He said to his disciples at one time: "Ye call me Master and Lord and ye say well for so I am. If I, then your Lord and Master wash your feet, ye also aught to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example that ye should do as I have done to you."

The question for each of us to ask is, not "Who is my neighbour," "but how shall I act the part of a neighbour to those in need."

HE SACRIFICED HIMSELF.

Wherever there is human need there is an opportunity for acting the part of a neighbour. It was human need that appealed powerfully to our hearts as well. Jesus did not ask what claims sinful men had upon Him. He sacrificed Himself, although they had forfeited all claims to His favours. And so we should not ask what claims the needy have on us; their very need constitutes a claim. Our fellowmen are our neighbours—all who are cramped by penury and crushed by sorrow, all whom plague hath smitten and the curse hath damned, all from whose homes loved ones have vanishen or around whose heart the pall has been drawn.

Thy neighbour? 'Tis that toiling slave,
Fettered in thought and limb,
Whose hopes are all beyond the grave—
Go thou and ransom him.
Thy neighbour? 'Tis that fainting form,
Whose eyes with want are dim,
Whom hunger drives from door to door—
Go thou and cherish him.

R. H. KELLS & CO'S BONA FIDE Enlarging and Stock-Clearing Sale

Scores a Genuine Success!

ECONOMICAL BUYERS REAPING A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST!

Carrying Out Our Programme!

The Second Week of our Unavoidable Stock-Clearing Sale will be a brilliant one. The First Week was a good beginning—very good—from start to finish—a surprise even to the sanguine management. We carried out our promises to the letter; customers were assured and delighted, and a multitude of Bargains went forth to advertise the sale for the second week.

ALL THIS WEEK

Every department will be literally honey-combed with Remarkable Values, and we confidently expect that the Sale will prove the largest, intensest and most satisfactory which the ladies of Peterborough and district have ever witnessed. We have things to show and things to sell that no other store will care to compete against.

$30,000 WORTH

Of New and Fashionable Summer DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, MANTLES, &c., must ABSOLUTELY be cleared out to make room for the early Enlarging and Remodelling of our premises. Complete stocks of everything that a self-respecting store should have is here. Ladies need scarcely be reminded about such a stock as we carry—

—SILKS	—DOMESTICS	—PARASOLS
—DRESS GOODS	—SHAWLS	—UNDERWEAR
—PRINTS	—BLOUSES	—EMBROIDERIES
—LINENS	—CORSETS	—MILLINERY
—FLANNELS	—GLOVES	—MANTLES
—COTTONS	—HOSIERY	—NOVELTIES

Whatever is new, worthy and cheap in Dry Goods of every sort, is brought together here from all parts of the world. Sound, warrantable goods—and not a yard or piece of these will be reserved during this Stock-Clearing, if we can prevent it.

All the country now know of our substantial reasons for disregarding the item of profit at this sale. Workmen cannot do their work with a store full of goods, and we've no place to store them whilst

The Walls Are Coming Down

And the contractor is bound to have our building ready for occupation in time for early trade. It is impossible to attempt anything like a complete list of the remarkable values. They'll be found on every corner of the house; and as our name has always been associated with an honesty of purpose to carry out all we undertake, we are bound to maintain our reputation.

An additional staff of efficient salesmen and saleswomen had to be taken on last week and ladies are assured that a further increase will be made to cope with the increasing demands upon us.

R. H. KELLS & CO'S ENLARGING SALE,

A STRONG PILLAR

Of the Golden Lion store is its DRESS GOODS Department. By it we are winning trade every day, because we keep faith with the ladies. It's Fair's way.

Materials were never finer, shades were never richer, qualities were never better, and prices were never lower. No room here for aught save the best and most fashionable that money can buy.

Just space to-day to mention a few

Talking Prices.

1,000 yards All-Wool Summer Dress Goods, such as may be seen quoted as worth 50c. and 75c. a yard, we are actually selling at 25c. and 35c.—less than one-half.

1,500 yards Rest French Printed DELAINES, well worth 35c. a yard, and that would pay to keep in reserve rather than offer them now, as we are doing, at only 25c. a yard.

A Job Line of FRENCH DELAINES to be seen in other windows ticketed at double the figure, can be bought at the Golden Lion for only 12½c. a yard.

ROBE DRESS COSTUMES, matchless value, as follows:—

$18 00	Dress Costumes, now only	$9 00
$11.00	Dress Costumes, now only	$7.50
$10.00	Dress Costumes, now only	$7 00
$9 00	Dress Costumes, now only	$6.50
$8 50	Dress Costumes, now only	$6.00
$7.50	Dress Costumes, now only	$5.50
$6 50	Dress Costumes, now only	$4.50
$5 00	Dress Costumes, now only	$3.75

500 yards PRINTED PONGEE SILKS, regular price, until now, 50c. a yard, we now offer at 25c.

500 yards SHOT SURAH SILKS, worth easily 75c. a yard, now 50c.

1,000 LADIES' COTTON BLOUSES at prices that have struck the lowest ebb, and never were equalled for values. Nothing newer under the sun. It's Fair's way.

Unparalleled value in PRINTS. CHAMBRAY'S, KRINKLE CHAMBRAY'S, SEERSUCKERS, DELAINETTES.

LACES AND INSERTIONS. WHITE, CREAM and TORCHON Laces. Greatly admired by the Ladies. Lovely Black and Coloured SILK LACES that have been extolled for their beauty, variety and low price.

What Fashion Demands.

In Millinery and Mantles, Ribbons, Veiling and other novelties for the Ladies are to be found here, with all the prices running below the ordinary. The services of skilled Milliners at your command.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in. in width; Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels at 75c. Tapestries down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

SIR OLIVER'S APPEAL

Ontario's Grand Old Man Speaks to the Electors at London.

RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM

The Premier Reviews the Work Accomplished by His Administration—His Policy Placed Clearly Before the Electors—Opposition Charges Refuted.

LONDON, Ont., May 29.—Last night a rousing demonstration was held in this city in honor of Sir Oliver Mowat and his able colleagues The Young Liberal fife and drum corps and the mounted Liberal force turned out in grand array to do honor to the occasion, and the whole city shared the enthusiasm.

At the Grand Opera House Sir Oliver delivered his opening speech in the campaign. With him were the Hon. A. S. Hardy, Commissioner of Crown Lands, and the Hon. Richard Harcourt, Provincial Treasurer. Mr. Thomas S. Hobbs, the Liberal candidate for the city, whose success in the coming elections was assured by the splendid ovation greeting his appearance, was also present.

After Mr. Hobbs, the Liberal candidate, had made his speech, which referred almost entirely to local affairs, Sir Oliver Mowat took the platform.

Sir Oliver Mowat, on rising to speak, was greeted with immense enthusiasm. In commencement he congratulated the citizens of London in their selection of Mr. Hobbs as their candidate. He paid a compliment to the ladies present and reminded them that the rights of certain portions of the women of Ontario had been looked after by the Government of the province, and although the time is not yet ripe for a much further advance in this respect, he was glad to be able to think that it was ripening and that it would not be long before every woman as well as every man had the privilege of voting. He then took up the question of prohibition and said that the time had come when the experiment should be tried and he believed they would have no trouble in supporting it. No evil that affects the community of this day exceeds in magnitude that of intemperance. All admitted that, and the only question is as to what means can be adopted for lessening those evils. All knew his views on the question.

ONTARIO'S GRAND OLD MAN.

There might be difficulties in enforcing the law, but his view was that they should shoulder those difficulties and not despair of finding a way of conquering them. He announced that as far as he was concerned, and as far as it concerns those who in this matter might follow him, or whom he might influence, he proposed, provided the Privy Council decides that he had the jurisdiction, to pass such a law, and he was sure that in passing such a measure and in their efforts to enforce it, they would have the moral support of the women of this country as well as of a large portion of the men of the country.

Taking up questions of general politics he remarked that he desired all to be well informed of what had been done to enable them to exercise the franchise at the approaching elections with impartial conscientiousness. They had heard one side of the question a few days ago, and he had come to give them the other view. As to what his government had accomplished for the province he declared that in all the twenty years of his administration the Opposition had utterly failed to prove any charge of boodling by his government. The charge of partisanship in connection with the education department he denied. Three million dollars of a surplus had been left them by the Sandfield Macdonald government, but Sir Oliver maintained that several times this amount had been spent by his government in aiding railways and other enterprises. In all cases it could be shown that the resources of the province, rather than having been squandered as the Opposition had charged, were fully and carefully husbanded. The Government House question had occupied considerable attention this year. In regard to this matter, he said that when the people through their representatives declared that the institution should cease to exist then it would be wiped out. The people would instruct their representatives as to their wishes in the matter and their members would act. Sir Oliver combatted Mr. Meredith's theory of biennial sessions. The leader of the Opposition had received the idea from the States; yet that imported idea was not based on a knowledge of the facts existing in those states where it was in vogue. No practical benefit could be derived, he considered, and no public interest served by the adoption of the idea in the province of Ontario. He spoke of the necessity of an annual audit session in provincial affairs, which was as necessary as the annual inspection of a bank. He referred to the fight in Britain between the Sovereign and the people to procure for the latter the privilege of holding annual sessions. Every democratic country in the world, with the exception of individual states of the union, insisted on annual sessions. He opposed biennial sessions as a matter of duty and not in consideration of the Government's comfort, as in the event of that system being adopted it would leave them free from Parliament and their opponents for two years.

The ballot system, which the Opposition had singled out for attack, was certainly a secret one. He defended the system most strongly, as, despite Opposition remarks to the contrary, it was a most efficient and adequate system. It is in the public interest. He claimed it prevented the practice of ballot-stuffing, whereas the Dominion system really invited the recording of false votes. The system of the Mowat Government was the British system, and no one ever hears of such cries as lack of secrecy in England, Scotland and Ireland, where the system is identically the same.

The Opposition claimed that the Department of Education should be separate from the government. With regard to this, it was the late Dr. Ryerson's idea that of having a Minister of Education, and he showed wherein it was an advantage to have the head of the department in the House to defend his administration of the important affairs under his control.

Sir Oliver defended the recent action of himself and colleagues in regard to the proposal to have a ballot for the election of school trustees, and closed his speech by declaring that in reality his was the "equal rights party."

The Premier's oration from beginning to end was a clear definition of his principles and platform, and these he defended with an earnest consciousness of their rectitude, and a confidence in their receiving support of the people who had entrusted the administration of the affairs of the province in his hands.

Messrs. Hardy, Hyman and Gibbons followed Sir Oliver in defence of the stewardship of the Government and in support of Mr. Hobbs as representative for the city in the Legislature.

MACWHERRELL'S EXECUTION.

The Old Trap Door Scaffold Will be Used —The Prisoner Hopeful.

BRAMPTON, May 29.—Radcliffe, the hangman, drove to Brampton yesterday and at once called upon Sheriff Broddy. Deputy Chief Duggan accompanied him to the office of a builder, who refused to erect the scaffold upon which to execute MacWherrell. One of his men, however, undertook the job, and it is being erected in the jail yard where MacWherrell is confined. The hammering is distinctly audible to the prisoner, who still keeps hopeful that a new trial will be granted. The hangman took a long look at the prisoner, unobserved by him, ascertained his weight, and finally decided that he was too light and his neck too weak to stand the drop of the big iron weight, and the old trap door scaffold will be used. This will likely bring the top of it into view from the adjacent buildings. The female inhabitants in the vicinity of the jail are preparing to leave the neighborhood for a day or two. Radcliffe was the centre of attraction during the afternoon at the blacksmith shop, where he was directing Blacksmith Harris in the preparation of the ironwork for the scaffold. He chatted cheerfully with the onlookers and said he did not think there was any chance or likelihood of a reprieve or new trial. The execution is the chief topic of conversation in town to-day.

A QUEBEC SENSATION.

Workmen Discover Human Bones and Skulls in an Old Building.

QUEBEC, Que., May 29.—While masons were working at a building on Amabale street yesterday they found a quantity of human bones enclosed in a flour barrel and in a chest. A box was also found containing the skeleton of a child strung up with wires. The mass of skulls and bones would prove that at least twelve skeletons were secreted there.

The place where the bones were found is the attic of a shed which has been out of use for many years. It belonged to the late Hon. John Hearn, M.P. Some thirty years ago shanties of disreputable character were kept on that spot, where soldiers and sailors of the Imperial service used to congregate. The town is all excitement over the discovery. Coroner Bellean has taken charge of the remains and will hold an investigation.

DAMAGE BY A CLOUDBURST.

Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars Damage Within an Hour.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—A cloudburst last evening swept the extreme northeastern section of this city and the southern portion of Montgomery county, and within an hour did damage to the amount of over $100,000. The Reading Railroad was a heavy sufferer by the storm, bad washouts blocking three of its divisions. The shoddy mills of Charles E. Markland & Co. were also badly damaged. A stone dam eighteen feet in height on Manor Creek, which supplied William E. Hamilton's paper mill, was burst by the swelling stream and the mass of water swept down through the mill, completely ruining the stock. A row of ten tenements back of Hamilton's mill were flooded to the second floor and their occupants fled for their lives.

A Minister in Trouble.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Rev. George S. V. Howard was arrested here, charged with working a confidence game. Howard was ordained a Methodist minister in New York, was once a prohibition candidate for Congress from Indiana, and has preached in several Indiana towns. He was indicted in April for passing worthless cheques, released on bond and jumped his bail, evading recapture until to-day.

Locusts in Illinois.

DECATUR, Ill., May 29.—Millions of locusts, said to be of the fourteen or seventeen-year variety, have appeared in Decatur. Farmers report the locusts thick in the country. They will do great damage to fruit and shade trees, grass and shrubbery.

CZAR ISSUES A UKASE

Diplomatic Circles in Russia Are Greatly Concerned Over It.

MINISTERS' POWER CURTAILED

The Czar's Action Said to Have Been Brought About by the Dismissals of Minor Officials to Gratify the Caprice of Arbitrary Superiors.

LONDON, May 29.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Times says: The most important reform of a retrospective and centralizing character yet executed by the present Czar in the administration is announced in the imperial ukase of May 16. The ukase has struck the entire official world of Russia with consternation. It deprives all the Ministers, Governors and other high dignitaries of the power they have hitherto freely exercised of appointing and dismissing their official subordinates of all classes, and establishes, under the Czar's direct supervision, the special committee of control which existed a few years under Czar Nicholas. After November 18 questions of appointments and dismissals must be referred to that committee.

It is not known what really caused the issue of the ukase, but it is rumored that it is in connection with the recent arrests of many minor officials in different departments. It is also reported that the ministers were greatly perturbed when informed that the ukase had been issued.

The new minister of justice wrote a report to the Czar in regard to the decree, and received a sharp answer for his pains. It is further declared that the ministers, who regard the Czar's action as a sign of distrust, met the committee of control, and talked of resigning.

This reform will have two consequences—favoritism in regard to promotions will be rendered impossible, and minor officials cannot be discharged through mere arbitrary caprice of their superiors.

News of political arrests comes from every direction. The police have not been so active in years. It is reported that thirty persons have already been banished to Siberia.

Female Conspirators.

The Daily News correspondent in St. Petersburg writes that the police are still arresting political suspects throughout the empire. The extent of the plot, he says, was greatly under estimated at first. Almost daily the police discover evidence of ramifications hitherto unsuspected. More than fifty boxes of dynamite and numerous bombs have been seized on a coal steamer in a Russian port. They were imported for the use of the conspirators. Upon searching the Baroness Merlhoffa' house the police found a list of women Nihilists, most of whom belong to the higher classes of society. The male cooks in the Imperial household were dismissed suddenly a few days ago because they were suspected of a plot to poison the Czar.

Countess Russell's Suit.

LONDON, May 29.—The case of the Countess Russell, who is suing her husband for the restoration of her conjugal rights, came up in the divorce division of the High Court of Justice. Since the unsuccessful suit for divorce brought by the countess in 1891 the couple have been living apart, but for some reason, although it was shown in the course of the trial that the earl outrageously maltreated her, she desires to return to him. Her application is strenuously opposed by the earl, whose counsel contended that as the countess, in petitioning for a divorce from her husband had falsely charged him with physical cruelty and offences against decency, it would be impossible now for them to live together. Therefore he believed the application ought to be dismissed without a hearing. The judge decided that the action must proceed.

Why They Were Not Honored.

LONDON, May 29.—Much surprise has been expressed over the fact that neither Hon. George E. Foster nor Hon. Mackenzie Bowell were included as recipients of birthday honors. In this connection it has been suggested that Hon. Foster's action in regard to the French treaty discounted his other claims to knighthood. Concerning honors for Hon. Mr. Bowell, the correspondent learns they will more fittingly follow the intercolonial conference, which is to open at Ottawa on June 22.

Morocco and Spain.

LONDON, May 29.—The Madrid correspondent of the Central News says: "Sultan Muley Hassan of Morocco is preparing to send to Spain an embassy which will ask permission to postpone the operation of the last treaty between Morocco and Spain, especially that part which concerns the punishment of the Riffs for their attacks upon Spaniards at Melilla. The embassy will plead that fresh outbreaks of the rebellious tribes would be provoked by steps to punish the leaders."

Hungary's Civil Marriage Bill.

BUDA PESTH, May 28.—At a council of ministers it was decided to demand that Emperor Francis Joseph create a sufficient number of magnates to overcome the opposition to the Civil Marriage Bill in the event of the measure being rejected by the House of Magnates. In accordance with this resolution of the council the demand was despatched to Vienna forthwith, and an answer is expected Wednesday.

The Cattle Embargo.

LONDON, May 29.—Mr. Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, said, in reply to a question by Mr. Chaplin, that an animal had been recently landed at Liverpool from Montreal which showed many symptoms of pleuro-pneumonia. Experts were now examining the lungs of the animal with a view of determining future regulations in regard to the landing of Canadian cattle.

York's Visit to Australia.

LONDON, May 29.—The Duke of York has given his tentative promise to consider the invitation extended to himself and the Duchess of York to visit Australia next year. It has been suggested that the Dominion Government should urge the Duke to make the trip to Australia via Canada.

IN THE INTERESTS OF WORKINGMEN.

THE LEGISLATION OF THE MOWAT GOVERNMENT.

List of Laws Relating to Labour—The Evidence of the Statute in Favour of the Government's Interest in the Workingman—Details of Wise Enactments.

While the Mowat Government in its 22 years of existence has, in its legislative and administrative action, had in view the promotion of the intesests of every class and calling in the community, it seems to have had special regard for the interests of the great mass of the community, the working classes. These enactments are a practical recognition of the rights of the toilers of the land—the real wealth producers of the country. Though there may be nothing revolutionary in this legislation it is the outcome of sober consideration of industrial problems, and a desire to meet these conditions. Really beneficial and permanent legislation is not revolutionary in its character; great reforms necessarily move slowly and in this respect the Mowat Government has hastened gently, giving such legislation as the interests of workingmen demanded, and as rapidly as the advance of public opinion would warrant respect for it sufficient to secure its effective enforcement. The same Government which has done so much for the workingman is prepared to continue the work, because the legislation they have enacted is founded upon principle and a recognition of undeniable rights. Labour can confidently look to the Mowat Government for the legislative assistance it deserves—for it is a Liberal Government and Liberalism has been, and will always be, arrayed in favour of the masses as against the classes, and while it denies no rights to the latter, it seeks to give full rights to the former. The following is a pretty full record of the legislation enacted by the Mowat Government in the interests of the workingman, and workingwomen and their children:

INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES.

Sir Oliver Mowat, still continuing on the line indicated in his Toronto speech of January, 1879, during the session of the Ontario Legislature, introduced and had passed into law, "An Act respecting Councils of Conciliation and Arbitration, for settling industrial disputes." This is admittedly the most important Statute to-day, among the laws of either Ontario or the Dominion, containing among its provisions the best of those to be found in measures of like character in the United Kingdom, New South Wales, British Columbia, Nova Scotia and in France. The preamble declares that "there is reason to believe that the establishment of Councils of Conciliation and Arbitration for the friendly settlement of disputes between employers and their employees, would conduce to the cultivation and maintenance of better relations and more active sympathies between employers and their employees, and would be of benefit in the public interest by providing simple methods for the prevention of strikes and lock-outs, from which industrial operations and the welfare of the country generally may suffer injury."

In this Act the word "employer" means any person or body of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, employing not less than ten workmen in the same business in which the trade dispute has arisen; the word "employee" means any person in the employment of an employer, as defined by the Act.

A claim or dispute under this Act shall include any of the matters following as to which there is a disagreement between any employer and his employees:

(1) The price to be paid for work done, or in course of being done, whether such disagreement shall have arisen with respect to wages, or to the hours or times of working;

(2) Damage alleged to have been done to work, delay in finishing the same, not finishing the same in a good and workmanlike manner, or according to agreement; or a dispute respecting materials supplied to employees and alleged to be bad, or unfit, or unsuitable.

(3) The price to be paid for mining any mineral or substance mined, or obtained by mining, hewing, quarrying or other process; or the allowances, if any, to be made for bands, refuse, faults, or other causes whereby the mining of the mineral substance is impeded.

(4) The performance or non-performance of any stipulation or matter alleged to have been in an agreement, whether in writing or not.

(5) Insufficient or unwholesome food supplied to employees where there is an agreement to victual them, or to supply them with provisions or stores of any kind.

(6) Ill-ventilated or dangerous workings or places in mines, or unwholesome or insanitary rooms or other places of accommodation, in which work is being performed, or want of necessary conveniences in connection with such rooms or places.

(7) The dismissal or employment under agreement of any employee or number of employees:

(8) The dismissal of an employee or employees for their connection with any trade or labour organization.

(9) No claim or dispute shall be the subject of conciliation or arbitration under this Act in any case in which the employees affected by such claim or dispute shall be fewer in number than ten.

A Council of Conciliation for the purposes of any dispute or claim, shall consist of four conciliators, two to be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute.

No claim or dispute shall be the subject of conciliation or arbitration under this Act in any case in which the employees affected by such claim or dispute shall be fewer in number than ten.

A dispute or claim within the meaning of this Act may be referred for settlement to a Council of Conciliation in the cases following:—

The parties to the dispute or claim, may jointly agree in the prescribed manner, to refer such dispute or claim for settlement to a Council of Conciliation.

Either party to the dispute or claim, may, in the prescribed manner, lodge an application with the registrar requesting that the dispute or claim be referred for settlement to a Council of Conciliation.

There shall be a Council of Arbitration for the settlement of disputes and claims by Award. Such Council shall consist of three members, one to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor on the recommendation respectively as members of the Council of Arbitration:

(1) For the person to be recommended by the employers, every employer in the Province having at least ten persons in his employment shall be entitled to one vote; every organization in the Province whether incorporated or unincorporated, representing the interests of employers, each member of which has at least ten persons in his employment, shall be entitled to one vote; and every board of trade in the Province, legally constituted, shall be entitled to one vote.

(2) For the person to be recommended by employees as a member of the Council of Arbitration, every trade and labour council, every district assembly of the Knights of labor, every federated council of building trades, every lawfully incorporated trade union, every organization of wage-earners of an industrial calling primarily constituted for, and actually and bona fide operated for, the regulation of the wages and hours of labour as between employers and employed, shall be entitled to one vote; but this vote shall not be deemed to include co-operative associations or societies.

CO-OPERATION.

In 1880 an Act was passed for the relief of Co-operative Associations, experience having shown that a relaxation of the former law was necessary in two respects. This Statute increases the maxium value of the shares any one member may hold from $400 to $1,000, and authorizes associations to incur a debt, secured by mortgage, for the purchase of business premises.

COLLECTING OF WAGES.

In 1885 an Act was passed of great importance as affording valuable protection to workmen in respect of wages. It provides that when a debtor makes an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, an exception shall be made in favour of persons in his employment at, or immediately before, the time of the assignment, who shall be paid in full up to three months' wages or salary, and be entitled to take rank as general creditors for the remainder of the amount due them. A similar provision is made to apply to the distribution of the assets of a company in process of liquidation under "The Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Act," and to the settlement of claims under "Creditors' Relief Act, 1890." The measure applies to all wage-earners whether by the day, the week, the piece, or otherwise.

No less valuable was an Act of 1889, providing that where proceedings under The Act respecting Master and Servant are taken before a Police Magistrate, and payment of wages is ordered by him to be made by the master or employer to the servant or labourer, and the same are not paid within the time limited by the order, the same proceedings may be taken by the person claiming the benefit of the order as may be taken by a party having an unsatisfied judgment or order in a Division Court for the payment of any debt, damages or costs as respects the examination of the judgment debtor touching his estate and affects, the means he has of discharging his liability, and the disposal he has made of any property, and the Police Magistrate shall have the like power and authority to enforce payment of the debt as are possessed by the Division Court Judge in like cases. The Police Magistrate may also, if he thinks fit, name in the order for payment of wages such time, not exceeding 21 days, as to him may seem just and reasonable for the payment of the same and costs, and in case of non-payment within such time the complainant shall be entitled to take forthwith the proceedings for enforcement provided by the Act respecting master and servant, and this Act.

IMPORTED CONTRACT LABOUR.

With a view to the protection of the Ontario labourer from the oppressive competition of certain classes of foreigners, whom it is the custom to bring into the country under agreements which virtually prevent them from being free agents in the disposal of their services, the Legislature, in the session of 1889, enacted as follows:

"Any agreement or bargain, verbal or written, expressed or implied, which may hereafter be made between any person and any other person, not a resident of Canada, for the performance of labour or service, or having reference to the performance of labour or service by such other person in the Province of Ontario, and made as aforesaid, previous to the emigration or coming into Canada of such other person whose labour or service is contracted for, shall be void and of no effect as against the person only so emigrating or coming.

This leaves the imported foreign labourer, who comes into Ontario on the strength of a previous agreement, free to break his agreement after his arrival here if he sees fit to do so, while if he chooses to observe the agreement he can hold his employer to it also. The object of this legislation is to discourage the practice of advancing money to foreign labourers to pay their passage into this Province, by making it impossible for the employer to recover the sum advanced if the employee sees fit to break his engagement. No more effective means could be devised.

SALARIES AND WAGES.

Another Statute that calls for notice in this connection is one passed in 1874, which enacts that the wages or salary due to a labourer, mechanic or servant shall not be liable to seizure, or attachment, or garnishment for debt, unless the sum due to him exceeds $25, and then only for the amount of such excess. The object in view is to prevent the wage-earner from being left entirely penniless, a reasonable relief in view of all that the law has done for other classes of debtors.

In 1891 the Woodman's Lien for Wages Act became law, and under its provisions any person performing any labour, service or services in connection with any logs or timber in the districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay and Rainy River shall have a lien thereon for the amount due for such labour, service or services, and the same shall be deemed a first lien or charge on such logs or timber, and shall have precedence of all other claims or liens thereon, except any lien or charge which the Crown may have upon such logs or timber.

WORKMEN ALLOWED TIME TO CAST THEIR VOTES.

"The Franchise and Representation Act of 1885" confers the right of voting on practically all wage-earners who are residents for a sufficient time in one district, for the amount of wages which entitles a man to be placed on the voters' list is only $250, and a part of that may be in the form of board and lodging. To many persons of this class, however, in cities and towns where during the whole of the hours of polling they are employed at a distance from their voting places, polling their votes is a matter of loss and difficulty. With a view to removing this obstacle, Mr. Mowat in the session of 1890, enacted that "any voter entitled to vote within a city or town, shall, on the day of polling, for the purpose of voting, be entitled to absent himself from any service or employment" for the two hours between twelve and two in the middle of the day, without making himself "liable to any penalty or to suffer or incur any reduction" of wages, provided that, if his employer requires him to do so, he shall afterwards make up for his absence by an hour of extra work.

REGISTRATION AND INCORPORATION.

In 1892 was passed "An Act respecting Insurance Corporations" and in which it is provided that "any lawfully incorporated Trades Union in Ontario, which, under the authority of the Incorporating Act, has an insurance or benefit fund for the benefit of its own members exclusively, shall upon due application for registry hereunder, be entitled to be registered on the Friendly Society Register."

At the last session (1894) of the Legislature, the Government introduced and had enacted into law, "An Act respecting Benefit Societies"—to be read and construed as one with The Insurance Act, 1892—providing that upon like proceedings taken as enacted in section 2 of the Act just mentioned, Incorporation, subject to the same limitations, may be granted in either of the two following cases:

(a) Where any trade or labour union or organization proposes to undertake contracts with its own members exclusively for any of the insurance benefits enumerated in sub-section 2 of section 4 of The Insurance Corporations Act, 1892, or contracts to furnish tools, or to pay unemployed or superannuation benefits to the said members;

(b) Where any organization of wage earners, consisting of no less than twenty-five members, and managed and operated as a friendly society under rules conforming to The Insurance Corporations Act, 1892, proposes to contract with its own members exclusively for sick benefits not exceeding five dollars per week and a funeral benefit of not more than one hundred dollars, or either of such benefits.

(2) The body so incorporated may, upon due application, be admitted to registry as a friendly society; but unless and until so registered, the corporation shall not undertake, nor agree or offer to undertake, any contract insuring the said or other insurance benefits.

And, it may be added that the cost of incorporation is but $1, and that of registration $3—for both $4.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

IS COMING!

The Attention of Every Lady and Gentleman that has THIN HAIR or that is BALD is called to the visit of

PROF. DORENWEND

To PETERBOROUGH, who will be at

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL

—ON—

Saturday, June 9.

There are indeed very few Ladies or Gentlemen in America but what have heard of the skill of PROF. DORENWEND as a manufacturer of Hair Goods of all styles, and there are very few places on the globe but what one or more of his styles are worn. Those that live closer to his manufacturing place, like all the Ontario cities and towns, are more fortunate than people of United States, Australia or England, and it is because he visits this place at least once a year, they are able to see his Goods before ordering and having then tried they see the effect his Hair Goods Coverings give to their general appearance, but his business has so rapidly grown in the last few years that he is unable to visit these places so often, for this reason. All who require these Goods should not miss the opportunity given by this visit.

See his beautiful LADIES and GENTS WIGS, TOUPEES, SWITCHES of every LENGHTH and SHADE, BANGS in every shape, heavy or plain fronts, etc.

Remember he is at the GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL, June 9th.

EDUCATION IN THE PROVINCES

Mr. Lachapelle Moves for a Report Showing the Prizes Awarded at the World's Fair With a View to Establish the Rank of Separate Schools.

OTTAWA, May 29.—Mr. T. Blanchard, the new member for Gloucester, N.B., was introduced in the House yesterday by Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mr. Costigan.

Two private bills were read a third time and two from the Senate were read a second time.

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) moved for copies of all correspondence since 1867 between the Government of Canada and the Imperial Government in reference to her Majesty's exclusive sovereignty over Hudson Bay. He dwelt upon the importance of the subject and said that while it was true that by the Treaty of Utrecht the sovereignty of Hudson Bay had been secured by Great Britain, foreign fishermen were to-day resorting to these waters in pursuit of the whale and porpoise, and it was important that steps should be taken to assert Canadian jurisdiction, lest by the rule of acquiescence this right might lapse; for it was to be remembered that as well in national as in private relations this rule of acquiescence was held to apply.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper fully acquiesced in what had been said about the importance of the question, and he could assure the hon. gentleman in advance of the production of the papers asked for that they would show that the question had received attention at the hands of the Government. As to invasion of our territorial rights by fishing and hunting by foreign vessels, information had from time to time reached the Government of such occurrences, but the remoteness of the district rendered it difficult to ascertain the actual facts. On one or two occasions the officers of the Hudson Bay Company, and in other cases the officials of the Indian Department, had been applied to for definite information as to illicit trading and fishing, but the result so far had not been any satisfactory evidence.

Mr. Mills moved that it is highly desirable that steps should be taken by the Canadian Government to introduce the fur seal in Hudson's Bay and waters upon the eastern coast of Canada.

Hon. Mr. Mills thought the Government should make the experiment.

Mr. Stairs spoke and the debate was adjourned.

Mr. Mulock asked if the warden of the Kingston penitentiary had recently paid over to the Government any moneys in respect of any shortage on his part; if so, how much; when, and on what account?

Sir John Thompson said that the question appeared to be founded upon a mistake, since there was no shortage in the accounts.

Mr. Lachapelle moved for a detailed report showing the prizes awarded by the judges or jury at the Chicago Columbian Exposition for the work of pupils of primary and special schools of every degree, and also to pupils of secondary educational institutions of each of the provinces of Canada. He said that when these returns were brought down it would be shown that the schools of Quebec would compare most favorably with those of Ontario, and that separate schools in all practical subjects would present a superior record to that of the public schools.

Sir John Thompson said that the position which Quebec occupied in her capacity as an educationalist at the World's Fair was an illustrious one. He said that the papers asked for should be brought down. The motion carried.

Several motions, notice of which had been given, were reached yesterday and dropped because of the absence of the members in whose names the motions stood. Among them was a notice by Mr. McCarthy asking for information with reference to the trial of Mr. E. E. Buist, of Collingwood, on the charge of posting a newspaper containing writing addressed to Mrs. A. D. Cameron, Brandon. When the motion was reached Mr. McCarthy was not present, not having returned to Ottawa since last week, and the motion was dropped.

The House went into committee on Dr. Weldon's bill to disfranchise voters who take bribes. Dr. Weldon was not present. A clause was opposed, and it was agreed that the bill should stand until the promoter's return.

Mr. Mulock moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Railway Act. The bill provides that street car companies shall provide proper shelter for motormen. The bill was read a second and third time.

Ottawa Notes.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell has gone to Belleville. He is expected to return to-morrow night.

It is stated on what is considered good authority that R. R. Fitzgerald, of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, has been appointed to the Supreme Court bench of that province.

Mr. Lariviere, M. P. for Provencher, has placed his resignation in the hands of Hon. Mr. Daly, as the minister representing Manitoba, pending a settlement of his financial difficulties. Mr. Lariviere sustained extensive losses through a colonization scheme for the settlement of French-Canadians in the Northwest, of which he was a leading promoter. His liabilities are $30,000. If he succeeds in adjusting his financial affairs satisfactorily, the resignation will not be handed to Mr. Speaker.

The Dominion Government has made provisions for the maintenance of two travelling dairies in Manitoba and the Northwest and one in New Brunswick. They will be under the direction of the Dominion dairy commissioner. One expert butter-maker, and one assistant, with an outfit of dairy utensels, including a centrifugal cream separator, churn, butter worker, Babcock milk tester, etc., will compose each traveling dairy. Two days will be spent in every place visited.

Venerable Archdeacon Lauder, preaching in Christ church, referred to the flag incident at St. Thomas. He was addressing the Governor-General's Foot Guards, who had a military parade to his church. He said: "And when you wear a Queen's uniform you should never disgrace it. Some very young and inexperienced man must have worn it in the St. Thomas incident, when a young man in a foolish moment—I can't think anything else—pulled down the American flag and disgraced the Queen's uniform. That act brings the whole volunteer service into discredit. This, of course, will be righted by the Government as soon as possible."

SURELY COMING.

FATAL TO THE BABIES.

Lactated Food a Grand Preventive of Sickness.

Hot weather coming; those spells of heat that are so fatal to the babies, and that produce such death-dealing troubles, will soon be felt. The babies of large towns and cities suffer more than country babies, because they have less fresh air, and general surroundings are not so favourable for health.

During the intense heat, thousands of little ones are depending on cow's milk, which often is filled with the germs of disease, and many are fed on artificial foods that are positively worthless, and which are responsible for many of the grave troubles that afflict the tender infants.

The infants who pass safely through the perils of summer heat, are those whose daily nourishment is Lactated Food. This scientific food is a preventive of cholera infantum, diarrhœa and dysentery. When Lactated Food is regularly used the work of flesh building goes on in summer as well and as regularly as at any other season. Lactated Food is baby's best friend when the sweltering heat makes town and city life a burden.

Try Lactated Food for your dear one this summer, mother; give it a week's trial, and you will have reason to heartily thank the scientist that gave such a blessing to the world.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

KILLED AND HORRIBLY MUTILATED BY THE WHEELS.

Edward Maltby, of Newmarket, Meets His Death on the Rails—A Truck Breaks and He is Hurled to His Fate.

An accident occurred yesterday afternoon on the C.P.R. between Pontypool and Manvers, resulting in a fatality.

Edward Maltby, a baker, out of employment and hailing from Newmarket, was the victim. He and a companion were stealing a ride on freight No. 50 running east from Toronto, by sitting on what are commonly known as the "bumpers." When the train arrived at the point indicated one of the trucks gave way. It happened to be the one just over which Maltby and his compasion were sitting and the former was instantly precipitated down on the rails and the wheels of a score of cars passed over the unfortunate young man's body before the train slowed up, which it did as soon as the accident to the truck was noticed.

The trainmen were informed of the fatality by Maltby's companion and the mutilated remains were found, battered into an unrecognizeable pulp lying beside the track. By the appearance of the body it was evident that not a bone was intact in the entire frame.

The eyes of the unfortunate young fellow had been forced from their sockets by the frightful agony endured, but he was stone dead when picked up.

Rude but tender hands laid the body out on the grass and a coroner was sent for, but was not available until this morning.

His companion was preserved by clinging tightly to the iron ladder on the end of the car, and states that the heartrending cry uttered by poor Maltby when the wheels caught him was a sound which will ring in his ears forever.

An auxiliary train was sent out from Havelock, but the wrecked car obstructed the track for many hours, although almost superhuman efforts were made to clear the rails. The afternoon express was delayed three hours, but the company kindly provided luncheon for the passengers while waiting.

GRAND BLACK CHAPTER.

It is Now in Session in Lindsay and Will Elect Officers To-Morrow.

This afternoon and evening the Grand Black Chapter of British America held their annual meeting, and are still in session at Lindsay. This branch of the order always holds its meeting prior to the assembling of the larger and really important body. The Chapter was presided over by Robert Weir, G.M., of Peterborough, and G. S. Williams, the Grand Registrar, was also present. To morrow morning they will elect their officers and then adjourn.

The present meeting of the Grand Lodge will undoubtedly be one of the most important in the history of the order, as a number of questions of quite recent origin will force themselves on the attention of the lodge. No doubt, too, the rise and progress of a body the principles of which are in some respects identical with those of Orangeism, but which pursues a course independent and in some respects hostile to the time-honoured order, will call for and receive consideration. So far, however, little information has been obtained by those not in the counsel of the society or its leaders, and indeed those who have already arrived have been too tired after their journey or to busy with arrange ments to talk.

HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The induction of the Rev. Dr. McClelland into the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here took place the other afternoon. The following rev. gentlemen took part in the service: Rev. E. F. Torrance, of Peterborough, addressed the minister, Rev. A. MacWilliams, of Peterborough, addressed the people, and Rev. M. Scott, of Campbellford, preached and presided. In the evening a grand welcome social was given by the ladies of the congregation, which was largely attended. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, of Peterborough, Rev. Mr. Coon, of the Methodist church, Havelock, Rev. Mr. Hocklay, of the Anglican church, Havelock, Mr. McClure, of Toronto, and the inducted pastor. The choir and amateurs discoursed excellent music. Mr. R. Chiles, chairman.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. NEWS NUGGETS.

—Board of Trade to-night.

—A gas main is being laid on Dalhousie street.

—A Kingston gardener showed new potatoes on Saturday.

—The synod of Ontario will meet at Kingston on June 18th.

—The Crossmon House at Alexandria Bay is opened for the season.

—McWharrell has but three more days to live unless reprieved.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—The Conservative platform is made to run on, not to stand on—as a citizen tritely puts it.

—Yesterday's rain had the effect of raising the river still higher. Many Ashburnham cellars are flooded.

—The Central Bridge Works are running full time. This is in strong contrast to the bridge works in Hamilton which have been forced to close down.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—Let any person examine fields, gardens and orchard at this season, and the conclusion will be reached that Ontario is one of the most fertile portions of the world.

—It is reported from Lima, O., that Gen. Randall, of one of the divisions of the late Coxey Army, is seriously ill. Worry over the prospect of having soon to go to work caused it, probably.

—The Peterborough Rangers accompanied by both the Bugle and Military band and also by the pioneer and ambulance corps, will march out this evening at 8 o'clock from the armoury.

—Manager W. H. Bradburn of the Opera House promises the citizens a treat in the course of a few weeks. He has made arrangements with the management of Gilmour's band for a matinee performance here.

—There are German, Irish and French candidates for Postmaster of Buffalo, and, in spite of all, a correspondent intimates that "a dark horse" may win the race. An Afro-American postmaster would be a novelty.

—Arrangements for the big demonstration on Dominion Day are booming and it is evident that Peterborough will be given a day that will live in the memory of the citizens and visitors for many a year.

—The tearing down of an American flag at St. Thomas by the Queen's Own regiment was probably done to inform the American public that its members have finally stopped running away from the Battle of Ridgeway.—Buffalo Express.

—With the armed forces of labour confronting the armed forces of law and order in half a dozen different parts of the United States at once, it begins to look as if a declaration of a strike was nearly equivalent to a declaration of a civil war.

—Those of our citizens, and we trust they are few, who have not yet cleaned up their premises and burnt the rubbish, should do so at once. It is a duty owed not only to yourselves and families, but to your neighbours, that your yards should be in a good sanitary condition.

—A Mexican feather-worker who exhibited himself in dime museums died while at work before a wondering crowd of spectators up west the other day. He got a mighty good advertisement out of it, but it is difficult to see how he is going to turn the free reading notices to any account.

—A resident remarked this morning that the town is disgraced by citizens who habitually throw waste-paper, banana peel, etc., on the streets and sidewalks. Such litter does not improve the appearance of a street, and if possible steps should be taken to put a stop to the practice.

—Some men plant a tree as they would a fence-post, but such will never make good fruit-growers. The hole for the tree should be made wide and deep, and the bottom filled with good rich earth. Then set the tree firmly and put a good stake beside it and bind a belt of soft material about the tree and the stake.

—Mr. Roach Way, of Auburn Mills, who has lived in the county so long that he is an authority on all matters pertaining to its history, states that since the year 1858 the water in the river was never raised to such a height by rain storms as it is at present. It is now above the highwater mark of the spring freshets and keeps steadily rising.

—A couple of peddlers have been doing a flourishing business. They sell a quantity of cloth on the understanding that the price paid is to include its making into suits. They announce that their cutters will be around soon to take measures for the clothes. Many have been waiting for the cutter for weeks. It pays to buy from the local merchants in the end.

—The Ashburnham Court of Revision met last night and transacted a good deal of business, considering a great number of appeals. The majority of the assessments were confirmed and but few appeals allowed. The assessments of the Dickson Company's property and that of Miss Mills and the Armour estate were laid over for further consideration.

—Gorton's minstrels drew a big crowd at the opera house last night and the entertainment provided fully merited the patronage accorded. The solos of Joe Gorton, jr., on the euphonium were greatly enjoyed, and the funny pranks of H. J. Yorkey and Hank Goodman kept the audience convulsed with laughter whenever either of these exceedingly witty comedians held the stage. The entire company is evidently composed of artists of great ability in their different lines, and the large number of ladies present enjoyed the entertainment to the fullest extent, as well as the gentlemen.

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWHICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

THE COURT OF REVISION.

Assessments Confirmed, Allowed and Stood Over—Next Sitting on June 5th.

The Court of Revision held another sitting last night. Mr. John S. Boswell appealed against the assessment of the Burnham block, on George and Simcoe streets. The assessment stands for further consideration. He also appealed against the assessment of Park lots No's. 4 and 5, on Charlotte street but the figures were confirmed. His house and lot on Auburn street, occupied by Zimri Blodgett, was also judged to be rightly assessed.

Mr. N. T. Laplante was successful in having the valuation of his house and lot reduced from $1400 to $1300, but the assessment on his property in the third ward was confirmed.

The protests of Messrs. W. J. Green and J. Mulholland against being assessed for dogs when they didn't keep any, were allowed.

The assessment of the unfinished residence of Mayor Kendry was fixed at $5,000.

The Court will again sit on Tuesday, June 5th.

MR. STRATTON'S FIFTH MEETING.

A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

Addresses of Mr. W. Rudkins, Mr. W. H. Murray and Mr. Stratton—The Leading Political Topics Dealt With.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the electors of Ennismore was held at the Town Hall on Monday night. The hall was well filled and the meeting was enthusiastic to a degree. The chair was occupied by the veteran Mr. P. Galvin, the oldest settler in the township and one of the oldest men in the county.

After explaining the object of the meeting the chairman introduced Mr. W. Rudkins, who spoke upon the importance of the electors sustaining the government which had so ably performed, for nearly a quarter of a century, the administrative and legislative duties of their office.

Mr. W. H. Murray referred to the excellent condition of the finances of Ontario, both absolutely and especially with reference to other provinces of the Dominion, and also to the care taken by the Government in administering the timber resources of the country, and to the general prosperity of the province under Liberal rule.

Mr. Stratton dealt with biennial sessions, appointment of officials by county councils, the proposed abolition of the Lieut.-Governor's residence, the change of attitude of Mr. Meredith and the Opposition upon sectarian questions, and the benefit derived by the agricultural classes by the Liberal policy towards their interests by the Mowat Government.

No person was present in Mr. Winch's behalf, but Ennismore promises to give Mr. Stratton as enthusiastic a support as in the past. The meeting was closed with the usual cheers.

THE WORKINGMEN AND THE ELECTIONS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—The workingmen are not going to promise their vote to any candidate until nomination day, then the man that makes the best promise for an eight hour day system all over the province is our man. We are going to act as independent men and vote for those that will vote for the poor labouring man's measure, who is walking around the towns and cities of the Dominion idle and hungry. There are lots of men in our town that did not earn one dollar since last November and did not have one dollar left. How would any business man in town like to be laid off that length of time?

Nothing less that eight hours will suit us. Labour saving machinery has taken our work away. The rich men have the benefit of this. The country is rich enough to pay for shorter hours. some folks say why not work long hours and big wages. I say where is the work. What little there is we want to divide it among all. Those folks that oppose us let them take the long hours and we will take the short ones. How can a poor labouring man keep his house and family. He earns about $200 a year or less, pays house rent, etc. He must send his children out to some rich man to work. We want those things reformed and the way to do this is every working man to stand shoulder to shoulder all over the province. Up at the Sault St. Marie both governments are doing work there. At the Canadian side masons work ten hours at $2.50 per day. At the American side they work eight hours and get $5.00 per day. This is the difference between long and short hours.

WORKINGMAN.

Peterborough, May 28th, 1894.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S VISIT.

What Will be Done for Him in Belleville.

Active preparations have been made in Belleville to receive Lord Aberdee.. who arrives from Ottawa in that city this evening on the 5 o'clock train. He will be met at the station by the reception committee and the Guard of Honour composed of the city companies of the 49th Battalion and a company of cavalry from Picton and the Oddfellow's band. The two companies will be under the command of Col. Cotton. His Excellency will be escorted from the station to Mr. Ritchie's residence. After luncheon His Excellency will proceed to the drill shed and addresses will be presented to him by the Mayor and Corporation and by Principal Dyer of the Albert College after which a formal reception will be held. At 10 a.m. on Wednesday His Excellency will be presented with an address by the school children at the High School grounds, and they will also sing the national songs. From there he will proceed to the Hospital and thence to the D. and D. Institute where they will be presented with addresses. In the afternoon he will be taken out on the bay on the yacht Ometa when he will visit the Murray Canal and Massassaga Park. In the evening the charming little operatta the "Cadet's Picnic," by local talent, will be put on in the Opera House which will be patronized by Lord Aberdeen.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

For dyspepsia or indigestion try Madill's Dyspepsia Powders. Many have been cured by them.

The following gentlemen will officiate as referees in the Midland games: Messrs. Hooey, of Port Hope, and C. LeBrun and J. P. Hurley, of Peterborough.

SOMETHING WHICH HAS LONG BEEN NEEDED.

A Peterborough Firm has the Enterprise to Introduce a New Feature for the Convenience of its Customers.

The firm of J. W. Moore & Co., grocers and dairymen, 351 George street, has added a new feature to its business, which will be greatly appreciated by the public in general.

They take pleasure in notifying the ladies of Peterborough that they have completed arrangements with the owner of a large herd of Jersey cows to procure the entire output of his cream. This cream is not produced in the usual way of setting the milk and waiting for the cream to rise, but is separated immediately after milking by means of a Centrifugal Separator, thus securing perfect cleanliness and freshness. Orders may be left at the store, No. 351 George street, and, if for large quantities, should be a day or two previous to time wanted. As this cream is superior to any heretofore offered for sale in the town, it is confidently recommended to the public, and a liberal patronage is bespoken for it.

Regular customers will be supplied with jars or bottles in which to carry the cream home, the latter being returnable at a later date.

A depot at which Jersey cream can always be obtained is sure to be appreciated by the ladies, and the enterprise of the firm in introducing such a feature into their business should surely meet with the reward of a largely increased trade. The first supply of cream will be received tomorrow morning.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

A Detroit paper prints the following:—"A brakeman on the Grand Trunk Railroad fell into the river near the roundhouse, Windsor, and one of the bystanders became so excited that he threw a coupling link in for the unfortunate man to keep himself afloat with. He was soon pulled out, not much the worse for his ducking."

Guard-rails are being placed on all of the block signal-towers along the line of the New-York Central. The company took this precaution because of the accident to a towerman several days ago. The men are liable to be blown off the platforms.

The Cornwall Standard says that the Chicago flyer is to be put on the G. T. R. again this summer.

The Grand Trunk has about 45,000 tons of soft coal at Brockville.

AN AQUATIC CELEBRATION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR.—Now that there are so many steam yachts on Little Lake, would it not be well for the 1st of July committee to see if they could not get the owners of these boats together and arrange to have a decorated procession in the day time and an illuminated one at night (a prize for the best boat.) If not both, have one at least round the Little Lake. It would be something new, and there is plenty of standing room for all Peterborough round the shores. I am sure it would bring plenty of visitors into the town. If it can be done, give the boatmen plenty of time to put their heads together. Give us something to enliven the day and people.

Yours, etc.,

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $13 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonlerful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself,—the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $13, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 60
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
2 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

Read our advertisements. We are the people that quote the lowest prices. We excel every other store on George street in actual Bargains. The cheaper we sell, the more we sell, and the more we sell the cheaper we sell.

Mr. Winch is invited to be present and take part in the discussion.

JAMES MIDDLETON, President. C. H. ROGER, Secretary.

IT FOLLOWS AFTER — a disordered liver — that you're subject to attacks of cold or chills on slight exposure. You get "tired" easily. A "tired" digestion fails to assimilate food. This often results in what we call Indigestion or Biliousness.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets rouse the liver to vigorous action, and this in turn starts the machinery of the body into activity. Liver, stomach and bowels feel the tonic effect, and in consequence the entire system is invigorated. The processes become self-regulating, and a reserve force is stored up against exposure to disease.

If you're too thin, too weak or nervous, it must be that food assimilation is wrong. This is the time to take Pleasant Pellets. They permanently cure Constipation, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick or Bilious Headache, Dizziness and Jaundice.

FORGAVE HIS ERRING WIFE.

Left Destitute by Her Guilty Partner, the Husband Takes Her Back.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 29. — A wronged husband, John B. McClure, has received back his wife, who, a month ago, eloped to Philadelphia. McClure is a merchant tailor, and is the father of four children. During the past winter he had living in his household a young man, Edward Clark.

The neighbors soon began to notice intimacy between him and Mrs. McClure. The husband was the last one to suspect the young wife, and it was not until one afternoon late in April, that he returned unexpectedly and found the guilty pair together that his eyes were opened.

McClure in his rage attacked Clark, but the wife flew to the assistance of her lover, and together they gave the husband a beating. When he escaped from them he went in search of an officer. Returning half an hour later he found the guilty pair had fled, taking with them the youngest child, a mere baby.

Clark and Mrs. McClure went to Philadelphia, and two days later a marriage notice appeared in a city paper stating that the two had been married in Camden.

Naturally, Clark, who is hardly 20 years old, soon tired of his erring companion and deserted her. She was left destitute, and she wrote to her husband, asking him to take her back, and he went to Philadelphia and got her back.

SHOT THE EMPLOYE.

An Italian Miner Killed by the Foreman —An Attack Feared.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va, May 29. — Orders have been received here by hardware merchants to send all the available arms and ammunition to Spilliman, where the Camden Company is operating its mines. The company anticipates an attack from rioting Ohio miners to day.

WILKESBARRE, May 29—Thomas O'Brien, outside foreman of the Ravine mine, fatally shot an Italian employe yesterday. The Italian and one of his fellow-countrymen began shooting at O'Brien and he returned the fire.

A Convict's Break for Liberty.

MONTREAL, May 29.—A despatch from St. Vincent de Paul says that on Thursday last, while Warden Onimet, of the penitentiary, and a number of his subordinates went for a Queen's birthday outing, a convict who was acting as fireman on the steam launch made a bold break for liberty. When the party returned from their outing and had landed the engineer and the convict were left behind to look after the traps. The convict then told the engineer that his coat was left in the launch, and the two went out in a small boat to get it. When nearing the launch the convict drew a revolver and ordered the engineer to row across the river. There was nothing left for the latter but to obey, but, watching his opportunity, when nearing the shore he snatched the revolver and threw it into the river. A struggle ensued and the boat was overturned, leaving the two men struggling in the water. Assistance arrived and they were both taken out. The convict was secured and taken back to the penitentiary.

The Samoan Question.

LONDON, May 29.—In the House of Commons Sir Edward Grey, under foreign secretary, denied that the Government had informed anybody that it was the intention of Great Britain to reconsider the Berlin agreement in regard to Samoa; neither was it true that the Government had received any communication from the United States, intimating their desire to redraw from Samoa.

Stormont and Cornwall Liberals.

NEWINGTON, Ont., May 29.—A convention of the Liberals of Stormont and Cornwall was held here yesterday. Speeches were made by representatives, all of whom favored the selection of a Liberal candidate to contest the county against John Bennett, the candidate of the Patrons of Industry. Mr. W. Mack, the present member was chosen as the standard-bearer.

A SENSATIONAL ELOPEMENT.

Bert Sayles, a Buffalo Carpenter, Runs Away With a Parson's Sister.

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 29.—The northern part of the city known as Kensington is all agog with the story of the elopement of pretty Nellie Shrively and the exciting pursuit made by her brother, Rev. Wm. Shrively, the pastor of the Kensington M. E. church.

Miss Shrively was in love with a young carpenter named Bert Sayles, but her brother disapproved of the match. Saturday night he looked out of his study window and saw the couple making their way rapidly up the street in the rain.

The parson was only partly attired. He opened the window and shouted to his sister to come back. Instead Nellie and Bert started across fields, through the deep grass, the preacher after them without hat, coat or vest. He overtook the couple half a mile from the house.

Young Sayles grappled with him, threw him down, sat on him and cried: "Run, Nellie, run." Nellie did run and took refuge in the house of J. J. Warren. Then Sayles released the preacher and ran. He and Nellie went into the garret of the Warren House, but when Rev. Dr. Shrively arrived Mr. Warren ordered them out.

Sayles refused to go, but was forced to do so by two policemen, leaving Nellie behind. Then Mr. Shrively took his sister by force and put her into Warren's buggy, and made a dash for his home. Sayles ran along behind the carriage and managed to keep up with the horses.

When the buggy drew up in front of the house Nellie jumped out and ran into the house and slammed and locked the door behind her, locking out her brother. Then she ran to the rear door and passed out into the stable. Her brother did not discover her escape until he had searched the whole house.

In the meantime Sayles had joined the girl and they ran all the way to his brother's house on Hill street, where they were married by Rev. James Barry, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

THE LUMBER SCHEDULE.

American Senators Discuss This Item—Canada's Antagonism.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—In the Senate the lumber schedule of the tariff bill was discussed. Mr. Hale offered an amendment to put a duty of $1 per thousand feet on sawed boards, and on lumber $2 per thousand feet. Mr. Hale said if the duty was to be put on coal and iron ore, he did not see why the great lumber interest should be left out.

Mr. Frye said Canada was one of the worst enemies the United States had. She was too small for us to fight, and had, therefore, instituted and kept up a system of "nagging," like that of tearing down the American flag the other day and distributing its pieces through the streets.

Mr. Frye said he had no sympathy with the men who had been arrested for violating the laws that had been passed to protect the fish for sportsmen, and he hoped Canada would inflict upon them the highest punishment it could under the law. But, notwithstanding the fact that Canadian interests were opposed to those of this country, Mr. Frye said the United States was constantly doing her favors, and the latest attempt in that line was the putting of lumber on the free list. With free iron, coal and lumber Canada would drive half the American shipping from the great lakes.

The discussion continued up to noon without reaching a vote, and then Mr. Walsh (Dem., Ga.) addressed the senate on the general subject of the tariff.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

BAD BLOOD

MR. FRED. CARTER.

DEAR SIRS.—I was covered with pimples and small boils and after obtaining no relief from a doctor tried different remedies without success until one Sunday I was given ¾ of a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, by the use of which the sores were sent flying in about one week's time. I made up my mind never to be without B.B.B. in the house, and I can highly recommend it to all.

FRED. CARTER, Haney, B. C.

I can answer for the truth of the above.

FAIR BUILDINGS SOLD.

GARRETT'S BID FOR THE WHITE CITY, $75,500, ACCEPTED.

A St. Louis Engineer's Cash Proposition Taken by the Chicago South Park Board—Palaces Go for Less Than One Per Cent. of Their Cost.

St. Louis didn't get the 1893 world's fair, as every one knows, but a St. Louis man has bought the buildings. His name is L. C. Garrett, and the price paid is $75,500. The money is turned over to the south park board in one lump. Park Superintendent Foster alone negotiated the sale. The park commissioners think the price a pretty fair one considering the discouraging bids received some weeks ago in response to the board's advertisement.

The twenty buildings included in the sale cost over $7,600,000, so that the price realized is less than 1 per cent. To be sure it was estimated by some, while the white palaces were being constructed, that the salvage after the fair would reach a million or two, but the most sanguine long ago gave up the hope of seeing handsome returns for the old iron and lumber. The cost of demolishing and removing the leviathans would be too great to encourage heavy bidding. The best offers received on the first call aggregated only $37,700. One man even wanted the board to make him a present of manufactures building, which cost nearly $2,000,000 and then pay him $10,000 to get it out of the park. All of the bids were rejected at that time, and then the board authorized Superintendent Foster to negotiate for the sale of the buildings privately. Since then he has had frequent talks with and received various offers from wrecking companies, iron dealers and speculators.

The buildings sold are twenty in number, and by the terms of the contract must be removed by May 1, 1896. Any remaining at that time revert to the commissioners. Following is a list of the buildings with a statement of their cost:

Manufactures	$1,802,760
Machinery	1,235,400
Agriculture	699,316
Electricity	447,761
Mines	282,947
Horticulture	319,911
Transportation	553,770
Administration	476,529
Fisheries	235,008
Woman's	128,023
Terminal	224,877
Anthropological	87,672
Stock Pavilion	67,475
Dairy	27,054
Colonnade	101,495
Shoe and Leather	93,245
Old Service	58,931
Sewage	55,617
Sawmill	21,794
Choral Hall	89,271
Total	$7,604,195

The art palace is the only exposition building to stand, being the home of the Field Columbian Museum.

The South Park Commissioners have upward of $800,000 to spend on improvements after receiving the money from Mr. Garrett. They received $200,000 from the World's Fair directors and they had nearly $500,000 on hand at the close of the Fair, money in their treasury having increased during the years Jackson Park was in the hands of the exposition company.—Chicago Herald.

The Great Pilgrimage to Mecca.

The largest of the caravans which go annually to Mecca is the Syrian or Damascus caravan. This starts from Scutari, the Asiatic suburb of Constantinople, and after gathering pilgrims through Syria, makes a final rendezvous at Damascus. Here it remains three weeks and changes camels before it finally starts for Mecca. It consists of from 30,000 to 50,000 pilgrims and is under the special protection of the Turkish sultan. The next greatest is the Egyptian, which starts from Cairo and goes by the head of the Red sea. These are now the only two caravans which go every year, but there are several others which go nearly annually. The most important of these are the Persian from Bagdad and that from Jeddah. The great Indian caravan from Muscat has been given up, and those from Babylon and Morocco have become very irregular. Only a few Mohammedans perform the pilgrimage from pious devotion. The majority undertake it with a view to trade, while many are pilgrims by profession and are paid to perform the sacred journey for others.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Tests of Nerve Before Which the Bravest Might Quail.

Among the Hadendowas, a Sudanese tribe whose name was painfully familiar to us a few years ago, young men who aspire to renown challenge one another to a dreadful contest. After ceremonious cartel—which may be declined without infamy, however, unless the youth refusing have fought once already and triumphed—public notice is given and at the time appointed all the population of the village assemble. The champions are stripped to the waist, and they carry a whip of hippopotamus hide four feet long, one inch square at the base, with edges newly trimmed, as sharp almost as a knife. At a signal they exchange blows methodically and keep it up until one owns defeat, or, very much more frequently, stumbles and falls exhausted, but still defiant. Blood streams at the first cut, as though the whip had been a sword almost, but they often hold out for half an hour. Dr. Gunther says he has seen scars reaching to the very bone. The prize of these contests is a title, "Akhu-el Benat"—Protector of the Maiden—which the victor bears until defeated or married. We can believe that the young men think it worth fighting for, and it would be interesting to know what advantages the title gives exactly, how the maidens regard their protector, whether he has any official position toward them, and so forth.

A custom like this has spread, of course, among neighboring towns under various forms. That of the Abyssinian braves is described by Mansfield Parkyns in the London Standard. The girls themselves play an active part there. When young people are gathered for amusement—one of them will begin peeling a straw of green millet, which is full of pith. Her lover's blood runs cold probably, but he must smile or own himself a craven. When she has cut the dith into bits an inch long he stretches out his bare arm. The example set, every girl who respects herself and has a lover follows it. The young men form a circle, with their arms extended. Blithely then, with many a jest, doubtless, the maidens arrange their bits of pith upright in some fanciful design on the bare flesh, and set them alight. They are nearly an inch thick, and they burn very slowly, but the hapless youth must stand and smile as well as he can till the blood and juices of the seared flesh extinguish them. It is, in fact, a peculiarly horrible form of tattooing.

He Was Dubbed a Knight.

A curious ceremonial has just taken place at the palace of the Prince of Pless. A chapter of the Hunting Order of St. Hubert of the White Stag has been held in the presence of the German Emperor, who appeared in a hunting uniform decorated with the special insignia and orders. Duke John Albert of Macklenburge-Schwerin was made a Knight of the Order with the following curious ceremony: He was asked by the Chancellor of the order whether he would swear to behave as a good hunter according to the rules of the order. After the answer "I swear" he was dubbed a knight amid cries of "Joh! so! hon! do! hoh! do!" After the first stroke of the sword the Grand Master said: "This is for his Majesty the King," after the second, "This is for the knights, cavaliers, and esquires," and after the third, "Look, this is the noble law of hunting." Finally, all repeated the above somewhat inarticulate hunting cry.—Paris Herald.

A Bishop's Idea of a Wife.

At the New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal church the other day, Bishop Vincent touched on woman's domestic rights and a minister's choice of a wife. He said: When a woman governs her household and her husband she is doing a good work. Many a minister is very fortunate in his choice of a helpmeet, but I cannot but believe that the play of passion in the selecting of a companion for life is a dangerous factor."

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

THE PETERBOROUGH REGISTRY OFFICE.

A COMMISSION OF INVESTIGATION.

A New Beginning—The Council for the Complainant Hard to Please—Very Like Obstruction — Disrespectful Language to the Commissioner—The Testimony of Miss Grundy and Mr. Grundy.

The commission appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, at the request of Mr. Grundy, late deputy registrar of Peterborough, to investigate certain charges made by him of alleged irregularities in the management of the registry office, sat in the council chamber, Court House, Monday afternoon.

Mr. James Fleming, of Toronto, was the commissioner appointed, as indicated by the following letter of notification:—

TORONTO, May 26, 1894.

SIR,—I am commanded by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council to inform you that he has been pleased to appoint you to be a commissioner for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting to him upon certain alleged irregularities charged with regard to the manner in which the official books in the registry office for the county of Peterborough are kept, and the cause for which one Henry Grundy, formerly deputy registrar for the said county of Peterborough, was dismissed from office, and the matters and things connected therewith.

Your commission is herewith, together with a copy, in galley form, of the evidence taken before the Public Accounts Committee in this matter.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

G. A. LUMSDEN,

Assistant Secretary.

James Fleming, Esq.,
Inspector of Legal Offices, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. C. W. Sawers appeared on behalf of Mr. Grundy and Mr. D. W. Dumble appeared in the interests of Mr. Morrow. There were a few spectators present, including several members of the legal profession. At three o'clock the commission was opened, but it was past four before any progress was made, owing to the difficulties which the counsel for Mr. Grundy threw in the way. Mr. Sawers first inquired of Mr. Fleming as to the scope of the inquiry and as to the question of remuneration. Mr. Grundy, he stated, was an officer of the government who was dismissed, and he was poor. He added that there would be a great many witnesses and some costly witnesses and Mr. Grundy could not bear the expense. The commissioner intimated that there was no provision on his part to pay for witnesses. Mr. Sawyers would be furnished with all the subpœnas for witnesses he required. He had never held an investigation where the expenses were paid by the government.

Mr. Sawyers next inquired as to the scope of the investigation, and was told that the alleged irregularities were all that was charged, and Mr. Sawers mentioning the question of returns to the Government was told that these would likely come within the commission, though the commissioner would not undertake to rule positively till the questions in connection with the returns came up. Mr. Sawers said, as counsel, that certain returns were necessary, and Mr. Fleming told him that when it was shown that certain returns were needed he would see that they were forthcoming. Mr. Sawers then made a nasty little insinuation as to the Government not wishing to do justice, and he was told that when the commission was not giving him justice it was time to complain.

Mr. Dumble, for Mr. Morrow, the Registrar, consented to the fullest investigation but he objected to matters being investigated that had not been brought before the committee and the public, unless Mr. Grundy furnished particulars of his charges. The commission was very wide in its scope and he did not wish a fishing investigation.

Mr. Sawers said that Mr. Grundy told him that there would be twenty-five or thirty witnesses, most of the lawyers in town. "Will you," speaking to the commission, "send for them?" Mr. Fleming said, "I will give you subpœnas," and added that as far as he was concerned he would give the fullest investigation.

Mr. Sawers said he wanted all the books of the registry office produced and would not consent to proceed with the investigation till this was done. He was told that when questions arose that would indicate what books was wanted that these books would be produced, but Mr. Sawers was obstinate and said he would not go on till all the books were produced.

Mr. Fleming—You are making a ridiculous request.

Mr. Dumble—There are tons of books.

After further bickering and fault finding by Mr. Sawers, Mr. Fleming said, "Mr. Grundy has made certain changes and I am here to investigate these. Now, call Mr. Grundy."

Mr. Sawers—I will not allow Mr. Grundy to go into the box till all the books are produced.

Mr. Fleming—Then I might as well close the commission.

Mr. Sawers conferred a few minutes with Mr. Grundy, and consented to demand the production only of the registry books relating to Peterborough since 1890.

Mr. Dumble submitted that the inquiry should be limited to some specific charges. The nature of the alleged irregularities should be specified.

Mr. Fleming—The nature of the charges should be given and, so far as possible, dates.

Mr. Sawers—I will not consent to that.

Mr. Fleming—I expect candour from Mr. Grundy and his counsel in this matter.

Mr. Sawers—The Government does not deserve candour in this matter—they did not notify Mr. Grundy soon enough.

Mr. Fleming said as a matter of fact he did not see his commission till 11:30 o'clock Saturday night, but the clerk had telegraphed to Mr. Grundy at nine o'clock, —and added: "Are you ready now, Mr. Sawers?"

Mr. Sawers said he would confine Mr. Grundy's examination as to the "comparing" part of the charges, and insisted on Mr. Fleming ruling that no other matter would be dealt with in the questions.

Mr. Fleming Put your witnesses in the box and let us go on.

Mr. Sawers—Unless you rule that the examination shall be confined to the "comparing" part I shall have to call other witnesses—I call for J. R. Stratton.

Mr. Fleming—Have you any other witnesses, so that they may be summoned at the same time?

Mr. Sawers—I'll tell you that as they are required.

Mr. Fleming said he would furnish Mr. Sawers with blank subpœnas and he could fill in what names he wished.

Mr. Sawers—I have no ink. Will the court supply me with pen and ink?

Mr. Dumble—There's pen and ink on the table.

Mr. Sawers got it and after filling in his subpœnas asked, "Will the court furnish me a constable to serve?

Mr. Fleming—Get your witness here as soon as possible.

Mr. Sawers—Then I'll have to send Mr. Grundy and there'll be more delay.

Mr. Fleming—If you wish to delay proceedings say so plainly and he intimated that he would give Mr. Sawers all the time he could to get his witnesses, and in reply to another taunt of Mr. Sawers as to the Government not giving Mr. Grundy due notice.

Mr. Fleming said that if there were any fault in this respect in was entirely his. The Government had nothing to do with it. He had supposed that both parties being in town there would be no difficulty in proceeding at once, and he thought a telegram was sufficient. In reply to another insinuating snarl from Mr. Sawers, Mr. Fleming said he did not represent the government. He was acting under a commission.

Mr. Grundy was despatched with a subpœnas for Mr. Stratton, and after a long wait, returned.

Mr. Sawers informed the commission that Mr. Stratton was not at his place of business and added, "I suppose its hard to find him in his office at election time.

Mr. Sawers having apparently exhausted all his resources for delay and presented all the intricate obstructions possible in the way of proceeding and sufficiently insulted the commissioner by insinuating a desire on the latters part not to deal fairly and give a full investigation, at last graciously consented to having the matter proceed and called Miss Grundy, sister of the late deputy registrar.

Miss Mary Grundy, examined by Mr. Sawers, deposed that she had worked in the registry office 4 years, under Mr. Morrow, and 8 years under Col. Haultain, for $276 per year. Salary at first was regularly paid. She knew of alterations in original instruments. Found mistakes in copy in original instruments and took them to Mr. Morrow or her brother to be rectified. They were rectified by the lawyers putting in which was left out. The alterations were made by the lawyers but not in my presence. Knew of some alterations made after deeds were copied and she made the interlineations on the books afterwards. Only remembered one instance of this. Had to do with the examinations of the books. Miss Morrow compared with her a good deal. Miss Morrow held the instrument and witness the book. Only what was not printed was compared—everything essential. Mr. Morrow directed the instruments to be compared as they were done. Since 1890, Mr. Morrow did the receiving of papers, while witness was in the office. Mr. Morrow was not at the office continuously. [The commission said that questions in this regard asked were not within the commission, but he would allow full scope.] Witness said that instruments had been altered after they were registered—in one the consideration had been changed. Mr. Morrow did not devote all of his time to office work. There was a little comparing for the first few days after the law changed the work of copying was in arrear—there was only my brother and myself to do copying and there was not much time for comparing. Did not know of any instruments stamped as "compared" that were not compared.

To Mr. Dumble—Had less than $20 per month when my brother was acting registrar. His receipts were over $3,000 and he gave her, his sister, $20 a month. I got no raise while my brother was acting registrar. Mr. Morrow gave her $276 per year—more than her brother gave. There was considerable "comparing" in Col. Haultain's time and he certified to the comparison by a mark. Col. Haultain was a very careful man, but he did not compare all the instruments. Mr. Dumble produced a book and pointed out that there were numerous certificates of comparisons signed by witness who had said that there was little "comparing" done. The books in the office generally, the witness admitted, were well kept. Witness was an accurate copyist. When her brother was deputy the comparing was not always done. When deeds were brought in there would be little blanks not filled in. Regarding the mistakes referred to she supposed the registrar communicated with the lawyer, for the instruments came back corrected. Only remembered one instance of the "considernation" left out. Dates were sometimes left out. Mr. Morrow had a week's vacation, but he allowed her brother two weeks. Don't know of any complaints of the work of the office being neglected. Never saw an instrument that was stamped "compared" and was not compared. Mr. Morrow was gentlemanly and easy to get on with. Mr. Grundy and Mr. Morrow had words. Mr. Grundy acted indiscretely and witness asked Mr. Morrow to take him back. Witness tried to do her work faithfully. Knew the office was well spoken of.

To Mr. Sawers.—There were words between Mr. Morrow and her brother. Never knew a stamp "compared" to be put on when the comparing had not been done. The written parts were compared at the counter. In her brother's time he received all the instruments.

To Mr. Dumble.—In making abstracts two worked together—Mr. Morrow and her brother. Witness did not say that Mr. Morrow did little. People did not complain of not getting abstracts promptly. The mistakes referred to were clerical errors.

To Mr. Fleming.—Only mistakes were corrected. The written parts of the deeds would be compared at the counter. Several lawyers came and rectified mistakes.

To-Day's Session.

The commission sat at 9.30 o'clock, but considerable delay was caused by the late arrival of Mr. Grundy and another wait ensued by the absence of his counsel. The counsel not appearing, the commission called upon Mr. Stratton, who was present though not subpœnaed, having heard that his presence was required. He was sworn, but Mr. Sawers arriving declined to have Mr. Stratton examined, prefering to have Mr. Grundy examined first.

Mr. Sawers said he had a bill of twelve particulars as to the charges in the management of the registry office. The first charge was that the returns for the years 1890-91-92-93 were not correct. He wished these returns produced.

Mr. Grundy, sworn, said it was the duty of the office to send returns to the government of the proceeds of the office. These returns were

NOT ALTOGETHER CORRECT.

Mr. Sawers said he wished those returns produced.

Mr. Fleming—If you asked Mr. Dumble courteously no doubt he would have given you the returns asked for.

Mr. Sawers—I aked courteously, but when you (Mr. Fleming) side with Mr. Morrow—

Mr. Fleming—I give you to understand that I will not submit to such language. If it is repeated I shall commit you; if you are anxious to become a martyr, you will, by a continuation of such imputations, have a chance.

Mr. Fleming wished Mr. Sawers to continue his examination till he brought out something to bring the correctness of these returns within the scope of the commission. He had no desire to prevent the production of any evidence that would prevent the elicitation of all necessary information. He had telegraphed to Toronto for the original returns and they would be here by first mail.

Mr. Grundy's examination was continued and he said that the returns were taken from the books of the office. The returns of '91 showed that an item of $133 was untrue. The charge for stationery of $35 was incorrect in excess of the actual amount. "He believed that the amount of return to county on 15th Jan., '92 was incorrect." He referred to not to the amount, $265.75. Taking the return of 1892—the number of uncompared and uncopied instruments was incorrect—too few, and the same applied to 1891. The stationary item of $40 for '92 was excessive. The amount paid to the treasurer was not correct as to date. In '93 the number of uncompared instruments is insufficient. The amount entered as paid to municipality on Jan. 15th was not paid then. Original instruments had been altered after being brought into office or registered. He referred to those from January, 1884 to within a short time of his dismissal. He had not kept any record of such instruments till this year. He would say that there were at least 30 or 40 altered after registration each year. Descriptions of land, names of parties, considerations, were altered, dower omitted and filled in. The alterations were made by direction of Mr. Morrow. The alterations were made by both himself and others—the lawyers, who brought back the duplicate when alterations were made. Originals were sometimes taken out by the registrar. No extra registration fee was paid for alterations nor orders from county judge produced. Alterations in the books were made after instruments were copied. Since the 1st day of January, 1894, instruments were altered; witness took a memorandum of them—11,860 Peterborough, 2,189, 2,105 Monaghan, 4,156 Douro, 5,118 Otonabee, 845 general register, 1,086 Lakefield, 2,045 Ashburnham, 2,185 Monaghan. As to alteration of instrument No. 11,260 Peterborough, "Simcoe" street was changed to the word "Smith." Witness took a memorandum of the affair. Another deed, 5,118 Otonabee, was a mortgage registered 10th Feb. '94. A change was made by Mr. Burnham's clerk from the "fifth" to the "twelfth" concession. No. 2,105 Monaghan, was brought by E. A. Peck. It was changed from "part of lot 14" to "part lot 14." It was changed after

THE INSTRUMENT WAS COPIED.

No. 2,189 was registered March 28th, 1894. Alterations were made by Mr. R. R. Hall. A change was made from "part of west half," to "west half." The change was in the presence of himself and registrar. No. 1,036, Lakefield, was registered by Mr. Poussette, March 7th, '94. There was an alteration in the description which was imperfect. The alteration was made the same day. Witness discovered the mistake and pointed it out to Mr. Morrow. Witness was making an abstract that affected this instrument and no money had been advanced. It was from the purpose of giving a good description, and that was all that was done. No. 2,045, Ashburnham, was registered 14th of March, '94. An alteration was made in the name of the parties. It was taken out of the office by the registrar and the alteration made in the names of the parties, and the word "third" altered to "second." This was a mortgage and had no bar of dower. No. 2185, Monaghan, registered 17th March, 1894, bought by Hall & Hayes, alterations were made by the clerk after registration. The name was struck out and change made in the No. of plan and description. [The deed could not be legally registered because the reference was to a plan that did not exist.] No. 4156, Douro, a mortgage bought by John Burnham—a change in the number of the concession. The change was made by Mr. Burnham's clerk, who was witness to the instrument. The change was recorded in the Land Index book which was not required by law to be kept. No. 845 "general" was registered on 10th March, 1894, by Edwards & Murray. It was a conveyance and the endorsement, which was no part of the instrument, was changed.

The commission then adjourned for luncheon.

LACES AND INSERTIONS. WHITE, CREAM and TORO TONE Laces. Greatly admired by the Ladies. Lovely Black and Coloured SILK LACES that have been extolled for their beauty, variety and low price.

What Fashion Demands.

In Millinery and Mantles, Ribbons, Veiling and other novelties for the Ladies are to be found here, with all the prices running below the ordinary. The services of skilled Milliners at your command.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in. in width; Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels a 75c. Tape-tries down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

Store News

..AT..

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

CONCEDED TO STRIKERS

Operators Offer to Pay the Highest Wages in Competitive Districts.

WILL THE STRIKERS ACCEPT?

The Governor of Pennsylvania Expresses the Opinion That Should the Miners Agree to This Proposition the Great Coal Strike Will Be Ended.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 30.—Last night J. L. Mitchell, of Tyrone, Edward J. Berwind, of New York, and J. C. Scott, of Philadelphia, all large coal operators, called on Governor Pattison and had a consultation that lasted until almost midnight. At the close the governor made public to the newspaper men a telegram that he had written to James White, one of the strike leaders in the Clearfield region, and which he said embodied the result of the conference. It is as follows:

To James White, Houtzdale, Pa.—After a conference with the operators of Central Pennsylvania, I find they are willing and offer to pay the highest wages paid in competitive districts in the United States, and to conduct their business with the miners of Pennsylvannia on that basis.—ROBERT E. PATTISON.

The Governor considers this a concession because it really is all the operators can pay and compete with those in the same business who ship to the same points. He said the operators were in a friendly mood and very anxious to have a settlement. Should the miners agree to the proposition the strike will be broken.

The Miners Weakening.

CUMBERLAND, Md., May 30.—Several of the strike leaders have admitted that the miners were weakening, and that the majority of them would probably go to work this week at the old rates. A call has been issued for a meeting of miners to appoint a committee to meet the operators and endeavor to effect a settlement. The Maryland miners are thoroughly discouraged at the outlook and disgusted with the officials of the miners' union, who induced them to strike by promising that they would not be kept out longer than a few days.

NEGRO OUTRAGES IN FLORIDA.

A Colored Preacher Hanged by a Mob as the Result of a Conspiracy.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 30.—A special from Palatka says that negroes continue to commit a series of outrages. The people of this section are very much excited over the discovery of a diabolical conspiracy among the negroes to commit a series of outrages upon white women. A negro preacher by the name of Burgis came to the neighborhood of Putnam Hall and made damaging remarks about the daughter of a farmer living near by and proposed to negroes that they should seize the girl and several other white women, carry them into the swamp and make them submit to their embraces.

It is understood that several negroes agreed to the plan, and that preparations were being made to carry it into effect. The white people secured evidence that such a conspiracy did exist and they took steps to guard their homes. The negroes learned that their plan was known, and secretly began to leave the country. Burgis fled just in time to escape from a number of white men who had gone to secure him. It was learned that he had gone to Georgia and the father of the young lady whom he had slandered swore out a warrant for him.

The Georgia authorities were communicated with and Burgis was arrested. A Florida officer returned with the negro, and, fearing a mob, stopped off at a little station called Newburg, intending to secrete the prisoner. He was suddenly confronted by 105 mounted men, who took Burgis and hanged him. The white people are wild with rage, and it is believed that more lynching will follow.

Tried to Swallow the Manifesto.

PARIS, May 30.—While the police were searching the lodgings of a suspected anarchist named Chambers, the suspected man attempted to conceal something from the searchers by swallowing it. He was seized and made to disgorge, when it was found he had tried to swallow the draft of an anarchist manifesto invoking his comrades to resort to the use of explosives, poisons, etc., in order to "terrorize the bourgeoise."

Sentenced for Murdering His Daughter.

OGDENSBURG, May 30.—Rebecca Duryea, of Dickinson, Franklin County, charged with murdering his three-year-old daughter at that place under the most revolting circumstances, was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree at Malone and was sentenced by Justice Russell to fourteen years six months' imprisonment.

Kenneth Sutherland Sentenced.

BROOKLYN, May 30.—Kenneth E. Sutherland, the returned fugitive police justice, of Gravesend, was sentenced to two years and eight months in prison and $500 fine.

Grenville Reformers.

PRESCOTT, May 30.—A convention of Reformers of Grenville was held in the town hall here yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the riding at the approaching provincial election. Angus Buchanan, Reeve of Kemptville, was the choice of the meeting.

Canadian Coal for the States.

ST. JOHN, N.B., May 30.—After considerable talk the experiment has at last been inaugurated of shipping coal to the United States. The ocean tug Springhill started from Parrsborough with barges Nos. one and five loaded with coal for Boston.

SENTENCE IS RESPITED

Execution of MacWherrell Deferred Until October 1.

SIR JOHN'S RECOMMENDATION

Considerations Allowed for the Fact That New Witnesses Have Come Forward Since the Trial—Counsel Will Now Press for a New Trial.

OTTAWA, May 30.—The Dominion Cabinet yesterday discussed the weight of evidence offered against William Walter MacWherrell, convicted of the murder of James Williams and his wife, near Port Credit, on Dec. 14 last. The arguments of the counsel, Mr. T. C. Robinette, had been fully considered by the Minister of Justice, and in view of the new evidence which he claims to have secured since the trial at Brampton, Sir John Thompson decided that it would be well to allow the new witnesses to come forward, more especially as the young man Walker is to come up again for trial at the fall assizes in Peel County.

In view of this fact, and also taking into consideration the room for doubt that always exists in cases of circumstantial evidence, Sir John recommended that the prisoner be respited until the 1st day of October.

The execution of MacWherrell, which was to have taken place on the morning of Friday, the 1st of June, just two days hence, is thus delayed four months. This, Mr. Robinette claims, is preferable to him to a commutation, as it gives him a chance of a new trial, which he will now press for.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION LEAGUE.

The Annual Meeting Endorses the Necessity of Freer Trade Relations.

OTTAWA, May 30.—The annual meeting of the Imperial Federation League in Canada was held in the Parliament buildings. Lieut.-Col. George T. Dennison, Toronto, president, occupied the chair. The acting secretary, Mr. George Evans, Toronto, read the annual report. It stated that the dissolution of the council of the league in London was a severe blow at the branch in Canada. A circular from Sir John Lubbock, president of the London branch of the league, submitted as a basis of a policy upon which the league could be reconstructed. "That in order to secure the permanent unity of the empire some form of federation is necessary that any scheme of imperial federation should combine the resources of the empire for the maintainance of common interests and provide for organized defence of common rights, and should embrace a commercial union based as nearly as practicable upon free trade throughout the empire."

Mr. McGoun, of Montreal, moved that the above scheme commended itself to the Canadian branch, provided the trade paragraph of the scheme be defined as follows: "That any scheme of imperial federation should embrace a commercial union as necessary to its strength and permanency, that such union should be based as nearly as practical upon free trade throughout the Empire, and upon the imposition of an extra ad valorem duty on foreign imports, with few exceptions, to provide funds for Imperial defence."

This resolution was amended by making "free trade" "freer trade," and the words "ad valorem" were struck out.

FLOODS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Great Destruction to Property and Loss of Life Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30—There has been great destruction of property in British Columbia along the Frazer River and its numerous tributaries. On the flood which covers many thousands of acres of rich land float the debris of homes, costly dikes and bridges. Loss of life is reported. Hundreds of people have gone to the high lands for safety or are harbored on rafts. The flooded region embraces 50 miles along the banks of the Frazer from New Westminster. All crops are in ruins and it is reported that the great Canadian Pacific railroad bridge at Revelstoke and another at Mission City are gone.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Two Toronto Men Lose Their Lives on a G. T. R. Crossing.

BRANTFORD, May 30.—Yesterday No. 61, G. T. R. express ran into a buggy at Cainsville and instantly killed R. S. Smith, of Toronto, aged about 60 years, and fatally injured his son, aged about 20. Mr. Smith's remains were brought to Brantford and the son was taken to the Brantford hospital. The buggy was badly smashed. The horse escaped injury.

Young Smith died shortly after the accident.

Mr. Smith and his son were stopping at the American hotel. They hired a rig at Smith's livery stable to visit below Cainsville, and they were on their return back to Brantford when the accident occurred.

Messenger Nurden Acquitted.

HAMILTON, May 30.—John H. Nurden, the ex-Canadian Express messenger, was tried before Judge Muir on the charge of having stolen two money packages, containing in all $1,500, consigned to Alliston. The packages were in charge of Nurden when lost, but the evidence was insufficient to convict him of the theft and he was acquitted of the charge. The express company have other charges to prefer against Nurden for not making returns for goods carried by express.

Young Woman Suicides.

INGERSOLL, May 30.—This town was somewhat aroused yesterday by hearing that Miss Aggie Wood, of West Oxford, had committed suicide during the night by taking chloroform. It is supposed she bought the drug in town and went to her room at night, and there took her life. She left a note saying that she would not be disappointed. Miss Wood was a young lady, about 24 years of age. She was highly respected, and leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

ONTARIO'S SECRETARY.

A Scholarly and Able Gentleman With a Brilliant Academical Career.

Lieut.-Col. the Hon. John Morrison Gibson, LL.B., Q.C., M.P.P., and Provincial Secretary for Ontario, was born in Toronto township, Peel county, January 1, 1843. His father, the late William Gibson, came to Canada in 1827 from Gamrie, Forforshire, Scotland, and became a farmer. The late David Gibson, formerly representative of North York in the old Parliament of Canada, was a cousin to J. M. Gibson.

The subject of this sketch got his early training in the famous Central school, Hamilton, under the mastership of Dr. J. H. Sangster. With his fine natural endowments and studious habits young Gibson was facile princeps there. Matriculating into Toronto University in 1860 his college course was distinguished by many brilliant victories, and on graduating in 1863 he took the Prince of Wales' prize. His especial favorites for study were the languages, not only the classics and those of modern Europe, but the Oriental as well. During the term of his articles as a law student in the office of the firm of which the present Justice Burton was head in Hamilton he entered the law course of his alma mater, receiving as the reward of his application the degree of LL.B. and the gold medal of the faculty in 1869.

He formed a partnership with Francis Mackelcan, Q.C., in Hamilton, and has since been associated with him in practising his profession, and has attained a place in the first rank of the legal luminaries of the country.

In 1861, the time of the Trent affair, he enrolled in University Rifle Company, and later joined the 13th Battalion of Hamilton as a private, rising through the ranks to become commanding officer of that celebrated corps. Col. Gibson is a marksman of repute. A member of the Wimbledon teams of '78, '74 and '79, he won in the last year the Prince of Wales' prize of £100 and badge and other championships with his rifle. In '81, when he had command of the team, the Canadians won from the British the Kolapore Cup. He was president of the Ontario Rifle Association for several years, and for the past two years of the Dominion Rifle Association. He was also the first president of the Canadian Military Rifle League, a position which he held for three years.

HON. J. M. GIBSON.

In educational affairs also he has held the highest positions in the gift of his city, the chairmanship of its Board of Education.

Freemasonry, too, has honored him with the office of grand master for the past two years.

His political career commenced with the Reform Association of Hamilton, of which he was the indefatigable secretary for many years. In 1879 he was elected to the Ontario Legislature in succession to J. M. Williams, a Conservative, and has since held the representation of Hamilton against all comers. Singularly enough, too, for the Ambitious City knows none but Conservatives in the other parliament, the Commons at Ottawa.

In the House Col. Gibson's ability soon marked him for preferment and in 1889 he became Provincial Secretary, the hardest worked officer of the Ontario Government. That Department now has under its charge the prisons, charities and public institutions, insurance and division court inspection and regulations and the administration of the game laws and those relating to neglected and dependent children.

For the last named, Mr. Gibson has, by the act bearing his name, enacted legislation of the highest and most humane character. Chancellor Boyd at the Wentworth assizes said of it:

"Much attention has been given to the preventing of juvenile crime and your own representative, Hon. Mr. Gibson, has placed upon the statute-books one of the best measures ever passed in this respect. Prevention of crime is better than cure and better doubly than punishment."

He is an able administrator and a colleague upon whom Sir Oliver Mowat can rely for breadth of knowledge and soundness of judgment.

Courteous, kindly and generous without a blemish on his reputation he fully merits and receives the confidence of his constituents, the members of the House and of his colleagues in the Ministry.

Col. Gibson has been married three times but has met with severe calamities in his domestic relations, death having deprived him his first and second wives. His third marriage was to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Judge Malloch, of Brockville, by whom he has several children.

TURPIN'S WONDERFUL EXPLOSIVE.

France's Refusal to Purchase the Invention Severely Criticised.

PARIS, May 30.—The Patrie newspaper publishes a sensational article in which it is said that M. Turpin, the inventor of the explosive known as panclastite, offered to the French Government some time ago a new explosive of very great power, to be used in an electric mitraeillense firing automatically 25,000 bullets. The article goes on to say that this invention, which to the army possessing it would make impossible the approach of an enemy, was refused by the French War Office and was afterwards sold by the inventor to the German government. The Patrie calls the French government's refusal of the invention an act of high treason.

Deputy De Ramel, referring to the Patrie's story, says that he recently wrote to M. Casimir-Perier, then premier, insisting that the French government should acquire the invention, even if it possessed only the one hundredth part of the power claimed for it, and that the premier replied that the government could not negotiate with M. Turpin in view of his recent quarrel with the artillery department.

M. Leavallois, chairman of the Panclastite Company, says that the invention was sold to Germany in consequence of the shabby treatment of M. Turpin at the hands of the French authorities.

Deputy Lehoisse has given notice that he will question Gen. Mercier, the new Minister of War, on this subject in the Chamber to-morrow. Gen. Mercier denied that Germany had bought the invention.

La Presse asserts that M. Turpin's invention was purchased by England.

BRITISH IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

American Politicians View Britain's Intrigues With Apprehension.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A City of Mexico special says: The actions of British diplomatic agents in Central America are attracting attention here. It is believed England intends to secure a foothold near the proposed Nicaragua canal. Reports from various sources in Central America agree in regard to British Minister Gosling's influence at Managua.

Great Britain, under the guise of protecting her interests, it is feared, will secure substantial control of an important piece of territory, hoping later on to confirm her title by treaty.

Central American politicians view with apprehension British intrigues in Nicaragua, fearing a repetition of British actions in Venezuela.

By a recent treaty with Mexico Great Britain gained undisputed possession of Belize, otherwise known as British Honduras, which the Mexicans long regarded as properly belonging to their country. The advantages Mexico gains by the treaty are the amicable settlement of a long disputed question and protection for her citizens on the Yucatan peninsula from the attacks of savages, instigated by British colonists in Belize, who for many years have been furnishing arms and ammunition to Indians for raids into Yucatan.

British diplomacy has not been so active in Central America since the period of gold discovery in California.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The Day Taken Up With Discussion of Items of the New Tariff.

OTTAWA, May 30.—In the Commons these bills were introduced and read a first time:

Sir John Thompson—To amend the Dominion Elections Act. He said that the bill provides for a shorter time between nomination and polling day in certain constituencies.

Sir John Thompson—To amend the Act respecting interest. The bill provides that judgments in the county courts shall bear interest at 6 per cent.

Dr. Landerkin asked if Sir John Thompson intended introducing an amendment in his bill dealing with elections, providing that declarations should be made in Dominion elections as speedily as they were in the local elections.

Sir John Thompson said that his attention had not been called to the matter before and that the bill made no such provision.

Ways and Means.

The House then went into Committee of Ways and Means.

Hon. Mr. Foster announced that on crude opium the duty would be $1 per net pound. Cocoa in its crude state was reduced from 25 to 20 per cent. Albumengro papers and films for photographers were reduced from 35 to 30 per cent. Medicated and liver oil will go under other medicines, and will be taxed 25 per cent., while pure cod liver oil will come in at 20 per cent. Silvered glass was changed to 27½ per cent. instead of 30 per cent. Bevelled silver glass was changed from 35 per cent. to 32½ per cent.

Mr. Taylor asked that the duty should be increased on small iron nuts. He thought that one cent. per pound and 25 per cent. ad valorem was not sufficient. No change was made.

A clause was inserted providing that shingles and wood pulp should go on the free list when the United States would allow them to go free into that country.

Mr. Gibson urged that specific duties be placed on slate.

This clause was inserted:

"Corsets, linen, silk and cotton clothing, and other articles made from cotton fabrics, 32½ per cent. ad valorem."

Elastic, round or flat, including garter elastic; braids, chains, cords or other manufactures of hair, and dress belts of all kinds, were fixed at 30 per cent. ad valorem.

Damask of linen, including napkins, doylies, tablecloths, sideboard covers, damask stair linen and diaper, were enumerated at 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Shawls of all kinds, railway and travelling rugs and lap dusters are also 25 per cent.

Window shade rollers, 35 per cent.; window shades, in the piece or cut or hemmed or mounted on rollers, 35 per cent. ad valorem, but not less than 5 cents per square yard.

Brass, in bars, rods and bolts, drawn, plain and fancy tubing, not bent or otherwise manufactured, in lengths of not less than six feet, was added to the free list.

The marble duties were arranged as follows:

Marble, in the rough in blocks, free; in slabs or blocks, sawn on not more than two sides, 10 per cent. ad valorem; sawn on more than two sides, 20 per cent; finished and manufactured of marble, 30 per cent.

The following items, of which Mr. Foster had given notice, were adopted:

Wrought iron or steel pipe fittings and chilled iron or steel rolls, 35 per cent. ad valorem.

Switches, frogs, crossings and intersections for railways, 30 per cent. ad valorem.

Yarns, composed wholly or in part of wool, worsted, the hair of the alpaca goat or other like animal, costing 20 cents per pound and under, 5 cents per pound and 20 per cent. ad valorem.

Mosaic flooring or any material, 30 per cent. ad valorem.

The following new item was also adopted: Canvas and sail twine of hemp or flax, used for boat or ship sails, 5 per cent. ad valorem.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

HON. JOHN DRYDEN.

SKETCH OF THE ONTARIO MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE.

An Interesting and Romantic Personal History—Mr. Dryden's Public Career and His Success in Filling Various Offices in the Gift of the People.

Agriculture—what Lord Aberdeen lately referred to as the profession of farming and characterized as the oldest and one of the most noble of the arts and sciences—has been the life-study of John Dryden.

Born and brought up on the homestead farm of the family in the township of Whitby, county of Ontario, he is an example of what diligence and integrity will develop in one who devotes his whole intellect to the greatest of industries.

The fifth of June, the date of the last Ontario general election, only fifty years earlier, or in 1840, John Dryden was born on the farm where he still lives. Twenty years before, his father, the late James

HON. JOHN DRYDEN.

Dryden, then a boy of fourteen, came from England with his widowed mother and settled in Whitby township, at that time little more than a trackless forest.

John Dryden has a distinctive character, moulded largely by his environment, training and thinking. His primary education was received at the common school in his district and afterwards for a time at the Whitby grammar school.

Shortly after leaving school he made arrangements with his father to work the farm on shares. This he continued for two years, when he rented the property and subsequently added to it, by rental, his uncle's farm of one hundred and seventy acres adjacent, and at a still later period another lot of ninety-five acres, both of which he afterwards purchased. For twenty years he paid rent, and only on the death of his father and by buying the other heirs out did he become the owner of the original homestead.

Mr. Dryden's career as a farmer has been marked by thoroughness in every detail. The results which he has obtained have long ago placed him in the front rank of the farmers of Canada. The whole of his splendid farm has been underdrained.

The best feature of Maple Shade farm is its live stock. Of all our domestic animals the dog alone is under interdict there. "Without are dogs," is one of Mr. Dryden's mottoes as a farmer. But he has the genuine farmer's love for the sheep, the cow and the horse, and is only satisfied with the best breeds.

When only a youth he reasoned the father into a frame of mind to make an experiment with thoroughbred cattle, and a young Shorthorn was bought for him. This was the beginning of one of the best herds to be found to day in America. He has also devoted great attention to the breeding of sheep. The foundation of his famous flock of Shropshires was laid by an importation from England.

Mr. Dryden is a leading member of breeders' associations in his own country and the United States, and has held the highest offices in several of them. At the present time he is president of the American Shropshire Registry Association of Canada and the United States, a position to which he has for the third time been re-elected. One of the notable incidents of the agricultural section of the World's Columbian Exposition was the banquet given at the Grand Pacific hotel by the great body of stockmen exhibiting at the Fair, and of which Mr. Dryden was chairman.

From his youth he was chosen to fill public positions of more or less importance, and the numerous occasions on which he has been selected as representative of the people in various capacities indicate that he has done his duty well and faithfully.

His first office was that of secretary-treasurer of the school board in his section. It 1863, when only twenty-three years of age, he was elected to the municipal council and for seven years subsequently served as deputy-reeve and reeve, retiring voluntarily at the end of that period. In 1879 he was chosen as their canditate for the Provincial Legislature by the Reformers of that historic riding, South Ontario, hoary with memories of William Lyon Mackenzie, George Brown and Oliver Mowat, who have all appealed to its constituents for their suffrages. He was erected by a large majority over N. W. Brown, the former representative. Three times since he has been re-elected, in 1882 his opponent being Mr. John Miller, in 1886 Mr. J. S. Larke, and in 1890 Mr. Robt. Miller, jr. who is now again in nomination against him.

In September, 1890, when the Ontario Cabinet was re-organized, Mr. Dryden became Minister of Agriculture in succession to Hon. Charles Drury.

The administration of his department is characterized by the exercise of that sound, practical knowledge as a farmer and executive ability in business which he has displayed in the management of his own affairs. Apart from political considerations there is but little divergence of opinion as to his fitness for the position.

In the Legislature Mr. Dryden made a good impression from the start and although not a frequent speaker, always gains the ear of the House. Topics connected with agriculture have been his favorites and upon these he has always spoken with authority. As Minister of Agriculture he is often brought into intimate touch with the great industries of the country. No other department of Government offers such large opportunities in this way for useful and original work. Nor is it saying too much that Mr. Dryden is filling and magnifying his office and that in promoting the interests of agriculture he has secured the respect, the good-will and the confidence of all classes of the people.

He is an earnest believer in the power of knowledge as an agency to accomplish results in the advancement of the people, and through the instrumentality of agricultural and kindred societies, farmers' institutes and traveling dairies, the agricultural college and the public schools, and by the publication for distribution throughout the province to all who are interested of reports and bulletins, he is confident that the most efficient service which the Government has in its power to give can best be rendered to the agricultural industries of the country.

Mr. Dryden was one of the first trustees of the Toronto Baptist college. He has also been from the first on the Board of Governors of McMaster University, and is now chairman of the Board. Although he knows the value of a university education by the want of it, he is by common consent one of the most practical and useful of all the governors.

In business relations Mr. Dryden is known as a man of the strictest integrity. In private life he is genial, affable and at all times approachable. His generous disposition and unblemished character have endeared him to thousands of warm personal friends.

In 1867, as the result of a romantic courtship, he married Mary Lydia Holman, daughter of Thomas Holman, a well known New Nork publisher, by whom he had issue eight children, of whom five daughters and one son are living.

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

SIRS,—I had such a severe cough that my throat felt as if scraped with a rasp. On taking Norway Pine Syrup I found the first dose gave relief, and the second bottle completely cured me.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

A Great Day of Enjoyment Promised—An Exciting Canoe Race.

The annual pic-nic of St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, will be held in a beautiful grove at Gannon's Narrows on Wednesday, June 13th. One of the great attractions of the occasion will be a canoe race for a prize of $10 in gold, or, for those who do not wish to risk their amateur standing, a silver cup of equal value. This event is open to the two counties of Peterborough and Northumberland, and already there are two entries, which insure a speedy and game canoe contest. The conditions governing this race are:—Distance, 1½ mile—three-quarters of a mile with turn; canoes must not be more than 17 feet in length nor less than 24 inches beam. The two entries already made are Mr. Geo. Taylor and Gardiner Nicholls, two old rivals, who will doubtless put up an exciting race. But the entries are not confined to these two; any other canoeist in the two counties can enter the contest. In addition to this grand canoe race there will be a full programme of sports and games, excellent dinner will be provided and speeches appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. Special reduction in railway and steamer fares for the occasion. Remember the date, June 13th, and watch posters for particulars.

A Swell Affair

Dried apples in hot water are always "swell affairs." They with other fruits come in very handy at this time of the year—just before fresh fruits are plenty. A new stock of canned fruits, also jams by the pound, has been opened at MASON & Co's Grocery, and are fit for a gentleman's table.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Wednesday, May 30th.

At this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer indicated only 30 degrees above zero, being two below the freezing point. A sharp, white frost with good thick ice doing considerable damage to garden vegetables and farm crops. We are now getting our March, believing always we would suffer for the early breaking up, 'tis not all over yet.—THOS. TELFORD.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The Art Sale of beautiful goods is drawing to a close. Do not miss Friday and Saturday nights as some of the nicest goods in the stock will be offered on these nights, and as we are anxious to close the sale they will be knocked down quickly. Positively no reserve. A chance of a life time. Sale will begin at 7.30. JOHN HAGGART, Auctioneer.

A Most Interesting Lecture.

Rev. W. Bell, B.D., Missionary Superintendant Royal Templars, lectured in Mark street church last night under the auspices of Otonabee Council, R.T. of T., his subject being "The House we Live in." The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and the audience evidently enjoyed the lecture, which was illustrated by a series of oxy-hydrogen limelight views, showing the effects of alcohol on the body. At the close of the meeting a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer through Mr. Powell and Dr. Fife. Several names were secured for membership in the Order.

THE PETERBOROUGH REGISTRY OFFICE.

A COMMISSION OF INVESTIGATION.

Continuation of the Evidence — More Detail Evidence, but no New Points Brought Out — The Deputy-Registrar's "Notes"—A Systematic Still Hunt — Corrections Made to Make Instruments Right—Other Evidence Submitted.

AFTERNOON SITTING.

At 2 p.m. the commission resumed with the continuation of Mr. Grundy' evidence. The alterations made during the years previous to 1894 were similar in number and of the same character as those of 1894. Witness had a copy of a letter from Inspector Smith which Mr. Morrow used to show the lawyers who asked for changes in instruments. The letter said that no parts of instruments were to be changed after registration. No. 11,759 was registered in January, '94, by Edmison & Dixon; it was a deed; alterations were made after it was registered by Mr. Dixon in the names of parties, the abstract book showed the change also. The witness said that many instruments had been certified as "compared" that were not compared.

To Mr. Fleming, Mr. Grundy said he himself had certified to documents being compared which he knew had never been compared. This style of comparing has been going on since Mr. Morrow was appointed registrar, and witness was his deputy. Many of the books had not the statutory declaration at the end of the books. As to work being done for which no fees were paid, witness mentioned the case of J. Doxsee and Edg. Pearce, and Central Canada Loan and Saving's Company in which no fees were charged or paid. There were not many omissions to charge for, as he lives by his fees and it would not pay the registrar to neglect collections. The parties thus favoured were Mr. Pearse, Mr. Grundy, himself, a church and Mr. Morrow's brother, and Mr. Stratton, and the entry showed that this was to be charged to Stratton & Hall.

Witness knew of about $10 or $15 that had not been charged. The witness stated that an instrument No. 3,011 Peterborough was given precedence in registration. He knew of no other instruments entered in a similar manner. There were other instruments left at the office on certain conditions and not registered at the time. As to the absence of Mr. Morrow from the office, he did, witness said, very little work during January. He was at the office most days. The witness spoke of the copying not being done. The witness said the report of the inspection of registry offices was incorrect when it stated that there were no arrears of copying. As to Mr. Grundy's dismissal, the witness said that Mr. Morrow gave as his grounds for dismissal, Mr. Grundy's letter in the Empire, which witness said was true. The contradiction made by him of his evidence before the public accounts committee as published, was brought out of him by pressure, he was worried into it. Witness also impugned the correctness of Mr. Morrow's letter, printed on the same occasion. Witness went on to give a general denial of the correctness of the correspondence that was published in connection with his (witness) evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, stating, however, that the letter of Stratton & Hall was correct.

In cross examination, at the conclusion of Mr. Grundy's direct evidence, Mr. Dumble took him in hand and subjected his evidence to rigid scrutiny.

When shown his letter exonerating Mr. Stratton and contradicting the statement made before the Public Accounts Committee to the effect that Mr. Stratton had not warned him to beware of implicating the government. Mr. Grundy did not recollect writing some passages that were contained in it at all and on being shown the original by Mr. Dumble he exclaimed that he could not account for how he had come to write such an epistle.

Regarding Mr. Morrow's letter which appeared in the same issue of the EXAMINER and below which was a copy of Grundy's affidavit affirming its correctness, he swore that he never saw Mr. Morrow's letter and on being questioned of how he came to make affidavit to its truthfulness. Glover's affadavit in which it was stated that he (Glover) had overheard a part of the conversation between Grundy and Mr. Stratton, he characterized as false from beginning to end. No one had heard the conversation. Concerning the signatures of a number of the lawyers to a document averring their full confidence in Registrar Morrow, Mr. Grundy swore that he believed each and every one of them had been implicated in the altering of the registry office documents, with the exception of Messrs. Dennistoun and Stevenson. Those who didn't sign the document were those who had never attempted to alter a deed or other article. The County Judge, he stated, had only been in the registry office two or three times since he had been on the bench and didn't know what he was talking about when he stated what he did in a letter to Mr. Morrow.

Mr. Dumble queried of Mr. Grundy whether or not he had made a request for this commission to be granted. Mr. Grundy said he had not, but had asked for an opportunity of placing more evidence on record. In reply to a question as to whether he had statements to make or anything on his mind which he wanted to have made public the ex-deputy registrar answered that he "didn't know," he might think of something if he was asked to reply to some questions.

Mr. Grundy here produced a little note book, which Mr. Dumble captured and asked as to why Mr. Grundy had been making such extensive notes in it regarding registry office matters. The answer was that the deputy registrar feared that his services were about to be dispensed with and accordingly he started to take notes of any informalities which he observed. He had noticed that Mr. Morrow looked ot him and judged that he had fallen from favour. He thought, too, that Mr. Morrow was educating his son to take the position.

So, then, queried Mr. Dumble, you started to lay in ammunition to get even with the registrar if he dismissed you, eh?

Mr. Grundy was offended at this and said he was not used to hearing such talk.

In reply to questions plied by Mr. Dumble, he acknowledged that he was aware of the nature of the oath he had taken as a deputy registrar, and when asked why he did not abide by it, claimed that "circumstances altered cases."

"Tell me," said Mr. Dumble, "when you started to pull the wires concerning this registry office matter."

"I do not understand the language you use," was the simple, shildlike answer.

Mr. Dumble, however, was skeptical, and pressed his point in somewhat different terms. "When," said he, "did you start running down to the station and talking over these matters with Conservative M.P.P's."

Mr. Grundy flatly denied having gone down to the station.

"What," exclaimed Mr. Dumble, "did you not go down there to meet A. F. Wood, a Conservative member."

The ex-deputy had to acknowledge that he had done so, but claimed that it was after the investigation had been inaugurated. He had not mentioned registry office matters to anyone before the matter had come up before the Public Accounts Committee.

"Well! well!" chimed in Mr. Dumble, "your memory must be failing you. Is it?"

"Mr. Stratton says it is," was the rejoinder which raised a laugh.

"Tell me now," pursued Mr. Dumble, "did you or did you not make remarks about the office and do canvassing when you were out posting up election bills?"

"No sir, I did not."

"Why, then, did you apologize to Mr. Blezard afterwards for trying to injure his chances?"

This Mr. Grundy denied having done.

Mr. Dumble in trying to ascertain just what Mr. Grundy meant in his published letter by styling himself "a recuse," brought out some facts which caused a good deal of laughter at the expense of

THE INNOCENT "RECLUSE."

He admitted that he dealt in real estate, had erected a few houses, was concerned in farming operations and bought and sold timber tracts. Mr. Grundy did not attempt to reconcile his actions with the statement that he was a man apart from the world—a "recluse."

Besides attending to these arduous office duties you have still plenty of time left then for outside operations, Mr. Grundy? This question of Mr. Dumble's drew from the "recluse" the admission that he had conducted outside operations which at times had led him into trouble. Although he had played the fool outside the office and done lots of things for which he was sorry, he had always attended to his registry office duties faithfully, so faithfully that in many instances he had let his own business actually go to the dogs. This declaration, as may be supposed, excited another laugh.

Mr. Dumble then went into an examination cerning the various deeds and instruments which Mr. Grundy had stated were altered informally.

Concerning instrument 11,860 Peterborough, in which Mr. Grundy charged Mr. Burnham's clerk with altering the word "Simcoe" street to read "Smith" street, Mr Dumble forced the witness to admit that the mistake was simply an error of the typewriter operator. In other parts of the instrument "Smith" street was mentioned in a way which left no doubt as to which was the correct street.

Mr. Dumble asked if there was any wrong done any one by the change and Mr. Grundy admitted that there wasn't but on the contrary an error had been righted.

No. 4,165 Douro, in which the figure concession "5" had been changed to "6," was a mortgage brought by John Burnham. On reference to the plan Mr. Grundy had at once perceived that the land lay in the 5th concession and had telephoned to Mr. Burnham. His clerk had came up and the change had been affected. In his examination in chief, Mr. Grundy had sworn that the instrument had been taken away from the office and changed, but when pinned to plain statements by Mr. Dumble, he had to admit that he merely inferred such was the case. He could not swear it had been taken away or that it hadn't. In fact he didn't know of his own positive knowledge how or when it had been altered.

No. 2,189, which had been altered by Mr. R. R. Hall to read "west half" instead of "part of west half" was merely a document which referred to a previous instrument in which the correct terms had been used and the lands already described. The change made to make the two correspond as they should and the alteration had taken place in the presence of both the registrar and the deputy.

No. 854 "general," registered on March 10th, 1894, by Edwards & Murray, was a conveyance and the endorsement had been changed. Mr. Dumble asked Mr. Grundy if he was not aware that this endorsement was not a party of the deed and didn't affect in the least what was inside, being merely a memorandum in fact. Mr. Grundy then pursued the miserable tactics of trying to parry the question by saying he "didn't know, he wasn't a lawyer." All through the investigation whenever opportunity offered, the ex-deputy would fence in this manner. A straightforward answer or statement was not forthcoming at any time until he had fought to the last ditch, when he would be found to make a plain statement. In this instance he was finally cornered by being forced to admit that as a deputy registrar he would not copy the memorandum in question into the books. He still held however, that it was wrong to change this memorandum until the commissioner interfered, rebuked him for his fencing tactics and stated that he, himself, could safely say that the memorandum was no part of the deed and could be altered without harm being done.

Deed No. 1,086, Lakefield, was registered by Mr. Poussette. An error in the description was discovered and he had telephoned Mr. Poussette to that effect. An alteration had then been made. The mortgage should have been a new one in this case. Witness here rose to his feet to deliver an oration respecting the outrageous way in which lawyers had been permitted to make alterations, etc. He grew hysterical as he proceeded and worked himself up to such a degree that he was positively shrieking out his denounciations, when the commissioner checked him with the observation that it was a pity that he had held his righteous indignation bottled up so long. It came a little late and this was hardly the place for its expression. If it ad been shown sooner more faith would have been placed in it.

No. 245 Ashburnham was a mortgage and contained no bar of dower. The wife in this case had been changed from being the 3rd part to party of the second part in conjunction with her husband. It had therefore been corrected to read in the usual way. No harm had been done to anyone by the change. The correct title to the deed in question was registered long previous.

No. 2,185, Monaghan, registered by Hall & Hayes was altered by the clerk after registration. The name was struck out and change made in the number of plan and description. There was no plan which corresponded with the description; the change had been made to correct an error. Mr. Grundy acknowledged this, also that the deed could not be legally registered as it made reference to a plan which did exist.

Are not all these charges of alterations which you make simply those in correction of errors, asked Mr. Dumble, and are they not all right now? But the witness wouldn't commit himself to saying that which would make his charges appear less severe. He knew of no amounts which had been changed from smaller to larger figures or vice versa. The office had never been charged with fraud of any kind.

No. 2,165, Monaghan, was an instrument in which a tail had been added to a "t," making it into a "k." It referred to the park lots in Monaghan and unless the change had been made the instrument would have been an adsurdity, as what "part" of the lot in question was not stated.

No. 5,118, Otonabee, was an instrument which Mr. Grundy believed Mr. Morrow to have taken out of the office and been changed by Mr. Burnham, who had registered it. He, himself, had been copying the deed and had stopped when, in the middle of it, he had discovered that the twelfth concession was written where the fifth was intended, and called Mr. Morrow's attention to it. When next he saw the instrument it had been changed to read correctly. He could not swear that Mr. Morrow had taken it from the office, only such was his belief.

When questioned by Mr. Dumble regarding the false entries he had made regarding comparing, he acknowledged having made false certificates of entries in the books and could not justify himself for so doing, other, than by saying if he ever had another chance such things would not occur again.

Regarding that deed of Mr. Stratton's, queried Mr. Dumble, if was so very, very wicked not to charge it, how do you draw the distinction between that and your own not being charged? Would it not be equally wrong not to charge your own?

Mr. Grundy here rose to state that he would never have mentioned Mr. Stratton's name unless he had been forced to by the Public Accounts Committee.

Mr. Dumble evidently took this statement with a grain of salt, as his next question referred to Mr. Grundy's conversation with A. F. Wood, M. P. P., at the station. He asked him what he had mentioned the matter to that Member for. Mr. Grundy's answer was a complete "give way" to the situation as he turned around sharply and asked in astonishment, "Now how do you know anything about that?" The audience howled with delight at this effective acknowledgement of the interview.

Do you know of any instruments, other than the one you mention, being entered out of its order, asked Mr. Dumble.

No, was the answer.

Regarding this entry, you did not see it made and because you see it interlined you declare it is false?

I did not say it was false.

Well, true then?

Mr. Sawers here interfered and told Mr. Grundy to answer no more questions on this subject, but the commission ruled that the questions were all right as Mr. Dumble was only trying to get at the truth through the fencing of the witness.

Mr. Grundy was forced to acknowledge that the only reasons for his swearing that the document was wrongfully entered was that he did not see it received by Mr. Morrow, still he could not be induced to say it might have been correctly entered. He had left on Friday and the deed was not entered. When he returned to the office on the following Tuesday it was found there by him. He thereupon made up his mind it had been entered on Monday night and nothing could move him in his belief, though he could give no reason for substantiation of his statement other than that mentioned.

Although he did not purchase the stationary used, he made bold to assert that in the returns made the Government concerning the amount spent was overestimated. Mr. Dumble, by cross questioning, showed the charge to be purely and simply made on a guess. [The amount expended does not affect the Government in any way, the bill being footed by the registrar himself.]

He confessed having himself telephoned lawyers to come up and insert dower clauses in deeds, though he claimed that Mr. Morrow had instructed him to do so in each instance.

Yes, commented Mr. Dumble, a willing instrument though, I guess.

Miss Mary Grundy was recalled. She stated that Mr. Morrow treated her far more courteously than her brother had done when she was in the registry office. Her brother treated her harshly. Mr. Dumble wanted to know whether Mr. Morrow had ever to interfere to preserve her from being hurt by her brother? The spectators manifested great interest in this question, as it was thought the long-expected revelations concerning the miserable cad's cruelty to his sister were about to be given publicity. Miss Grundy, however, evinced so much reluctance in exposing these family affairs to the eyes of the world, that Mr. Dumble did not press the question.

Mr. Sawers having no more witnesses, the commission adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

MORNING SESSION.

Wednesday, May 30th.

The commission resumed at ten o'clock this morning.

Mr. Sawers, counsel for Mr. Grundy, said he had no more witnesses to call at this stage of the proceedings, though Mr. Stratton, the first witness he had called for, was present, as he was previously, ready to give evidence.

The first witness examined was called by Mr. Dumble, counsel for Mr. Morrow.

Mr. John Moloney, clerk of the county court, turned up his book on the thirtieth of March, 1893, which showed the entry of a certificate of lis pendens, Donel vs. Fitzgerald, and also the entry of two chattel mortgages by Messrs. Stratton & Hall. Mr. Hall made the entry just as Mr. Moloney's office was closing and he said he wished to have it registered.

Mr. R. R. Hall, a member of the firm of Stratton & Hall, deposed that he remembered taking out the lis pendens—on March 30th, 1893, and registered it the same date. The firm had a running account with registry office, and the pass book showed a charge of 50 cents for the registration. Instrument 2089, produced, showed a change in the description which had been charged as being made after registration, this change witness swore was made before registration. Mr. Grundy was in the habit of suggesting changes in instruments; in one instance Mr. Grundy urged a change in a instrument, stating that "no one would know anything about it." Witness thought the change was material and did not make it, but prepared a new instrument. Mr. Morrow, witness said, was generally in the office and the wants of customers, according to his experience, RECEIVED PROMPT ATTENTION.

Witness had never had complaints to make about the management of the registry office. He had found the books correct; compared with other offices, the work was better and neater than other offices he had knowledge of.

To Mr. Sawers—Witness could not remember of any instrument being changed in the registry office. Witness knew of instances of Mr. Grundy suggesting corrections in registered instruments, but could not particularize.

To Mr. Dumble—Witness said the corrections made were to rectify plainly evident errors.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall, of Hall & Hayes, testified that he had practiced law for 18 years and had found the registry work well done. He had found the abstract work better than in other offices. If he knew the intention of the parties he would not hesitate to make a clerical error correct in an instrument. Never knew of a change in an instrument that worked any wrong. Witness was often at the office and generally found Mr. Morrow in his place.

To Mr. Sawers—Witness said both Mr. Morrow and Mr. Grundy were good officials.

To Mr. Grundy—Witness said that the corrections in instrument 2185, Monaghan, were made before it was registered. One correction he was not positive when it was made.

Mr. R. E. Wood, County Attorney, had practiced since 1876. He had always found the work of the office well done and

THE OFFICIALS COURTEOUS.

Latterly, since he got familiar with the work, Mr. Morrow has been a very efficient officer. Knew of no wrong done by a correction in an instrument. Mr. Grundy's charge that all the lawyers who had signed a certificate of credit to Mr. Morrow, had instruments corrected, was wrong, for he never had anything of that kind done.

W. A. Stratton was examined and said he had given instructions for preparing the instrument, 2085 Ashburnham, the changes made in the names of the parties were made by himself before registration; he was positive of that. After a certain deed was registered, Mr. Grundy had as often as twenty times suggested that it should be changed. It was not changed, because counsel representing both parties had thought it unnecessary. The Peterborough registry office was the best conducted office he ever was in. He was present when Mr. Grundy's letter correcting his evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, in reference to what Mr. J. R. Stratton said respecting his (Mr. Grundy) giving evidence, was written. No coercion was used towards Mr. Grundy in writing this letter. Witness had suggested the closing part of the letter, denying that Mr. Stratton had told witness "not to complicate or implicate the Government in his evidence. He gave the letter of any kind. The denial could have been gotten from Mr. Grundy in twenty different forms, so positive was he that the words were not used which he said were used before the Public Accounts Committee.

VOLUNTARILY AND WITHOUT COERCION

Mr. Geo. Edmison, barrister, had been frequently at the registry office and had found the business done accurately and satisfactorily. The work was well done.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, of Dennistoun & Stevenson, had frequent occasion to go to the registry office and had found the business satisfactorily done. Mr. Morrow was generally present and conducted the business. He thought the work was carefully done. Never knew of any change in an instrument that would work a wrong.

To Mr. Sawers—Consider Mr. Grundy an excellent officer.

Mr. G. W. Hatton had found the work of the registry office well done. As far as his experience went the work was better done than in most other offices or would compare favorably with the Toronto office. Had no recollection of any instruments from his office being changed after registration.

To Mr. Sawers—never heard any complaint of Mr. Grundy's clerical work being unsatisfactory.

Mr. L. M. Hayes said that he had left a deed at the registry office to be kept for registration till the mortgage, which was part of the "consideration," was ready so that they could be registered simultaneously. Witness found Mr. Morrow attentive to his duties and the work of the office well done. He had known of errors being corrected in deeds, suggested in some cases by Mr. Grundy, but he was not aware of corrections being made after being registered.

Mr. Hall was re-called and the books containing copies of the "Tully" instrument were produced, and Mr. Hall's attention was called by Mr. Sawers to the fact that the words "of part" were copied in one of the copies in Mr. Grundy's handwriting, but the words "of part" were left out in the other book, copied by another clerk in the registrar's employ.

Mr. Hall stated that the words "of part" in the copy made by Mr. Grundy were not in the original.

AFTERNOON SITTING.

Mr. W. F. Morrow, son of the registrar, called by Mr. Sawers testified that he had been in the registry office over a year. He was a fairly good copyist, as good, he thought, as the average. He had heard no complaints of Mr. Grundy's discharge of duties, but had heard complaints of Mr. Grundy's betraying secrets of the office, in reference to documents.

There being no other witnesses, the commissioner said "I suppose I may declare the investigation closed."

Mr. Sawers said that he had some documentary evidence, sections of the Registry Act, which he put in.

Mr. Sawers having brought up the question of the cause of Mr. Grundy's dismissal, the commission directed Mr. Grundy to enter the box to prove the authenticity of his letter in the Empire, but Mr. Sawers would not allow him to be examined and told the commissioner that it was his duty to put Mr. Morrow in the box.

The commissioner pointed out that any lack of evidence as to cause of Mr. Grundy's dismissal would only strengthen his (Grundy's) case.

Mr. Sawers declared it "an outrage" that the commission had been appointed to inquire into the cause of Mr. Grundy's dismissal and Mr. Morrow's evidence was not taken on that point.

The commission then rose and the investigation closed.

LACROSSE.

A full turn-out of all members of the Peterborough lacrosse club, both juniors and seniors, is requested for this evening.

Peterborough plays Port Hope on the P.A.A.A. grounds, Ashburnham, on Friday, June 8th, at 3.30 o'clock, in order to give as many as possible an opportunity to be present.

The junior lacrosse club plays Millbrook here on Tuesday next. A good game is expected.

Several of last year's players are expected home shortly. Their services on the team have been missed, and on their arrival they will find their old positions awaiting them.

RIFLE PRACTICE.

The weekly practice of the Association will take place to-morrow and the shooting will commence at 7 a.m. Any person that cannot shoot at this hour can have a target by applying to Mr. Lush at Capt. Miller's shop before 12 a.m.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & CO.

A Partial List.

The following is a partial list of the goods which will be offered for sale at China Hall's annual art sale every night this week:

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $13 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself.—the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $13, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 00
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
3 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

Read our advertisements. We are the people that quote the lowest prices. We excel every other store on George street in actual Bargains. The cheaper we sell, the more we sell, and the more we sell the cheaper we sell.

TRIAL OF JOHN R. HOOPER.

New Witnesses Will Give Evidence at the Second Trial on Monday.

MONTREAL, May 30.—The opening of the summer assizes of the district of Three Rivers on Monday next will recall one of the most famous trials in criminal court annals in this province, for an indictment will be laid before the grand jury of that district charging John Reginald Hooper with having attempted to murder his wife at Louiseville on the morning of Wednesday, September 13 last.

This famous case, it will be remembered, was first brought to light by the arrest of the prisoner on a charge of having poisoned his wife on a C. P. R. train near Terrebonne on Monday, September 17. The accused has been in prison since the beginning of October, and has been at Three Rivers ever since his acquittal at Joliette on the charge of murder on January 20.

It is expected that much of the evidence at the coming trial will be new, as a number of witnesses not at the trial for the capital crime have been summoned.

Political Affairs in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 30.—The Legislature has been prorogued until Thursday, July 7. It is believed that prorogation will result in an understanding with the British Government which will ensure the passing of the new revenue bill, the old bill expiring June 10. This is necessary, else the colony's finances will be completely disorganized. The British Government will probably compel the Whitewayites to consent to passage by threat of passing an act themselves. Colonial Secretary Morine has taken two more libel suits of $20,000 against the Telegram for accusing him of starting sectarianism and stuffing ballot boxes.

Still Remain Closed.

MONTREAL, May 30.—There is no truth in the report that the Grand Trunk workshops will be re-opened on June 11. The statement is denied by the officials here, who stated that it is not known when the shops will be re-opened. The only action so far taken by the company is to remove the freight embargo in the Niagara district, which was decided upon owing to the strong opposition of the Vanderbilt lines.

Cheese Factory Burned.

TIVERTON, May 30.—The Climax cheese factory was burned yesterday. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $5,000. It was insured for $1,800.

Mail Delivery by Trolley.

MONTREAL, May 30.—The Street Railway Company here is organizing a mail service to be conducted by a staff of clerks on the electric cars to points in the suburbs.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 30, 1894.

Returns of Grand Trunk traffic for the week ending May 26 show a decrease for 1894 of $44,450.

A cable from Liverpool says: "Supplies of Canadian and United States cattle heavy. Prices have improved, and quoted at advance of ½c. Finest steers 10½c, and good to choice 10c.

Street receipts of grain continue small and prices unchanged. Wheat is quoted at 82c or white, at 61c for red and at 58c for goose. Barley dull at 41c to 42c. Oats at 40c to 41c, and peas at 66c.

Chicago wheat market was weak on lower cables and free offerings. The close showed a net loss for the day of ½c. Corn closed about steady. Oats were firm, closing ½c up.

At the opening of the New York Stock Exchange Sugar declined to 99¼, rose to 101 7-8 and receded to 100 3-8 to 100 7 8. The stock is still sensitive to Washington rumors. Chicago Gas was active and made a net gain of 1 7-8 for the day. The general list rose on reports of London buying.

At Buffalo eight loads of cattle were held over on sale, all fresh arrivals being consigned through; market steady. Sheep and lambs—Fresh arrivals light, but with those held over there were 10 loads on sale, nearly all sheep. Choice to best export wethers, $4.50 to $4.75; common to fair, $3 to $3.50; choice to fancy lambs, $4.90 to $5; common to fair, $4.25 to $4.50; springers, good to extra, $5 to $6. Hogs—Yorkers, good to choice, $5.05 to $5.10; good mediums, $5 to $5.05; choice heavy, $4.95 to $5; roughs, $4 to $4.50; stags, $3 to $3.40.

An occasional bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla does more to correct the tendency of the blood to accumulate humors, and keep the organs sound and healthy, than any other treatment we know of. "Prevention is better than cure." Try it this month.

Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco has attained an enormous and still increasing sale.

THE WILSON TARIFF BILL.

Amendments to the Lumber Schedule Discussed and Rejected.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The tariff bill was taken up in the Senate, the question being on the amendments offered by Senators Hale (Rep., Me.,) and Pfeffer (Pop., Kan.,) to the lumber schedule. The matter was discussed at great length, and finally came to a vote. The amendments offered by Senators Pfeffer and Hale were rejected, and then Mr. Hale offered another amendment reducing the existing duty on sawed lumber from $2 to $1 per thousand feet. This amendment was also rejected.

After some remarks by Mr. Hill (Dem., New York), defending his votes for free lead and free iron ore, and declaring that he so voted without any idea of gratifying any lead trust or any iron trust,

Mr. Allen (Pop., Nebraska) offered an amendment putting on the free list logs, lumber, shingles and such building materials as are commonly used in the construction of dwelling houses, barns and fences. Without action on Mr. Allen's amendment the bill was laid aside with the arrangement by unanimous consent that the lumber schedule will be disposed of to-morrow without any further discussion.

Monticello Murderer Arrested.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., May 30.—Hiram Osterhout has been arrested by Sheriff Beecher on a charge of having murdered Jacob Moore and Jane Slack in February. Osterhout is a man of singularly forbidding appearance. He was surprised by the sheriff before he was out of bed, and is now sharing a compartment of the jail with the little Italian cook, who, in self defence, shot two men in Mountaindale the other day. The grand jury is now in session, and it is expected that Osterhout will be indicted for the crime.

Against the Anglo-Belgian Treaty.

PARIS, May 30.—The Paris press are generally agreed in urging France to checkmate the Anglo-Belgian agreement in regard to the Congo frontier. The Siecle prints an interview with M. Deloncle, in which that gentleman says that the matter is not a question of diplomatic reserve. The time will come, he says, when Great Britain will understand that France is the country that can most easily make its will felt in Africa.

Earthquake in Italy.

ROME, May 30.—The town of Viggianello, in Basilicata, was shaken by an earthquake yesterday. A number of houses were destroyed, but so far as learned no persons were killed. The terrified inhabitants, fearing other shocks, have fled from their homes and are encamped in the fields near the town.

Band of Brigands Broken Up.

ROME, May 30.—Premier Crispi announced in the Chamber of Deputies that the government had received word from Sardinia that the government troops had attacked and broken up a formidable band of brigands near Sassari. Several brigands were wounded and a number were captured.

Business Paralyzed in Argentine.

BUENOS AYRES, May 30.—Four brokers and two merchants in this city have failed with large liabilities. Business has become completely paralyzed owing to the continued rise in the premium on gold and the shrinkage in exports.

Germany Utters a Protest.

BERLIN, May 30.—The government has formally protested against the Anglo-Belgian treaty on the grounds that an international convention having fixed the Congo frontiers, only an international agreement is entitled to modify them.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 69 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

DISASTROUS FLOOD IN CHINA.

Nearly 2,000 People Reported to Have Lost Their Lives.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A Shanghai correspondent writes under date of May 5: At Yangtsekiang at Hanyang, the populous city opposite Hankow, on April 21, a sudden freshet swept from the Han river. The first rush presented almost the appearance of a wall of water. The flood, strewn with wreckage of all kinds, rose six feet an hour. Seven hundred large junks and boats were dashed to pieces.

The loss of life is appalling, the estimate being that nearly 2,000 men, women and children, the most of whom were sleeping in their beds, were drowned.

Officials reports received record the recovery of 1,500 bodies between Younglo and Hankow, while many others are known to have been washed ashore and buried. Three hundred bodies were thrown up on the bank at one point. At several places where the river was narrow the water rose 27 feet in as many hours.

NOT A MONOSYLLABIC LANGUAGE.

Chinese Made Up of 60,000 Characters Not Difficult to Learn.

There are about 60,000 characters in the Chinese language proper, but the average Chinaman no more learns all of those characters than the every-day person in this country learns the 100,000 words in the English language. The Chinaman, however, learns on the average more than we in a similar position in life. A Chinaman who can neither read nor write is a rarity, according to the New York Evening Post. Chinese is not a monosyllabic language, as many suppose, and it is impossible to utter in Chinese any but the shortest sentences in monosyllables. In writing, the Chinaman makes one complicated but integral character for each word, but that word may be properly spoken in two, three or four syllables. His syllables are divided by no longer intervals than are his words, and that is what makes the language sound to a foreigner like a singsong jargon. We do not know whether he is telling a story or attempting a song. The Chinese perhaps thinks the same thing of an American, who bites off his words and swallows them, or telescopes one into the other. Business men thrown in contact with Chinese merchants who speak pure Chinese say that it is not difficult to learn. Instead of twenty-six letters, not including the useless &, the Chinese have 500 or 600 syllables, and these are combined into various forms to make the 60,000 words in their "dictionary." These syllables vary in meaning according to the tone in which they are spoken or the strokes used in writing them.

A Chinaman can unite any two of the 600 syllables and make an intelligent word. This is not the case with the English language. This flexibility is perhaps owing to the shortness of their words (seldom more than three syllables) and the tone or strokes belonging to the syllables when spoken or written. A syllable may mean one of a hundred things, and its particular meaning is limited by placing another syllable of similar significance before or after it, using its particular tone, or stroke when writing. Sometimes the syllables are uttered in such rapid succession that they seemingly form one word, but the trained Chinese ear notes the tones, and he is easily understood—the marvelous subtleties of accent conveying the expression to a nicety. He does not have to state a proposition, and then, in order to make himself clear, restate it by the usual "or, in other words." There are no "other words" with the Chinese. The tone gives the meaning. The Chinese have a system of 214 radicals, having various strokes from one to seventeen, which are combined with the characters. Each radical has a separate meaning, generally denoting the simplest object, as man, sky, earth, water, king. The student first learn these, which answer to the A B C; he next studies the syllables, or combinations, and thus he has learned to read and spell. Grouping the syllables into words depends upon his powers of speech or of composition in writing. What is popularly known as "slang" is not known to the Chinese. Their language is sufficiently copious without resorting to the brutal forms of speech. The most withering contempt or the keenest of satire may be expressed in the politest terms.

Edibility of Ants.

The formic acid of ants is said to impart to them an agreeable flavor. An entomologist recollects when himself and boy companions relished a "lemonade" of crushed ants mixed with sugar and water; and a correspondent of Insect Life refers to a man who is in the habit of eating large black ants from rotten wood. Another man traced to little red ants a pleasant acid taste of a piece of pie eaten in the dark.

A Queer Thing About Babies.

"It's a queer thing about children—babies," said the proud father. "If I say 'cat' to my boy the nearest he can get to repeating it is 'tat,' but if I make up a word like 'oobijoobie' that youngster can speak it more fluently than I can."—Harper's Bazaar.

Lord Salisbury's Speech on the Agitation Against the Lords.

BARONESS ROQUES' APPEAL

She Asks Aid From the Press to Secure the Liberation of Her Daughter—Pleuro-Pneumonia—Earl Jersey to Represent England at Ottawa.

LONDON, May 30.—Lord Salisbury in a speech in London last evening referred to the agitation against the House of Lords. He said he believed that it was perfectly hopeless to try to sweep away the House of Lords and equally hopeless to try to reform the House of Lords according to Lord Rosebery's plan. He expected to hear throughout the remainder of his life that the united strength of the Liberal party was going to abolish the Lords, and he ventured to prophesy that the Liberal party would live upon this promise for many years.

John Morley, he said, seemed to think that the Conservatives regarded the Lords as a bulwark to resist the current of popular passion. He (the speaker) would not claim any such power for the Lords. He believed that nothing could oppose a bulwark to popular passion except an arrangement for deliberate and careful reference of any matter in dispute to the votes of the people, like the arrangements existing in the United States and Switzerland. But that was not the greatest use of any second or upper parliamentary chamber. What such a chamber had to meet was not popular passion but parliamentary intrigue.

It was the function of the second chamber to ensure that the concessions made by the government to secure the votes of its supporting groups did not result in legislation dangerous to the public weal. If the country desired to hear less of the House of Lords and to make it less dominant it must take care that the actions of the House of Commons harmonized with the wishes of the people, especially with the wishes of the people of England. Any House of Commons heartily backed by the people of England would never have much reason to complain of the House of Lords.

APPEAL FOR MRS. MAYBRICK.

Baroness Roques Asks the Aid of the Press to Secure Her Daughter's Liberty.

LONDON, May 30.—An appeal has been made by the Baroness Roques, the mother of Mrs. Maybrick, to the press of England and America, asking their aid in behalf of her daughter, now serving a life sentence in Woking prison for the murder of her husband. The appeal is accompanied by a pamphlet containing the latest evidence gathered in favor of the prisoner. Included in this evidence is an affidavit dated February 19, 1894, in which it is declared that the prescription found by the baroness in the Bible formerly owned by the late James Maybrick is identical with the prescription which includes arsenic compounded by an apothecary in Paris for Maybrick in 1878. The baroness attributes the refusal of the Home Office to reopen the case of her daughter to the fact that the Home Office authorities are in possession of adverse evidence which they have obtained secretly. She appeals for the assistance of the press as an American and as a mother.

The Pleuro-Pneumonia Question.

LONDON, May 30.—In the House of Commons Mr. Henry Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, in reply to a question put by a member with reference to the exclusion of Canadian cattle from Britain, said that the lungs of an animal which had been landed on the 20th inst. and slaughtered on the 23rd were found to present, what had been stated, as an appearance of pleuro-pneumonia. This, however, could only be treated as an unconfirmed report at present. A most careful and searching examination was being conducted, and a number of persons whose evidence could be regarded as of the highest value, had been asked to assist at the inspection and take careful notes of the appearances presented, but no decision had yet been reached as to whether those appearances justified the suspicion that pleuro-pneumonia had been traced or otherwise.

Imperial Representative at the Conference.

LONDON, May 30.—The selection of the Earl of Jersey to represent the Imperial Government at the intercolonial conference, which opens on June 22 at Ottawa, is generally applauded. The Earl of Jersey has a keen sympathy for everything which has a tendency to unite Canada and Australia, and when the Governor of New South Wales he learned of the need which Australia has for both cable and steamship lines to connect the colony with other parts of the empire.

Liverpool Coal Heavers Strike.

LIVERPOOL, May 30.—The Liverpool coal heavers have struck against the Cunard lines employing non-union men. The strike will, in all probability, extend to other steamship companies. The employers' association, having threatened to import laborers, the Dockers' Union responds with the threat of general strike.

Although it is not claimed that Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures every ill to which flesh is heir, yet, as a matter of fact, it comes nearer doing this than any other medicine ever compounded. In purifying the blood it removes the source of nearly all disorders of the human system.

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

Fresh lots coming in to keep sizes and qualities suitable to the season. Better than that—prices are going down and qualities going up.

MR. STRATTON'S SIXTH MEETING.

A RALLY IN THE TEMPERANCE HALL, SMITH.

Public Questions Ably Dealt With—The Financial Position Clearly Set Forth—A Splendid Record—Mr. Roger Deals with the License Reduction—General Topics Discussed—The Meeting Encouraging to Mr. Stratton's Candidature.

A largely attended meeting of the electors was held in the Temperance Hall, Smith, on Tuesday night.

Mr Thomas Young took the chair and called upon Mr. G. M. Roger to address the electors.

Mr. Roger, after after a few complimentary remarks, addressed himself to the temperance question, for one reason, because he had been personally concerned in the promotion of that interest. He said that the local aspect of the subject had been brought into prominence by the proposed reduction of the licenses in Peterborough. Mr. Roger read the sections of the Liquor License Act under which the Peterborough town council and the License Commissioners had acted in reference to the reduction of the number of licenses to be issued in the town of Peterborough, which sections showed that each had acted within their own proper sphere of legal action and that neither had clashed with the other. The local organ of the Conservative party, Mr. Roger said, had accused him of trying to shield the commissioners for the benefit of Mr. Stratton. He had not done so. He did not entirely sympathize with the action of the commissioners. For his part, Mr. Roger said, he had not hesitated to say that he would have preferred that the commissioners should have made the reductions at once, but they had acted within the law and their methods made no difference to the interests of temperance, as long as reductions sought for were made. The result would be the same. The commissioners

WERE GIVING THE REDUCTION SOUGHT

in their own way. Mr. Roger called attention to the fact which he wished to emphasize, that the parties that were raising so much clamour about the action of the commissioners and professed so much interest in temperance had no right to the capital they were trying to make out of the circumstances. First, because temperance interests were not affected; so long as men were licensed to sell, it made no difference to the public whether they were selling under renewed or extended licenses. Secondly, because the record of the opponents of the Government upon the question would not stand investigation from a temperance point of view. Mr. Roger told how in 1892 the late Geo. Hilliard and the late W. J. Mason, Dr. Fife, himself and others, representing the temperance element of the town, had waited upon the town council and had presented and supported a petition signed by over 900 of the citizens of the town, asking for the passage of a by-law, limiting the number of liquor licenses to be issued in the town, showing at that time that Peterborough issued more licenses in proportion to population than Hamilton, Ottawa, Guelph, Brockville, Woodstock, etc., and also showing that the best interests of the town were suffering thereby. What was the action of the gentlemen of the party that was now trying to make capital out of a new-born zeal for the interests of temperance. Mr. Winch, the Conservative candidate, and the chairman of his general committe, Mr. T. E. Bradburn, and his platform mouthpiece and chief supporter, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, who were then members of the council, voted straight against the reduction of the number of licenses and as represented by the petition of nearly a thousand citizens. It was not until these now ardent temperance advocates (?) were out of the council that any limit could be secured to the license issue. And this was the candidate and these were the gentlemen that were now denouncing the actions of the Commissioners and professing a great interest in temperance, which, as Mr. Roger showed, had in the past been dealt with by them in so hostile a manner. Mr. Roger went on to show that the record of the Mowat government on temperance had kept pace with public sentiment. Mr. Mowat promised prohibition, as soon as it was decided that he had the power. The legislation of the Mowat government had resulted in the promotion of temperance, since 1875 the number of licenses issued had decreased from 5418, to 3300 in 1893, the number of licenses was decreased to one license for every 633 of the population, and for what the Mowat Government has done and what it has pledged itself to do, it is deserving of support for its record in the interest of temperance. Mr. Roger referred to the ballot in reference to the charge that it was not secret. It was a secret ballot, and the best in existence. The Ontario ballot was the ballot used in England and the Australian colonies. It had never been shown that the secrecy of the ballot had been violated. Reference was made to Mr. Meredith's proposal for biennial sessions, for which he got the model from the United States. Mr. Meredith's plea was that biennial sessions would be a saving, but Mr. Stratton's proposal to economize by reducing the number of members one half was a better and a safer plan. Mr. Roger closed a very effective speech by urging the electors to give the Mowat Government a renewal of confidence, through a hearty support of Mr. Stratton, the candidate of the government in this riding, whose eight years of excellent service to West Peterborough gave him a strong title to the hearty support which he (Mr. Roger) felt sure he would receive on the 26th of June.

TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES

MR. STRATTON'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Stratton began his address by referring to the varied political platforms upon which the candidates of Mr. Meredith had appealed to the people upon the last few elections, and contrasted them with policy of the Mowat Government, whose steady policy had been for twenty-two years wise and echnomical Government in the interests of every class of the people of Ontario. The Mowat Government had well-earned the unexampled continuance of the public confidence it enjoys, not only by virtue of wise administration of its trust in every department, but most especially in the management of our finances. Mr. Stratton said that he would make extended reference to the finances of the province on account of their great importance.

Mr. Stratton then took up the question of

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

He said that the financial policy of the Mowat Government has been characterised by the most careful economy in all Provincial expenditures that are under administrative control, and by a liberal expenditure of surplus revenue for local services of various kinds, which, but for the relief thus afforded, would have greatly increased the burden of municipal taxation. The absolutely necessary expense of carrying on the Government of the Province absorbs a comparatively small part of the Provincial revenue. It has been the policy of the Mowat Government to return the rest of it annually to the people, instead of hoarding it up as an addition to the large surplus already in the Provincial Treasury, a policy which once had the approval of Mr. Meredith.

Mr. Stratton pointed out that independent journals and authorities criticised the financial administration in a most complimentary manner. The Mail, in a criticism ot the Provincial Treasurer's financial statement, said:

"The Provincial estimates for 1890, which were submitted in the Assembly yesterday provide for a gross expenditure of $3,420,000. The ordinary expenditure will be $2,829,000, the capital expenditure $568,000, and that on account of refunds $25,000. The gross expenditure of Quebec for the fiscal year 1890-1 will exceed five millions. The general conduct of the Ontario Government is not beyond criticism, quite the contrary; but it must be allowed that its management of the finances has been thrifty, judicious and clean." (Feb. 13th, 1890.

And on April 11th, 1890, the Mail said editorially:—

"The Government can also make out a good case for itself in regard to its administration of the finances. After dealing liberally by the municipalities and exhibiting a creditable enterprise in building railways and erecting public institutions, Mr. Mowat is able to show a comfortable surplus. Instead of having a surplus of five or six millions in the treasury, Quebec has a debt of thirty millions, and, in spite of the direct taxes imposed on commercial corporations and of other revenue-raising devices, a fresh loan is inevitable. It must also be admitted that Mr. Mowat has passed many progressive measures affecting the general interests of the community, AND THAT ON THE WHOLE HIS MANAGEMENT HAS BEEN CLEAN AND FREE FROM SCANDAL. These are POWERFUL reasons for GIVING HIM A NEW TERM."—(April 11th, 1890.)

The Montreal Star a newspaper not friendly to the Liberal party referring to the Ontario budget speech says:—

ONTARIO FINANCES.

Ontario is to be heartily congratulated upon her financial position. She has a surplus this year of ordinary revenue over ordinary expenditure of $312,768 and a total surplus of interest yielding assets over liabilities of $6,135,489. She seems to have a million and a half of dollars in the banks at interest, including a balance on current account of $75,016. This splendid position is the result of a business-like management of the province's timber limits and other resources of revenue and a strictly economical and honest administration.

ONTARIO'S SURPLUS.

The financial record of the Mowat Government is undoubtedly the strongest cable that has bound to it thus far the approval of the people. It is a great comfort to Ontario folk to hear their Finance Minister announce that the assets of the province exceed the liabilities by over six millions—especially when they remember that all the other provinces talk—not of surpluses but of debts. But the fact remains that Mowat's Finance Minister can announce a surplus while the rest of us are compelled to be content with putting the brakes on our debts. There thus grows up a tendency to judge Mowat by our sins rather than by his virtues that cannot but be a great boon to him.—Montreal Star (Conservative), March 17th, 1894.

Again the Toronto Evening News referring to the erection of the new Parliament Buildings says:

Under the heading "No Room for Boodle There. The Evening News (Conservative) says, "The Lionel Yorke contract for the carpenter work on the new Parliament buildings was $9,700 and the extras amounted to $300. On the $78,800 contract for plumbing, heating and gas-fitting there was an additional claim for $800. And $12,000 was allowed over the price first agreed upon for the $732,000 job on excavation, masonry and brickwork. In all, on close upon $1,000,000 worth of work, the extras, over the sum fixed, amounted to only 1½ per cent. Whatever else may be said about the Mowat Government or the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, these facts, at all events, are very much to the credit of the Ministry. They show the extreme care exercised in framing the contracts in the first place and the firmness with which contractors were held to the terms afterwards. It is doubtful if an equally good showing can be made in connection with the erection of any other great public building on this continent."

The policy of the Liberal party was a policy of relief. When the Liberal party came in office in 1871 there were two courses open to them in dealing with that portion of the annual revenue which is in excess of the sum absolutely required for the public service of the Province—that is to say, for Civil Government, Legislation, and Administration of Justice. They might have adopted a policy of hoarding up the annual surpluses and allowing them to accumulate in the Treasury, throwing upon the people the whole cost of Education, of the local administration of Justice, of the maintenance of convicts and lunatics, of the relief of the poor and the diseased, and of the construction and maintenance of colonization roads. Had they done this they might now have been able to show a total of nearly sixty millions of dollars, for the accumulated sum would have been itself a source of steadily increasing revenue. They preferred to take the alternative course of relieving the burden of municipal taxation, by expending not merely the surplus revenue of each year as it accrued, but also a large part of the accumulated surplus with which they were called upon to deal when they took upon themselves the task of administering the affairs of the Province. Referring to the one great feature of the Mowat Government financial record,

THE HANDSOME SURPLUS.

Mr. Stratton said that when the Liberal party came into office in 1871 they found in the Treasury and accumulated surplus of cash and trust funds amounting to nearly seven millions of dollars ($7,000,000), and that by an Act passed the previous session a million and a half of dollars ($1,500,000) had been appropriated in aid of railway construction. This sum was subsequently increased by several other Acts until it amounted to a total of $8,500,000, by far the greater portion of which has already been paid.

In 1873 an Act was passed appropriating out of the accumulated surplus nearly three and a half millions of dollars, to be divided amongst the various municipalities, and used as a means of wiping out the indebtedness of some of them to the Municipal Loan Fund.

Each year a large and ever increasing amount has been spent out of current revenue on services the cost of which would otherwise have greatly increased the burden of municipal taxation. Even these payments did not usually exhaust the annual revenue of the Province, and there has generally been a surplus to add to that already accumulated. Occasionally the expenditure under the Supply Bill has exceeded the revenue, making it necessary to draw to that extent on the surpluses of previous years.

This statement was submitted, as giving the ordinary revenue and expenditure under the Supply Bill for the years 1873-93 inclusive, and shows the annual surpluses and deficits:—

Net addition to the surplus from 1873 to 1893 out of revenue $4,993,973

There was STILL ANOTHER ASSET

to be considered.

Owing to the recognition by the Dominion Government in 1884 of a debt of $5,397,503, due from the Dominion to the late Province of Canada, an addition was made in 1885 to the surplus of the Province, to the extent of $2,848,289, which is Ontario's share of the above sum under the Quebec Award.

The following statement of the Provincial assets, liabilities and surplus at the close of 1893, was also submitted:—

Investments, Interest-bearing and Cash Assets of the Province.

Though the Opposition critics by to convince themselves and others that there was no surplus, yet the figures which were official and correct, showed that there was a VERY IMPORTANT SURPLUS.

Owing to a variety of causes, the speaker pointed out, the surplus in the Treasury fluctuated from year to year, but a consideration of the following would show that there was no likelihood of it being speedily wiped out:—

Year.	Surplus.	Year.	Surplus.
1873	$4,232,294	1884	$6,339,686
1874	5,756,352	1885	6,765,080
1875	5,036,376	1886	6,630,330
1876	4,873,203	1887	6,665,262
1877	4,752,796	1888	6,734,649
1878	4,430,992	1889	6,427,352
1879	4,309,027	1890	5,899,995
1880	4,290,068	1891	5,285,515
1881	4,509,591	1892	5,838,758
1882	4,825,586	1893	6,135,480
1883	4,384,241

While the presence of this large surplus in the Treasury was no reason for reckless or useless expenditure, it was a reason for not adopting the policy of increasing the burden of direct taxation by throwing on the municipalities the cost of any of the services of which the Province at present relieved the ratepayers by means of grants for education, for administration of justice, for agricultural societies and mechanics' institutes, for the maintenance of convicts and lunatics, in aid of charitable institutions, etc., etc., etc.

To be more specific Mr. Stratton pointed out that the annual expenditure of the Province, under the Supply Bill, was incurred under the following heads which showed the total amounts spent on the various services in 1893:—

Civil Government	$241,621 53
Legislation	138,924 82
Administration of Justice	389,652 34

As to

INCREASED EXPENDITURE

Mr. Stratton remarked that it had been made a charge against the Mowat Government that some of these items of expenditure were larger now than they were under the Sandfield Macdonald Government of 1871. Bearing in mind that "increased expenditure" in some cases means really "increased payments out of a surplus revenue to keep down local taxation," it was, he said, instructive to compare certain items of expenditure in 1871 with the same items in 1893. In the following statement the payments under the head of "Administration of Justice" included only the amounts handed over directly to County Treasurers to pay part of the expenses of holding courts in the different localities; the payments under the heads of "Education," "Agriculture and Arts," and "Hospitals and Charities," are also direct grants:

Service.	1871.	1893.	Increase.
Education	$351,306	$662,520	$311,214
Agriculture and Arts	76,381	169,573	93,192
Hospitals and Charities	40,230	164,806	124,576
Public Asylums, &c	171,423	778,839	607,416
Administration of Justice	104,049	138,569	34,520
Colonization Roads	55,409	112,166	56,757
Total	$798,828	$2,026,563	$1,227,735

These figures, Mr. Stratton said, should be considered in the light of the facts that in Sandfield Macdonald's time the population was only 1,600,000 as against 2,140,000 at the present time, and that there were now public institutions maintained and that therefore the expense was necessarily greater and that there was the following figures would show. The total amount of the increased grants for the same services under the Mowat Administration, as compared with what they would have been if no increase had taken place:

MORE MONEY RETURNED TO THE PEOPLE

	1871.	Total for 23 years at the rate of 1871.
Education	$ 351,306	$8,080,038
Agriculture and arts	76,381	1,755,763
Hospital and charities	40,230	925,290
Asylums, etc.,	171,423	3,942,729
Administration of Justice	104,049	2,393,127
Colonization Roads	55,409	1,274,407
Total	$798,828	$18,373,044
	Total of actual grants for 23 years.	T'l increase in 23 years.
Education	$12,386,617	$4,306,579
Agriculture and Arts	2,807,583	1,050,825
Hospitals and charities	2,049,034	1,123,054
Asylums, etc	12,442,803	8,449,864
Admin. of Justice	3,108,034	714,907
Colonization Roads	2,493,831	1,319,414
Total	$35,287,637	$16,914,643

This Government had therefore returned to the people for the various services mentioned, no less a sum than $16,914,643 more than they would have done if they had continued the scale of distribution adopted by the Sandfield McDonald Government.

By reference to the following expenditures, it would be seen that the chief part of the increase in the expenditure was due to increased payments that are really part of a regular distribution of surplus revenue and to the creation of new services which come under the same description. Amongst the latter may be specified the School of Practical Science, Inspection of Division Courts, the Agricultural College, the Central Prison, the Niagara Falls Police, Short hand reporting in the Courts, Revision of Voters' Lists by County Judges, County Model Schools, the License Branch, the Mercer Reformatory, the Board of Health, the Bureau of Industries, Bureau of Mines, Inspection of Judicial Offices, Farmers' Institutes, and many others, all of which have been established since 1871. It was impossible to carry on these various services, to maintain new and enlarged lunatic asylums and to provide for the administration of justice over the increasing area of the newly-settled districts, without greatly increasing the annual expenditure. If the Ontario Government had, as its more reckless opponents claimed, been extravagant and wasteful in its expenditure, it would be thought that the Opposition would have tried to bring about retrenchment. But they saw little chance for objecting as shown by the scarcity of proposals to REDUCE THE EXPENDITURE.

Mr. Stratton pointed out that the best evidence that the annual expenditure under the Mowat Administration was unimpeachable was the character of the proposals made by the Opposition from year to year in the form of amendments to the Supply Bill. Taking the years 1883-1890, which included the whole of the two Parliamentary terms, the proposed reductions were year by year as follows:

In 1884: To strike out the sum of $2,750 appropriated to meet one half of the cost of a dam on Burnt River.

In 1885: (1) To reduce the sum appropriated for sessional clerks by $5,000; (2) to reduce the vote for immigration purposes by $9,000; (3) to strike out the sum of $10,000 appropriated to pay the cost of Mr. Caldwell in maintaining the public interests against Mr. McLaren in the Mississippi River, known as the Streams Bill case.

In 1886: To strike out the sum of $1,400 appropriated to pay the costs of the Returning Officer in East Simcoe.

In 1887: (1) To strike out $1,200 appropriation for Private Secretary of Lieut.-Governor; (2) and voted against the Immigration appropriation, $16,900.

In 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, no reduction was proposed by the Opposition.

In 1892, the only item objected to was the sum of $350, being an addition to the salary of the Provincial License Inspector.

In 1893, $42,275 in all was objected to. This was made up of the following items:—$2,400 for salary of an additional Inspector of Public Institutions; $1,850 for salary of Director of Teachers' Institutes; $2,000 for salaries of Teachers in Ontario School of Pedagogy; $525 on account of Immigration agency at Liverpool, England; $500 for salary of an assistant in Department of Natural History at the Agricultural College, and $35,000 the total sum voted for surveys of Townships in new Districts. Every dollar of the expenditure objected to was amply justified and in the public interest.

The following table, thus shows the amount granted for the public service each year under the Supply Bill and also the amount by which the Opposition asked to have it reduced:

	Amount of Supply.	Amount objected to.
1884	$2,891,552	$ 2,750
1885	2,937,86[illegible]	24,900
1886	3,136,651	1,400
1887	3,156,771	15,100
1888	3,206,804	.....
1889	3,440,040	.....
1890	3,625,293	.....
1891	3,622,427	.....
1892	3,599,907	350
1893	3,571,789	42,275
Total	$33,197,114	$89,775

In other words, out of total proposed appropriation in ten years of $33,197,114 the Opposition objected to only $89,775, a trifle over two mills on the dollar. Another way of arriving at an estimate of the economy and and thought of the methods and the results of the financial administration of the Mowat Government, was by a comparison with, say the neighbouring province of Quebec and the Dominion.

The following table indicated the rate at which the cost of civil government and legislation increased in Ontario, Quebec and the Dominion, respectively, from 1873 to 1893, inclusive:—

Civil Government.	1873.	1893.	Increase.	Per c't.
Ontario	$175,964	$241,621	$65,707	37

ANOTHER COMPARISON.

The following comparison of certain items of annual expenditure in Ontario with the same items in Quebec, in 1893, was very instructive. The first table included the sums spent in carrying on the public service of the Province, and in these it will be seen the expenditure of Quebec is higher than that of Ontario, though the population is less. The second table included appropriations that were intended to lessen the burden of local taxation, and in these Ontario was the more liberal:—

TABLE I.

Service.	Quebec.	Ontario.	Excess in Quebec.
Civil Government	$251,908	$241,621	$10,287
Legislation	199,709	138,924	60,845
Administration of Justice	466,633	380,652	85,981

TABLE II.

	Quebec.	Ontario.	Excess in Ontario.
Prisons and Asylums	$300,000	$778,839	$478,839
Education	371,960	662,520	290,560

FURTHER PROOF OF ECONOMY.

To make still clearer, if possible, the economy with which the finances of Ontario have been managed during the Mowat Administration, Mr. Stratton invited his hearers to look at the sums voted under the Supply Bills of Ontario, Quebec, and the Dominion in the years 1873 and 1893 respectively:

	1873.	1893.	Increase	Per-centage.
Ontario	$ 2,460,212	$ 3,571,789	$ 1,111,577	45
Quebec	1,718,750	4,361,397	2,647,647	154
Dominion	19,174,648	44,998,287	25,763,639	134

During 1893 Ontario realized the handsome sum of $379,206.79, as interest on her investments, while her less fortunate sister, the Province of Quebec, paid in interest and charges on her public debt no less a sum than $1,445,031.34.

Lastly, Quebec started with a clean sheet in 1867, and she has since piled up a debt of $25,000,000. Ontario, liberal as her expenditures have been, out of surplus revenues, has accumulated in the same time a surplus of $6,135,480, a difference of THIRTY-ONE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS!

THE GOVERNMENT'S TIMBER POLICY.

Mr. Stratton went on to justify the wise and prudent management of the timber resources of the province, which has realized more from the sales of its timber than any country upon the [illegible]. If every dollar had been sold the money received therefor was converted into permanent assets, in the form of necessary public buildings. A reference to the abolition of the official residence of the Lieutenant-Governor brought out the fact that a Conservative government erected the buildings, and if there is any blame the Conservative party is to blame for the existence of the buildings. In connection with the abolition, Mr. Mowat proposes that the general election was an opportunity to elicit public sentiment as to the abolition of Government House. Mr. Stratton went on to point out that the Mowat Government had done more for the farmer than any other government in the world, and the farming interest was deserving of this consideration because in this province there were nearly a thousand millions of dollars invested in farming. The speaker closed by appealing eloquently for a sober consideration of the claims of the Mowat Government will be recognized as against the narrow partisan views advanced to do temporary service for election purposes solely. The close of Mr. Stratton's speech was greeted with very hearty applause.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stratton's address, Mr. Wm. Graham said that Mr. Stratton deserved the support of the farmers. He offered at the Patron's meeting to withdraw if a farmer was nominated, which showed his sincerity in the matter.

SOUTH MONAGHAN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Hymeneal—A very pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. Wm. Smithson, South Monaghan, on Wednesday, May 23rd, being the marriage of his neice, Miss Mary Deyell, and Mr. R. J. Hutchinson. The bride, a most estimable young lady, was attired in a cream delaine gown, trimmed with lace. Her cousin, Miss Annie Smithson, of Otonabee, acted as bridesmaid. The groom, who is widely known and is one of our South Monaghan boys, was supported by his brother, Mr. M. E. Hutchinson. Only near relatives of the contracting parties were present, among whom were Mrs. R. Nimmo and her daughter, Miss Florence Nimmo, of Peterborough. After supper was heartily partaken of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson left for the 9:30 train from Fraserville for a trip up West. After returning they will reside at their new home in Cavan. We join with their many friends in wishing them every future happiness and prosperity.

From the MOMENT OF BIRTH use CUTICURA SOAP

It is not only the purest, sweetest, and most refreshing of nursery soaps, but it contains delicate emollient properties which purify and beautify the skin, and prevent skin blemishes, occasioned by imperfect cleansing and use of impure soap. Guaranteed absolutely pure by the analytical chemists of the State of Massachusetts.

Bad Complexions

Dark, yellow, oily, mothy skin, pimples, blackheads, roughness, redness, dry, thin, and falling hair, and simple baby blemishes prevented and cured by CUTICURA SOAP, greatest of skin purifying and beautifying soaps. It is so because it strikes at the root of all complexional disfigurations; viz., the clogged, inflamed, irritated, or sluggish PORE. Sales greater than the combined sales of all other skin and complexion soaps.

A STRONG PILLAR

Of the Golden Lion store is its DRESS GOODS Department. By it we are winning trade every day, because we keep faith with the ladies. It's Fair's way.

Materials were never finer, shades were never richer, qualities were never better, and prices were never lower. No room here for aught save the best and most fashionable that money can buy.

Just space to-day to mention a few

Talking Prices.

1,000 yards All-Wool Summer Dress Goods, such as may be seen quoted as worth 50c. and 75c. a yard, we are actually selling at 25c. and 35c.—less than one-half.

1,500 yards Best French Printed DELAINES, well worth 35c. a yard, and that would pay to keep in reserve rather than offer them now, as we are doing, at only 25c. a yard.

A Job Line of FRENCH DELAINES to be seen in other windows ticketed at double the figure, can be bought at the Golden Lion for only 12½c. a yard.

ROBE DRESS COSTUMES, matchless value, as follows:—

$12.00 Dress Costumes, now only $9.00
$11.00 Dress Costumes, now only $7.50
$10.00 Dress Costumes, now only $7.00
$9.00 Dress Costumes, now only $6.50
$8.50 Dress Costumes, now only $6.00
$7.50 Dress Costumes, now only $5.50

Unparalleled value in PRINTS, CHAMBRAYS, KRINKLE CHAMBRAYS, SEERSUCKERS, DELAINETTES.

LACES AND INSERTIONS, WHITE, CREAM and TORO TONE Laces. Greatly admired by the Ladies. Lovely Black and Coloured SILK LACES that have been extolled for their beauty, variety and low price.

What Fashion Demands.

In Millinery and Mantles, Ribbons, Veiling and other novelties for the Ladies are to be found here, with all the prices running below the ordinary. The services of skilled Milliners at your command.

Wonderful values will appeal to your self interest at every counter. It's Fair's Way.

KNOCKED OUT.

A lady out for big values yesterday was shown to the Carpet Department, where she floored the salesman with a demand for Tapestry Carpet one yard wide, and a Wool Carpet one yard and a quarter wide, not more than 35c. The price was all right. We have lots of Carpet at that figure, but we had to show her that she could not get the widths. Ladies who measure up their own room should bear in mind that Tapestry, Brussels and Wilton Carpets run 27 in. in width: Unions, Ingrain and Wool Carpets 1 yard wide. See our 4-frame Brussels at 75c. Tapestries down as low as 25c. Best All Wools free from jute filling, lower than the lowest prices which may be offered you. It's Fair's Way.

TURNBULL'S

Years in business teaches many lessons. One we have learned is, that in order to make the store always a centre of attraction we must keep in stock everything people are looking for, and in a good quality. As the season advances many lines that are very popular get scarce and hard to find. We have just received several new shades in Dress Goods in light and mid brown at 50c. and 60c. a yard. Black Dress Goods in light weight, for summer wear, in plain and figured. These are very desirable and scarce goods. New Vandyke Trimmings, with feather edge. Dressmakers can tell their customers we have all shades and that they are cheaper than the common goods we have had before. Jet Trimmings are becoming popular again; we are showing a splendid assortment of Narrow Gimps in Pressed Cut Jet, from 10c. to 25c. a yard. Seer Suckers are worn again; we are showing the dark goods in Canadian, also the finer imported goods in light colours. A nice variety of Ladies' Blouses in all the leading shades, plain colours, trimmed with fine braid; also white lawn Blouses, from the plain goods at lowest prices to the finest goods trimmed with Embroidery Lace, etc. We remind you again that we are showing a splendid assortment of Prints in dress effects, and also in small neat patterns suitable for children.

We have not overstocked ourselves this season, and are consequently in a position to buy JOB LINES, and can give our customers new goods at the regular wholesale cost, and often under, which you will find is much lower than clearing sale prices.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Charlton's Measure Discussed in the House of Commons.

SUNDAY PAPERS DENOUNCED

An Amendment Adopted Restricting the Scope of the First Clause—Bill to Disfranchise Voters Who Receive Bribes — The Franchise Act.

OTTAWA, May 31.—Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper moved in the Commons the first reading of his bill respecting the certificates of masters and master of ships. The bill was read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said that as the First Minister had not yet introduced his bill respecting the Electoral Franchise Act he thought the House would like to know what changes the hon. gentleman proposed to make in the act.

Sir John Thompson said he thought, as the details of the bill might be somewhat complicated, it would be of some public service if he stated what the principles of the bill would be, in order that it might be understood by the House and the public. They proposed important changes in the Franchise Act, and, without making a speech upon it or giving reasons why the changes were proposed, would briefly state what they proposed. First, they proposed to adopt as a basis of the franchise the franchise of the various provinces of Canada. They intended to propose further that the disqualifications which had been indicated by the Provincial Legislatures shall not apply to persons who would otherwise be entitled to the franchise. They proposed further, that the electoral lists shall be prepared and revised from year to year by the Dominion revising officers, as at the present time. They also intended to deal with the subject of multiplex voting in a reasonable way. If a man had property in more than one riding, he should have the right to vote in more than one riding. These were the principles of the measure; but, inasmuch as it would be necessary to work them out by a careful comparison with provincial enactments, he proposed to take a little further time before the introduction of the bill.

In reply to questions by Hon. Mr. Laurier, Sir John Thompson said it was proposed to make a somewhat later beginning of the revision of the lists than January 1, but the lists would be made to come into force as early as possible. The bill would probably be brought down within a week.

The House then went into committee on Dr. Weldon's bill to disfranchise voters taking bribes. The bill provided that the petitioner should deposit $500 when filing the protest.

Mr. Jeannotte moved in amendment that the amount should be raised to $1,000. The amendment was carried on a division.

Mr. Weldon moved that the following clause be added to the bill: "Notwithstanding anything in this Act where in any electoral district, an election petition has been filed under the Act for the trial of controverted election, no petition shall be filed under this Act until such election petition has been abandoned or disposed of." The amendment was adopted.

The promoter of the bill then moved that the following sub-section be added: "Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a petition under this Act may be filed in thirty days after the disposition or abandonment of such election petition."

Mr. Mourcieff and Col. Tisdale spoke against the bill.

Hon. Mr. Curran moved, in amendment to Mr. Weldon's subsection that the following words be added: "Provided always that such election petition shall have been finally disposed of within one year from the filing of the petition therein."

Mr. McMullen claimed that under the Solicitor-General's amendment a friend of a candidate might expect the time of settling the election petition beyond one year, and shut out the operation of this bill.

Mr. Dickey thought the Solicitor-General's amendment was again compromised.

The sub-section as amended, was then adopted.

The bill was reported to the House with many amendments. It stands for a third reading.

Observance of the Sabbath.

Mr. Charlton moved the House into committee on his bill to secure the better observance of the Sabbath.

Col. Amyot opposed the motion on the grounds that the bill was unconstitutional and unduly interfered with the rights of others.

The House went into committee on the first section, which makes it an indictable offence to be engaged in the printing, publication, delivery, or sale of a newspaper on the Lord's day.

Col. Amyot denounced the proposal as a piece of bigotry. They could not get the Montreal Gazette in Quebec on Sunday morning if this became law.

Mr. Davin said in order to bring the nation to complete righteousness Parliament ought to make it an indictable offence to read a newspaper on Sunday.

Mr. McMullen supported the bill, whereupon Mr. Davin sneered at what he termed that gentleman's "sniffling Presbyterianism."

Col. Amyot said that the morning papers throughout the country began work at 7 o'clock on Sunday evening, and if there was any guilt in it, those who read the papers shared in it. The reading of Mr. Charlton's speeches on Sunday was a spiritual exercise and the people of the province of Quebec should not be deprived of this benefit. The people of Quebec would not have come into Confederation if they had been told they would have to join the Salvation Army.

Mr. Mara objected to the people of British Columbia being deprived of their Sunday papers.

Mr. Charlton said the bill was directed against Sunday papers, which were an offence against morals, religion and public welfare, and had a most deleterious effect in the United States.

Mr. Masson proposed an amendment restricting the scope of the clause to the sale, distribution or circulation of Sunday newspapers.

Mr. Maclean (York) moved that the committee report progress.

Mr. Longelier asserted the right of the ministry to observe the Sabbath in their own way. The Spanish inquisition should not be introduced into Canada.

Dr. Sproule pointed out that the original clause would prevent the circulation of Sunday school literature, while the amendment would prevent the sale of the Salvation Army War Cry.

Sir John Thompson said he hoped the committee would come to a decision before rising.

The motion to report progress was then lost.

Mr. Henderson said he distributed the Presbyterian Record the first Sunday in every month. He wanted to know if he and the ladies who distributed the mission leaflet were to be sent to the penitentiary.

Mr. Maclean (York) suggested that the matter be left to the provinces. During the Northwest rebellion an engagement was fought on a Saturday. The following day he published an account of the action. For doing so he was fined in the police court under the Ontario Act.

Mr. Charlton said he was willing to accept Mr. Masson's amendment, which thereupon was carried and thus became the substantive motion.

Mr. Bechard moved an amendment allowing newspapers to be delivered on Sunday.

Col. Amyot moved a sub-amendment excepting the Province of Quebec from the operation of the bill. It was ruled out of order.

Mr. Haslam said the section would make the printers of British Columbia work on Sunday.

Mr. Bechard's amendment carried.

Mr. Mourcieff wished to have summary conviction substituted for indictable offence.

The committee reported progress.

Hon. Mr. Laurier announced that Mr. Davies would move an amendment in Committee of Supply to-morrow (Thursday) in relation to the imprisonment of Mr. Ellis, of the St. John Globe, for contempt of court.

Capital Gossip.

In the Railway Committee the Montreal electric railway belt line was again up for discussion. Deputations both for and against the proposal are in attendance, and the proceedings of the committee have been so stormy that on several occasions five or six members were talking at once. The merits of the scheme are local in their nature, but have an indirect interest in the west, in that the proposed road would give the Vanderbilt system of railroads access to Montreal independent of the C. P. R. or Grand Trunk.

A strong deputation of leading business men will shortly call on the Government to urge that some steps be taken to prevent the increase in the circulation of American silver in Canada. What shape their proposal will take is not yet decided, but the quantity of American silver in circulation is beginning to be regarded as a serious evil among commercial men.

George J. Wills, the American Consul at St. Thomas, is in the city in connection with the flag incident at that place. He is submitting the facts in the case to J. B. Reilly, the Consul-General. Sworn evidence of witnesses of the affair has been forwarded to Washington, and it is said that the deed was certainly done by members of the Queen's Own while Mr. Wills was at dinner. Mr. Wills was endeavoring to do honor to the British holiday by the display of three extra flags, which were the Stars and Stripes. He intended entwining around them Union Jacks, but could not get any to do so. Mr. Wills does not intend communicating with the Canadian Government because the matter is now in the hands of the authorities at Washington.

FRASER VALLEY SWEPT

Terrible Destruction Caused by the Flood in British Columbia.

RAILWAY TRAFFIC SUSPENDED

Eight Lives Known to Be Lost, While it is Feared There Are Others—Whole Towns and Villages Inundated—Settlers Flee for Safety.

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 31.—The overflo of the Fraser river is causing great destruction and loss of life. The surrounding valleys have been submerged, houses and outbuildings of ranches have been swept away and herds of cattle and flocks of sheep have been drowned. Whole villages on the banks of the stream are floating. So far eight lives are known to have been lost.

At Langley a little boy fell from a porch of the Langley hotel and was swept away by the flood. The hotel was afterwards washed from its foundations. The town is flooded.

The whole of Langley prairie is now under water, and the island on which is the Indian reserve is entirely under water. The canoes, in which four Indians were trying to tow some cattle from a ridge on the island to the mainland, were capsized and three of the Indians were drowned. The dead bodies of three men and a little girl were found on Hatxtic Prairie entangled among floating trees. Many other bodies are reported as having been seen in the stream in other localities.

Farmers, fearing to remain longer, are taking passage on steamers and bringing their families here. The towns of Chilliwack, Harrison and Centreville have been inundated. The damage done to the Canadian Pacific railroad tracks is very serious all along the line. At Hatxtic the dyking has entirely given way, and 600 yards of road have been destroyed. At Nicomon the whole town is under water.

Traffic over the railroad is entirely stopped, no train having arrived from the east since May 23.

WESTERN ONTARIO CROPS.

Considerable Damage Done in Some Places by the Recent Frost.

LONDON, Ont., May 31.—The frost of Monday night and Tuesday morning did a considerable amount of damage to several kinds of crops in this district. The unusually early spring and the fine warm weather of the last month had advanced vegetation to a stage a fortnight earlier than the average Ontario season. The consequence has been that all kinds of vegetation was forward, and both seeding and planting were well advanced. Early beans and corn were up and some few had cucumbers and squash and tomatoes out of doors. All the potatoes are badly scorched and have turned black. Of course the injury to these varies with the land. On very low plots the action has been severe, and if the stem has been cut it is doubtful if replanting will not have to be resorted to; but as a general thing, if this one frost is not succeeded by others, the majority of potatoes will come around again. Late sown grain has been slightly touched and any late barley has been injured, but the early sown has obtained too strong a growth to be permanently affected. In fruit, no doubt, the grapes have been injured, as all the early ones were out in bloom and just at the stage when frost will cut it off. The cherries and pears are too far forward to be much damaged and also the small fruit is highly protected by the thick foliage. As far as the main root crop both in gardens and fields are concerned, it may be stated that they are not yet above ground, or are yet to be put in; so, outside of fruit, the damage may yet be repaired by replanting in every case with merely the loss of the labor.

An Amicable Arrangement.

COLBORNE, Ont., May 31.—The case which has excited considerable interest in this vicinity and in the neighboring village of Lakeport was brought to an amicable termination before S. S. Britnell, J. P. On the 23d of April last Mr. R. A. Sykes, teacher of Lakeport public school, laid an information before Mr. Britnell, charging Mr. Thos. Flynn, Grand Trunk claims agent, with having wilfully interrupted his school on the 20th of April by rude behavior, Mr. Flynn having during school hours visited the school and used abusive language to the teacher because of his having punished, as he contended, too severely one of his children. After conferring with the magistrate and the school trustees it was stated by counsel for defendant that his client regretted having used the language he did towards the complainant, and by complainant's counsel that his client was sorry that his punishment had injured Mr. Flynn's boy, and that if the children were sent back to the school at Mr. Flynn's request, if deserving of punishment, his children would be sent home. Each party paid his own costs.

Wall Paper Dealers Protest.

WINDSOR, May 31.—The wall paper dealers in Windsor were notified by the customs authorities that the duty on wall paper had been raised and they would be called upon to pay the difference on all they have imported since the first change in the tariff was announced in the House about two months ago. This will amount to several thousand dollars, and the Windsor merchants propose to fight the matter in the courts. Formerly the duty on wall paper was about 70 per cent., but when it was announced that it had been lowered to 35 per cent. large stocks were ordered from American dealers. The change was passed by the House and became law at once, but later on an amendment was introduced and passed which increased the duty about 20 per cent. more. This also went into effect at once. The merchants received their goods before the amendment had been made. The customs officials say they are acting under instructions, but the merchants have taken legal advice on the matter, which says they cannot be compelled to pay it.

FIVE PERSONS DROWNED.

Terrible Fatality on Smith's Bay, Near Picton.

PICTON, Ont., May 31.—A drowning accident occurred at Smith's Bay, about eight miles from Picton. Living near Smith's Bay, and in the same house, are two brothers named Lindsay. David Lindsay is married and has three children; the brother, Alexander, is not married. David and his wife came to Picton and Alexander took the three children, Alfred, Charles and Anna Louise, aged respectively 8, 12 and 18 years, to the bay for an afternoon's fishing. Toward evening the boat was discovered floating on the water, capsized. Search was made and the four bodies were found, all together, in about seven feet of water.

Later in the evening Ingram, a farmer living on the shore of the bay, was making inquiries about his wife, who had taken a fishing pole during the afternoon and gone to the bay for a fish, and had not returned. Search was again commenced at the spot where the other bodies were recovered and Mrs. Ingram's body was found. It is not known how Mrs. Ingram came to be in the boat, but it is supposed that she was fishing from the bank and when the Lindsays came along with the boat she joined them. The bodies were all found in one place alongside of a gill net seine, and it is conjectured that the occupants were looking over the side of the boat at the fish in the seine, which caused the boat to capsize.

Fatal Riot in Sofia.

SOFIA, May 31.—An enormous crowd gathered in front of the cathedral last evening and would not disperse when ordered by the police to do so. Many were cheering for Stambuloff, who has resigned the premiership. Others hooted his name. Somebody fired a revolver and the shooting became general. One person was killed, two men severely wounded and fifty or more had slight shot wounds or broken heads.

Cyclone Destroys a Church.

WICHITA, Kan., May 31.—A cyclone 200 feet wide passed over the northern portion of the country last night, destroying a country church and overturning the monuments in the Kechi cemetery.

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWHICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

Do not neglect coughs, colds, asthma, and bronchitis, but cure them by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Schofield's Drug Store, 408 George-st.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Debeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 5c. Prints. 3 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Colored shirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 2000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. G. Herring, of Sutherland's Corners, is visiting his parents here. His many friends are pleased to see him.

Miss Essie Cutler, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. S. Weaver.

Messrs. H. G. Buck, and F. H. Birt are in Quebec settling up their year's timber business. They will be absent several weeks.

The Provincial election campaign is now on in this Riding. Hon. A. S. Hardy and Mr. T. Blezard will address a meeting in Havelock, June 5th, at 1 p. m. Mr. Blezard will also address meetings at South Dummer and the South line school house on 2nd and 4th of June, respectively, at 7 o'clock, p. m. It is also announced that the Hon. G. W. Ross will speak in Norwood about the middle of June.

Rev. Dr. Tucker, of Adolphustown, will preach in the Methodist church on Sunday, June 10th, Conference Sunday.

Sunday last Prof. H. Satoh, of the Imperial University, Takio, Japan, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church, and preached two effective sermons. He is a good speaker and, considering the fact that this was but the second time he had addressed an English audience, speaks the language very fluently. Monday evening the learned gentleman delivered a very interesting lecture to a large audience in the church.

Mr. Jas. Ferguson, who house was recently destroyed by fire, intends to build again on the same lot.

The Presbyterian Sabbath school has secured a new library.

A man by the name of Huffman was brought up before the magistrate here last week charged with making a criminal attempt on the twelve year old daughter of Mr. Warner, living on Victoria street. He was committed for trial.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Although the unfavourable state of the weather spoiled the programme for the day's celebration, yet the football tournament, calathumpian parade and the concert were carried out successfully. The Roman Catholic picnic was postponed.

The High School Football Club decided in the morning to telegraph to the teams invited not to come, but when the rain cleared off they again sent for them. Brooklin and Allandale teams were on hand. Norwood village, or rather ex-High School team and Brooklin first took the field. The following lined up:

Brooklin.			Norwood.
C Morrison		Goal	T Wigmore
A Curtis	Backs		J Jory
W Bennett			A J Finlay
T Wells	Half backs		T Graham
A Holliday			H Andrews
E Jones			W Wildman
E Holliday, Capt.		Centre	W Eaton, Capt
G Gill	Left wing		F Rutherford
F Haliot			B Hendren
T Marshall	Right wing		D Fraser
F Holliday			F Hendren

The Norwood team were nearly all light men, but they played a very strong combination game. The Brooklin men were much larger, and played a stronger individual game than the Norwood team, but could not put up as neat a combination game. At first the game was evenly divided, and a fine exhibition of scientific football given. About twenty minutes after the start one of the Brooklin boys was hurt and time was called. Six of the Norwood boys started for the pump, and the captain not noticing their absence, allowed the game to proceed. Brooklin made an easy rush on the Norwood goal, and the ball was punted through by Capt. Holliday. During the second half time Norwood had the advantage, and after several runs on goal, the ball was kicked After this Brooklin played a defence game, between the Brooklin stakes by W. Eaton. but neither side scored in the remaining time. The following teams lined up for Norwood High School and Allandale:

Norwood.			Allandale.
J Weir		Goal	T Wigmore, capt
H Brackenride	Backs		C Fife
T Finlay			W Rutherford
C Pearce	Half-backs		H Stephenson
C How-on			W Quinn
B Kidd			T Walsh
D Hunter		Centre	S L Fife
O Kidd	Left Wing		W Forsythe
W O'Keefe			G Hamblin
O Carmichael	Right Wing		B McMillan
J Roxburgh			G Hermiston

The match was frequently interrupted by showers of rain and the ground was in very poor condition. The teams were pretty evenly matched, although the High School team had somewhat the best of it and were only prevented from scoring several times by the sharp play of the Allandale goal-keeper. Neither sides scored during the hour's play.

At noon the calathumpians assembled in Mr. D. McCarthy's yard and about two o'clock the procession started out and marched down Peterborough street, where a large crowd were awaiting their approach. Excellent burlesques were given of a minstrel troupe, a country dance and others, besides the cowboys and Indians. They paraded the principal streets and proceeded to the park.

The concert in the evening under the evening under the auspices of the High School was well attended, the hall being filled to the doors. The following programme was well rendered in every part:

PART I.

Chorus—"Sing a Joyous Roundelay"..Students
Instrumental Duet—"Jolly Youth"....Misses [Reynolds and Dunnigan.
Solo—"When the Heart is Young"..Mrs. F. E. [Perney.
Recitation.....Miss Clara Sanderson.
Solo—"Open Thy Lattice" Miss Blanche Pearce
Club Swinging....Misses Eliza Fraser and [Mabel Foster.
Solo—"Daisy Polka".....Mrs Perney.

PART II.

Chorus—"Hark! Appollo strikes the Lyre" Bishop [Students.
Instrumental Duet—Selected ..... Mrs. F. E. [Perney and Mr. F. Clark.
Dialogue—"An Indian Raid" Messrs. D. Hunter and C. Howson and Misses E. and A. Howson.
Solo—Selected.....Mrs. F. E. Perney.
Recitation—Selected....Miss Clara Sanderson.
Chorus—"Ripe Strawberries".....Hatton [Students.

God save the Queen.

All were excellently given, especially the singing by Mrs. Perney and Miss Clara Sanderson's recitations which received with the greatest applause. Mr. W. E. Roxbrough officiated as chairman for the evening.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

SIRS,—I had such a severe cough that my throat felt as if scraped with a rasp. On taking Norway Pine Syrup I found the first dose gave relief, and the second bottle completely cured me.

ORMEMER.

(From Our Own Correspondent

A heavy hail storm passed over the county between here and Lindsay west, causing some damage to the fruit crop.

The 24th of May celebration was carried out despite the bad weather and the large crowd assembled in the afternoon went away well pleased. The best prize contributed by Gough Bros., Peterborough, was carried off by Jas. Lamb in the boys' race. The band concert at night under the direction of G. W. Mulligan, was quite a success.

Miss Grant, Peterborough, made a very favourable impression as pianist and accompanist at the 24th May concert here.

Miss Rehil, her brother and a few others whose names we could not learn visited our village on the 24th from Peterborough.

There nearly was a fatal accident at "Doubes Bridge" on Saturday evening last. Whilst a Mrs. Fowler and another lady were attempting to get off the train approaching the bridge, when the speed slackened Mrs. Fowler fell and had her shoulder dislocated and is now under the doctor's care here.

Rev. Mr. MacKay intends re-organising the Sabbath school in the Presbyterian church, Fowler's Corners, on next Sabbath at 9 o'clock a. m. Mr. MacKay has proved himself a very able exponent of the Scriptures here. Those who will not accept his teachings will miss things untold for their benefit—both old and young.

The Conservatives have a meeting announced for Friday night to organize for East Victoria election. Mr. Carnegie, the representative, is to be present. Mr. Thurston, the Reform Patron of Industry man or his party are not invited to be present.

The hotelmen here are all staunch Conservatives, obey the license law very well without ever being threatened by the "Mowat" party and have no complaints.

There was only one drunk man to be seen here on the 24th, and he would have been full anyway. No rows or disorder of any kind; not a single arrest made.

A union excursion of the churches is in contemplation for the near future. Peterborough, Lakefield and Stony Lake appears the favourite route this year.

OBITUARY.

On May 24th one of the oldest and most respected residents passed away, when Edward Allen, aged 74 years, died at his family residence in the township of Galway. The deceased was born in County Cork, Ireland, and came across the wide waters to Canada and settled in Douro. Here he lived for many years with his parents, battling with the various difficulties and obstacles which lie in the way of settling a woodland country. After remaining for about thirty-seven years in this township, where he leaves behind many friends and acquaintances, he removed to the township of Galway, that he might labour to greater advantage for his family. Again the same obstacles which he had overcome before presented themselves, yet by his untiring vigilance and ceaseless courage he persevered and cut down the forest, cleared up the land and soon found himself in possession of a very comfortable home. He was one of the best to-do farmers in the township and by his kindness, generosity and uprightness he won for himself the esteem and confidence of all those with whom he came in contact.

In politics he was an ardent supporter of the Reform party and during each campaign took an active part in wielding his unlimited influence for the Reform candidate.

He leaves behind him a widow, who has been his kind partner for over forty-two years, participating and sharing his joys and sorrows as they befell him; also a family consisting of four sons, Edward, John, William and Robert, and five daughters.

On Saturday at 9.30 his remains were removed to the Roman Catholic church, followed by a long, dark line of vehicles, making one of the largest funerals ever seen in Galway. After the funeral service, which was ably conducted by Rev. Father O'Connell, parish priest, his body was interred in the R. C. cemetery. The sorrowing family and relatives receive the sympathy of the entire community for the loss they have sustained in such a dear friend.

CONTRADICTION OF CHARGES.

By the request of Mr. John Hunter, of Otonabee, the following letters are published. They refer to charges which he states were made without any foundation:

John Hunter, Otonabee:

DEAR SIR,—I know that you were with me St. Andrew's night last from the time I fed my horse until I left and I am sure you are not the man who took my suit of clothes. I believe you have been wrongfully charged with this offence and write this letter to entirely clear you so far as I am concerned.

Yours truly,
RICHARD LILLICO.

John Hunter, Esq., Otonabee:

DEAR SIR,—In reference to the charge made against you in connection with the goods of R. Lillico removed from his buggy last St. Andrew's night, I say that I have never settled the matter with you in any way, nor have you paid me any money to settle the charge, nor have I ever stated to parties that I knew you were the party. I have no evidence against you, and after consulting with the Chief of Police I find there is no person against whom I have any evidence to support the charge.

Yours truly,
A. P. MORGAN.

A Sight Worth Seeing.

Go up to-day and take a walk through my beautiful greenhouse of fresh blooming flowers, potting and bedding-out plants, etc., corner Argyle and George streets. FRANK WISE.

Mrs. McEachern, who used to keep store here some years ago, has returned and opened in No. 422 George street, with a larger and more varied stock than ever. Ladies from the country are specially requested to call and inspect our stock. Materials for making up fancy work, twelling, toys, nick-nacks, fine wadding for making flowers, leaves, stamens.

Do You Go Boating?

Want any sails? I am prepared to furnish the best of work and material. Being a practical sailmaker and having good experience in cutting and designing sails of all kinds, I guarantee satisfaction. Mochican, Lateen, Batwing, Leg-o'-Mutton and Yacht Sails of any desired area drafted and made to order on short notice. ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, tent, sail and awning maker, Water street, opposite the market.

A New Idea.

You will remember that Goliath was very much struck when David hit him with a stone. He said that such a thing had never entered his head before. New ideas are numerous in our stock. We always have what is latest and best. We have the latest novels by the most modern writers, too numerous to enumerate—come and see. We also have a splendid line of popular paper bound books 2 for 25c. or 5 for 50 cents—a. h. stratton & co.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The Art Sale of beautiful goods is drawing to a close. Do not miss Friday and Saturday nights as some of the nicest goods in the stock will be offered on these nights, and as we are anxious to close the sale they will be knocked down quickly. Positively no reserve. A chance of a life time. Sale will begin at 7.30. JOHN HAGGART, Auctioneer.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Council of the whole to-night in the Council Chamber.

—The non-commissioned officers turned out for drill last night.

—The Dominion W. C. T. U. convention opens in London on Friday next.

—The corporation labourers are busy cracking stone on Charlotte street.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—The annual meeting of the officers and teachers of the George street Methodist Sunday school will be held Friday evening June 1, in the Bible class rooms.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—Street Inspector Pope would be obliged if the gentleman who picked up an umbrella last evening, near the Snowden House, would return the same to the Police station.

—Several amateur photographers are agitating for the formation of a Camera Club. There are said to be a number of kodak fiends in the town and many of them are experts.

—Some 25 delegates from the Grand Lodge of the Orange Order took breakfast at the Snowden House this morning on their way to their homes in the east. Among them were Messrs. Sam. Hughes, M.P., of Lindsay, and Bert Gordon, of Tweed.

—Here's a hint to the housekeeper: "If a tablespoon of kerosene is put into four quarts of tepid water and this used in washing windows and mirrors instead of pure water, there will remain upon the clean surface a polish no amount of friction can give."

—Mr. James. A. Hall, sheriff, and Mr. Bernard Morrow, registrar, received notice of the writs to-day which have been issued for the general elections. The nominations take place in West Peterborough at the court house and for the East Riding in the Norwood town hall.

—Mr. Sanderson is arranging for the annual excursion of the amateur orchestra up the lakes. It will take place on Friday and will, as usual, be composed entirely of the business men of the town. It is looked forward to with as keen relish this year as formerly.

—Mr. Ford, caretaker of Little Lake Cemetery, was assisting several parties to-day who had friends buried in the old cemetery head of George street, to remove them to the new graveyard. Some of them had been interred from 30 to 40 years. With friends and onlookers, fully 40 or 50 persons were present.

—A lad named Moore was up before the magistrate this morning charged by his parents with being incorrigible and unwilling to go to school. He stated that he was working in the Edison works, and as his mother was not present to make her statement of the case the matter was enlarged until to-morrow.

—A typo who was taking a short cut across the lots to his residence in Ashburnham the other evening just passed the back door of an old lady as she was throwing out a pail of dishwater. The unfortunate typo got the whole dose. It is hard to say who got the worst fright—the old lady or the member of the craft of the art preservative.

—Mr. Henry Watterson, the American journalist, calls the U. S. tariff bill in its amended shape "a mongrel piebald of patches and pusillanimity, a grotesque hodgepodge of pretence and pettifogging, a nondescript abortion of incompetency, selfishness, cowardice and treachery." If Mr. Watterson was commenting on the new Canadian tariff, he could work in a number of his expletives with a great deal of truth.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Spence, of St. Catharines, is on a visit to friends in town.

Miss Bruce, of Port Perry, is visiting Mrs. R. I. Kidd, Aylmer street.

Mr. A. W. Oxley, general agent of the Confederation Life Association of Toronto, is in town.

Mr. Thomas Ridgedale, of Montreal, Canadian Passenger Agent, Wisconsin Central Railway, is in town.

Mr. N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., has been again elected Grand Master of the Grand Orange Lodge of British North America.

Mr. M. W. Quinlan, Hunter street, who has been suffering for some time with a very severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, is improving slowly, and his friends entertain hopes of his speedy recovery.

Rev. David Reddick, formerly pastor of the Port Hope Babtist church was cruelly whipped and beaten by five masked men in Harrison County, Texas, for preaching to the negroes in that section. Two arrests were made and the prisoners positively identified by Rev. Mr. Reddick and his companion Mr. W. L. Dixon as being two of the assailants but some of their friends swore them out on an alibi. Mr. Reddick's friends in Port Hope are burning with indignation at the treatment which has been meeted out to their former beloved pastor.

THE TRAMP NUISANCE MUST BE ABATED.

WM. CROSSLEY SHOT DOWN IN PURE WANTONESS.

Last Evening a Quartette of Tramps Surround a Couple of Bicyclists and put a Bullet in the Leg of One of Them Without the Slightest Provocation—A Posse of Citizens Give Chase—No Arrests.

The town was all agog with excitement last night when it was learned that Mr. Wm. Crossley, an employee in the Parisian Laundry and a Sergant in the Peterborough Rangers, in an encounter with tramps had been seriously wounded and that the chief of police and a posse of citizens had started in pursuit of the offenders.

As the exact circumstances of the case were difficult to ascertain, exaggerated rumours of all descriptions were seriously considered. The excitement waxed so high, indeed, that quite a few of the citizens spent the night in the police station in order to be the first to hear the news of the capture, if such was effected.

The shooting occurred at about eight o'clock in the evening and in a very few moments afterwards a crowd sufficient in numbers to block the sidewalk and part of the road had gathered in front of police headquarters to hear the details of the occurrence. It was an angry crowd, too, when news was brought in that the young man who had been wounded had been brought home with a bullet in his leg.

TRESPASSING ON THE C.P.R.

Little by little the follwing tale was gathered from the different couriers who were sent in. During the evening the C. P.R. employees noticed a number of ill-favoured tramps hanging around the freight sheds and assuming that they were looking either for a place in which to spend the night or a chance to steal a ride on a freight it was thought advisable to invoke the assistance of the police and drive them away from the premises. In response to a telephone message P. C. McGinty and Stewart went down to the C.P.R. and quite a number of citizens joined in the fun of routing out the tramps. There were seven of them, and as the police did not desire to make any arrests, but simply to chase them outside the corporation limits, the only effort made was to give the septette a scare which would last them for an hour or two.

THE TRAMPS ROUTED.

Three of the interlopers scurried west along the track and were hustled outside the town by the crowd who enjoyed the spectacle of seeing a tramp in a hurry. The remaining four tramps cut across the lots and disappeared in the direction of the Little Lake cemetery. Mr. William Crossley had ridden down the road ahead of them on his bicycle and meeting Mr. Dickson Jewett the two rode back together towards town to see what had become of the vags. They saw the quartette hurrying towards them, but in some way did not associate them with the tramps until they were within a few feet of them just at Jackson's corner. A sudden stern command to dismount apprized them that they han come upon their quarry sooner than was expected or was agreeable. Three revolvers were flashed in the faces of the two young men and a couple of shots were fired over their heads. They dismounted. One of the tramps being only three or four feet from Dickson Jewett levelled his weapon at his breast and dared him to lay a hand on him. Crossley interfered here and told the fellow to put away his revolver as they were not meddled with. I'd drop you in a minute was the rejoinder and suiting his action to his word he wheeled around and put a bullet into Crossley's leg. Crossley cried out that he had been shot and dropped into the ditch, while the scoundrel who had "done for" him hurried past together with his companions.

Jewett remained with Crossley until others, attracted by the noise, hurried to the scene. He then left his companion in their charge, and, mounting his wheel, gave chase to the tramps, who had crossed the river on the railroad bridge. Dickson crossed at the locks and followed slowly in the wake of the tramps all the way from there to Mr. Zach. Burnham's, calling in at every farmhouse in search of a gun, but he could obtain no weapon in any of them. At intervals, one of the tramps would wait behind a tree or in a fence corner and hold him back until the others had gotten somewhat of a start. Arrived at Mr. Burnham's farm, a gun was procured by Jewett, but before he could get within range, the tramps had disappeared into the woods which are known as "Burnham's Swamp." Shortly afterwards he was joined by P. C. Stewart and Mr. Archie Moore and the three patrolled around the bush, awaiting help before a capture was attempted. At intervals Jewett crawled up into the woods and ascertained from overhearing their conversation that the tramps were still there and not knowing exactly their whereabouts would not move until morning.

At midnight the chief of police and Messrs. Thos. Rutherford, Lyman Terrill, Wm. Bryans, Herb. Snowden and Detective Ross, of the C. P. R., arrived on the scene and surrounded the bush and waited until morning for the tramps to emerge from their hiding place. In some way, however, detection was evaded and the quartette slipped quietly away. Their footprints were afterwards traced back to the railway track, where all trace was lost.

Detective Ross, of the C. P. R., has sent instructions all along the line east to waylay the men if seen and hopes are entertained that the scoundrel who in such a wilful and unprovoked manner attacked one who was not interfering with him in any way, will before long be behind the bars.

Young Crossly was taken to his home in a conveyance and the services of Dr. Greer were called into requisition. The bullet was found to have entered the inside of the calf just below the muscles and pursuing an oblique downward direction had lodged against the bone inflicting a bad flesh wound but fortunately not severing any of the arteries or breaking a bone. The leaden pill was removed, Crossley not even taking chloroform. He will be laid up for some time until the wound heals.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS' GRAND CELEBRATION.

The postponed grand celebration of the Peterborough Public Schools will take place at the Driving Park on Saturday afternoon next, June 2nd.

At one o'clock the six companies of cadets, headed by the Fire Brigade Band, will march from the Central School to the grounds and there give an exhibition and compete for two silver cups.

One hundred girls, appropriately dressed, will give a delightful series of exercises with Indian clubs, hoops and bar-bells.

An exciting game of football between picked teams from the Separate and Public Schools of the town will follow. Besides the above attractions there will be all kinds of races for boys and girls for which many valuable prizes are offered.

All boys and girls in the town and county who are in actual attendance at the Public or Separate Schools will be permitted to compete.

Adults 15 cents, children 10 cents. All children under 7 years of age, free.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

Unaffected by the awful warning contained in the death of young Maltby, who fell from a car on which he was riding near here the other day, no less that six tramps went through on a C. P. R. freight this afternoon, hanging on to the bumpers. They were observed by canoeists as the train crossed the bridge.

A dozen car loads of fine fat beeves were sent East on the C. P. R. yesterday, from this vicinity.

The mechanics in the Grand Trunk shops at Brockville, commenced working half time yesterday.

Mr. C. Sallabury, the popular paymaster of the C.P.R., has been confined to his home in Montreal for some time through a very severe illness. He is now convalescing, and although not yet allowed to see any of his friends he is considered to be out of danger and his recovery only a matter of time.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

The Attention of Every Lady and Gentleman that has THIN HAIR or that is BALD is called to the visit of

PROF. DORENWEND

To PETERBOROUGH, who will be at

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL

—ON—

Saturday, June 9.

There are indeed very few Ladies or Gentlemen in America but what have heard of the skill of PROF. DORENWEND as a manufacturer of Hair Goods of all styles, and there are very few places on the globe but what one or more of his styles are worn. Those that live closer to his manufacturing place, like all the Ontario cities and towns, are more fortunate than people of United States, Australia or England, and it is because he visits this place at least once a year, they are able to see his Goods before ordering and having then tried they see the effect his Hair Goods Coverings give to their general appearance, but his business has so rapidly grown in the last few years that he is unable to visit these places so often, for this reason. All who require these Goods should not miss the opportunity given by this visit.

See his beautiful LADIES and GENTS WIGS, TOUPEES, SWITCHES of every LENGHTH and SHADE, BANGS in every shape, heavy or plain fronts, etc.

Remember he is at the GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL, June 9th.

JUST TWO WEEKS

Till Our Buyer Leaves for European Markets.

Until our buyer leaves special inducements will be made to our customers in order to raise the required amount of funds. Every counter will have its special line of bargains all of which will be attractive morsels to the prudent buyer.

As the season goes on many lines become broken, these will be cleared at special prices.

In the MANTLE ROOM we offer about 75 Spring Garments at exactly half price, all in newest styles. Several Waterproofs left to clear at half price.

At the DRESS COUNTER we have many special lines yet to offer, many of these lines only a trifle over half price.

We have never had such a harvest in Dress Goods and Delaines, although the profits are small the quantities we sell make up the difference.

At the STAPLE COUNTER we are showing some lovely washing goods at prices that cannot be touched by any one. Patterns and styles exclusively our own. Art Muslins and Spot Muslins in new designs. Some repeat orders to hand.

At the HOSIERY and GLOVE counter we are showing some very special lines. All Silk Gloves st 25c., Silk Mitts at 25c., Fast Black Hose at 15c. Laces and Black Moire Ribbons are going. Prices always the lowest.

Every department is bright, attractive and bristling with bargains. Lines of goods that make a dollar go a long way.

MEN'S SUITS.

This department is booming, the special prices this week cause the rush. Men's Ties, Hose and Underwear at special prices.

MILLINERY.

Our trade in this department is away head. We have repeat Black Sailor Hats and have them now in stock. Every one knows our prices in this department is fully one-third less than where they buy them in this country.

THE PETERBOROUGH REGISTRY OFFICE.

As our readers are aware, the commission of inquiry into the management of the Peterborough registry office, as to charges made by the late deputy registrar, concluded its sittings yesterday afternoon, and the effect of the evidence adduced, both oral and documentary, was to thoroughly disprove the charges of Mr. Grundy, who, it appeared, had made the best possible use of his nineteen years of experience in a registry office, of his connection with Mr. Morrow's office for ten years, and of his access to the books of the office to fill his little spy-book with instances of assumed or invented irregularities. There were twelve specific charges preferred by Mr. Grundy against the management of the registry office and the result of the investigation must be considered with reference to them.

The first charge, that the sworn annual returns to the Government were untrue, was proven to be frivolous and important only in name. When examined, Mr. Grundy had to admit in reference to this charge, that the incorrectness alleged did not refer to the amount of cash returned but to the dates of payment of the share of the County, not being exact to a day.

The second charge that original instruments were altered after having been brought to the office and registered, was attempted to be supported by mentioning several instruments referred to by the aid of the little spy-book, which Mr. Grundy swore had been corrected after having been registered. The incorrectness of this charge was proven as to several of the cases specified, by the testimony of respectable solicitors, who swore positively that the corrections referred to were made by themselves or their clerks; in their own offices in some cases and in other cases, at least, before registration; and their evidence was corroborated by the evidence of the books of the office.

The third charge was that a number of instruments copied into the books had not been compared. As to this, it was proven that all instruments were carefully compared when received into the office for registration, and that the routine of comparing, after writing in the books, such copies with the originals, was somewhat in arrear as is the case in every office, but the comparing was being done and would be completed in due course, as the work of the office permitted.

The fourth change as to the absence of the formal statutory declaration of comparison at the end of some of the books, was not of a very serious nature. This declaration is a matter of form added after the instruments have all been compared. This matter of routine was not lost sight of but was being attended to as the comparing of the contents was completed.

The fifth charge was that instruments had been registered without the payment of fees, Mr. Grundy admitted that this was not a very serious evidence of depravity on the part of the registrar as the loss was his own. The evidence showed that the total amount lost yearly totalled about ten dollars. Of the instruments registered without the payment of fees, the large part of this was for the registration of instruments, registered for Mr. Grundy himself, and for which the register, in his good nature, remitted the fees. Some deeds were registered for churches without charge. The one charge upon which so much stress was laid and which was magnified into an affair of importance, for political purposes was, that Mr. J. R. Stratton had adeedregistered without payment of fees. The facts were that Mr. Stratton gave the deed in question to his solicitors in the usual way, that it was sent to the registry office in the usual way, and that no blame could be attached to Mr. Stratton, as he transacted all his business with the registry office through his solicitors, whose account was paid, as the accounts of other solicitors, at the end of each month.

The sixth charge—that instruments were taken out of the office without the Judge's order, was not supported by evidence, other than the conjectures of Mr. Grundy, that such was the case. He had no knowledge that such removal of instruments took place.

The seventh charge was one that involved serious matters, and was to the effect that the registrar wrongfully received and entered instruments out of their regular order and contrary to Statute. This charge was proved to be wholly false and without foundation. The instance cited by the aid of that handy little spy-book was a failure as a terrible example of irregularity. It appears that Mr. Grundy went to Toronto on April 1st, and when he returned he got the idea that he found an instrument recorded as on the 30th of March, which he had failed to see recorded on March 30th, and consequently the memo was jotted down in the little book and the charge concocted. But it was proven beyond a doubt by the viva voce evidence of the local registrar, Mr. Moloney, and by the record in his book, that the instrument, a certificate of lis pendens, was duly issued by him on the afternoon of March 30th, and Mr. R. R. Hall distinctly swore that the instrument was registered at the registry office at 3.55 o'clock on March 30th, and the books, being produced, showed these facts in black and white. Mr. Grundy evidently thought he had struck a genuine find, and his failure may be due to the fact of the absorbing nature of his still-hunt in other directions.

The eighth and ninth charges, referring to charges for mileage as returning officer by the Registrar and the insufficiency of bonds, were not considered, they not coming within the scope of the commission.

The tenth charge, to the effect that the time of the registrar was not given to the office, was shown to be frivolous and untrue. Nearly all the lawyers in town—and all who gave evidence swore that they had frequent occasion to go to the registry office and that they found Mr. Morrow there regularly and attentive to his duties.

The eleventh charge that the writing of the office by copyists was improperly performed, received its refutation, by the very books produced to sustain it. The books were accurate, neat and clean and the writing was good and legible, all that can be required in such books.

The twelfth charge was as to the incapacity of the registrar, for the duties of the office. In reference to this the evidence of nearly all the lawyers in town and of all who gave evidence showed that the registry office was conducted in an excellent manner, the officers obliging and efficient, that abstracts were got promptly and satisfactorily made and that, as compared with the work done in other offices of the kind elsewhere, they were superior, and all the lawyers seemed to be pleased to have the opportunity of testifying to the efficiency and courtesy of the office staff.

The disproof of the charges as to to any irregularity of any importance whatever, is thorough and complete and the result of the investigation as far as the evidence is concerned, is to entirely discredit all that has been asserted by the deputy as to the irregularities. The instances in which there was the slightest evidence of the "charge" in that respect, are of merely formal and technical character.

There is one feature of the affair brought out that places Mr. Grundy in a very bad light. It appears from the evidence that he has been secretly and systematically preparing for springing this investigation It appears that he has played the part of a spy and that he was prying into the working of the office and taking "notes" of what he regarded as irregularities, but which were proven to be without foundation. If there had been any proof needed that Mr. Grundy had been very properly dismissed, he has himself furnished it. A man acting on mere suspicion that his services might not be retained, who will betray his employer and play the spy upon his actions and take advantage of his position to take copious notes of irregularities, of which he confessed himself guilty, was certainly a man unfit in this respect, no matter what his clerical fitness, to occupy for a moment a position of trust. The unblushing effrontery with which this little spy-book was produced by Mr. Grundy showed an absence of shame for a dishonorable act which a man of honour is unable to understand. The facts show that Mr. Grundy when using his spy-book, was in a frame of mind in which he saw matters in such a light as to give wrong aspects to circumstances that led to his charges, and which, prepared under such conditions, were, as might have been expected, wholly discredited. He himself admitted that he had been decrying his employer the registrar and speaking freely in adverse terms to outsiders on the streets and the investigation in Toronto had its origin in promptings and suggestions made by a man who seems to have the illusion that he enjoys prescriptive right to the Peterborough registry office and who has, it is known, been for years seeking to displace the present incumbent.

It is usual in registry offices, in receiving documents for registration to mark the hour and minute of receipt and to lay the document aside for further comparison and registration; but in the Peterborough office the habit has been to receive instruments, compare and mark them as recorded, and at once hand them out and when there is such dispatch, in the interest of the clients of the office, there is a chance of little irregularities in the instrument being over looked. The evidence showed that in such cases Mr. Grundy was in the habit of telephoning lawyers to come up and make corrections in the instruments even urging the making of corrections in instruments, which, however, in the great majority of cases, consisted of the correction of clerical errors which correction made instruments correct according to the intention of the parties and which could and did work no wrong to any person or interest.

The whole result of the investigation goes to show that the Peterborough Registry office is conducted with great care and efficiency and that the charges made by Mr. Grundy in, what is generally regarded as, the hope to cuckoo Mr. Morrow out of his position, were without foundation in fact.

A reference might be made to the Commissioner, Mr. Jas. Fleming, who conducted the investigation with an eminently fair regard for the interests of all parties concerned. If Mr. Fleming should claim to be a lineal descendant of Job, the patience showed under the provocation he received from Mr. Grundy's counsel should be regarded as ample proof of a such claim.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

Be Sure and Attend.

The sale of fine and useful goods in the store opposite the Grand Central Hotel every night this week will be worth attending, as there has never been as fine an assortment of good goods offered by auction in Peterborough. Dinner Sets, Tea Sets Chamber sets, Lamps, Silver ware, art goods, etc., of every description, beautiful designs and newest patterns in the market. All at your own price. Open for inspection now.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $13 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself, the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $13, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 00
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
2 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

Read our advertisements. We are the people that quote the lowest prices. We excel every other store on George street in actual Bargains. The cheaper we sell, the more we sell, and the more we sell the cheaper we sell.

IT'S A SECRET

— that many women owe their beauty to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The reason — beauty of form and face, as well as grace, radiate from the common center — health. The best bodily condition results from good food, fresh air, and exercise, coupled with the judicious use of the "Prescription." In maidenhood, womanhood, and motherhood, it's a supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to her needs, regulating, strengthening, and curing, the derangements of the sex.

If there be headache, pain in the back, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, or if there be nervous prostration, and sleeplessness, the "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It dispels aches and pains, corrects displacements and cures catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes. It's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money paid for it is refunded.

BY A BROKEN RAIL

Train Load of Excursionists Meet With a Serious Mishap.

LOADED COACH OVERTURNED

The Derailed Coach Rolls Down a Steep Embankment, Seriously Injuring Forty of the Passengers, Some of Whom Are Fatally Hurt and Will Die.

MACON, Ga., May 31.—The rear coach of a train on the Albany and Columbia branch of the Southwestern railroad, a division of the Central railroad of Georgia, was overturned by a broken rail at Holts yesterday and 40 people were injured, of whom two or three will probably die. The train consisted of six coaches loaded with excursionists from Andersonville to attend Decoration day exercises at the national cemetery. Those fatally injured are: John Smith, Bluffton; Andy Jones Edison and Mrs. Little, Hilton, Ga. None of the others are thought to be seriously injured. About 1,000 people were on the train, each coach of which was crowded almost to suffocation. The derailed coach rolled down a steep embankment.

Catastrophe on a Railroad.

MARSHFIELD, Wis., May 31.—Train No. 4 on the Wisconsin road was wrecked here the cars taking fire and resulting in loss of life. Four persons are dead and four others are missing, supposed to have been burned to death, and from fifteen to twenty persons are injured, some of them fatally. Among the dead are the engineer, fireman, brakesman and one of the Tweedy brothers. A nut had been taken off the switch allowing it to get loose. Train No. 4 jumped the track and the forward cars took fire at once. Conductor Gavin succeeded in uncoupling the rear sleeper and No. 47, and saved them from burning. Everything else was burned except some mail and baggage.

MARTIN ROAD RACE.

Louis Callahan Wins and Beats the World's Record.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 31.—The Martin road race, run yesterday over a course probably the finest in the country for road racing purposes, extending as it does over common country roads, through suburban hamlets, up hills and down vales, across railway tracks and other obstructions met with over the country highways, was won by Louis Callahan of the Press Cycling Club of this city, his time being one hour, ten minutes and thirty-seven seconds, breaking the world's record for 25 miles of one hour, eleven minutes, twenty-eight seconds and a half, made by Nat Butler over the Linscot road, May 5.

The roads were in superb condition with a pleasant breeze, that proved a pleasant feature of the race. There were 127 starters and 110 of them finished. J. W. Tinneman, Buse, Penseyres and Weining, of the Ramblers; Radway, of London, Ont., and Van Waggoner, of Syracuse, were the original scratch men. Callahan was allowed thirty seconds, but he gave it up and went to scratch. So did Goehler, of the Press Cycling Club.

The second race was won by Nick Mader, a "dark horse," from the 11 minute mark in 1.24.16. Van Waggoner captured the time honors in 1.14.10.

Of the Canadian entries who started H. Davidson, Toronto, with a handicap of 7 minutes, finished fourth. Time, 1.18.05. F. F. Radway, London, Ont., who started at scratch, finished forty-fourth in 1.11.08, which is also inside the previous record for the distance.

Newfoundland Revenue Bill.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 31.—One of the Government schemes in the present struggle is that if the Whitewayites, Bond and Watson, are not unseated and no Whitewayites can be induced to support the revenue bill, the Government will refrain from opening the Legislature and simply issue a proclamation giving authority to the Governor-in-council directing the collection of the revenue as previously, and enforce this for one or two weeks, till the Whitewayites are placed in the minority. Then the Government will afterwards indemnify themselves. It is understood the English Government is acquainted with this proposal and approves of it.

An Explanation Wanted.

PARIS, May 31.—All of the morning papers discuss the matter of M. Turpin's invention, which it is alleged the war office rejected, after which it was sold to the German government, and the majority of them agree that it ought to be immediately explained. It is necessary that the public should know whether the invention was seriously conceived and of practical value, whether it has been sold to a foreign government, or whether the whole affair was merely an attempt to extort money from the French government.

In Honor of Dead Comrades.

HAMILTON, May 31.—At the Royal Templars hall yesterday the members of William W. Cook post, G.A.R., and the Army and Navy Veterans celebrated memorial day. Rev. Dr. Philp delivered an address and a programme of singing and recitations was gone through. At the conclusion of the programme the two societies were conveyed to Burlington and Holy Sepulchre cemeteries, where they decorated with flowers and flags the graves of departed comrades.

That Embargo Question.

LONDON, May 31.—The discussion in the House of Commons on the cattle question out very little that is new. Everything brought now awaits the result of the completed inspection of the lungs of the animal from the steamship Toronto, which is now going on. The enemies of the Canadian cattle trade have made a great deal out of the assertion made by a certain Montreal journal, which they construed to the effect that pleuro-pneumonia really does exist in Canada.

Rain-Making in Nebraska.

BEATRICE, Neb., May 31.—Those interested in the rain-making experiments here are enthusiastic over the fact that a good rain fell Monday night over a great portion of the county, and extending south to Manhattan, Kansas. They firmly believe the fall was the result of the work of Prof. Hutchinson, the rainmaker employed by the Rock Island Railroad, who had been operating here since Saturday with his rain-making car.

Drowned From a Schooner.

MARINE CITY, Mich., May 31.—Annie Gerew, cook on the schooner Sweetheart, was lost overboard when ten miles below Sand Beach. She was 23 years old and came from Whitby, Ont.

A B. C. Merchant Swindled.

TORONTO, May 31.—Joseph York, a merchant of British Columbia, returning from a visit to the old country, yesterday took the C.P.R. for Owen Sound. While on the train between Parkdale and the Junction he made the acquaintance of a very smooth individual with whom he was in a short time in intimate friendship. The old trick was then worked on the guileless York with complete success. A friend came in the car and notified York's friend that a lot of freight was lying at the station awaiting payment of the charges. The gentleman had nothing but a bank draft to pay the freight, and York willingly acquiesced in the request that he advance the money until the fellow-travellers arrived at Owen Sound. The two crooks then went out to see about unloading the freight, and, so far as known, are still engaged in that occupation. At any rate, York has not seen them since, and his $130 has also disappeared. The police are investigating the matter.

North Bruce Liberals.

TARA, Ont., May 31.—The Liberal convention here yesterday was well attended by delegates from all parts of the riding. Mr. A. McCannel, jun., farmer, of the township of Arran, was chosen to be the standard bearer for the party at the coming election for the Legislative Assembly.

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

Every man has his price, though it is, in the case of renowned persons, occasionally high. No one understands this better than Worth, the man milliner, as any person who wears his creations can vouch for. A good story is told by the Philadelphia Times of how one misguided woman ventured to remonstrate with him because he charged her $600 for a dress, which at first sight seems to ordinary people an expensive gown.

"The goods," said the lady, "could be bought for $100, and surely the work of making up would be well paid for with $25 more."

"Madam," replied the outraged tailor, "go to M. Constant, the painter, and say to him: 'Here is a canvas and colors, value $1. Paint me a picture on that canvas with these paints and I will pay you 83½ cents.' What would be the answer? 'Madam, this is no payment for an artist.' No, but I say more. If you think my terms are too high keep the dress and pay me nothing. Art does not descend to the pettiness of haggling."

History does not record the lady's reply.

MEREDITH IN TORONTO.

The Opposition Leader Speaks at a Meeting of City Conservatives.

TORONTO, May 31.—Last evening the first Conservative rally held in the city during the present provincial contest took place in the Pavilion. The leader of the Opposition was the chief speaker, and in appealing to the electors of Toronto on behalf of the Conservative nominees in the city, succeeded fairly well in arousing the enthusiasm of his sympathizers, who were present in large numbers. "Meredith, our new Premier," the new version of the time-worn campaign cry. "Mowat must go," was cheered to the echo.

Mr. Meredith thought the magnificence of the assembly and the hearty welcome be received might be taken as a forerunner of what the people will do on June 26. He maintained that the records of the Ontario Government did not justify the electors in returning them to power. Their gerrymander of the province has been worse than any ever instituted by the Government at Ottawa. Under this gerrymander the popular vote was nothing like as great as the representation of Government supporters in the House would lead one to suppose.

He then touched upon the ballot system, which he claimed was not secret, but could be adopted for the purpose of coercing the people of this province. The iniquitous license system was another influence which the Government did not fail to use for the purpose of keeping in power.

Mr. Meredith congratulated the Conservatives upon their choice of candidates for the city, and now as the electors were free men—no minority representation—they should rise in their might and help to hurl this unjust government from power.

He claimed that the party he has the honor to lead is the true progressive party, the democratic party. The leading progressive measures which were adopted were forced upon the Government by the Opposition.

The question of forests was one of the most vital questions in this Dominion, not only to this generation but to the generations to come. There were no steps being taken by the government for the preservation of our forests, but on the other hand it was being sold off in blocks at ridiculously low figures and the proceeds held up as an instance of the prosperity of the province under the Mowat government. The conserving of this timber would have been worth millions to us in years to come. He vigorously objected to the policy of the government which permitted the timber being taken to the United States instead of being cut in our own country.

Coming to educational matters in the province Mr. Meredith said during the past few days two gentlemen, both of Kingston, had come prominently before the people in print in the cause of the Mowat Government. Principal Grant, who, by the way, is solid on the cardinal points in the platform of the Opposition, favors Sir Oliver Mowat because he is honest. The speaker was ashamed of his province when a great man like Prof. Grant gives this as a reason for his support. Is Sir Oliver Mowat the only honest politician in the province? This seems to be a very poor reason to give for supporting an administration.

He might say, however, that usually they could not help but be honest as they were carefully watched by him (Mr. Meredith) and also by Mr. Clancy, who, by the way, he characterized as a broad liberal-minded man whom he hoped to see returned to power. The speaker continued in a severe onslaught on the professor.

The second gentleman was a high dignitary of the Catholic church, Archbishop Cleary. This gentleman broke out at the two previous elections and now breaks out again in about the same spot. But Mr. Meredith did not propose to meet abuse by abuse, nor to meet vulgarity by vulgarity. This reverend gentleman who now makes the charge of intolerance is the same who in 1890 insulted the whole Protestant clergy. He claimed to have been slandered by this gentleman and challenged him to lay his hand upon one act which proves him to be a hungry adventurer, an intolerant or a bigot.

He believed it was eminently in the interests of this country to have but one school system. It would be better for the children of this province to grow up side by side.

While the constitution stands as it does, he maintained that the Government should have control of the Separate schools. The teachers should pass the same examination and the same text books should be used.

He was not talking for votes and would advocate this policy in the face of defeat.

In closing his able address, Mr. Meredith states that he was not in favor of the extension of the ballot to women.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

THE OTTAWA CONFERENCE.

Colonial Interests Referred to at the Opening of Victoria's Parliament.

MELBOURNE, May 31.—The Earl of Hopeton, governor of the colony of Victoria, in opening the Victorian Parliament, congratulated the people on the gradual return of the country to prosperity. He rejoiced at the increase of interest throughout Australia on the subject of federation of the colonies, and that there was to be conferences looking to that end. Imperial, Canadian and South African delegates were about to assemble at Ottawa to consider not only the question of trade but that of a Pacific cable, which it was desirable should be entirely under British control.

The mission of Minister Reid to England and Canada, he said had paved the way for important undertakings in connection with the transportation of the surplus produce of the colony of Victoria and the disposal thereof in various countries.

The Loss of the Edwards.

HALIFAX, May 31.—Tidings of the loss of the American schooner Robert J. Edwards and all hands on Sable Island reached here in February by way of Gloucester. The message was received in Gloucester by a schooner that took it from the neck of a carrier pigeon that had dropped on the schooner's deck to rest at sea. Further particulars of the loss of the Edwards came here yesterday by government steamer Newfield, which returned from a visit to Sable Island. Robert J. Edwards of Gloucester, Capt. Bibber, was wrecked Jan. 12. She struck on the south side of the island, but the atmosphere was too thick to see. The south side bar and breakers were entirely submerged during the storm, and wreckage was washed ashore on the 14th and 15th and was buried on the 15th. The bodies of the wrecked sailors were found washed on shore.

Lawyer's Wife Elopes.

MONTREAL, May 31.—A sensation has been caused in French-Canadian society circles by the elopement of the wife of a prominent lawyer named Remillard with a Frenchman named Gaston, who came to this country some months ago from France with a lady, and moved in the best of French-Canadian society, and her departure has caused a great deal of talk. The couple went to New York, and it is believed have sailed for France.

Plante Found Guilty.

TORONTO, May 31.—Louis Plante, who was extradited recently from Montana to stand his trial for assaulting and robbing a Chinaman in this city, was yesterday found guilty and remanded for sentence.

Major Fairtlough Dead.

KINGSTON, May 31.—A cablegram was received here announcing the death in Africa of Major Fairtlough, R.A., formerly one of the staff of the Royal Military College here.

Will Sink Another Salt Well.

Rare Presence of Mind.

"I knew a sea captain, who died some years ago, who displayed great presence of mind at a most critical time," said Henry S. Roberts, of Boston. "His ship had caught fire and the passengers and crew were compelled to take to the boats in a hurry. The captain remained perfectly cool throughout all the confusion and fright of the embarkation, and at last every one but himself was got safely into the boats. By the time he was ready to follow the passengers were wild with fear and excitement. Instead of hurrying down the ladder, the captain called out to the sailors to hold on a minute, and taking a cigar from his pocket, coolly bit the end off and lighted it with a piece of the burning rigging. Then he descended with great deliberation and gave the order to shove off. 'How could you stop to light a cigar at such a moment?' he was afterwards asked by one of the passengers. 'Because,' he answered, 'I saw that if I did not do something to divert your minds there would likely be a panic and upset the boats. The lighting of a cigar took but a moment and attracted the attention of everybody; you all forgot yourselves in thinking about my curious behavior and we got safely away.'"

Millinery Critics

Recognize the remarkable freshness and beauty of our stock. Seems almost useless to advertise our Millinery. Ever since the spring reception it has been advertising itself, and a stranger looking in would think each day "first view day." Yet it is right to be courteous to our attractive novelties.

Our Millinery business is always being stimulated, and the wonderful varieties of taste displayed brings us happy visitors and pleased customers all the time. Because many are coming and buying; more will come and will buy.

This growing success proves the public faith—you trust and then you buy. Why? Every advertising word is true—you know it, and are sure to find it always so here.

Mantles and Capes.

The very newest and neatest—all much below regular value. In our collection, remember, there are no old things—no mistakes limping up to roll-call and never getting any further. No. All are favourites. They have 1894 style and goodness about them, and the prices combine to make matchless bargains.

Dress Goods.

Tastes differ, uses are various; therefore the proper Dress Goods stock must cover all sorts or there will be disappointment. Our stock is as nearly complete as we can make it, and, out of prevailing times, have grown prices that were never matched before, and are not likely to be equalled again.

Underwear Hosiery and Gloves.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

CHANDOS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Court of Revision on the assessment roll for the township of Chandos took place as advertised on the 19th ult. at Hall's School House. All members of council were present and after making the usual declarations took their respective seats, when it was moved and seconded that this council do now sit as a Court of Revision. Application of Samuel Bullied for a reduction of acreage on his assessment, reduced 16 acres. Application of Mrs. Bullied for reduction of acreage, reduced 2 acres. W. E. Daniels was placed on roll for lot 19, con. 4. Philip Downing was placed on roll for lot 8, con. 5. Mrs. Stephen E. S name was placed on roll in lieu of Scott. Jno. Doxsee was taken off roll for lot 25, con. 12. On motion of Court the roll was adopted as revised. A short council meeting was held after the business of the court was concluded. When Jas. Donald was appointed pathmaster on his own road. Mr. A. Doxsee was appointed a commissioner on repairs to Wilson's bridge. The clerk was instructed to notify Thos. Bullied to build his fence so that a road can be opened between lots 20 and 21, con 2. An order was drawn on treasurer to pay H. Caldwell balance of salary as assessor and an account for road allowance, $26. The council then adjourned until the call of the reeve. The next meeting to be held at Caldwell's School House.

MR. STRATTON'S SEVENTH MEETING.

A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

Public Questions, Both Local and General Fully Discussed—The Colonization Road Matter Dealt With.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings ever held in the township of Ennismore, took place last night in the interests of Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate, at O'Reilly's School House. The building was well filled and for three long hours the electors attentively listened to the addresses given.

Mr. Jeremiah McCarthy, the venerable ex-reeve, occupied the chair and opened the meeting with an effective address, showing what the Ontario Government had done for the municipalities and the great care and economy they had bestowed upon the general administration of provincial affairs for over twenty years.

Mr. Wm. Rudkins referred to the many acts that had been passed by Mr. Mowat for the improvement of the condition of the working men, and while the farmers felt that they had a staunch friend in the Mowat Administration, the working men of Peterborough and the province felt they also had a warm and practical sympathizer with their needs in the Government of Ontario, and when these two great classes the farmer and the other working classes unite, there can be no doubt of the result. In Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate, the people felt that they had a representative who had and one who was abundantly worthy, in every respect, of a renewal of the trust he had so satisfactorily and efficiently discharged. He had been most industrious and painstaking in finding out and meeting the wants of his constituents, and from what he (Mr. Rudkins) could find out, no section of the riding could complain that its interests had been neglected.

Mr. W. H. Murray, after paying a warm tribute to the candidate, said that the Opposition in the present campaign might try to turn and twist the facts to show that there was no surplus, but the bare, bold fact stood out that after 22 years of Liberal Administration, the province of Ontario had a surplus of over six millions of dollars. They might look to other lands in vain to find such a brilliant and clear record as that possessed by the Government of Ontario. Opponents talked of no surplus but had Mr. Mowat desired to hoard up a surplus, instead of giving back the money to the people to lighten local taxation, he could have shown to-day a surplus of sixty millions of dollars. It was a fact that could not be denied that nearly thirty five millions had been returned to the people in twenty-two years. Such a Government was worthy of a renewed lease of the trust they had fulfilled so well.

Mr. Stratton, who was received with hearty applause, thanked the electors for the hearty support he had received in the past and hoped his course had been such as to warrant a renewal of the trust that had been placed in him. He said the opponents of the Government had no platform. Mr. Winch has been in the field since last September and the electors had not heard one word in reference to the platform on which he stood or one word in endorsation or repudiation of the platform of his leader, Mr. Meredith. The campaign speeches of his mouth-piece-in-chief, according to the newspaper reports, "scathingly denounced the Government," and instead of manfully appealing to the electors on the issues now before them, appealed to them on the narrow-guage grounds of partizan preference. But he would do so in vain; the people preferred their own interests to the interests of party. They were at the back of the candidate of the Mowat Government in this riding and would not go back on their old friend for the sake of sustaining or improving the prestige of any party. The people and did not care a fig for party triumphs. While it might be to Mr. Dennistoun's interests to rally those he could influence round the party flag, the wise course for the electors to pursue was to vote for what they believed to be right and in their best interests. Mr. Stratton said he had made no appeal to the people on the ground of colonization road assistance, but when he was attacked for bringing to the county of Peterborough nearly $40,000, he might be permitted to draw a comparison with what the previous representative had done. Mr. Dennistoun is reported in the Review as follows:—

WANTED GOOD GOVERNMENT

"After reviewing Mr. Meredith's platform he referred to colonization roads, and said the Conservative party were thoroughly in harmony with the principal of devoting a fair proportion of the public money to the development of colonization roads, but they believed it was unfair for townships like Monaghan, Otonabee, Asphodel, Douro and Smith to permit Mr. J. H. Stratton to couple every government bonus with the condition that a similar grant be given by the county council."

Another example of a practical "sympathiser" with colonization road expenditure was Dr. Willoughby, who stood godfather to Mr. Winch at the latter's nomination, who moved, in the house, for a return of the money spent on roads in Smith and condemned the government for such expenditure. Mr. Stratton remarked that there were a great many principles in the Conservative platform which Conservative politicians did not and this indifference accounted for the many defections from the ranks of the party. In one breath Mr. Dennistoun was in harmony with the expenditure of money on colonization roads, in the next he denounced it as a campaign expedient. Mr. Dennistoun said he thought that the municipal authorities should expend road money, but he seems to have forgotten that the reeves of Galway, Harvey and Ennismore expended the government grants for roads, and that in Smith the person selected by the council was appointed by the government, who would be appointed with whom the people could be better satisfied than the reeve who was elected by the people. He and his friends might insult the intelligence of the people by asserting that moneys for public purposes should not be "peddled about from one side of politics to the other in proportion to the number of votes that could be anchored or prevented as occasions arose." But Mr. Dennistoun might "sympathize" with Government and to roads, yet his and nothing else. He compared the remarks of Mr. Dennistoun delivered on the shores of Rice Lake with the remarks of Mr. John Burnham, Conservative M. P., for East Peterborough. What Mr. Dennistoun approved of in South Monaghan, Mr. Burnham said was scandalous. Mr. Burnham at Mr. Lancaster's nomination, said, as reported in the Review:

"At the last meeting of the County Council, Mr. Stratton, the Member for West Peterborough, who attended the committee meetings of the county council with great regularity, proposed that certain grants be made for certain roads, on condition that the Government make a certain grant. This was not done in ignorance and they would find a good sum of money in the estimates for roads, and no doubt this road money would be spent about June when the work and the vote would be put in at the same time. He did not refer to such townships as Belmont, Burleigh and Dummer, where there were new roads required and money should be spent, but when they went so far as to make a grant to Ennismore from Pigeon Creek to the Mud Lake bridge, and to Smith from the road from Lakefield to Buckhorn, IT WAS GETTING TOO SCANDALOUS."

From this it would be seen that while one Conservative in the south part of the riding talks "sympathy" with colonization road expenditure, another in the central part of the riding talks "scandal." It is work and not "sympathy" that the people want and the following resolution, Mr. Stratton said, received by him that day, moved and seconded by two Conservatives and coming from a municipality where money had been expended, (Galway and Cavendish), should

of the honest expenditure of the public funds:—

Moved by Geo. McKee, seconded by Benjamin Millar, That the thanks of this council be, and is hereby tendered to Mr. J. H. Stratton for the valuable services rendered this municipality since he became member for this Riding, not only by securing government aid on the different roads in this township, but also for the many kind acts performed for the settlers and personal favours, in the way of getting them their land patents and any other assistance he could render them, and for the even distribution of the monies irrespective of person or party feeling, and it is the sincere wish of this council that he will be again elected as our member with an increased majority.—Carried unanimously.

Another resolution to the same effect by the council of Smith, showed a similar, estimate of the expenditure of the funds:

Moved by Mr. McIlmoyle, seconded by Mr J. D. Armstrong. That this Council tenders to the Ontario Government, and also to J. H. Stratton, M. P. P., through whose efforts the substantial assistance was obtained, the thanks of this Council—for the money grants received on different occasions for the improvement of the roads leading through this municipality into the northern townships, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Mr. Stratton.—Carried.

These resolutions coming from the municipalities in which the money was expended gave the most effective reply to the statements of Mr. Winch's friends.

It would be seen that the policy of Mr. Winch and his friends was "preaching"—opposite sermons

FROM THE SAME TEXT,

while policy of the Liberal candidate and the Mowat Government was "practice," and the people would show that they approved of a working policy on the part of a practical government on the 28th of June. Mr. Stratton said he felt he had only done his duty in these matters, and, if again elected, he was afraid he would be wicked enough to repeat, according to Mr. Burnham, the "scandalous" crime of using his influence to benefit the electors of West Peterborough.

Mr. Stratton said that the object of the efforts he has made was to give the people as good roads as could be made. It was well known that the better the roads, the more frequent would be the visits of the farmers to Peterborough and consequently the more money would be spent in the town. The faces of people from Harvey and Galway could be seen on the streets of Peterborough almost daily, when formerly, before good roads were beneath them visits would not be oftener perhaps than once in three months.

Mr. Winch and his speakers when they go into the north country would doubtless flop over on the question of colonization roads and talks "sympathy" with this expenditure. But the people did not want "sympathy" they wanted good roads.

Mr. Stratton then dealt with biennial sessions, the alleged non-secret ballot, the election of officials, the maintenance of public institutions, the benefits derived by the agricultural classes by the legislation and action of the government, and concluded an address of two hours amidst enthusiastic applause.

After the usual cheers for the Queen, candidate and chairman, the meeting dispersed.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Capt. Ada to-day placed in position the pilot mast, flag and other poles, which are painted in enammeled white, trimmed in gold. They cannot possibly go unobserved by the passer-by and they at the same time put the "City of Peterborough" in A. 1. ship shape order. The Capt. thinks she looks too cute for anything.

Mr. Richard Lund to-day gave the mammoth smokestack of the new steamer "City of Peterborough" a second coat of black paint, and she, he says, is of the ball room style. The rocking chairs are donning a coat of red paint throughout, some five dozen in all.

Messrs. Fowlds Bros.' drive of logs en route for Hastings—twenty thousand in all—were cut loose from their moorage in the Little Lake bay yesterday afternoon. The fair wind prevailing at the time gave them a clear sweep, driving them against the numerous abutments of the G. T. R. and Locks bridges and the glance piers of their respective approaches. Consequently the logs were jammed and are now up right, perpendicular and in a generally tangled mass, causing considerable rise in the water which is thus dammed back. The Gun Club's trap house which is situated on Riverside Park, is on a sailing expedition, having been floated from its supports by the high water. The fear is expressed that the logs may carry the dam away if the pressure becomes much greater. The rivermen are using every effort to break the jam Unless the drivers succeed in loosening the blockage, no knowing the extent of damage that may follow. The locks dam, at the same time, is in danger of being swept away.

Purser Bunting is hard at work and has his hands full. He evidently understands his business and intends filling the bill and making things A 1.

The general tool and paint house of the new steamer, it is expected, will also take an outing, as already the water, at six o'clock last evening, had risen in it to the depth of five or six inches. The workmen find great difficulty in obtaining their tools and paint.

GRAND LODGE OF TRUE BLUES.

Local Representatives Will be Present—Over 200 Delegates Expected From Canada and the United States.

The 20th annual session of the Grand Lodge of Loyal True Blues will be held in Toronto on June 5th and two following days, when it is expected that at least 200 delegates will be present. Representatives will in attendance from all the provinces as well as from the United States.

The largest representation, however, will be from Ontario. The first meeting of the Grand Lodge will commence at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning, when the chair will be taken by Mr. W Fitzgerald, Grand Master of the Association. Members who may not have a vote in the Grand Lodge will be welcomed as visitors. The Grand True Blue Lodge will be opened in the Blue Apron degree, but will be afterwords reduced to admit visitors, so that any member in good standing can attend the meeting. The delegates from the local lodge who will be in attendance will be Messrs. George Sloan and E. G. Dormer. Miss L. Belleghem and Miss Sarah Northcotte will represent the ladies branch of the Order from here.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.

"It's Fair's way."

Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Private Members' Day Made Subservient to Government Measures.

MANITOBA UNIVERSITY GRANT

Insolvency Bill to Come Up This Session—Redistribution of Quebec—Mr. McCarthy's Dual Language Bill—The Curran Bridge Investigation.

OTTAWA, June 1.—In the House of Commons, Hon. Mr. Daly, in answer to Mr. Girouard, said that the Government had sent two agents to the United States last year to promote the repatriation to Canadians. There were some 238 Canadians who returned during the year. They settled chiefly in Manitoba.

Sir John Thompson moved that Government orders have precedence on Wednesdays, after "questions to be put by members," for the remainder of the session.

Mr. Mulock said that the conviction had been forced upon his mind that the Government did not desire that certain bills and resolutions should be reached during the session. He thought that the Government had no right to take private members' day, thus depriving three members from pressing their bills.

Dr. Sproule said that he had received information from Montreal last evening which showed that there was no necessity for the consideration of Mr. Mulock's bill.

Sir John Thompson censured Mr. Mulock for his statement that the Government desired to bury any private bill or resolution. The bill dealing with the Governor-General's expenditure would not have effect until four years from now, and surely under the circumstances this was not an urgent case.

Sir Charles H. Tupper said that before the session opened a number of cattlemen, accompanied by Mr. Mulock, waited upon him asking for relief. They complained that a combine existed among shipowners to keep up freight rates. He asked them to furnish him with proof. None had since been forwarded. He then read from a letter of the inspector of cattle shipments at Montreal, showing that rates at Montreal were lower than at any American port. Under the circumstances he could not see why members opposite should constantly attempt to alarm the country and continue advocating the passage of a bill for which no necessity existed.

Sir John Thompson said that if there was time this session the Government would introduce the insolvency bill and the Companies' Act. The insolvency bill had been fully considered in the Senate and would probably not require much discussion in the House.

Hon. Mr. Laurier asked if the Government intended introducing a bill for the redistribution of Quebec this session. Sir John Thompson said he would answer in a day or two.

Mr. McCarthy said that he had a bill on the order paper relating to dual language in the Northwest Territories. Because of absence from the House his bill had been passed twice. Hon. Mr. Daly had a bill dealing with the Northwest Territories on the paper. He asked if his bill might be considered at the same time.

Sir John Thompson could give no assurance.

Mr. Martin, on motion to go into supply, took up the question of the land grant to the University of Manitoba. He read from certain documents to show that the Dominion Government granted certain lands to the university unconditionally. It would appear that when the lands were granted the university was not a teaching institution, but simply granted degrees on examination to the successful students of Catholic and Protestant schools. Since the lands were granted the university became a teaching institution, and immediately Archbishop Taché claimed a portion of the lands for a Catholic university. Mr. Martin said that the archbishop had appealed to the Dominion Government, and that the Government had promised to divide the lands as suggested. It was a matter with which the provincial government alone had any jurisdiction. Why did the Government refuse to issue the patents to the university?

Sir John Thompson was surprised that the hon. member should be so urgent in his demand for the patents, since the university authorities themselves had not made any such demand during four long years.

Hon. Mr. Laurier blamed the Government for not having four years ago rendered a decision one way or another, settling the question forever.

Hon. Mr. Daly thought it a singular thing that though he had been Minister of the Interior for eighteen months, he had not been appealed to by the University of Manitoba if they were in such haste as Mr. Martin had suggested. He promised that since the matter had been brought to his attention he would see that it would be dealt with by the Government as speedily as possible in a satisfactory manner.

Mr. McCarthy said that the Dominion Government had already decided the question, and that the reason of delay was because the university had refused to accept the patents upon the conditions imposed by the Government.

After recess the House went into Committee of Supply, taking up the item of $61,688 for salaries and contingent expenses of the Senate, which was passed.

On the item of $200,000 for the revision of the voters' list. Sir John Thompson, in reply to Dr. Landerkin, said he hoped that about $35,000 would be saved by the proposed changes in the Electoral Franchise Act in each revision.

In reply to Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir John Thompson said that it was proposed to adopt the provincial franchises, and not exactly the provincial lists. The revising officer in each constituency would have the assessment rolls and all the matter before him in making the revision. The Redistribution Act of 1892 would be brought into force for the purposes of this revision.

The item passed.

Considerable discussion arose on the votes for railways and canals.

Mr. McMullen opposed any further expenditure on the intercolonial, and Mr. Davies also gave it his opposition. The new scheme for the Cornwall canal came in for a great deal of criticism, although Mr. Haggart explained that the Sheik's dam plan saved $200,000 and gave a shorter and safer route.

Capital Notes.

Mr. La Riviere, M. P. for Provencher, has decided to return to the House and take his seat. He says his reported resignation is an invention.

In the Committee on Privileges and Elections in the morning the charges against Mr. Turcotte, M.P., came up. The investigation, however, made little progress, the objection of Sir Hibbert Tupper to the production of papers, etc., raising a profitless discussion. An order was passed for the subpœnaing of certain witnesses.

At the Agricultural Committee A. G. Gilbert, superintendent of the poultry department at the central experimental farm, gave evidence which will be published in extenso in the bulletins.

The Public Accounts Committee met again, when Joseph Roy, C. E., of Montreal, was examined in regard to the report he and Mr. Casgrain, M. P., made of the Curran bridge at the instigation of the Montreal Herald. His evidence was a corroboration of the testimony given by Mr. Casgrain, which showed that in all $290,000 had been paid for the work in excess of what it ought to cost.

TWO SWINDLERS CAPTURED.

One of them Supposed to be "Molly Matches"—His Record as a Crook.

TORONTO, June 1.—Two men have been arrested, charged with the swindling of John York, the farmer from British Columbia. They gave their names as John Williams and William McPherson. Mr. York identified the men positively as the two who swindled him out of $130 on the C. P. R. train.

One of the men is supposed to be the notorious "Molly Matches," who is known all over America as the prince of confidence men. The police are divided in their opinion as to his identity with that notorious character, but the general belief is that he is the man.

"Molly Matches" has a somewhat dramatic career. When a youth he disguised himself as a match-girl during a big celebration in New York city, and on account of his slight figure and rather feminine cast of countenance he passed among the throngs without being discovered. In this one day he is said to have made $3,000 and won for himself the nom de plume by which he has been known ever since.

During the war he joined a dozen different regiments and made a considerable sum of money as a bounty jumper. He has seldom used his real name, which is John Larney, but after the war he came to Canada and bought some property at Silver Creek, near Brampton, under the name of John Dolan. It is not known whether or not he holds this property yet. When 33 years old he had served eleven years in various penitentiaries, and was indebted to others from which he had escaped for twelve years.

One of the most daring schemes that Larney ever engineered was the robbery of the Galesburg bank about fifteen years ago. He waited until all the officials except the cashier had gone out to luncheon, and then walked into the building with two associates. Larney kept the cashier busy in making some small change, while the second man held up a newspaper and screened the third, who snatched $9,600 from the desk without being observed. Then the three men left the bank, and getting into a rig that a fourth man had outside, the whole quartette escaped.

McNaughton Admits P.P.A. Membership.

PORT ELGIN, Ont., June 1.—At the meeting of the Patron of Industry held here Mr. McNaughton, M.P.P. for North Bruce, gave a resume of his actions in the Local Legislature. He gave as his reason for voting against the Mowat Government, that being alone in the House, and being there by the voice of the Patrons of Industry he had to support Patron principles, and if again elected would act on those principles, supporting good measures from either side of the House. He acknowledged being a member of the P.P.A., and stated that he had prevaricated a little when asked on a former occasion whether he was a member of the P.P.A., and thinks that being a P.P.A. will not hinder him from honestly carrying out the Patron principles.

Lieutenant-Governor at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, June 1.—His Honor, Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick visited the arts and crafts exhibition yesterday in company with Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrie and Miss Herdrie. His Honor and party were received by the honorary president, Mr. Adam Brown; the president, Mr. Ireland, and the vice-presidents of the various sections, also by W. A. Robinson, president of the Art school, and the Hon. W. E. Sandford. His Honor spent an hour looking through the exhibition, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the work of the students, and that of the local and Toronto artists, as well as of the splendid collection of loan pictures.

Death of George Fox.

LONDON, June 1.—The death is announced of George Fox, who for many years was a partner of Alexander T. Stewart of New York. Mr. Fox, who died suddenly at his seat, Elmhurst Hall, Litchfield, was in charge for a number of years of a large interest in the house of A. T. Stewart & Co., centring in Manchester. He was in the eightieth year of his age. Since his retirement from business, some years ago, he has lived the life of a country squire.

Mr. Foster's Knighthood.

LONDON, June 1.—The correspondent has been informed on the highest authority that there is not the slightest truth in the suggestion which was current in the city during the early part of the week, and which was cabled that Hon. George E. Foster's action regarding the French treaty had anything to do in the least with the absence of his name from the Queen's birthday honor list. The suggestion was mere gossip of the street.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

Members From All Lands Assemble at Exeter Hall, London.

THEIR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

This Jubilee Celebration Commemorates the Fiftieth Year of the Existence of the Society—1000 Delegates Present — Sir George Congratulated.

LONDON, June 1.—The thirteenth international conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of all lands assembled in Exeter hall to-day. These conferences are held triennially.

The conference is being held in a large pavilion erected by special permission of the council of the city of London near Waterloo bridge, on the Thames embankment. It seats 21,000 persons, and in it all the delegates will be served each day with lunch and tea. It is handsomely decorated with the flags of all nations.

This conference is called the Jubilee celebration because it commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the first Young Men's Christian Association by George Williams on June 6th, 1844.

There are already about 1,000 delegates here. Of this number 100 are Americans. Prominent among the American delegates are: Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D. D., Hon. John Wannamaker, Rev. Henry H. Stubbins, D. D., of Rochester; Warden King and Herbert Ames, of Montreal; W. W. Smith, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Lewis E. Lyon, of Auburn, N. Y.

A conference of the English committee and the representatives of the American international committee was held yesterday with Sir George Williams in the chair. A resolution was adopted congratulating Sir George upon his knighthood. W. H. Mills, of London, moved an expression of condolence to the American associations upon the death of E. B. Monroe, of New York, the chairman of the international committee, which was adopted.

BRITISH COLUMBIA FLOODS.

The Valley of the Fraser River a Vast Lake—Danger Increasing.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 1.—The Fraser River is still rising, and the indications are that the flood will be even more disastrous than the memorable one of 1882. The river has already risen within eight inches of the high water mark of that great inundation. The whole valley is under water, the Fraser having spread out into a vast lake. The tide is now crawling up at the rate of an inch every three hours.

At Westminster the river wharves are submerged. Many cabins along the water front have floated off on the tide, and many poor families have lost all their belongings. Points further up the river report that the danger increases.

At Nicomen Island forty-four fine farms are entirely under water. In the vicinity of Ruby Creek the greatest danger is apparent, and several steamers have been despatched to the district. Annacis Island, two miles above New Westminster, is totally submerged, ruining many fine farms which formerly dotted the island. The ranchers were rescued by steamboats, but all their stock has been lost.

Jailed for Circulating Argentine Copper.

PARIS, June 1.—Raoul Tremblier has been sentenced to serve one month in prison and pay a fine of 5,250 francs for introducing copper money of the Argentine Republic into France. This money was held to be equivalent to contraband goods. Tremblier arrived at Dunkirk from Buenos Ayres on May 28, and was arrested charged with having murdered a man shortly before sailing from the Argentine Republic. Some 5,000 francs worth of Argentine copper money was found in his baggage.

Inquiry Into Grand Trunk Affairs.

LONDON, June 1.—R. Household has written an open letter calling upon the Grand Trunk shareholders in Great Britain to appoint an independent committee to inquire into the company's affairs. In commenting upon this letter the Standard says: Doubtless there is room for a searching overhauling especially in Canada, where wholesale waste probably exists, but the shareholders must be very careful in choosing the hands to which they commit the matter or the inquiry will do more harm than good.

Death From a Fall.

TORONTO, June 1.—John Mole, a plumber, employed by McGuire, of King street west, was at work in Nordheimer's new warerooms on Colborne street and fell down the elevator shaft to the concrete floor 30 feet below. He was found there some time afterwards and was taken to St. Michael's hospital, where he died in the afternoon.

N. C. Wallace Again Grand Master.

LINDSAY, Ont., June 1.—There was little or no contest for the Grand Mastership at the meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge here. Mr. Wallace had a large following and easily carried the vote. The session lasted all night. Election of officers took place at five o'clock in the morning and the session was then adjourned.

Truskie Fully Recovered.

WINDSOR, June 1.—Jail Surgeon Casgrain says that Joseph Truski, the murderer of Constable Lindsay, at Comber, has now fully recovered from the effects of the bullet he fired in an attempt to take his own life.

Trampled to Death by a Stallion.

EATON, Ohio, June 1. — Two small children of County Commissioner P. B. Fisher wandered into a barn at their home near here and were trampled to death by a vicious stallion.

Agrarian Rebellion in Manchooria.

SHANGHAI, June 1.—A rebellion has broken out in Manchooria in consequence of agrarian disputes between the Chinese and Mongolian chieftains.

Two Miners Killed.

NANTICOKE, Pa., June 1.—A hoisting bucket in the Bliss shaft here dropped upon and killed William Baker and Adam Hurman.

FRIDAY, JUNE 1. 1894.

OUR NEW COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS.

In the appointment of Mr. Wm. Harty, M. P. P., Kingston, as Commissioner of Public Works, Sir Oliver Mowat has made another of those happy selections which distinguish his choice of cabinet ministers. It will be remembered that during the last session of the Legislature Hon. Mr. Fraser resigned his position on account of ill health, and Mr. Harty was on Wednesday sworn in as Minister of Public Works and attended the first cabinet meeting the following afternoon. It is no light matter to assume such an office. Hon. Mr. Fraser, during his twenty years occupancy of the position, by the exceedingly brilliant discharge of its duties that has marked his administration, has established a standard and sets a difficult pace for his successor to take. But in Hon. Mr. Harty it is safe to say that Sir Oliver and the province have secured a worthy successor. Rev. Principal Grant says of Hon. Mr. Harty that "as a clear, strong thinker, a man of independent mind and a public spirited citizen, Hon. Mr. Harty has no superior in Ontario, and a man that is capable of doing splendid service for the province." In Mr. Harty's selection Sir Oliver has recognized the fact that he is a typical business man, a man of resources and familiarity with the business methods that the Department of Public Works especially demand.

Now Mr. Harty is in the prime of life. He was born near London, Ont., about forty-six years ago. The new commissioner of Public Works was at one time a resident of Peterborough. In 1852 he came with his father to Peterborough where the latter resided for many years. Here Mr. Harty attended school till about 1857, when he went to Regropolis College, Kingston. He returned to Peterborough in 1862 and entered the law office of the Hon. Sidney Smith, at that time in the block now occupied by the Grand Central Hotel. He however soon returned to Kingston when he entered into mercantile business, a branch of which he established in Peterborough about 23 years ago, with Mr. Bernard Morrow, the present Registrar, as partner and resident manager. Mr. Harty's political honours have matured rapidly. He was first elected to the Local Legislature to represent Kingston in 1892, succeeding Mr. Metcalfe, Conservative. His promotion, though it has been rapid, has been no more so than circumstances warranted. A successor to Hon. Mr. Fraser was needed, and Hon. Mr. Harty was appointed; and there is no doubt that he will prove himself a worthy successor to the most honest, capable, efficient and successful administrator of a government department Ontario or Canada or any country ever had. The EXAMINER extends its congratulations to Hon. Mr. Harty and to Ontario.

NO VARIETY IN POLICIES.

FROM a Conservative source comes a complaint that different Liberal journals use the same arguments in favour of the Administration, and that sometimes even the same language is used. This is almost inevitable. The Government has only one policy for the whole Province, while Mr. Meredith and his followers are able to produce a brilliant variety of policies suitable for all seasons and for all sorts and conditions of men. Mr. Meredith has been in favour of the retention of Government House, and also in favour of its abolition; he opposed the taking of one plebiscite on prohibition; now he won't be happy till he gets two; his record on the question of liquor licenses is a bewildering maze; his party has issued a pamphlet showing that the Government oppressed the Irish Catholics, and another showing that the Government was dominated by an Irish Catholic Archbishop. After this experience we suppose a Conservative would find one policy a bit dull and monotonous.—Globe.

UNDER the heading "Ontario's Grand Old Man," the Evening Star says: Sir Oliver Mowat spoke in London for an hour or more, and his address was a strong and powerful one. He defended the Government's action in connection with the prohibition question, the maintenance of Government House and the Separate School legislation, and denounced the attacks of the Opposition. Sir Oliver Mowat will be 74 years old on July 22nd. His effort at such an age is certainly to be admired. People are in the habit of looking to Great Britian for examples of men grown old in political warfare and revered for their age. We have in Ontario such a Grand Old Man, if we would recognise it; a statesman with an intellect ripened and matured by experience, and with an energy which years of political battle have not made inactive. To, at 74 years, address in a most forcible manner an electorate and defend a long-lived Administration is a remarkable achievement. Let party men forget their partizanship for a moment and remember that Ontario has a Premier to be admired and revered.

A CONTRAST OF POLICIES.

An Interesting Letter on the Political Situation.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

To the readers of campaign literature at the present elections in Ontario and to any one who carefully reads the speeches that are made and the arguments advanced by the candidates and their supporters, it is obvious that the lack of a substantial policy in the Opposition platform is the most conspicuous feature. It is true the Opposition have a policy of carping, of paring and nibbling at nearly all the useful acts of legislation inaugurated and made law by the Government of Sir Oliver Mowat, but with all their little ingenuities they have failed to find in his administration one solid thing to find fault with or one interest of the people neglected. In the few words I propose saying I cannot walk over all the weak and worn out planks of the Opposition platform. They have had the stiffness already taken out of them. There is one, however, which appears to me extremely weak and unpatriotic and out of line with the spirit achievements and history of the British race, is the objection raised at the expenditure of $40,000 last year on colonization, surveying and settlement of portions of our province, that are being rapidly taken up, and yielding to the country

A RAPIDLY INCREASING REVENUE.

What would our colonies all over the world be to-day if it had not the pluck and daring of British explorers? What would the commerce of England be but for her explorers, surveyers and navigators on land and sea, of her coasts and territories scattered around the world? What are England and Germany, and France, Belgium and Portugal now doing in the dark continent of Africa but following in the footsteps of the brave surveyors and explorers, Baker, Livingstone, Speke, Stanley, and our own brave young Canadian, Stairs, who lately lost his life in the noble effort to make known to England and the world the geography of the dark and solid continent. But last summer or fall the Dominion Government sent an exploring and survey party—the Tyrrell Brothers—to Lake Athabasca, in the N. W. T., to explore the "barren lands" stretching northward to Chesterfield Inlet, Hudson Bay, in latitude 65°. Just recently the Geographical Society of Quebec, a comparatively poor province, has sent an important communication to the Dominion Government urging that be sent to Hudson Bay during the coming summer. The United States, Australia, and every country and colony, spend large sums annually in intelligently working out the problems of explorations and surveys, and getting with scientific accuracy, a knowledge of the country's resources with a view to expansion and development of their hidden treasures. Yet it seems reserved for the Ontario Opposition, in the dearth of material for fault-finding, to be alone in their desire to check and limit the patriotic efforts of the Mowat Government in promoting the settlement of the province, and, as it seems opportune, of converting certain portions of our perishable forest wealth into needed and permanent and imperishable assets. At the average price paid to the government for the limits, as bonus only, independently of the annual ground rent and dues, the receipt from the sale of six miles square would more than cover the annual expenditure. The writer of this has never polled a Grit vote in his life, but this time will vote for the government of loyal Sir Oliver Mowat and for Mr. Stratton, who is known all over the county as the most painstaking, energetic and efficient representative Peterborough has ever had, and who, if he has any fault, it is not because he does not try to get Peterborough's full share of the public money spent among the people on needed and useful public works.

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Bebeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 10c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Colored skirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 3000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

Court of Revision.

The Court of Revision for trying appeals against the assessment roll of Monaghan for 1894, met at Town Hall, on Monday 28th. The following appeals were heard: 1. F. Hayes, W. Aldridge, agent, over charge on land. Assessment reduced $50. 2. Chamberlane estate, E. A. Peck, agent, over charge on land. Assessment confirmed. A few errors and small changes were appealed against by the Assessor and having been revised, the Roll was now passed and accepted.

The Court, on motion, resolved itself into Council for the transaction of general public business. The Reeve, Mr. Foster, in the chair. Present, Messrs. Hunter, Richardson, Waterman, and Johnston. The minutes of previous meeting were read and confirmed.

ACCOUNTS.

An account was received from Dr. A. E. Yelland, services as Medical Health officer, 1892 and 1893, $20.00. The following petitions were received:—From Osway Carver, asking to be relieved from the office of pathmaster for 1894.—Received. From W. J. Hall, asking to be permitted to perform his statute labour for 1894 upon that portion of seventh concession east of the bridge and on the quarter line as far north as the eighth line; also stating his willingness to supplement an equivalent to any grant the council would make to the said division.—Received. From R. A. Morrow and others, asking to have the statute labour for 1894 of himself, Mahoney and T. E. Bradburn performed upon Frederick and Ann streets.—Received. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Hunter,—That the accounts of Dr. A. E. Yelland be referred to the reeve for investigation.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Hunter, seconded by Mr. Waterman, —That the sum of $20 be granted to W. J. Hall on condition that he give an equivalent, to be expended upon that portion of highway as described above.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston seconded by Mr. McIntosh, that W. J. Hall be hereby instructed to perform his statute labour for 1894 upon that portion of the 7th con., east of the bridge and fourth line north to 8 con., to be numbered road division No. 30th, and that road divisions Nos. 2 and 3 be altered in accordance there with.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that Messrs. Morrow Meharry and Bradburn be hereby instructed to perform their statute labour for 1894 upon Frederick and Ann streets, to be numbered road division No. 29, and that road division No. 13 be altered in accordance therewith.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Waterman, that in the matter of petition of ratepayers on road division No. 14 as referred from last meeting, no action be taken.—Carried. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that this council petition the county council of the county of Peterborough to act under section 559 Municipal Act, 1892, R.S.O., as regards the maintenance of the boundary between North Monaghan and Smith.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Hunter, seconded by Mr. McIntosh, that that portion of road division No. 9, from Hooper's gate to 11 con. be struck off and added to road division No. 14—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that portions of road division No. 25, from G.T.R. to Park street be struck off and added to road division No. 26.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Hunter, seconded by Mr. Johnston, that the Reeve and Councillor McIntosh be a committee to arrange for the opening of a ditch on 8th con. opposite lot 6.—Carried. Mr. John Harper who was present tendered his resignation as pathmaster on road division No. 14, which was accepted. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that Councillor Johnston be empowered to supervise the repairing of the bridge at Cross street near Alf. Saunders.—Carried. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Waterman, that Councillor Hunter be empowered to have the broken windows in the town hall repaired. Carried. Moved by Mr. Hunter, seconded by Mr. Waterman, that the sum of $10 be granted upon road division No. 19.—Carried. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that the clerk be instructed to communicate with the C.P.R. authorities asking them to raise the grade of the approaches on crossing at boundary between North Monaghan and Cavan.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Waterman, that the clerk be instructed to write the G.T.R. authorities asking them to remove the fences from off the highway on road allowance on eleventh concession between lots eleven and twelve.—Carried. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Waterman,—That the expenses of the representation of North Monaghan to Ottawa, on Trent Valley Canal delegation, be paid.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. McIntosh,—That by-law No. 402, appointing Pathmasters, etc., be amended as follows: Sec. 1, Sub. Sec. 13, appointing O. Carver pathmaster, on R. division No. 13, is hereby repealed and the name of H. Webber substituted therefor. Section 1, sub section 14, appointing I. Hooper, pathmaster on road division No. 14, is repealed and the name of T. Hooper substituted therfor, and that section 1 be further amended by adding road division, No. 29, R. A. Morrow, pathmaster, and road division No. 30, W. I. Hall to be pathmaster, and that the resolution have the corporate seal attached thereto, to give it the force of a By-law.—Carried. Councillor Johnston gave notice of introducing a by-law to alter the boundaries of the polling subdivisions of the township, said alteration to be that the quarter line be the dividing line of the polling subdivisions. The Council adjourned to meet on Monday, the 6th of August, 1894, at 1 o'clock, sharp.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man, would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

SIRS,—I had such a severe cough that my throat felt as if scraped with a rasp. On taking Norway Pine Syrup I found the first dose gave relief, and the second bottle completely cured me.

THE BARNARDO HOMES.

Dr. Barnardo devotes a large proportion of his space in the May issue of Night and Day to illustrations from photographs of a great variety of cases of rescue through the agency of the Homes. Some twenty-four engravings of boys and girls, admitted apparently from all over the kingdom, show conclusively how wide is the range of effort which the Institutions undertake and also how necessary these efforts are. Cruelty, destitution, homelessness and child-suffering appear to demand now as much as ever unceasing care and attention. It is no wonder that the Homes have, as is abundantly evidenced in the issue of Night and Day, friends and supporters from all over the world. His Grace the Primate of all Ireland testifies to the value of the work done, while gifts and letters are recorded from correspondents in most out of the way localities. Some of these gifts are of the most remarkable character and the paragraphs relating to them constitute a real revelation as to the benevolent sympathy which is felt towards she Institutions, not only by the wealthy, but by an enormous number among the middle and lower middle classes.

Dr. Barnardo states, in recording the departure of his first emigration party for the current year of 234 trained lads, that he has now sent to Canada and the Colonies no fewer than 6,805 boys and girls, of whom 98 per cent. have acquitted themselves satisfactorily. It is hoped that several additional hundreds from amongst the nearly 5,000 children in the Homes will be sent to Canada during the summer.

It is announced that a self-denial week for the benefit of the Homes will be observed from the 4th to the 12th of August next. The annual meeting, one of the most attractive entertainments of the year in London, has been fixed to take place in the Royal Albert Hall, on Saturday afternoon, 23rd June, when Lord Brassey will preside.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Friday, June 1.

At this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer indicated 45° above zero, and still the prospect of cold, showery weather. May, now gone, has left a wet record, falling 7 inches and 68-100 of water during the month.

Mrs. McEachern, who used to keep store here some years ago, has returned and opened in No. 422 George street, with a larger and more varied stock than ever. Ladies from the country are specially requested to call and inspect our stock. Materials for making up fancy work, twelling, toys, nick-nacks, fine wadding for making flowers, leaves, stamens.

Do You Go Boating?

Want any sails? I am prepared to furnish the best of work and material. Being a practical sailmaker and having good experience in cutting and designing sails of all kinds, I guarantee satisfaction. Mochican, Lateen, Batwing, Leg-o'-Mutton and Yacht Sails of any desired area drafted and made to order on short notice. ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, tent, sail and awning maker, Water street, opposite the market.

A New Idea.

You will remember that Goliath was very much struck when David hit him with a stone. He said that such a thing had never entered his head before. New ideas are numerous in our stock. We always have what is latest and best. We have the latest novels by the most modern writers, too numerous to enumerate—come and see. We also have a splendid line of popular paper bound books 2 for 25c. or 5 for 50 cents—A. H. STRATTON & CO.

Merit Appreciated

In commenting on the recent celebration in Campbellford the Herald says:—"Music during the day was furnished by the Fire Brigade band of Peterborough, whose playing was greatly admired and enjoyed. No one having any love for music could help being charmed by their sweet renditions. The band is well supplied with reed instruments, they have powerful bass and there is no lack of intermediate parts by good players. They are a well-behaved jolly lot of fellows and a most creditable musical organization."

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The Art Sale of beautiful goods is drawing to a close. Do not miss Friday and Saturday nights as some of the nicest goods in the stock will be offered on these nights, and as we are anxious to close the sale they will be knocked down quickly. Positively no reserve. A chance of a life time. Sale will begin at 7.30. JOHN HAGGART, Auctioneer.

Pronounce it a Farce.

Regarding the reported criminal assault of a Campbellford colored man named Huffman, on a young girl in Norwood, the Herald comments thusly:—"It is reported that Huffman did not make the slightest attempt to assault the young girl; that she is an acquaintance of his, and it was during a playful scuffle in which they were engaged that the girl's shouts were heard, and information was laid against him that led to his arrest a few hours afterwards. Mr. Huffman secured bail for his release from custody, two of the citizens of Campbellford having furnished bonds for his appearance when he is wanted for trial. Those acquainted with the particulars of the case pronounce it a farce, and are satisfied that Huffman is innocent of the charge."

CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best montly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDICAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION.

Peterborough Will Have a Gala Day on the First of July—The Programme.

At a meeting of the demonstration committee last night a most effective programme was drawn up for the celebration of Dominion Day. Among the amusements which will be provided will be a brass band contest for valuable prizes, a calithumpian and trades display, in which thirty of the merchants will have floats and fifteen more will be provided by the committee. A programme of horse races, sports and games at the driving park, a baloon ascension by Prof. Walcott, of New York, to conclude with a grand display of fireworks in the evening.

The celebration is given under the auspices of the Board of Trade, Fire Brigade and citizens, and by all appearances the first of July will be a gala day, indeed, in Peterborough.

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. A. B. Campbell, Norwood, is in town for the day.

Rev. G. M. Leehy, of Port Hope, has accepted a call to Brandon Baptist church.

The death of Miss Cora Lucas, of Baillieboro, occurred on Wednesday morning last.

Dr. Grey, of Baillieboro, was up in town last night, and favoured the EXAMINER with a call.

Mr. Tom Campbell, Peterborough, spent the 24th at his brother-in-law's, Mr. W.W. Garrett, Tweed.—News.

Mr. Jas. Campbell, of Peterborough, spent the 24th with his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Garrett.—Tweed News.

Mr. Frank Raines, of Peterborough, has been visiting his parents in town during the past week.—[Port Perry Standard.

Mr. M. A. Hawley took a run down from Peterborough on Wednesday to transact business and see old friends.—Campbellford Herald.

Mr. J. R. Stratton is confined to his room to-day from the effects of a severe cold. It is expected that his illness will be of only a temporary character.

Mr. Frank Britton and his friend, William Porter, of Peterborough, were the guests of Mr. J. Britton on the 24th..... Mrs. T. M. McFadden, of Peterborough, is the guest of Mrs. L. Archambault, of town.—Lindsay Watchman.

Herr Rudolph Ruth, the accomplished violoncellist, who was heard with so much pleasure here at the Douglas Bird concert held a very successful recital by his pupils at the Toronto College of Music last night. The recital reflected much credit upon Herr Ruth's ability as a teacher of both the 'cello and pianoforte.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

The Chemong train starts running Monday next.

The C.P.R. uptown ticket office looks quite spruce in its new coat of paint.

The G.T.R. grass plot is at its best. The lilacs and flowering shrubs are all in bloom.

The Canadian engine and locomotive works at Kingston have secured the contract for the lock gates at the Sault Ste. Marie canal.

If work is to commence in June, it is about time the surveyors were out locating the route for the new railroad. There are scores of men in this locality with hopes and expectations running high over the enterprise, now ready to handle the pick and shovel.—Campbellford Herald.

Hair switches and bangs made up right in the store. Mrs. McEachern, 422 George street.

No Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco is genuine unless it bears the Derby Cap Shaped Tag.

Mr. W. Madill guarantees every bottle of his Cough Syrup to cure, or money refunded.

School Children's Celebration.

The school children's celebration will be held on the P.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow, instead of at the Agricultural Park.

Are you languid and weak? Stick to Beef, Iron and Wine as prepared by Jas. Lynch, chemist and druggist, 108 Hunter street.

We have extra value in Men's Serge Suits at $3.75, $4.75, $6.50, $8.50, at Grafton & Co's.

Water Filters.

I have just received a large stock of Jewett's celebrated Water Filters. They are the best Water Purifier in the market. Every family should have one to ensure pure drinking water. Call and see them. ADAM HALL, 407 George street dtf

Lawry's Fine Meats.

If you want something tasty, get Lawry's (Hamilton) smoked English bacon, Roll Ham, Spiced Roll, smoked L. & S. bound Hams, smoked Rolls, sweet-pickled Rolls, and Nelson Morris, (Chicago,) best cut dried Beef—we chip the dried beef fresh for you.—ALEX. ELLIOT, Palace Grocery.

A Swell Affair

Dried apples in hot water are always "swell affairs." They with other fruits come in very handy at this time of the year—just before fresh fruits are plenty. A new stock of canned fruits, also jams by the pound, has been opened at MASON & Co's Grocery, and are fit for a gentleman's table.

Makes People Well Quick.

Life is short and if you can strike the right spring medicine at the first shot, time and nerve energy is saved. Three doses a day of that celebrated Sarsaparilla for sale at Lynch's drug store puts you "in fighting trim" in quick order, gives you a strengthened system, a pure skin, a toned liver and pure blood. Lynch's, 108 Hunter street.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & CO.

—The trees are not yet fully in leaf in Calgary.

—Wednesday was Decoration Day over the border.

—Committee on the whole to-night in the council chamber.

—Dr. Brennan will be one of the judges at the children's sports on Saturday.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—The Ven. Archdeacon Allen preached to the Baillieboro Sons of England last Sunday.

—Every woman admires a man who can swim, and looks with horror at a boy who wants to learn how.

—The postponed schools celebration will be held in the P.A.A.A. Grounds to-morrow afternoon. The band will be in attendance.

—At the police court this morning a couple of drunks were discharged and one sent up for six months. The latter was an old offender.

—Complaints continue to come in regarding the stealing of flowers in the evenings. Not only the blossom but the entire plant goes.

—A commendable pride for grassy plots shade trees, shrubs and flowers about the home, is on the increase among the people of Peterborough.

—Messrs. A. McPherson and J. Simons are busily engaged repairing the tower of St. Martin's church, Eunismore, and placing the cross in position.

—The annual outing of the business men took place to-day under the auspices of the Olympic orchestra. Quite a number took in the sail up the lakes.

—The Ormond cheese factory took in on Monday a.m. 19,000 lbs. of milk. Are there many that can beat this? If so, let us hear from you.—Hastings Star.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 108 Hunter street.

—The Catholic Order of Foresters of Hastings will have their second annual excursion by steamer "City of Peterborough" to Idyl Wild, on Tuesday, the 12th of June.

—Crossley & Hunter, the Evangelists, have concluded their services in Belleville after converting 852 people, and open an evangelistic campaign in Prescott on Sunday.

—It is estimated that a girl who chews gum ten hours a day, wastes motive power sufficient to travel 193 miles during the year—that is, giving her jaw a half-inch play.

—There has been 21 births, 6 marriages and 15 deaths in Peterborough during the past month. It will be observed that the population of the town is still on the increase.

—The neighbouring villages' excursions are now in course of arrangement. Baillieboro Foresters and Sons of England will be held on June 6th. Baillieboro Baptist Sunday school have theirs on June 12th on Rice Lake.

—The draughtsmen in the different canoe factories are busily engaged in drawing up plans and specifications for arks. It looks as though there would be a demand for something in that line if the rain doesn't cease.

—Mr. P. Kennedy, of the American House, town, was the winner of the $10 gold piece at St. Paul's picnic, Lakefield, the lucky number being 1215. The net proceeds of the day amounted to something over $200.

—By a simple rule, the length of the day and night, any time of the year, may be ascertained by simply doubling the time of the sun's rising, which will give the length of the night, and doubling the time of setting will give the length of the day.

—Not a word has been heard about the tramp who so wantonly shot Mr. Will. Crossley in the leg Wednesday evening. The scoundrels cannot follow the track far without being spotted. Mr. Crossley is progressing towards recovery favourably.

—Mr. J. Goselin this morning showed a reporter a spring lamb which tipped the beam at 42 pounds—30 pounds being considered a good average weight, it will be seen what a chubby little fellow Mr. Goselin must have secured. It was just two months old.

—A careful farmer near Cornwall, says the Standard, who is also a successful one, estimates that the loss to the farmers of the united counties by the use of narrow waggon tires, through wear and tear of horse flesh, loss of time, etc., amounts to $10,000 per year.

—The anniversary of the Zion Methodist church, Cavan, will be held on Sunday and Monday, June 3rd and 4th. Sermons will be preached morning and evening at 10.30 a.m. and 6.30 p. m. by the Rev. Geo. Ross, Wesleyville. On Monday tea will be served at 4 p. m. to 7 p. m. The Revs. Newton Hill, Lindsay, D. N. McCamus, Millbrook, and J. W. Bunner, Lifford, will deliver addresses. The Kendal choir will furnish music.

—The Catholic Directory for 1894, which has just been issued, gives the statistics of the Catholic church in the United States. Every diocese furnishes its own figures. The Catholic population in many of the diocese is approximated, and in the absence of exact figures, the compilers of the directory are unable to say just how many Catholics there are in the United States. The directory gives the number as 8,902,033, but Catholic authorities claimed last year that there are at least 12,000,000.—Catholic Mirror.

—The Hastings Star says:—"We had a call from Mr. T. Blezard, M.P.P., during the past week. He is looking well and seems hopeful of success. We have understood for a long time Mr. Blezard was a P. I., and have yet to learn why the association brings out two other Patrons to oppose his return. Is there not inconsistency here? We have watched closely Mr. Blezard's record and while we have heard much in his favour, but very little against it. He may not be as full of gush and wind as some politicians, yet he gets there just the same, and turns up at the end of 15 years' service with an exceptionally clear record."

—The editor of a paper in western Ontario says he is willing to forfeit his claim to a good name if there is to be found a person of greater talent in plotting against the truth than a business man of the town in which he resides. Come down to Campbellford, old fellow, we've got him right here, a real dandy, of whom a joker said he shut himself up six months to become a professional.—Campbellford Herald. Peterborough used to have a claim on a man which would answer both these descriptions to a "T," but he is drawing on that vivid imagination of his in a town to the south now.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MR. STRATTON'S EIGHTH MEETING.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL GATHERING

Provincial Public Matters Discussed—Addresses by Mr. Roger and Mr. Stratton—Economical Administration by the Mowat Government—Striking Comparisons With Other Governments—Cordial Receptions Everywhere for the Liberal Candidate.

Another well attended meeting of the electors of Smith, was held in the Temperance Hall, Selwyn, on Thursday night. The attendance was large, considering the steady downpour of rain. Mr. M. E. Sanderson occupied the chair, and after a few appropriate remarks introduced Mr. G. M. Roger, who said it was a matter of astonishment that after the Mowat Government had been in power for nearly a quarter of century administering the affairs of the greatest province of the Confederation, and subjected to the keenest criticism of an Opposition, made vigilant by self interest—the desire to gain office for themselves, that so little could be advanced at the present time against the record of the Government. In place of any substantial ground of grievance, the Opposition practically acknowledged their weakness in this respect, by introducing side issues that had no proper bearing upon the question of the fitness and title of the government of Sir Oliver Mowat for a renewal of the

for twenty-two years. He dealt with Mr. Meredith's proposal to introduce the American system of biennial sessions. He pointed out the evil effects that might arise, and, indeed, had arisen, where the system was practiced, from the lack of scrutiny into administration which resulted from having the long interval of two years between the parliamentary scrutiny into the acts of the government of the day; and the tendency there was to extravagance which would result. Public officials could not be too closely watched, and if an administration was disposed to carry things with a high hand and to practice wasteful methods they had two years under this system to operate in, unchecked by parliamentary scrutiny Instead of having a supply bill of some four millions placed at its disposal, a Government would have two years, supply bill—about eight millions placed in their hands at one time, and there would be the temptation to extravagance. That might not be an evil with a Government like the present in power, but a government would be inclined to take advantage of this opportunity and the alleged saving in expense of legislation would stand a chance of being more than counterbalanced by the results of two years' unrestricted swing at a supply bill of some eight millions o fdollars. Referring to the Ontario ballot, Mr. Roger said that it was the same as that used in Great Britain and some of the Australian colonies, and that it prevented fraud being perpetrated upon a constituency. Frauds, ballot box stuffing, personation and other breaches of the Election Act could be detected under the Ontario ballet system in a manner which no other ballot system provided. When Hon. Mr. Blake was introducing a ballot system in the House of Commons in 1874, the late Sir John Macdonald and Hon. Mr. Abbott advocated the adoption of the Ontario ballot system which had always worked well and had worked no wrong.

LESS CAREFUL AND SCRUPULOUS

MR. STRATTON'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Stratton said that what he might say in reference to the Honesty and Intergrity of the Mowat Administration, might be regarded as the partial opinion of a supporter of that government, but he wished, instead of giving his opinion, to call attention to the following statements of Rev. Principal Grant, as his matured and deliberate opinion. Rev. Principal Grant is the well known head of the great Presbyterian educational institute, Queen's University, Kingston, and a great preacher. He has always been and still is a Conservative of the Conservatives, and was a warm friend of the late Sir John Macdonald. The following is the report of the interview in which Rev. Principal Grant expresses very decided opinions:—

"Have you any objection to expressing your opinion as to the probable result of the general election?" he was asked.

"I cannot predict," said Dr. Grant in reply, "but I have no objection to say what seem to me the issues on which our people should make up their minds before voting. The vote is a very sacred trust and the man who sells or otherwise dishonours it is a poor creature, like Esau. I am always willing to speak out what is in me when asked on behalf of the public, for a free country requires free speech as the best antidote to secret organizations, local or sectarian appeals, or the selfishness of individuals."

THE CLAMOUR OF FADDISTS

"What are, in your opinion, the most important issues before us, so far as Ontario is concerned?"

"The one point that our people everywhere must settle is this: Can we get administrators who are determined that the commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal,' must be observed? Till that is settled, it is useless to talk about anything else. Provincial rights, school questions, tariff reform, British connection, canals, cables, railways—what is the use of discussing these if we sink into being a nation of thieves? That is what we must become if we tolerate stealing in high places, for what is done at the top is sure to permeate to the bottom. Look at the revelations that we have had since 1891—corruption in so many quarters that we wonder if there was a

CLEAN SPOT ANYWHERE;

the people of Quebec robbed that M. Pacaud and his friends might have the joy of exploiting what he termed a gold mine! The people of all the provinces robbed that the robbers might rule Canada! A recent instance is enough to show how deep and widespread the roots of the malady are, and to show how hard it is for a government to act, even with good intentions, unless supported by a healthy public opinion. Two worthy gentlemen were convicted and sentenced to gaol. Prison disagreed with them and they were set free. One is about offering himself as a

CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT

the other was taken from prison as a conquering hero. In Montreal, fine gentlemen received him at the railway station with cheers, took him to the Windsor and dined and wined him. He, in reply, said not a word about ill-health, but declared that the people would not allow the government to keep him in prison any longer! When convicts get such treatment, ordinary men will not be much disinclined to be classed among convicts. As we think of the saturnallia that must have existed for a long time before such a

STATE OF PUBLIC MORALS

could become possible, we are forced to ask what might have happened to the richest province in the Dominion, if any easy-going politician had had charge of its strong box. What plunder there was for a gang! We have timber limits worth tens of millions; we could stand a debt of twenty or thirty millions as easily as Quebec. A politician of easy virtue would have lavished these millions on heelers and hangers-on, who, in return, would be enthusiastically voting him a god. Would not this thought throw some light on what we have escaped, and on what we owe to the man, (Sir Oliver Mowat), who has been in charge of our strong box for twenty-two years! Assuredly, the revelations have had that effect upon me. Our and our honour is safe. Thank God for it, and also let us keep our powder dry—that is, keep a good servant at his post. A man who will not read this lesson will not read anything. IN ONE WORD ONTARIO CANNOT AFFORD TO DISMISS SIR OLIVER MOWAT."

Dr. Grant further says he himself would prefer a management of the Education Department outside the Government, thus disagreeing with the great Dr. Ryerson, whose long experience in educational matters eminently qualified him to give an intelligent opinion, and who distinctly declared in favour of the management of educational matters by a Minister of the Crown, as is now the case.

With reference to biannial sessions, Dr. Grant says:

"For instance, his proposal to have biennial sessions shows an astonishing lack of insight into the essence of the British constitution, fit only for free men, and on which ours is based."

After referring to one or two minor matters, Dr. Grant continued:—"I am forced to choose, clearly Mr.

MOWAT MUST BE RETAINED, or else public intimation is given that we are indifferent to able, upright and economical government at a time when the attention of the whole world has been called to Canada as an example of the reverse.

There is, however, another reason for voting for him that appeals to men who believe that British connection is indispensable to the growth of Canadian nationality. Mr. Mowat was always loyal, but in the last two or three years he has taken a decided public stand that has cost him some followers, and that in my opinion should win for him twice as many. His acceptance of honour from the Queen—and it is clear to me that as a rule politicians should neither seek nor refuse such honors—his Niagara speech, his dismissal of an official who defied him on a point of duty involved in his office to the Crown; these things

SHOULD NOT BE FORGOTTEN.

When D'Alton McCarthy said, 'Though Sir Oliver Mowat has lost Elgin Myers, he has gained Mr. McCarthy,' a good many added individually, 'and me, too.' In one word, those men who are in favour of British connection cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."

"Is there any other reason?"

"Yes, but let me again say that the first is enough for all sensible men. One more may be added. There can be no doubt that Sir Oliver Mowat stands now for the fair treatment of minorities and that is the only way to make possible a united Canadian people. Some Protestants

SEEM TO BE SCARED

now and they will be ashamed of themselves by-and-bye. We Protestants used to be fearless. We used to say that truth was great and would prevail; that truth needed only a fair field and no favour; but now some of us seem afraid of the rustling of a leaf. It is fancied that one Roman Catholic in a cabinet can bind half a dozen Protestants and that a feeble minority can deprive us of our liberties if they get their share of a number of paltry offices. The forms that this scare takes are so extreme that it is impossible for the thing to last any time. For instance, there is not a more typical Protestant in Canada, than the Hon. Mr. Gibson. He is straight from first to last, incorruptible,

EVERY INCH A MAN,

capable, diligent, and an honour to his city. Yet some good men are opposing him because they think him a slave to Rome. They might as well think him the King of the Cannibal Islands. I know the force of prejudice and passion, but it is difficult to believe that many of the intelligent people of Ontario will be carried off their feet by this scare. There are bigots on both sides, but the great mass of our people do not intend to sow dragons' teeth, and the great mass of Protestants have no intention of fighting God's cause with the devil's weapons.

"I cannot help saying here that I wonder a little that Mr. Meredith does not speak out what he must feel with regard to the P.P.A. He might lose votes on this occasion by so doing, but he would gain in the long run. A brief tenure of office is not what such a man desires, but a permanent place in the respect of his countrymen. Surely it is clear that there can be no such thing as Conservatism in Canada, in any sense of the word, that is not based on a good understanding between our two great religious denominations. Coquetting with such an association, or even silently accepting its aid, must be fatal to him. It may be said that he

IS NOT COQUETTING.

No, but the receiver is as bad as the thief. Such allies must have their price, and they are sure to act as a boomerang. I would like to hear from both leaders a distinct repudiation and denunciation of any organization that is based on the proscription of any class of our people on religious grounds. We need a union of all good men in Canada, and we dare not say to any man that he must abandon the religion of his mother before he can be expected to be treated as a citizen. On this third ground, then, I say, we cannot afford to dispense with the services of Sir Oliver Mowat."

Such opinions, Mr. Stratton, commented, coming from such a high source, suggested statesmanlike utterances, which should command more weight than the petty pettifogging partizan complaints of interested opponents of the Government who were seeking to displace the Government in order that their party and themselves might gain the honours and emoluments of office.

MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC INSTUTIONS.

In dealing with the maintaining of public institutions, which had been one ground of the skirmish attacks of the Opposition, Mr. Stratton showed that the best way to judge of the economy of the government of Ontario was to make comparisons with the expenditure of other goverments. The first instance given was the returns in connection with the maintenance expenses and revenue of the Central Prison of Ontario compared with the penitentiaries of the Dominion under Dominion government control, as illustrated by the following table:—

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT.

Institution.	Cash revenue per prisoner.	Cost per prisoner for maintenance, deducting revenue.
Kingston Penit'y	$6 50	$242 69½
St. Vincent de Paul	3 07½	225 29½
Dorchester Penit'y.	22 30	232 32
Manitoba Penit'y	13 14	422 80
B. Columbia Penit'y	10 46	492 29
Central Prison	62 18	124 82

This indicated, Mr. Stratton said, that the revenue per prisoner was three times as great at the Central Prison, under the Mowat Government management, as the revenue of the best of the Dominion Government penitentiaries—Ontario $62.18, and the Dominion (Dorchester) $22.30; and that the cost of maintenance was one half less in Ontario than were the best managed Dominion penitentiaries—$124.82 Ontario Central Prison, and $225.29½ St. V. de Paul penitentiary. He further pointed out that the total expenditure for maintenance of Central Prison during 1893 was $50,830.07, and the average daily cost per prisoner was $51.31 cents as compared with $51.79 cents in 1892, and, if the profits from the labour of prisoners, amounting to $19,836.14 were deducted from the total maintenance, the net cost would be $30,994.93, or an average daily cost per prisoner of $34.35 cents. Mr. Stratton said that undoubtedly the best way to judge whether or not the industries in connection with the Central Prison were being efficiently conducted was to compare results with those obtained at similar institutions elsewhere, as he had done.

The "Public Institutions," maintained entirely at the cost of the province, include (1) the Central Prison for men, the Mercer Reformatory for women, and the Reformatory for boys at Penetanguishene; (2) five Lunatic Asylums—at Toronto, London, Hamilton, Kingston and Mimico, and an idiot asylum at Orillia, besides the new asylum at Brockville, which would be opened during the present year; (3) the Educational Institute for the Blind at Brantford and that for the Dead and Dumb at Belleville. The total amount paid in 1893 to hospitals and charitable institutions out of the Provincial Treasury was $164,806.24. The amount voted for 1894 was $175,850.07. It was needless to repeat that all of this expenditure, as well as all of the expenditure for the erection and maintenance of the various public institutions, was perfectly gratuitous on the part of the province, that it relieved the municipalities of a burden which would otherwise have to be met by direct taxation and that it was actually a payment to the people of surplus revenue. Similar results, the speaker said, would be shown by a comparison of the

COST OF MAINTAINING

Ontario asylums, with the cost of similar institutions in other provinces, in England, in other colonies and the United States. To show this the following statement was read, of the comparative cost per patient in the several asylums:

	Yearly.	Weekly.
Montreal Protestant Asylum, average for 1892 and 1893	$181 12	$3 42
Manitoba Asylums at Selkirk and Brandon, average for 1891 and 1892	236 28	4 53
Massachusetts six State Asylums, average for 1892 and 1893	176 19	3 38
Pennsylvania Asylums for 1892	242 01	4 65
Utica State Hospital, Hudson River State Hospital, Middleton State Hospital, and Buffalo State Hospital, average for 1889, '90 and 91	264 98	5 09
78 U. S. Asylums, average cost of maintenance	227 88	4 38
English Asylums, average of 21 years	151 84	2 92
New South Wales Asylums, average for 21 years, as per Inspector General's report	193 96	3 73
ONTARIO ASYLUMS, average for 1891, '92 and '93	188 43	2 66

From this it was to be seen that the cost of maintenance was far less in Ontario than in any other province or country. A simillar result came from comparing the cost per inmate of the institution for the Blind at Brantford, with similar institutions elsewhere and the following statement, which he submitted, showed the annual cost per patient was

New York State	$294 00
New York City	316 00
Maryland	220 00
Illinois	232 00
Michigan	284 00
Texas	287 00
Yorkshire (England)	282 00
Pennsylvania	270 00
Kentucky	270 00
Massachusetts	216 00
Brantford, Ontario	260 00

And the same results followed a comparison of the annual cost per pupil in the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Belleville, with other institutions elsewhere, as follows:

Average of 41 institutions in the United States for 1892. (In no case does the cost come anywhere nearly so low as in Ontario)	$372 80
Halifax Institution, N.S	188 88
Mackay Institution, P.Q	239 76
Fredericton Institution, N.B	214 44
Manitoba Institution	250 37
Ontario	176 81

ECONOMY OF MANAGEMENT.

From the figures submitted Mr. Stratton said it would be seen that the cost of maintaining the public institutions of the Province of Ontario were far less than the cost of maintaining similar institutions elsewhere and at the same time the inmates were as well if not better looked after, indeed one great ground of complaint on the part of Opposition leaders was that the inmates of Ontario public institutions were too well cared for, judging by the expense. If the Government starved the unfortunates placed in our asylums, the cost of maintenance might be greatly reduced, but their policy was to give the best possible care to these unfortunates, and if this was done at half the cost of similar institutions, the Ontario Government for economical management of our public beneficient institutions. After dealing at length with the timber policy of the Government, the financial standing of the province as compared with the other provinces and the Dominion, the claims of the government upon the support of the farmers and the working men for the interest the government had taken in promoting their interests, with the Succession Duties Act, the abolition of government house, the election of officials by county councils, and other matters of public interest, Mr. Stratton went on to refer to the course he had pursued during his eight years' representation of West Peterborough and to the services he had rendered to his constituents, which, judging by the evidences of appreciation he had received, had been of substantial value. He then referred to the retirement of Hon. Mr. Fraser and the appointment of Mr. William Harty, of Kingston, as his successor in the Department of Public Works, and concluded a well received speech by appealing to the electors for a favourable verdict on June 28th.

The meeting which closed in the usual manner, was a very successful one and was another indication of the great favour Mr. Stratton's candidature is receiving in every part of the riding visited, and the enthusiasm of reception is not to be wondered at. He has been a faithful representative, looking carefully after every interest of the constituency. This the electors are not slow to see and, combined with the splendid record of the Mowat Government, gives no room to doubt that Mr. Stratton will, by a large majority, head the polls on the 28th of June.

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $13 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself,—the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $13, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 00
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
2 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

CASE OF REV. N. BURNS

Considered at the Ministerial Session of the Guelph Conference.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIM

Resolution Passed Deposing Him From the Ministry at the Expiration of the Conference Unless He in the Meantime Shall Retract His Views.

GODERICH, June 1.—The ministerial session of the Guelph Methodist Conference began here in the North street Methodist church yesterday, Rev. President Cunningham in the chair. The president submitted the list of transfers affecting the Guelph conference.

The matter of ministerial character and doctrine was enquired into, the only case requiring special consideration being that of Rev. Nelson Burns, M.A., and this in the matter of doctrinal teaching alone.

The president informed the conference that in accordance with the resolution of one year ago he had communicated with Rev. Mr. Burns suggesting that a conference be had with him in regard to his theological opinions and teachings. Mr. Burns being in delicate health requested that he be permitted to propose a written statement of his views in lieu of personally appearing before the committee. Such a paper entitled, "My apology," was accordingly prepared by him and submitted to the president. Charges having been preferred by Rev. F. E. Nugent the following brethren were chosen by the president to investigate the same: Revs. Dr. Williams, Dr. Griffin, Dr. Henderson, John Scott and George Richardson.

The president called upon the secretary of the conference to read Rev. Mr. Burns' "My apology." The secretary read charge 1 as follows: "He holds and teaches that the Holy Scriptures are non-essential; he impugns and discredits the Word of God, and affirms that it is not the only rule and the sufficient rule both of our faith and practice."

Charge 2.—"He holds and teaches a view of Jesus Christ which makes His divinity practically non-essential, and while declining to declare his accord with the view of the divinity of Christ held by the Methodist church he has assailed that view."

Charge 3.—"He holds and teaches as the essential of the gospel the fraternal doctrine that a Christian may and should know the will of God in all things affecting him exclusively by the direct revelation and guidance of the Spirit as well as Christ or the apostles knew it, and repudiates all other guides."

Charge 4.—"He ignores the leading doctrines of Methodism, treating them as inessential and declaring in substance that his theory of guidance is the whole gospel; he asserts the insufficiency of Wesley's teaching and example, because it did not include this fanatical doctrine; also declares that Methodism has no satisfactory answer to the crucial problem as to how to live right. He asperses the sincerity and integrity of Methodists and Methodism, repudiates rules and regulations for religious exercises, and his teachings have produced dissatisfaction and discussion prejudicial to the Methodist Church in several places."

Each of the above charges were decided by the committee to have been proven and the decision of the committee was sustained by the conference.

A committee appointed to prepare a resolution re above case brought in the following report, which, on motion of Rev. Dr. Griffin, seconded by Rev. Dr. Willoughby, was accepted:

"The charges against the Rev. Nelson Burns, M.A., for holding and propagating doctrines which are contrary to our articles of religion and doctrinal standard, having been fully sustained; Resolved, that the only course open to us is that he be deposed from the ministry of our Church. Nevertheless this penalty shall not be enforced until the last day of the present session of the conference and not then if in the meantime he shall, to the satisfaction of the conference, retract his erroneous views and avow himself in full accord with Methodist doctrines and usages.

COLORADA UNDER WATER.

A Cloudburst Causes Many Deaths and Widespread Destruction.

PUEBLO, Col., June 1.—The cloudburst which sent a vast torrent of water down the valley and into this city caused many deaths and rendered widespread destruction. The work of rescue had just begun when a recurrence of the flood caused a suspension of the work, and it is feared that many bodies which were washed away and under debris will never be recovered. Many people are missing.

A company of California Coxeyites, numbering about fifty, who came from the west and were camped on the river bank, report that five of their comrades are missing. Grave fears are expressed for twelve families of squatters on an island down the river. There is no means of reaching these people at present.

It was some time before the floods began to subside. Shortly after that time the sun came out bright and as the weary night watchers came forth from their damp prisons the scene which greeted them was appalling. On every hand was ruin and the property loss is enormous. The carcasses of horses and other animals were floating around in the whirling water and the current in many places could not be stemmed on account of drifting debris. Cellars and the first floors of business houses were covered with from eighteen inches to three feet of slimy mud and this had about completed the ruin of many stocks which might have escaped with only the soaking of the night.

The Missouri Pacific company estimates its loss at $10,000. Six hundred feet of double track is washed out near here. The Santa Fe had about 800 feet of track washed out and the damage, together with the loss of a bridge, will reach $35,000.

Late in the afternoon the rain again began coming down in sheets. Reports came in from Florence and Canon City to the effect that the rainstorm there is terrific. The water in the Arkansas began to rise at once, and in one hour the gauge recorded a rise of one foot.

Two hundred and fifty families who were not harmed by the flood are now in great peril, as the fountain sweeps a different part of the city. The police are doing good work in getting the people out. No effort is being made to save personal property.

DENVER, June 1.—This city was practically isolated from the remaining portion of the State for most of the day owing to the damage done railway, telegraph and telephone lines by the heavy rainstorm that has prevailed for the past forty-eight hours. The extent of the damage cannot be estimated further than to say it is unprecedented.

UNCLE SAM AND HAWAII.

Congress Will Not Interfere With Affairs on the Islands.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The question of the policy of the United States towards the Hawaiian Islands was definitely and clearly announced by the unanimous vote of the Senate in the adoption of a resolution reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations, declaring that it belongs wholly to the people of those islands to establish and maintain their own form of government and domestic policy; that the United States ought not in any way to interfere therewith, and that any intervention in the political affairs of those islands by any other government would be regarded as an act unfriendly to the United States.

"The resolution passed by the Senate in relation to the Hawaiian government," said a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, "is couched in diplomatic language but means a great deal. It is an admonition that this government has cast about that little government the moral protection of its flag, and that any effort on the part of other powers to interfere will be an act we will not stand. No nation, however powerful, can fail to interpret the meaning of the resolution we have passed by a unanimous vote."

One Minute Cure for Toothache.

Toothache, the most common and one of the most painful affections, is instantly cured by the application of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline is a combination of powerful anodynes, and it strikes at once to the nerves, soothing them and affording in one minute total relief from pain. Mothers, try it for your children's toothache. Nerviline is sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all druggists.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

Fined for Libelling Caprivi.

BERLIN, June 1.—Baron von Thuengen, a Bavarian agrarian, was tried in the Berlin criminal court on a charge of libelling Chancellor von Caprivi and fined 300 marks. Baron von Thuengen published an article declaring that the Chancellor was slavish in his submission to the doctrine that the Emperor's will was final. Editor Oberwinder, of Berlin, was found guilty of an offence similar to Baron von Thuengen's and fined 150 marks.

Seized a Despatch to De Felice.

ROME, June 1.—The telegraph officials seized a despatch which the radical deputies addressed to Deputy de Felice, who was sentenced by a military tribunal in Palermo to eighteen years' imprisonment. The despatch stigmatized the sentence as infamous and alleged that the court had been ordered from high quarters to condemn prisoners.

Spanish Railways Embarrassed.

LONDON, June 1.—The shareholders in Spanish railways held a meeting and resolved to appeal for immediate governmental assistance, as the high rates of exchange are menacing the financial stability of the railways.

Burglars in a Priest's House.

PARIS, Ont., June 1.—Yesterday morning the residence of Rev. Father Keough was entered by burglars. It appears they effected an entrance by raising the front window, and on their way through the house they forced open different drawers, but finding nothing they proceeded to Mr. Keough's bedroom. He was awake at the time and called out "Who is there?" and rang the electric bell which communicates with his housekeeper's room. This apparently warned the thieves, who made their escape, leaving some tools behind. Only a little small change is missing. The burglars are still at large.

WILL NOT WEAR TROUSERS.

The Women of the Future Will Have Due Regard for the Beautiful.

This is a picture of the woman of the future as drawn by Mrs. Theodore Sutro, a well-known society leader of New York: "She will not wear trousers. On the contrary, her garments will be prettier, and she herself will be, if that is possible, more effeminate, more gentle and tender than she is now. Why? Because she will realize, by being all these, that her power will be increased in a corresponding ratio. Woman's rights are invariably associated in a man's mind with the loud voiced woman, the woman without little personal vanities, the woman who is indifferent to her appearance, who wears big boots and would like to wear high hats and make other incursions on his wardrobe. He is the reigning power now, and looking at things from this point of vision, can be be blamed for not wanting to abdicate in favor of anyone so unattrative to him as this person? There will be more marriages for love in her day than there are now, for the reason that natural selection will replace convenience. She will be qualified for work, and, not fearing it, will not marry for support. She will be able to provide for herself, and when she marries it will be because she loves the man, because he is congenial and sympathetic to her, and will not retard her mental and moral development. She will be fearless and frank, and will have the courage of her convictions.

A Chance for Inventors.

The Netherlands Society for the Promotion of Industry desires to receive papers containing an indication of the means to obtain energy through windmills, to accumulate this energy electrically, and to transmit or to make it transportable. The drawing belonging to the answers must be made on white paper, (no blue prints) on a scale of one quarter. The prize offered is the gold medal of the society and a reward of £30. Answers must be sent before July 1, with the author's name, in a closed envelope, to the general secretary of the society, F. W. Eeden, at Haarlem, Holland.—London Daily News.

"Boston" as Pronounced at Home.

Most people say "Borston," and some say "Bosting," but the latter is more correct, and will be quite so if the nasal termination is dropped and the last syllable merely clipped while retaining the short and explosive sound of the "o."—Boston Home Journal.

Lively Bidding for an Heirloom.

The sum of $1,370 is rather a high price to pay for a turkey dish, yet this is the figure at which one was knocked down to a purchaser in Penn township, near Reading, the other day, at the sale of personal property of Levi Geiss. The dish is a rare old piece of chinaware, beautifully ornamented, and was purchased twenty years ago at a sale by Mr. Geiss for $2.50 Each of his children expressed a desire to have it, and, as they could reach no agreement as to who should be the owner, they decided to put it up at the sale of the other household effects. It was started at $10 and ran up rapidly at $20 a jump until it was awarded to the youngest son, Peter, at $1,370.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Large Berlin University.

The number of students at the University of Berlin this winter is 8,450, showing an increase of 1,089 over last summer. The newly matriculated ones number 2,244. According to number the juristic faculty heads the list with 1,625, followed by the philosophical with 1,744, the medical with 1,279, and the theological with 531 students. In point of nationality they divide into 3,470 Prussians, 766 natives of other German States, and 743 foreigners. In addition to the 4,979 matriculated students, 3,471 persons are entitled to attend the lectures, thus making a grand total of 8,450.

At a Standstill for Want of Coal.

SPRINGHILL, Ill., June 1.—Owing to the scarcity of coal the Illinois Central has to-day discontinued two passenger trains on the Springfield division and every freight train except one. The Wabash shops, employing nearly 1,000 men, closed to-day, and every freight train not absolutely necessary has been abandoned. Within one week it is thought every industry in this city will be at a standstill for lack of coal.

Panic in a Spanish Church.

MADRID, June 1.—A young girl in the church of San Ildefons screamed during the services last evening: "Save yourselves; here is a bomb that will explode." The congregration panic-stricked started for the door. Many were trampled and left unconscious on the floor. Three persons received probably fatal injuries. The police found no bomb in the building. The girl then confessed that the alarm was a hoax.

Protest Against Lynching.

LONDON, June 1.—Miss Ida Wells, the young colored woman from Memphis, delivered a lecture before the Democratic club in denunciation of the practice of lynching colored men in the Southern States of America. Resolutions protesting against lynching were adopted and a copy ordered to be sent to the United States ambassador.

Murder and Double Suicide.

PALESTINE, TEX., June 1.—John Chestnut, a well-to-do farmer, living near Post Oak Prairie, Anderson county, shot and killed William Evans in the latter's field. Chestnut then went home and he and his wife committed suicide by taking a dose of strycnnine Family trouble is supposed to be the cause of the tragedy.

Emigrants to Canada.

LONDON, June 1.—The manager of the Church Emigration Society of London says that notwithstanding the decrease in the total emigration to Canada, this year the number of families applying to the society for assistance to emigrate to Canada is steadily increasing.

Brigands' Ghastly Crime.

ROME, June 1.—Brigands entered the house of Mgr. Cafaro at Acquayiva, province of Earl. They murdered the prelate's father, 90 years old, and the coachman, and wounded a maid servant. The brigands escaped with much booty.

Retiring From the Turf.

LONDON, June 1.—It is reported the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Portland and Baron De Hirsch have decided to retire from the turf and sell their racing horses. It is understood this action will be taken very shortly.

The Turpin Invention.

PARIS, June 1.—The Chamber of Deputies has passed a vote of confidence in the government on the Turpin question by a vote of 418 to 102.

Importing Canadian Coal.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Two steamers from Cape Breton have already arrived at this port, their cargoes aggregating about 6,000 tons of coal. While this amount is only a drop in the bucket of New York's needs, it is interesting as showing that under existing circumstances it is profitable to import coal even with a duty of 75 cents a ton, and consumers are now considering the means of having a constant shipment from the Cape Breton and Nova Scotia mines until either the labor difficulties in the United States are settled or different conditions prevail.

Found in the Erie Canal.

AMSTERDAM, June 1. — The body of Thomas Kinney has been found in the Erie canal. Mr. Kinney had been missing since Saturday night. He was 81 years of age.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 1, 1894.

The clearings of local banks this week are $5,189,600, as against $4,114,776 last week, and $5,627,131 the same week of last year.

The Chicago wheat market opened weak, but on reports of damage in the southwest the market strengthened and closed at a gain of ¼c. Corn was firm, closing ½c up. Oats were strong, gaining ½ to ¼c.

The New York stock market was dull, Chicago Gas and American Sugar being the principal stocks dealt in. Operators were not disposed to enter into new arrangements pending a settlement of the tariff bill and the outcome of the coal strike.

The Cincinnati Price Current has the following:—Winter wheat has suffered little drawback, the central states maintain a promising condition. The corn crop is somewhat retarded, but the outlook is favorable. The condition of oats is deficient in promise. In the Northwest wheat is an average in condition and rather encouraging.

In Buffalo there was no cattle market. Part of a load was received for sale of butcher grades and sold to local trade at steady Monday's prices Prospects look favorable for good handy cattle for next week. Sheep and lambs—Market was anything but an active one, only limited number of orders were in and the speculative demand was a limited one. Hogs—Offerings fairly liberal for an off day in the week, 3,500 head, as against 2,200 head a week ago.

Although it is not claimed that Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures every ill to which flesh is heir, yet, as a matter of fact, it comes nearer doing this than any other medicine ever compounded. In purifying the blood it removes the source of nearly all disorders of the human system.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

Intelligent Comparisons

Turn the tide of trade to our Counters. The buying public are certainly to be congratulated on the purchasing facilties of the season—especially at this store.

New Curtains.

Lace and Chenille of the very latese designs—just in. Handsomer decorations for windows can not be seen in any other store in town. See our window for samples of these patterns.

Dress Goods.

We have made a happy hit in a recent special line of light Summer SACKING. Newest on the market. Never been see here before. A new pleasure to the ladies. Light airy and stylish.

Also a special line of CHEVIOTS. The weavers and dyers have been doing wonders in crowding qualities and prettiness up, and prices down.

All other leading lines of Dress Goods fully and strongly assorted.

New Glasgow Crinkled Zephyrs

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

BASEBALL.

The Cobourgs defeated the Port Hopes at baseball yesterday, in five innings by a score of 14 to 3.

Orillia, says the Toronto World, wants to form a three club league with Peterborough and Lindsay. The idea is a good one and if Orillia could keep the pace with Lindsay and Peterborough, a good deal of interest in the games would certainly be worked up.

LACROSSE.

The Peterborough Juniors play Millbrook here on Tuesday next, on the P. A. A. A. grounds. An exciting game is anticipated. Admission 15c.

Remember the first championship lacrosse match of the season, Friday, June 8th, Port vs. Peterborough. A first-class game guaranteed. Ladies invited. Rough playing will be avoided as much as possible.

All players should turn out this evening if only for a run. If a sufficient number are over, sides will be chosen.

The recent rain has put the Riverside Park in a very soft condition. The Shamrocks will find it difficult to practice for a short while.

The average height of the members of the Ontario lacrosse club of Port Hope is over six feet. When they line up with Peterborough a week from to-day the home team will simply not "be in it" in size, but they expect to be as regards good clean lacrosse.

Mr. Jerry Packenham plays with the Port Hope's to-day in their match with the 'Varsity team.

Mr. Joseph Begley, of Chicago, has returned home and being an old member of the Peterboroughs will probably play lacrosse with that team this summer. "Joe." is an old and reliable stick handler and will be an additional source of strength to the Peterboroughs.

CRICKET.

Mr. B. VanHomrigh, says the Millbrook Reporter, the enthusiastic secretary of the cricket club, accompanied the Trinity College school eleven to Peterborough on Saturday last, and acted as umpire for them in their match with the players of that town. The college boys were evidently well pleased with the way in which he filled his arduous position, as they gave him a right royal send off upon the arrival of the 9.30 train here. From the somewhat easy win of the school eleven Van. thinks that our own club will have no trouble in beating Peterborough, when they play here about the 20th of next month.

The following team of cricketers comprising the second eleven of the local team, play the second eleven Trinity School, in Port Hope, to morrow, if the weather is fine:—Messrs. Walter Stocker, Perry Goldsmith, Guy Rogers, Charlie McKee, Drope, Charlie Halliday, V. McGill, Hal. Burnham, H. Morphet, W. Kenner and Adams.

ACQUATIC.

Jake Gaudaur, the champion oarsman of America, who beat the three-mile rowing record at Austin, Texas, last week, has issued a challenge to row any man in the world three miles without a turn, for $2,500 a side and the championship of the world, the race to take place six or eight weeks from signing articles. Gaudaur and Durnan also agree to row any two men in the world a double scull race for $2,500 a side and the championship of the world. Both challenges are open to any oarsmen in England, Australia or America

THE TURF.

A valuable mare owned by Mr. H. Burke died at the C. P. R. Hotel, yesterday. The mare had a record of 2,20½ which was considered remarkable fast time fifteen years ago. Mr. Burke, who is also the owner of the famous stallions, Tom Rogers and Keepsake, refused $200 for the mare about five years ago.

Get The Best.

The public are too intelligent to purchase a worthless article a second time, on the contrary they want the best! Physicians are virtually unanimous in saying Scott's Emulsion is the best form of Cod Liver Oil.

Gold Deposits of the Fraser River.

Speaking of the Fraser river and its gold deposits, this was one of the richest placer rivers of the world along late in the '50s, and something like $50,000,000 worth of gold has been washed out of the sands of British Columbia. The stream is very rough and rocky, however, and much of it has been inaccessible to the placer miners. It is known, however, to contain great quantities of gold, and four different companies are now at work here trying to get this gold out. They have had dredge like pumps made, which are to suck up the gold-bearing sand and throw it into a sluice box, which will extract the gold. The experiment is a new one, but it was tested on the shallow water at the edge of the river, and some gold was the result. Mr. Young, the president of one of these companies said:

"There is no doubt but there are millions upon millions of dollars of gold in these rivers, and I think there is no doubt but that we are going to get out a large part of it. We lease certain strips of the river from the government at so much per mile per year. We now have under lease fifty-seven miles, and we have men prospecting and locating other tracts. Our machines cost us from $4,000 to $7,000 apiece, and I expect to see some of them earning $1,000 a day. In a month from now I can tell just what they will do. Each machine ought to wash and reduce 100 cubic yards of gravel a day, and we can get out stuff from the very centre of the river, where the most gold is supposed to be. In the old days of placer mining a man did well to wash out three cubic yards a day, and here he had to rely upon the banks only."

How He Hunted Bears.

George Jones is very ill. Between moans he told a story of adventure to a reporter this morning. He was once a bear hunter, he said, and had killed over 100 bears. He claimed that no man had ever killed bears as fast as he did. While hunting in Oregon one time he discovered a place up in the mountains where bears appeared every day to drink. He used to fill a pail with whisky, sweetened with sugar, and every time a bear appeared bruin drank the whisky and got dead drunk. Jones would then start the bear to rolling down the side of the mountain, and it would land at his camp below, where he had a man employed to butcher and skin it. Jones then filled the pail with whisky again, and the next bear was served in the same way.—Atchison Globe.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. Clegg's, George street.

Be Sure and Attend.

The sale of fine and useful goods in the store opposite the Grand Central Hotel every night this week will be worth attending, as there has never been as fine an assortment of good goods offered by auction in Peterborough. Dinner Sets, Tea Sets, Chamber sets, Lamps, Silver ware, art goods, etc., of every description, beautiful designs and newest patterns in the market. All at your own price. Open for inspection now.

THIRD WEEK OF KELLS' SALE!

Everything Lovely! Everything Propitious!

EARNESTNESS continues to characterize each day's sales. There is no let up to the splendid success which has marked our Enlarging Sale from the very outset. On Saturday last our salesmen were simply lost in the crowds of buyers, and many, we are sorry to say, could not be waited on.

THANKS! THANKS!

We feel impelled, even at this early stage of our sale, to express our hearty thanks for the generous patronage extended to us, on this, the occasion of our First General Stock-Clearing Sale. We have to apologize, however, to those of our customers who we have been unable to wait upon during excessively crowded days, and also for the topsy-turvey shape of the store during the busiest hours of ceaseless selling.

Don't Forget Our Promise.

There will be a lot of goods sold during the next week, and we want to let our prices make such a name for our goods as will continue to draw the crowds.

Everything goes until our big stock is melted away like icicles before a hot sun.

We have determined to realize on our stock whether we do so at a loss or not. Here are a few of the Special Drives for the week:—

MANTLES.

This department must be closed out at once. It's a pity to give new goods such a slicing, but it's an all over bargain time, and there's no help for it. The Clearing Prices must be made sweeping enough to make the selling quick and prompt, as we have no time for waiting bids.

MILLINERY.

Including this season's Felt and Straw Shapes, Feathers, Ribbons and other Trimmings will be reduced to one-half. The doings of this department for the next few days will eclipse even the past good record. Everything will go to the people at almost their own price. You'll find all that's new here, and the service of skilled milliners at your command.

DRESS GOODS.

Another severe cut in prices all through our Dress Goods will put increased interest in our sale. Visit the department, see the goods, and you will buy.

PARASOLS.

The Parasol counter is one of the busiest spots in this busy store. We offer special inducements this week. All that are good, all that are new, at figures to startle and please.

Every Department is certain to awaken strong interest. We have made ample provision for the emergency, and you will be rewarded by such Exceptional Values as cannot be duplicated by any other Retail Store.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.

"It's Fair's way."

Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

APPALLING CALAMITY

Indescribable Suffering Endured by Settlers in British Columbia.

FRASER RIVER STEADILY RISING

Vancouver and New Westminster Cut Off From the Outside World—Devastation and Ruin on All Sides—Rescuing Boats Navigate Over Farms.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 2.—Devastation and ruin are the only words to express the awful calamity in the Fraser River valley country. "Still rising" is the momentous exclamation heard on every hand, for the turbulent swollen torrents of the Fraser river have for six weary days and nights been slowly sweeping away the results of years of arduous toil and hardship. One hundred miles of country have been devastated and the end is not yet. Small mountain streams have changed as if by magic to roaring torrents, bringing down upon their bosoms thousands of tons of snow to add to the destroying elements already included in the Juggernaut like journey of the debris. The appearance of the entire Fraser valley is changed. Where the prosperous rancher attended his flocks and herds and where rich fields of grain nodded to the placid waters beyond the dikes, the same waters are now raging furiously in rushing torrents, presenting an appalling panorama of ruin. Hundreds of trees are piled up with a medley of other debris, such as henhouses, outhouses, bridges and fences, and as each floating mass glides by another slips into sight. Bloated bodies of thousands of sheep and swine twirl in the mad current, followed by upturned boats or a gigantic tree with chickens roosting in the branches, kaleidoscopic view of hundreds of homes, broken bridges and destroyed farms. The Fraser river has now reached the highest point touched in 1882, the year of the great flood, and it is still rising. Miles and miles of the C. P. R. track have been washed away between Ruby Creek and Mission, and no trains or telegrams have reached British Columbia by this route for eight days and there is little prospect for mails or communication by telegraph for another ten days.

At Hatzlic Prairie the washout is a third of a mile in length, and so deep that piles cannot be obtained long enough to trestle the break. Almost all the bridges in the flooded district have collapsed, and the large Mission bridge is expected to go every hour. At Maria Island the waves are six feet high and are washing over the track for 500 yards. Besides these five or six smaller washouts are reported. The Canadian Pacific has 1,000 men at work night and day, and the government has steamers plying the river incessantly rescuing the ranchers and their cattle. In spite of every precaution being taken a number of people are reported drowned. Among them are R. McTavish, a C. P. R. official, and a child of Peter Brown at Langley. Numerous Indians have lost their lives.

Disconsolate farmers and half-dazed ranchers are constantly arriving by steamers, but few particulars can be obtained from them. In answer to all questions they say: "I am ruined; it's awful; I have lost everything."

WESTMINSTER CITY, June 1.—The water is coming faster than ever. Every warehouse along the water front has been stripped of its contents. The water is now ripping the wharves up to the doors of the counting houses of Front street. Boats are being used over most of the city. Anacis Island, two miles below the city, disappeared from sight to-day with a large herd of cattle. Chinatown and the Siwash Indian villages are no more. All the canning factories are flooded out and work has been suspended. The immense salmon industry is at a standstill. Several hundred dollars were collected in a few hours for the relief of the sufferers up the country.

Following are some of the reports coming in:

MATSQUI, June 1. — The dykes have given way and 1,500 acres of land is swept by the floods. Steamers are tying up to the chimneys of the postoffice and the hotel, and we are rescuing people with boats from the roofs of houses. Fifty families are ruined.

HATZLIC, June 1.—The dykes have given way and 300 acres of land are under water. The ranchers have deserted their homes and have driven their cattle to the high ground. Their sheep and swine are all drowned.

NICOMEN ISLAND, June 1.—All under water. Only a few houses remain standing. The settlers lose all. Fifty families are subjects for charity.

CHILLIWACTOWN—"We are in great distress. For God's sake send us help, boats are the only means we have of getting around. If the water rises much higher 800 families will be destitute. Send us steamers that we may reach the cities."

LUCK-A-LUCK—River suddenly changed its course into its ancient channel and is a raging torrent through our streets. Provisions are low. The steamer that arrived to-day made a landing place on the top storey of the Hudson Bay Company's building.

LANGLEY.—The steamer is moored to the flag pole of a warehouse. The people are packed like sardines in the houses in the high part of the city. Numbers of wealthy ranchers are destitute, having saved nothing. The postoffice has been turned into a hotel, the other houses being uninhabitable.

SALMON RIVER SETTLEMENT.—"Langley Dyke has given away, burying 1,200 acres of ranches. The ranchers escaped with their lives. The cattle were nearly all lost."

And so the reports continue to come in. The government is making herculean efforts to save life and property, engaging all the Canadian Pacific navigation boats in the rescuing service. Several subscription lists are being circulated in each large city and thousands of dollars have been subscribed. The authorities say the water will not begin to recede till the full tide on Sunday, and more appalling disasters than have yet been chronicled are feared.

Floods Are Rising.

The Fraser river has since rose ten inches at New Westminster, and the flood is still rising. From points further up the river come reports that the river is nearly two feet higher than has ever been known. So great has been the destruction that ocean steamers passing through the Strait of San Juan de Fuca are now encountering floating roofs of houses and barns, and innumerable carcasses of hogs, sheep and cattle that have passed out of the river with other debris from the valley. It is estimated that over 2,000 families are homeless, and a property loss of fully $8,000,000 has been suffered. Steamers from the river and Puget Sound are still being pressed into the work of rescue.

Though no more lives have been lost during the past two days there have been many narrow escapes and thrilling experiences. Many families have been driven from their houses. One steamer brought 307 settlers from Westminster late last night. Among them was the family of a rancher from near Langley. The men had built a strong raft upon which he took his entire family and ten blooded horses. They were rescued in midstream after having been afloat for ten hours.

At many points there is great destitution among the unlucky settlers who have fled from their homes. At the Salmon river settlement, where the water is ten feet deep in the flat, many families are huddled together on the high lands and living on one scanty meal a day. At Hatzlic the steamer Transfer sailed up over farms and fences, over the Hatzlic bridge and the dikes and tied up to the rails of the Canadian Pacific track, seven miles from where the river formerly ran. The Transfer rescued the wife of Rancher McDermott from the roof of her floating house. Her husband, who had failed in his efforts to rescue her, was found later in a small skiff. Both were nearly crazy.

The big school house from Nicomen Island floated by New Westminster intact. Both Vancouver and New Westminster are cut off from the outside world. Even the telegraph is not to be depended upon, as the wires have been constantly in trouble. Every effort is being made to relieve the flood sufferers, but facilities and means are utterly inadequate to meet the demands. The Fraser River at Westminster is still rising.

At North Bend the water is a foot above the mark in the great floods of 1882. The warm weather continues, and there is still a large amount of snow in the mountains. The river may be expected to rise much higher. An idea of the depth of the water may be gathered from the fact that a steamer drawing six feet passed over several islands in the centre of the channel of the river. On Wednesday night the water reached fourteen inches over the Canadian Pacific tracks near Mission, and no trains have been despatched there.

SUICIDE IN WIARTON.

An Embezzler Ends His Life While Preparing to Fly.

WIARTON, Ont., June 2.—Yesterday the report of a pistol was heard coming from a room upstairs occupied by Mrs. J. J. Jermyn. The house is right opposite the Arlington hotel. A minute after Mrs. Jermyn came running down with the news that her husband had just shot himself. This is the Jermyn who was arrested last August, accused of wasting trust funds to the extent of $4,000 or $5,000, and was supposed to have absconded. His wife now affirms that he has never left the house, but has been hiding in a small room unknown to any one but herself. He was getting ready to leave when, probably, the long confinement and the excitement of preparing to leave home unsettled his mind. He held a revolver to the side of his head and the ball glanced coming out at the temple. He is still living, but the doctors have no hope. Mr. Jermyn once enjoyed a good business and the confidence of the public.

A Serious Assault in London.

LONDON, Ont., June 2.—On Wednesday a serious affair took place at Labatt's brewery. An employe named Taffe is alleged to have frequently threatened to take the life of a fellow-employe named John Carson. Carson is a quiet and industrious man and has avoided Taffe as far as possible, but they were frequently thrown together and Taffe is alleged to have lost no opportunity of evidencing his hatred of Carson, who is a smaller man. At the time mentioned the two men were in the cellar at the brewery and Carson had occasion to tell Taffe of some work he was expected to do. Carson remembers nothing of what follows except that he was struck on the head with something. Assistance soon arrived and a doctor was called. He found Carson unconscious and suffering from a big cut in the side of his head which could not have been made by a fall on the brick floor. No action has yet been taken to investigate the matter.

Mysterious Affair Near Ottawa.

OTTAWA, June 2.—At Eastman's Springs Coroner Mark held an inquiry for the purpose of discovering who the man was whose bones were found in a swamp near that village. Evidence was given to show that two persons had been missed from the neighborhood during several years past, but one was found to be alive in a distant part of the country and the other is still unheard of. The inquiry was adjourned for two weeks for further evidence respecting the latter. The body may have been lying in the swamp for many years, the whole of the flesh being gone and nothing left for identification except the clothing.

Burned to Death in a Fire.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., June 2.—A terrible calamity occurred at Pembroke, about six miles from here. David McKenzie lost his house and all his household effects by fire. His four-year-old son was burned alive and his wife is not expected to recover from falling from a window to save her life. He himself is badly burned about the face. Fire supposed to have originated from a stove in the shed and fanned by high wind. No insurance.

"A BROTHERHOOD SUNDAY."

A Circular to the Members of St. Andrews Brotherhood.

St. John's Chapter, Brotherhood of Saint Andrew to their fellow young men of the church in Peterborough.

At the request of the Council of the Brotherhood in Canada, next Sunday will be kept as "Brotherhood Sunday." We wish to secure your co-operation in making the following arrangements a success.

(1) A corporate Communion for young men at 8:30 a. m.

(2) Special prayers for God's blessing on the work of the Brotherhood.

(3) Appropriate sermons. The sermon in the evening will be especially addressed to young men.

If you are a communicant, make a point of coming to the corporate Communion. We ask all of you to be on hand at the evening service.

But we want the day to be a success in another way. We feel that as young men, we might all do more than we are doing in the great cause of religion, and we hope that Brotherhood Sunday may be the means of helping us along. It seems to us that no words better describe what our life's work should be than these: "To do my duty in that state of life to which it shall please God to call me." Work, recreation and religion, these together make up our state of life. We ought to go in for them all, heartily and well; then we shall do our duty better both to others and to ourselves.

Don't think we've set ourselves to preach to you. But we feel strongly and we want to unite with you in doing the work to which God has called us all. On behalf of the Chapter,

W. D. PARKER, CHAS. B. KENWRICK, Vice-Director, Director.
A. KINGSCOTE, Secretary.
Peterborough, May 29th.

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1894.

Rev. Principal Grant — "In one word, Ontario can't afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."

SINCE the Mowat Government has been in power, the total expenditure has been about 75 millions of dollars. The total cost of Legislation, Civil Government and Administration of Justice has been about fourteen millions. The balance, about sixty millions, has been expended upon other services, so that if the Government had contented itself with simply governing the country and left the province to develop itself, there would have been a surplus of about sixty millions in the treasury. But it has been the policy of the Goverament to develop the resources of the province directly and to assist the municipalities in their system of development. In 22 years the large sum of nearly twenty-four millions have been directly returned to the people in the shape of expenditure on services that directly relieve the municipalities of taxation to that amount. Peterborough has received nearly $370,000.

THE Ontario Government has a proud record in its care for the unfortunate and afflicted: It has expended over $14,000,000 since 1872 upon hospitals, charities and asylums; it has five large asylums for the insane, and an asylum for the idiotic, accommodating in all 4,893 patients, maintained at a lower per head cost than any asylum in the States or other province; it has institutes for the deaf, dumb and blind, and grants aid to ninety-seven charitable institutions. It leads the world in its care of the afflicted classes, and all its large expenditures in these directions is a direct relief to the municipalities from local taxation.

To indicate to what extent the Ontario Government expends money in the interests of the farmers it may be pointed out that while the States of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio, Massachusetts and Michigan spend an average of $50,000 a year upon agriculture, the Ontario Government spends $212,660 in promoting the interests of the agricultural classes.

THE cost of the Ontario parliament buildings to June 1st, 1894, was $1,300,000. If these buildings had been constructed under the Ottawa Government, they would have cost about three million, judging from the cost of the Curran bridge, which cost double what it should have done, owing to stealings and wasteful methods.

THE Opposition journals forget to call attention to another glaring mistake of the alleged extravagance of the Mowat Government—that the cost of electric lighting is far greater under the Mowat Government than under the Sanfield Macdonald regime.

SURGEON'S KNIVES.

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have Never yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWHICH, May 28.—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

WHY MINING DOES NOT FLOURISH.

(Bobcaygeon Independent.)

Complaint is made, says the Toronto News, against the Mowat Government, because, it is alleged, it has done nothing to stimulate the mining industry.

Truth compels the assertion that this particular charge against Sir Oliver and his colleagues is not well founded. Under present conditions there is but one way in which the mining industry of this Province can be made active, and that is by securing greater freedom of access to the American market for the sales of ores. An attempt has been made to create an iron manufacturing industry in Canada by means of heavy protection on the foreign product and a bounty on that produced at home. But this attempt has failed because, while in Ontario we have ore in abundance we have not the coal which at present is necessary to develop the raw material into the product. Until, therefore the scheme for utilizing electricity in performing the work now done by coal is fully developed we must continue to depend upon the United States market for the disposal of the raw produce of the mine and of which indeed we sold last year over four and three-quarter million dollars worth of such products out of less than five and a half millions exported altogether.

Further proof of the soundness of our contentions is afforded by a reference to the case of nickel. In three years our sales of this product in the American market have inceseased from nothing to $388,000. This is because nickel is on the U. S. free list. If the American duty of 75c. a ton on iron ore were removed we would soon have a bigger boom in iron mining than has taken place in the production of nickel. That tax is the one that, under present conditions, prevents the development of iron mining in Ontario. But Sir Oliver Mowat can do nothing to secure its removal, and it is, therefore, unfair to charge him with stagnation he is powerless to remove.

That is a Dominion Government matter and theirs is the responsibility, and theirs is the blame, which is attempted to be falsely placed upon Sir Oliver Mowat.

TIRED MOTHERS.

Lactated Food a Family Friend and Helper.

MAKES CROSS BABIES HAPPY.

Tired, careworn and anxious mothers are found in every city, town and village of Canada. The large majority of these mothers suffer mentally and physically, because their little ones are cross, peevish, sleepless and sickly. To loving mothers, such babies add vastly to the toils and worries of every-day life.

Let us assure every mother that, with little trouble and expense, she can improve her own and her baby's condition. Infants become a source of trouble and anxiety when they are improperly fed from day to day. Infants fed on poorly prepared foods and half sour cow's milk in summer time must suffer and therefore become burdensome to mothers until death takes them away.

Babies regularly fed on sweet, pure and wholesome Lactated Food never become troublesome; such babies are lovely, healthy flowers that go on from strength to strength, and are a source of joy and pleasure.

Mothers who are wearied and careworn have themselves to blame; it is in their power to improve their own condition and to fully develop and protect the little ones in their charge.

Lactated Food is a boon for mother and baby. When fed daily it produces blessings to all concerned.

A Large Waist

Is not generally considered a necessary adjunct to the grace, beauty or symmetry of the womanly form. Within the body, however is a great waste made necessary according to the condition of things—continually in process and requiring the perfect action of all bodily functions to absorb or dispel the refuse. When there is irregularity or inaction, ladies who value a clean, healthy body will take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the only remedy for woman sold with a positive guarantee to RIGHT all her peculiar WRONGS.

To those about to become mothers, it is a priceless boon, for it lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labor, promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child and shortens the period of confinement.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure billousness, constipation, sick headache, indigestion or dyspepsia, and kindred diseases.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 2 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Delaine. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Colored Shirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 3000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

Remember—"The Early Bird Catches the Worm."

"I FEEL 20 YEARS YOUNGER."

A Wonderful Cure in Hamilton.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes People Well and Strong.

All classes of Canada's population—all sexes—all ages—daily sound the praises of Paine's Celery Compound, earth's grandest and most wonderful medical discovery.

Medical professors, and physicians generally, are amazed when they hear of and see the almost miraculous cures wrought through the agency of Paine's Celery Compound.

"You cannot do better than use Paine's Celery Compound," is the honest advice of many of our best and ablest doctors, when men and women consult them regarding rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, kidney and liver troubles, dyspepsia and run-down systems.

When Paine's Celery Compound is faithfully used, pain-racked and suffering mortals are never disappointed. The great medicine works surely and effectively; it banishes every trouble and leads to freshness of life, robustness of constitution, and gives to those who use it perfect health for the full enjoyments of earth's blessings.

Mrs. Julianna Sandberg, 49 West ave., north, Hamilton, Ont., writes as follows for the benefit of all suffering Canadians:

"I have to thank you for being instrumental in saving me from years of suffering and ill health. About three years ago I had a severe attack of "grippe," which left me with my limbs swelled up and hardly able to walk, and my constitution was very much impaired. A friend recommended me to try your world-renowned Paine's Celery Compound. I did so and am now walking about as well as ever, the swelling having completely disappeared. My constitution is now in excellent condition, and I feel twenty years younger.

I consider your medicine the greatest boon ever given to the country, and I shall tell every one the great good it has done me. My earnest wish is that your medicine may be found in every house where suffering exists."

LITTLE LOCAL LINKS.

Clipped From an Exchange but Nearly Affecting Peterborough.

The following items scissored from the Lindsay Post will be of interest to Peterboroughians:—

Messrs. Wm. Woolard, Jack Gross, Frank Britton and Jas. Needs, of Peterborough, were in town on the 24th.

Mr. Wm. Hamilton, of Peterborough, spent the 24th in Lindsay.

The following laymen have been elected as representatives to the annual conference to be held at Peterborough on June 7th:—Messrs. Geo. Wilson, J. L. Winters, J. Staples, Henry Seymour, Dr. Thompson, T. Thurston, Jos. McFarland, T. C. Ivory, Jas. McGee and Jas. Fair.

Mr. E. C. Ryott, who will be favourably remembered by the guests of the Rockland House, Bobcaygeon, of a couple of years ago, has been engaged by Mr. L. G. Fobert, proprietor of the Chemong Park hotel, as manager for the season of '94. Mr. Ryott is an experienced hotelman and guests of the hotel may rest confident that their wants will be well looked after by the popular manager.

Gilmore's famous band will give one performance in Peterborough in the near future. No doubt train arrangements will be made so that Lindsay citizens may enjoy the treat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O'Brien and children, of Peterborough, spent the 24th with relatives in town.

Miss Morrow, of Peterborough, was in town on the 24th, the guest of her friend, Miss O'Brien, Melbourne street.

Mrs. Wm. Hamill and sister, Miss Thorne, of Lindsay, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jos. Armstrong, Peterborough.

Mr. Ed. Neill and his brother, Mr. C. Neill, L.D.S., drove to Peterborough Saturday evening to attend the funeral of the late Miss Mercer, of that town.

Mr. F. A. Shannon, of Peterborough, spent the 24th with friends in town.

A citizen who understands his subject says that the recent heavy rains drove many of the small birds off their nests, thereby causing the destruction of the eggs. In consequence of this he fears that the trees will be over-run with insects, with scarcely any birds to destroy them.

Mr. J. W. Fairweather, of Peterborough, was in town Wednesday evening of last week. He was shown around by Mr. T. Armstrong, his partner in the store here. Mr. Fairweather thinks highly of Lindsay as a business centre.

Mr. R. Duncan, an old Peterborough boy and former pressman in the Post, gave us a call Friday last. Bob. now claims the city of Cincinnati as his home and is enjoying a short holiday.

R. S. Crowe, Esq., Pleasant Street, Truro, N. S., writes: "It is with pleasure I testify to the great merits of K. D. C. which is undoubtedly worthy of the name, "The King of Cures." I have been troubled for over a year with acidity and flatulency and heartburn, and now after using but three packages of K. D. C., I am happy to state that I am completely free from these troubles. A cured man."

MacWherrell's Sentence Crazed Her.

TORONTO, June 2.—A distressing case of insanity came before Judge McDougall yesterday. Miss Carrie Hollingshead, a young woman of this city, during her examination pleaded with the judge to interfere on MacWherrell's behalf. Her mind was evidently affected with brooding over the unfortunate man's condition. She was committed to the Asylum.

Fire in Durham.

DURHAM, Ont., June 2.—Yesterday the dwelling house, barber shop and butcher shop, owned by Mr. John H. Brown and occupied by Oscar Becker and E. T. McClocklin respectively, were completely destroyed by fire, loss about $1,000; buildings insured for $550.

Dufferin Reformers.

SHELBURNE, Ont., June 2.—A convention of the Reformers of Dufferin was held in the town hall here yesterday. A motion pledging the convention to take no action in the matter of nominating a candidate was finally carried on a vote of 46 to 44.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AGAIN.

William Langley Tries many Remedies for this Disease without Avail—Dodd's Kidney Pills, a Remedy that Never Failed, Cure Him.

LONDON, May 21.—William Langley, of London South, contracted inflammation of the kidneys last fall, which finally developed into Bright's disease. As any man would, who was afflicted with this terrible disease, Mr. Langley tried every remedy that could be suggested. His experience was the same as all others', he got no relief until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then a change set in, Mr. Langley at once began to improve, and now he is cured. This is another case of Bright's disease, once considered incurable, that has had to succumb to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Bradstreet's Trade Report.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Bradstreet's says: The decidedly unfavorable condition of general trade reported last week continues without material improvement. Continual delay of tariff legislation prolongs the stifling effect on wholesale business. The great coal strike continues without sign of early improvement. More mills, factories and furnaces have closed their doors for want of fuel. The pig iron industry of the central western states is practically at a standstill for want of soft coal or coke. At Pittsburg and vicinity the scarcity of fuel has greatly stagnated business. There are no new labor strikes of importance to record, but almost all of those previously reported are in existence. The volume of general trade is still further reduced by the intervention of a holiday and by cold and wet weather.

Girl Clubbed to Death.

OMAHA, Neb., June 2.—The dead body of Maud Ruble, who disappeared last week leaving behind a letter saying she had gone south to marry a doctor, was found by the police in an empty building on South Tenth street. A post-mortem examination revealed the fact that death was the result of a blow on the head with a blunt instrument. All the jewelry the girl had when she left home was missing, and the corpse was only attired in a black skirt and stockings. A doctor named Brown has been arrested pending an investigation.

Indiana Troops Ordered Out.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 2.—An order has been issued by Governor Matthews calling out two regiments of Indiana troops. The miners at Shelburne, south of this city, have refused to recognize the proclamation issued by the Governor and captured another car of coal from the Evansville & Terre Haute Railroad Company.

Big Battle in Samoa.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., June 2.—Advices from Samoa, via Auckland, say that the rebels were occupying Tutuawanni on May 19 in strong force. They are confronted by the government troops and a battle which could hardly fail to be decisive was imminent. Several skirmishes had taken place in which two rebels were wounded and a government soldier killed.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, tent, sail and awning maker, Water street, opposite the market.

An Intellectual Treat.

Rev. Dean Harris, of St. Catharines, will deliver a lecture in St. Peter's Cathedral in aid of the Catholic Association on Sunday evening, June 10th. The reverend gentleman is well known throughout the western portion of Ontario as a pulpit orator of great ability, and is held in high esteem in the Niagara district by all classes of the community. He is an eloquent and forcible speaker and is always greeted with large congregations whenever he is announced to lecture. Dean Harris is also a writer of considerable note, the latest production of his pen, the trials and troubles of the early missionaries in Ontario, winning for him warm praise from all quarters. The subject of his lecture will be "The Catholic Priest; in the Church and in the World." This subject will not be treated controversially, but will outline the education, labour, sacrifices and heroism of the average priest in Ontario, placing him before the Catholic and Protestant minds in his true heroic light. The Catholic Association is to be congratulated on securing such an eloquent and popular lecturer, and no doubt a large congregation will welcome him on Sunday evening, June 10th.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The Art Sale of beautiful goods is drawing to a close. Do not miss Friday and Saturday nights as some of the nicest goods in the stock will be offered on these nights, and as we are anxious to close the sale they will be knocked down quickly. Positively no reserve. A chance of a life time. Sale will begin at 7.30. JOHN HAGGART, Auctioneer.

CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best montly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDICAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

Water Filters.

I have just received a large stock of Jewett's celebrated Water Filters. They are the best Water Purifier in the market. Every family should have one to ensure pure drinking water. Call and see them. ADAM HALL, 407 George street dtf

Lawry's Fine Meats.

If you want something tasty, get Lawry's (Hamilton) smoked English bacon, Roll Ham, Spiced Roll, smoked L. & S. bound Hams, smoked Rolls, sweet-pickled Rolls, and Nelson Morris, (Chicago,) best cut dried Beef—we chip the dried beef fresh for you.—ALEX. ELLIOT, Palace Grocery.

A Swell Affair

Dried apples in hot water are always "swell affairs." They with other fruits come in very handy at this time of the year—just before fresh fruits are plenty. A new stock of canned fruits, also jams by the pound, has been opened at MASON & Co's Grocery, and are fit for a gentleman's table.

Makes People Well Quick.

Life is short and if you can strike the right spring medicine at the first shot, time and nerve energy is saved. Three doses a day of that celebrated Sarsaparilla for sale at Lynch's drug store puts you "in fighting trim" in quick order, gives you a strengthened system, a pure skin, a toned liver and pure blood. Lynch's, 168 Hunter street.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices. dtf

The Committee of the Whole.

There was a meeting of the committee of the whole council last night. Among the matters discussed was the George stret sewer extension, for which the levels have been taken by the town engineer. There was nothing definite in the way of decision arrived at, but the general feeling was in favour of having work begun at an early date. Some discussion was also devoted to the Sherbrooke street drain matter and to other subjects and the reports and recommendations arising from last night's meeting will be presented at the meeting of the council on Monday night next.

Gained the Highest Award.

Of the Maple Leaf Ingrain carpets which won the award at the World's Fair and which are handled by Mr. Robt. Fair, George street, the judges write as follows: The high standard of manufacture which the owners have adopted....Extra super ingrain, strictly standard in the number of "Ends" apparent in dissection of warp.... The grade of fulling yarns employed and careful attention to weaving minature.... Exceeding in weight per yard, the commercial standard governing extra super ingrains; also tastefulness of design and for matching qualities incident to even selvedge and general uniformity."

Another Opportunity, Don't Miss it.

Prof. Dorenwend advertises another visit to our town with a full line of his celebrated human hair coverings. We would advise all whose hair has become thin or who are bald to take advantage of this visit as the Professor's business has assumed such large proportions that he is unable to visit each town as frequently as formerly, so be advised. See his lady's and gents wigs, toupees, bangs, waves, switches, and every form of human hair coverings and secure the style most becoming to you. He will be at the Grand Central Hotel Saturday, June 9th. One day only.

A Narrow Escape.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—"Mr. Chas. Fairburn, M. P., had a narrow escape on Sunday night. Saturday he came home from Toronto, where he had been on the railway deputation, for even during the few days recess from Ottawa, the "people's Charlie" was kept busy. As the House at Ottawa opened again on Monday, Mr. Fairbairn drove to Peterborough Sunday evening, to catch the midnight train. On the way a storm broke. It came up suddenly but did not last long, but was sharp and severe. As he drove along south of Bridgenorth, several flashes struck within the immediate neighborhood. Suddenly a blinding blaze shot through the darkness, the horse stumbled on his knees, and both Mr. Fairbairn and the driver, a young son of Mr. Alex. Hamilton, were for a few moments completely dazed, and almost unconscious. Fortunately they recovered uninjured, and arrived safely in Peterborough."

Norwood.

An organization meeting of the Norwood Reform Association was held in the committee rooms, Baskin's block, the other evening, at which the following officers were appointed:—

President—Thos. Fraser.
Vice-President—W. Rutherford.
Treasurer—C. O'Rielly.
Secretary—W. A. F. Campbell.

Executive Committee—P. W. Reynolds, Thos. Rork, P. W. Stevenson, W. E. Roxburgh, James Cummings, J. McNichol, Jno. Finlay, James Pengelly, Andrew Davidson, T. J. Drain, W. A. Richardson, James Fraser, L. H. Kirkpatrick and D. Fraser. As this is the central association for the riding, all committee throughout the riding are expected to report to the secretary, W. A. F. Campbell at Norwood, from time to time during the present campaign.

Public meetings in the interest of T. Blezard, M.P.P., will be held as follows:—South Dummer school house, Friday, June 1st, at 7.30 p.m.; Purdy's school house, 9th line, Dummer, Monday, June 4th, at 7.30 p.m.; Robb's school house, Stony Lake, June 5th, at 7.30 p.m.; Smith's hall, Indian River, June 6th, at 7.30 p.m.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

RAILWAY RUMBLES.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels At Home and Abroad.

Word has been received here that there is two or three weeks' hauling of square timber from Gravenhurst to Lake Ontario, via Belleville, in sight, all of which will come this way and be handled by the men of this district.

A rumor spread about among the men on Tuesday that the coal trouble was ended, but it was not entirely correct. It appears that the G.T.R. company had contracted for a large supply with several coal companies whose employees had resumed work, but their shipments failed to arrive, having been appropriated by other companies en route or held up somewhere by striking miners. In the course of a few days it is thought an ample supply will be received to enable every special to resume work.

A general order was issued a few days ago by the G.T.R. management to resume loading forest produce and other freight, but the shippers took advantage of it to such an extent that the company was forced to curtail the order or increase their train service. The latter they were not in a position to do, owing to the present phase of the coal strike.

The local freight services of the G. T. R. is working smoothly. Toronto freights are delivered with excellent promptness.

The Chamong branch opens for the season Monday morning.

Take K. D. C. for distress after eating.

PERSONAL.

Miss Aggie Bowman, of Cold Springs, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. W. Armstrong, Millbrook, is registered at the Grand Central.

Mr. Richard Phillips, clerk of the village of Havelock, was in town to-day.

Rev. Father Collins, of the Cathedral clergy, left for Brighton last evening.

Rev. Principal Grant — "In one word, Ontario can't afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."

Stamping in the latest designs at Mrs. McEachern's, 422 George street.

Do you know why you feel tired? It's biliousness. Take Eseljay's Liver Lozenges. They will put new tone in you.

To-day's Markets.

The market up-stairs was well attended, considering the rain. Butter was plentiful, sold from 16 to 18c., eggs 9 to 10c., chickens 50 to 60c. On the square wheat sold from 56 to 57c., standard; peas 60c., oats 36 to 37c., potatoes 45 to 50c., wool 16c. Receipts of grain very light.

Young Women's Association

Miss Grundy will address the Gospel service this evening. Cordial invitation to all young women.

Regular meeting of the Board of Management will be held on Monday afternoon at 3.30. A full attendance is desired, also reports from the various committees.

Retiring From Mercantile Life.

For 30 days from date of this paper I will close out stock at cost prices, from 7 a. m. till 9 p. m., after which the store and residence of 10 rooms will be leased for a term of years at a bargain; also new patent ice cream freezer for $3; also steropticon lantern outfit, almost new, with 135 views for public exhibitions, cost $70, price $40. W. D. CARD, Grocer, 97 and 99 Hunter street.

Hymeneal.

A pleasant event took place on Wednesday afternoon last at the residence of Mr. Robert Preston, in Lindsay, being the marriage of Miss Laura Kells to Mr. Jas. C. Mark, of Oshawa, formerly a resident of that town. The Rev. T. M. Campbell, of the Cambridge street Methodist church, officiated. The groom's supporter was Mr. W. King, of Peterborough, and the bride's, Miss Emma Morrow. The presents to the bride were very costly and well selected.

An Active and Energetic Representative.

The Lindsay Post says:—"Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., West Peterborough, passed through Lindsay on Friday last, on his way to Kinmount to assist the ladies' aid society, of the Kinmount Methodist church, at their annual social in aid of the church fund. Notwithstanding the fierceness of the political battle waging in West Peterborough, Mr. Stratton seems to find time to take a day North, assisting in the good object that the ladies have in advancing the cause of the church. Peterborough will lose the most active and energetic representative she has ever had, should Mr. Stratton be not re-elected—but we have no fear that any will be so blind to their own interest."

To-morow at St. John's.

To-morrow will be kept as "Brotherhood Sunday" throughout Canada in those parishes where a chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew exists. At St. John's, the following special arrangements have been made:—At the celebration of the Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m., the members of the chapter will communicate in a body with the other young men communicants of the congregation. At 9.30 a.m., there will be a special service to which only boys will be admitted. This service is under the auspices of the boys' chapter of the Brotherhood. Rev. C. W. Hedley will address the boys. At the eleven o'clock service, a sermon appropriate to the day will be preached by Rev. C. B. Kenrick, and in the evening, the Rector will address himself especially to young men.

The "Business Men's Excursion."

Yesterday three jolly loads of Peterborough business men, on the invitation of the Olympic Orchestra, accompanied the members of that organization to Lakefield, where embarkation was made and a happy day spent with Mary Ellen, master and crew made everything pleasant for the company. The day was spent cruising round the lakes, the rainy day making no difference in the cosy shelter of the steamer except concentrating sociability and the enjoyment of the fine music supplied liberally by the harmonious hosts of the occasion. Dinner was taken at Burleigh and on the return trip at Young's Point. A decidedly pleasant day was spent and the memory of it will nestle in the warm corner of the hearts of the business men reserved for the Olympic orchestra.

A Practical Proof.

A practical proof of the benefits of advertising and especially of advertising in the EXAMINER is a letter received the other day by Miss Rudkins: "Dear Madam,—Seeing your advertisement in the Peterborough EXAMINER, I thought I would send for some things I want;" and then follow the details of a large order for dry goods to be sent by express. The letter is dated "Moore's Falls," in the northern part of Victoria County. This letter is both a proof of the excellence of the EXAMINER as an advertising medium, and of the excellence of the stock Miss Rudkins carries, and of the effective manner in which she writes her advertisements. Another merchant, Mr. Jos. Armstrong, received an order from the same county through his advertisement in the EXAMINER, for some of his special lines so well advertised. It pays to advertise if you put your advertisements forcibly and insert them in a paper with the large circulation of the EXAMINER.

10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT ON ALL CASH PURCHASES.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

Perhaps in the history of the Dry Goods trade of the town no more successful sales have ever been held than the series of SPECIAL SATURDAY NIGHT SALES now being conducted by HALL, GILCHRIST & CO.

The volume of goods converted into money at each of them this season has far eclipsed any previous effort. From the very commencement of these special sales we have been careful to place on our counters each night good straight lines of seasonable goods at a direct saving of from 10 to 25 per cent., and to this fact alone do we attribute the great success. Other merchants will, of course, tell you that we can't afford to sell at the prices we advertise. We can prove it to you if you will only come and give us a trial and see the bargains for

MR. WINCH'S PLATFORM ORATORS AND PLATFORM BUILDERS.

The Variety of Stump Talent he Commands.

Mr. Winch cannot complain of the versatality and variety of the oratorical talent placed at his disposal in the present campaign; but, unfortunately, this circumstance does not tend to verify the saying—"in the multitude of councillors, there is safety." Mr. J. H. Burnham was the first champion of Mr. Winch to don harness in his behalf, but unfortunately for the permanency of his service he is troubled with too much honesty to reconcile him to the situation. His declaration at the Grange Hall meeting that the Opposition in evolving their platform at the last session talked "utter rot," prepared one for the fact that Mr. Meredith's platform as enunciated at London was more than a consistently honest man like Mr. Burnham could stand, and he has, it is said, retired, or at least is less active than formerly. Mr. Dennistoun may be ranked as the chief mouthpiece of Mr. Winch. He talks learnedly, but cannot seem to get out of himself. The fact that during his two years management of the town finances, deficits of very respectable size were the rule seems to lead Mr. Dennistoun to regard deficits as the proper thing and that, doubtless, accounts for his

WASTED ENERGY AND ELOQUENCE

in trying to show the impossible fact that the Mowat Government has a deficit. Then Mr. C. W. Sawers took the stump, but one night's experience of him was enough. The brilliant wildness and recklessness of his statements made him a dangerous advocate and he must have been "called down," for he seems to have descended from the stump. Then Mr. W. H. Hill came to the front, but his elaborate disquisitions on financial matters so wearied and befogged his hearers that at the conclusion of his address the auditors could not tell whether he had been dealing with Ontario financial situation or the balance sheet of the "Sun" Life. Next Mr. Arthur Stevenson, barrister, was roped in and he will have no little trouble in finding evidence to prove the astonishing "bill of particulars" he filed at Beaufort. Next came Mr. Barton Earle, who will doubtless find abundant room for the exercise of his eloquence and elegant use of the Queen's English in setting forth Mr. Winch's claim to be ranked as a temperance candidate, and to reconcile Mr. Winch's present "ardent spirit" of interest in the promotion of temperance with his action in 1892, in voting with Mr. Dennistoun and Mr. Bradburn, his chief allies in the present campaign, against a reduction of licenses; and in showing how natural and consistent it is to expect to build a temperance platform in the shape of license reduction upon Mr. Winch's landlordship of three or four hotel properties. If Mr. Winch is to be bound by the multitudinous and conflicting platforms of his stumpers, he will wish that he had either done his own talking or hired Jack Haggart or Charley Stapleton in their professional capacities. Mowat has been "Going! Going!" so long that perhaps these gentlemen could declare him "gone!"

A great many have been wondering as to the cause of this wet weather, but a solution may be found in the meteorological fact that rain follows thunder—and the existing damp dispensation is a natural sequence to the political thunder emitted by the half dozen storm clouds that have been contributing the cold water element to "Harry's" temperance platform.

NEWS NUGGETS

—Report of Mr. Stratton's Lakefield meeting and Hon. R. Harcourt's address on eighth page.

—Jupiter Pluvius evidently has little sympathy with political campaigns.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—The poetical expression "leafy June" is evidently a clerical error for "leaky June."

—The recruits turned out fairly strong for drill last night in spite of the heavy rain.

—Several of Campbellford's citizens have been fined for allowing their horses and hens to run at large.

—It is more correct to say that a candidate is making, these days, a good "swim" than a good "run."

—Beginning this afternoon, the William Hamilton foundry will close down every Saturday afternoon during June, July and August.

—The regular meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held on Monday, June 4th, at 3:30, at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Paton, 202 Brock street. All are welcome.

—Port Hope's chief constable receives 11½c. an hour for the time he is on duty. The council should make his salary equal to that of a section foreman anyway.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street.

—Mr. W. Stocker, of Peterborough, was in the village on Thursday beautifying the walls of our village. Walter is rushed with election matter now.—Lakefield News.

—In the case of non-support preferred against her husband by an Otonabee spouse to-day before the county magistrate, arrangements were made whereby the wife will receive a monthly payment of nine dollars.

—The firm of J. J. Turner & Son have shipped tents to every part of the compass and stations, the initial letter of which represented every letter in the alphabet but one—the last, but it was secured last night, when a tent was shipped to Zurich.

—Mr. W. W. Grant leaves Monday to act as Instructor to the factorymen in the Campbellford and Madoc sections. The factorymen in this county could not see their way clear to incur the expense necessary to keep an instructor in the district.

—A very interesting and instructive lecture on "Music," says the Lakefield News, was given in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening by the Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of Peterborough. The rev. gentleman's remarks were listened to with pleasure and profit by all those present.

—Mrs. H. Drake, Hunter street, is desirous of renting the excellent brick stables in rear of her premises to anyone wishing to lease them, on reasonable terms. She has also a number of first class livery hacks in good condition for sale. This is a chance for those wishing to start in the back business.

—For over a month the Salvation Army band has been practising for a band concert which will be given at the Barracks on Wednesday evening June 13th. Brass and stringed instruments of various kinds will be performed on by talented members of the band. This will be a chance for citizens to hear some local talent.

—The Canadian Order of Woodmen of the World will in all probability establish a camp in town. There are quite a few Woodmen here, among them Mr. Wm. Hayden, of the G.T.R. who was recently presented with a magnificent Past Grand's jewel on leaving Woodstock. The Order is very strong in the west.

—There was a fine lot of cattle and hogs weighed on the market scales this morning by Messrs. Shaughnessy and Kennedy, dealers in live stock, and shipped by Mr. John Walsh, Esq., (Ex-Warden), to the Montreal market, one herd, (ten head), which was fed by Mr. J. J. McBain, North Monaghan, was very fine, there was no appearance of tuberclosis. The hogs were also good.

Norwood, June 2.—At a meeting of the Patrons of Industry of East Peterborough, held here to-day, Mr. Quinn, the Patron nominee, retired from the contest, leaving the field to Mr. T. Blezard and Mr. J. Lancaster.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

THE GEORGE STREET METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Annual Meeting Held Last Night—Gratifying Reports Presented—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Sunday school officials of the George Street Methodist Church held last night was largely attended. The pastor of the church, Rev. W. R. Young, presided.

The secretary's report showed a largely increased attendance of pupils, and the report of the treasurer gave a very favourable aspect to the financial interests of the school. The report of the primary department, presented by Miss Grundy, shared largely in the favourable character of the other reports. The following officers were elected:—

Superintendent—Jno. Jeffries, B.A.
Associate Supt.—S. R. Armstrong.
Secretary—A. E. Dixon.
Treasurer—J. S. Knapman.
Asst. Secretary—Albert Turner.
Librarian (Senior)—F. H. Dobbin, R. Richardson and O. Shortly.
Librarians (Junior).—A. E. Berchard and Wm. Dumble.

The teachers were all re-elected except two who had removed and their places were supplied.

It was decided to hold their annual picnic at Jacobs Island on Thursday, July 5th.

A New Idea.

You will remember that Goliath was very much struck when David hit him with a stone. He said that such a thing had never entered his head before. New ideas are numerous in our stock. We always have what is latest and best. We have the latest novels by the most modern writers, too numerous to enumerate—come and see. We also have a splendid line of popular paper bound books 2 for 25c. or 5 for 50 cents—s. h. stratton & co.

A Beautiful Display

All should avail themselves of the opportunity of viewing the exhibit of paintings at A. Clegg's. These pictures are treated in a very able manner, the marine subjects are very good. Mr. Wilkinson's evening effects are charming, full of tender warmth. No. 9, "Murmuring Waters," is very realistic. This is a rare chance to procure some choice original paintings at very moderate prices and we think few of the pieces should leave town. On view at A. CLEGG'S, George street.

A FAMILY ROW.

"YOU OLD FOOL"

Such was the greeting, accompanied by a broom within an inch of his head, which met one of our customers from Burleigh, which we will call for convenience, Mr. Larke, on his return from Peterborough last Wednesday evening—the day before the Queen's Birthday.

What might have broken up a happy home was settled by Mr. Larke in the following way:—

It appears that Mrs. Larke, when in Peterborough the week before, had been in every clothing store looking for a suit for her husband, to suit in price, colour and quality. She did not find anything that suited her until she dropped into Gough Bros. and saw our $3.70 Halifax Suit—which, as to value, has startled many customers and won their trade.

She selected one of those All-Wool Suits and asked Billy Hinchcliffe to lay it aside until she would send her husband for it on Wednesday.

Mr. Larke came to town Wednesday, bought the suit and some other goods. To tantalize his wife, however, he left the parcels on the doorstep and told her the following story:—That he had left his order for a suit at $18 before he went to Gough Bros., but when he saw the $3.70 Suit his wife had selected for him, with the same stock, colour and lining they were going to put in his ordered suit at three times the money, he felt pretty sore. But yet he could not back out of the bargain. The only part of the story that was not true was about leaving his order, which, of course, the rascal didn't do.

Then it was he got his warm greeting. After his wife was tired scolding, Mr. Larke laughed and then brought his parcels from the doorstep. You should have seen Mrs. Larke look when she noticed the well-known name of Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Men, on the parcels, and when he tried on the suit she was so pleased that she forgave him for the trick he had played.

Then imagine her surprise when he opened the other parcel and brought out a pair of Gough Bros.' $1.10 Working Pants which he had bought to save the other pair. Besides, out tumbled a pair of 90c. Strong Shoes for his wife and a pair of $1.00 Long Boots for himself,—the kind that have had such a sale this spring.

He also had remembered his two big boys by buying them each one of Gough Bros.' Soft Felt Hats at 75c. each.

For his two younger boys, aged six and eight years, he had bought them each a suit of Gough Bros.' amazingly cheap $2.50 Three-Piece All-Wool Boys' Suit, which any mother who has to make them can appreciate the value of.

So that for the ordinary price of the suit, $18, made in the oldfashioned way, Mr. Larke's receipted bill showed the following astonishing purchases:—

1 All-Wool Halifax Suit for himself	$3 70
1 pair Working Pants	1 10
1 pair Shoes for Mrs. Larke	90
1 pair Boots for Mr. Larke	1 00
2 Felt Hats for the big boys, at 75c	1 50
2 All-Wool Suits for the small boys, $2.50	5 00
Total	$13 20

We threw off the 20 cents, receipted his bill, and sent him home loaded down with goods and happiness.

We sell to hundreds like Mr. Larke, and we can sell to you, if low prices and good quality cut any figure.

We would rather do $500,000 worth of business a year with a profit of 5 per cent. than $100,000 with a profit of 50 per cent.

A TRAVELLER'S EXPERIENCE.

THE LIFE OF A COMMERCIAL MAN NOT ALL SUNSHINE.

Constant Travel and Roughing it on Trains Weakens the Most Robust—The Experience of a Halifax Merchant While on the Road.

Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N.S.

Mr. Percy J. A. Lear, junior partner of the firm of Blackadar & Lear, general brokers, 60 Bedford Row, Halifax, N.S., comes from a family of commercial travellers. His father, James Lear, was on the road in Lower Canada with dry goods for twenty-three years, and few men were more widely known and esteemed, and the genial Percy himself has just retired from the ranks of the drummer, after a varied experience as knight of the grip, which extended over seventeen years and embraced almost every town and village in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. He is an extremely popular young man, a leading member of the Oddfellow's fraternity, an officer in the 63rd regiment of militia, and a rising merchant.

"How comes it that you are so fat and ruddy after such a term of hustling railroad life and varied diet, Mr. Lear?" questioned the reporter.

"Well," was the answer, "it is a long story, but one well worth telling. I weigh 190 pounds to-day, and am in better health than I ever before enjoyed in my life. Two years ago I got down to 155 pounds. Constant travelling, roughing it on trains and in country hotels broke me all up and left me with a nasty case of kidney complaint and indigestion. My head was all wrong, my stomach bad; I was suffering continual pains and dizziness, and my urine was extremely thick and gravelly. I began to get scared. I consulted several physicians in Montreal Winnipeg and other cities, but their treatment did not give me a particle of relief. One day I bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I made up my mind to give them a good trial. They seemed to help me, and I bought a second, third and fourth box, and they cured me. My stomach was all right, the dizziness left my head; no more lassitude, and all traces of my kidney disease disappeared. I was a new man, and gained flesh immediately, and have never been troubled since. I consider my case astonishing, because kidney complaint, especially gall stones, is hereditary in our family. It helped to hurry my father to an early grave, and an uncle on my mother's side, Dr. Whittle, of Sydney, Australia, had been a chronic sufferer from gall stones from boyhood. I was so impressed with the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I took the trouble to send Dr. Whittle two boxes all the way to Australia. Since my discovery of the benefits of these wonderful little pink coated exterminators of disease, I have recommended the remedy far and wide, and I could enumerate dozens of cases where they have been efficacious."

An analysis shows that Dr Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or from an impairment of the nervous system, such as loss of appetite, depression of spirits, anæmia, chlorosis or green sickness, general muscular weakness, dizziness, loss of memory, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus' dance, kidney and liver troubles, the after effects of la grippe, and all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The Tariff Bill Finally Completed—Mr. Charlton's Criticism.

OTTAWA, June 2.—In the House of Commons Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Inspection of Ships Act. The bill provides for the inspection of tackle used in loading.

Mr. Davies opposed the bill on the ground that it would give an arbitrary power to the inspector.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper said that serious, and many times fatal, accidents had occurred while loading ships because of the rottenness of the tackle. It was desirable that workmen should be protected. The bill was read a second and third time.

Hon. Mr. Daly moved the third reading of his bill for the preservation of game in the unorganized portions of the Northwest Territories of Canada. The bill was read a third time.

Hon. Mr. Wood moved the third reading of his bill to amend the General Inspection Act. The bill adds hay to the list of articles to be inspected. The motion was carried.

After recess the House went into Committee on Ways and Means.

This item was finally adopted: Builders', cabinetmakers', undertakers', upholsterers', harness makers' and saddlers' hardware, 32½ per cent. ad valorem.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved the adoption of the item, "Bituminous coal, 60 cents per ton of 2,000 lbs."

Mr. McMullen, on behalf of the railroads, asked that this duty be struck off. It was too bad that this duty should be kept on to please the Nova Scotian miners.

The item was adopted.

The item of "Eggs, 5 cents per dozen," was changed, with the amendment that they are to be free when and so long as eggs are allowed to enter free into the United States.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Foster, the duties on rice, when imported by makers of rice starch for use in their factories only, are fixed at 3-4 of a cent per pound. The regular duty on rice is 1½ cents per pound.

Galvanized iron wire, Nos. 6, 9, 12 and 14 gauge, when imported by makers of wire fencing for use in their factories only, 20 per cent.

Hon. Mr. Foster also proposed the resolution enacting that goods entered since the tariff was introduced should not be subject to an extra duty, or liable to a refund, owing to a subsequent change of duty, but the duty paid at the rate then in force should remain unaltered.

On this being carried Hon. Mr. Foster moved that the resolution be reported to the House. This was agreed to, and thus the long task of revising the tariff was completed, although, as a matter of form, the committee asked leave to sit again.

On the motion to go into Committee of Supply Mr. Charlton attacked the Government's system of granting homesteads, comparing it with the policy pursued by the United States. Instead of settling emigrants in masses, where they would have the advantages of schools, churches, mills and postoffices, the Government had scattered them in all directions. Mr. Charlton accused the Government of granting a number of limits to their favorites at nominal prices, and condemned their policy generally with great vigor, as "a glaring instance of the Government's incapacity and folly," he saw 44,000,000 of acres of land—enough to maintain a population of 10,000—had been granted to railway corporations, some of them necessary, but many of them unnecessary. A comparison with the United States to the disadvantage of Canada followed, having special reference to the number of acres granted and the length of railway line obtained thereby. He moved the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this House, the public lands of the Dominion should be sold to actual settlers only upon reasonable terms of settlement, and in such areas as can be reasonably occupied and cultivated by the settlers; that no sales of public lands to speculators or middlemen should be permitted; that liberal provision should be made for free homestead grants to settlers, and that land grants to railway corporations have been made by the Government with reckless lavishness and to the serious detriment of the public interest."

Hon. Mr. Daly moved the adjournment of the debate, which was carried and the House rose at 10.54.

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

Advantages of Electricity.

Electric lights, with their clear, clean and odorless illumination, electric bells and annunciators are by no means all the uses to which ingenuity had adapted electricity for the household. There are houses in which every bedroom, closet, storeroom, etc., is lighted by a lamp which lights itself automatically whenever the door is opened and which shuts itself off whenever the door is closed from the outside. Lights in a barn can be controlled from a house. There are electric lamps which at will can be operated either at full candle power or at much reduced power. Electric power is being used for operating elevators in residences. Other appliances of the power in residences are the operation of dumb-waiters, ventilating fans, ice-cream freezers, etc. The adaptation of electricity to heating is making rapid progress, but at present it can be used more economically than coal only when it is generated from water power. Thus far the heating of large spaces by electricity is an expensive luxury. Electric cooking is economical, and, of course, much preferred to any other method. All sorts of electric cooking utensils are now in the market. These devices and arrangements are generally known, but thus far scarcely any residences have them all. In a few years, except as to electric heating apparatus, they will be generally introduced when buildings are constructed. They will make domestic labor lighter and more pleasant, and will do away with, even in isolated and rural quarters, much drudgery that now falls upon the housewife.

Locomotive Attacked by a Cow.

A striking example of the instinct of maternal devotion in the animal kingdom, and at the same time a curious incident, was witnessed by scores of people at Wissahickon station recently, says the Philadelphia Record. A sleek-looking cow, with a happy-go-lucky calf at her side, wandered upon the railroad tracks just as a train pulled up at the depot. The cow got across the track ahead of the engine, but her offspring, with the recklessness of youth and curiosity of inexperience, lingered to dispute the path. The engineer crowded air on his brakes, but the calf disappeared beneath the cowcatcher. Everybody looked for veal cutlets; but as locomotive slowed up and stopped the calf calmly stood up under the boiler between the driving wheels. The cow heard the bleat of alarm and caught sight of her calf. She unhesitatingly attacked the big iron horse and vainly endeavored to horn it off the track, bawling angrily the while. A newsboy, after a deal of manoeuvering, managed to push the calf between the driving-wheels, and cow and calf moved leisurely off as though nothing had happened.

Japan's Telephone System.

The use of the telephone is becoming more and more general in that go-ahead country, Japan. At the end of 1893 there were 1576 subscribers to the exchange at Tokio; 351 in Yokohoma; 300 in Osaka, and 162 in Kobe. This gives a total of 2389 subscribers, as against only 1167 at the end of 1892. The number, therefore, more than doubled itself during the year. —Electrical Review.

Shot by a Confidence Man.

CHICAGO, June 2.—George Newcome, assistant special agent of the Western Indiana railroad, was shot and fatally wounded on an incoming Grand Trunk train. His assailant was one of a gang of confidence men who have been swindling passengers on the Western Indiana and Grand Trunk roads for two week. Newcome had attempted to arrest him.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Street receipts of grain are nil. Wheat is quiet at 61c for white, at 60c for red and 53c for goose. Oats dull at 38 to 39c. Barley 41 to 42c, and peas 66c.

At the London wool sales 5,400 bales were offered. The competition was sharp and cross breds were in good request at the opening. The worst parcels sold in the buyer's favor.

The railway and miscellaneous share market was a waiting one. In the early trading the tendency was downward. Sugar, Louisville and Nashville and General Electric lost ¼ to 1½ per cent., but the General list receded less than ½ per cent. This was succeeded by a period of dullness, but in the last hour Sugar moved up gradually to 101⅛ against 99⅛ early.

In Buffalo cattle receipts were light, only one or two loads of good light butchers. Good demand at steady former prices. Prospects still favorable for better prices. Sheep and lambs receipts light. Nine cars fresh, three loads hold over. The hogs on sale were more even weight. The packers and city butchers as a rule were slow buyers, bidding $4.90 to $4.95 for sorts of their weight.

LEGAL TENDER MONEY

System of Payment Suggested by Toronto Trades and Labor Council.

FOR DEEPENING THE CANALS

The Advantages of Deepening the Water Channels so as to Admit of the Passage of Ocean Vessels Set Forth in a Resolution.

TORONTO, June 2.—The Trades and Labor Council met last night to consider the report of a special committee appointed to consider a resolution submitted to them in connection with the work of deepening the St. Lawrence canals. There is a strong feeling in favor of deepening the canals to 28 feet instead of 14 as proposed by the Government, and for the adoption of a national currency system to provide for the work. The following is the report of the committee:

"That whereas the deepening of our water channels from the Atlantic to the great lakes would largely reduce the cost of transporting grain and other produce of the Dominion and the western states and thereby increase the price received by producers; and whereas we have already too much debt on which we are paying interest, it would be unwise to borrow money for the purpose; therefore resolved, that we petition the Dominion Government to take steps forthwith to deepen our system of canals and waterways to a depth of 28 feet, which obtains between Montreal and the ocean, and that the cost be paid by the issue of Government money, given in payment for labor done," your committee beg leave to report as follows:

That they have carefully considered: First, the national necessity of deepening the waterways from the Atlantic to the great lakes and the advantages to be obtained therefrom, and, second, whether the plan for paying for the same, proposed by the resolution, would be at once practicable and the one best suited to the financial and industrial conditions of the Canadian people.

With respect to the first question, the advantages which would accrue to the people of the whole Dominion from the deepening of the waterways so as to admit of the passage of ocean-going vessels to the head of the great chain of lakes are so apparent as to scarcely require argument.

As to the practicability of building national works and paying for them by an issue of national legal tender money. We would present the following for your consideration:

"Under the plan proposed in the resolution there would be no addition to the ordinary taxation since there would be no interest to pay and no sinking fund to provide. The building of the work under this plan would also provide a much-needed addition to the volume of our circulating medium. In this connection it should be borne in mind that Canada has less money per capita in circulation than any other civilized country, a condition which compels her people to substitute for money, in the transaction of their business, interest bearing obligations, entailing upon her producers great financial burdens and constantly subjecting them to danger of financial panics.

"We anticipate that two stock arguments will be put forward as objections to the proposed plan. First, that the issue would cause inflation, and second, that the money would depreciate in value. In answer to the first we would point out that the money in circulation in Canada, outside of that in the bank vaults, is only slightly over $3 per capita, and when it is considered that the greater part of this is undoubtedly in the hands of financial corporations and commercial enterprises, it is evident that the residue is altogether inadequate to our necessities and the so-feared inflation instead of being something to be dreaded is urgently demanded by the country's necessities.

"As to the second objection the pages of history will be scanned in vain for an instance of a paper money issued by a solvent government, "legal tender for all debts, public and private" ever having depreciated. In this connection, however, we would point out that the first United States war issue of paper money, $60,000,000 of demand notes, which were a "legal tender for all debts, public and private," an absolute money such as is proposed in the resolution, never depreciated, but remained at par with gold."

The committee reported favorably on the above resolution and urged that it be pressed upon the public.

A spirited discussion arose among the members of the council. No action was taken and the question was laid over until the next meeting of the council.

MR. STRATTON'S NINTH MEETING.

The Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Richard Harcourt, Delivers a Fluent Address.

ABLE AND CONVINCING ARGUMENTS.

All Lakefield Turns Out and the Town Hall is Filled to the Doors—The Band Welcomes the Popular Candidate—The Village Will Endorse Mr. Stratton's Candidature.

Mr. Stratton's Lakefield meeting last night was a huge success in every way. The band turned out to welcome the people's popular candidate, and the town hall was filled to the doors by the most influential element in the village and vicinity. When Mr. Stratton and his party, consisting of Hon. Richard Harcourt and Messrs. G. M. Roger, John Hull and Reeve Casement entered the hall a ringing cheer of welcome was given.

By the request of Mr. Stratton, Mr. Hull, President of the Lakefield Reform Association, took the chair and opened the meeting with a few introductory remarks.

Mr. Stratton was the first speaker of the evening, and was greeted with hearty applause as he stepped forward to the front of the platform. He remarked on the pleasure it gave him to see so and claimed that he should have the benefit of their influence in the present campaign, as he had always cast his vote in favour of giving them the franchise.

MANY LADIES PRESENT

The ladies of Lakefield had written him during the last session requesting his "vote and influence" for woman enfranchisement. He had given the measure his support and should now have their assistance in return.

He expressed the opinion that the people of Ontario would with no uncertain voice return the present Government, as an evidence of their appreciation of the honest administration which had been meted out. He was sure that those old men, who had stood by the Government in years gone by and the young too were proud to see that no scandal could be attached to the present administration, as, no matter what work they had undertaken, they had always come out of it with clean hands. The highest testimony as to this fact had been furnished from the ranks of the Opposition, when Dr. Willoughby, one of the Conservative whips, in a speech, had openly stated that no slur could be cast on the name of Hon. C. F. Fraser, as he retired from the management of the Public Works department. No man could have conducted this department better or retired with a greater name. Surely this of an honest administration when to it was added the statement that with all the money that had passed through his hands, amounting in all to eight million dollars, not one cent had gone wrong.

Mr. Stratton then touched on question of the various platforms on which Mr. Meredith had gone to the country on different occasions and pointed out to his audience the existing dissimilarity between them.

The question of biennial sessions was then taken up by Mr. Stratton and dealt with in a most masterly and convincing manner. The Government House matter afterwards occupied his attention for a short time and the vexed question was clearly explained away by him, in that its existence originated with the John Sandfield Macdonald Government. Personally he did not care whether Government House was abolished or not. The matter rested entirely with his constituents and he would abide by their decision in the matter. (Applause.)

In commenting on the secret ballot question, Mr. Stratton held that the ballot which was used in Ontario was indentical with that used in England and the majority of the Australian colonies. No one ever heard of the English people being dissatisfied with THEIR BALLOT SYSTEM.

The Ontario ballot, he claimed, was a safeguard. In case a question was raised as to fraudulency in an election and there appeared ground for such, the matter could be settled by a scrutny being held by the county judge without the expense of a new election being undergone. (Applause.)

Touching on the timber limits discussion, Mr. Stratton plainly demonstrated to the satisfaction of his audience that the policy pursued by the Mowat Government in this respect was the correct one.

The matter of the licenses in Peterborough were next taken up by the speaker. He was sure no one could say that the Commissioners had not always done the fair thing in the past and surely they could be trusted to act in the same manner in the future.

The details of the matter were fully explained and the applause of the audience signified that the explanation vouchsafed the good faith in which it was offered.

Mr. Stratton claimed that

of the Opposition speakers to find fault with him for doing his best to obtain grants of Government money for colonization roads in his constituency. The Opposition seemed to be on the fence in this matter, for while Mr. John Burnham, M. P., denounced the procuring of such appropriations in the strongest terms, Mr. R. Max. Dennistoun expressed "harmony" with the effort to improve the roads. A vacillating policy such as this on the part of the Opposition clearly proved that they were determined to try and catch the vote of the people, no matter how low they had to stoop in so doing.

In concluding Mr. Stratton claimed that he had done everything for his constituency that it was possible for a man to do and pressed his claim to re-election on the good record he had made for himself during the past eight years. On taking his seat the applause which burst forth showed conclusively the deep consideration which had been given the arguments advanced by the speaker.

MR. HARCOURT'S ADDRESS was clear and concise and delivered in his characteristically fluent manner. He was sure, from the very attentive hearing which had been given Mr. Stratton, that the electors of the constituency would continue to place in him that confidence and trust which for eight years he had so well merited. It was a pleasure to notice what a goodly number of the citizens had shown themselves deeply enough interested in public affairs to venture out on such a very disagreeable night.

As his first duty he would give his personal attention to the member who had so faithfully represented the constituency of West Peterborough for the past two terms. Knowing as he did all the public men of Ontario, he spoke only justly of Mr. Stratton, when he said that no public man in the Province more attentive or more zealous in looking after and doing full justice to those whom he represented. (Applause.) He never allowed the government to forget for a day, an hour or a minute that there was a riding of West Peterborough, and the circumstances of its wants and needs were pressed upon the Government day in and day out, in season and out of season, for eight years by him. (Applause.) Surely the least tribute that could be paid to such a man was his return, as a reward for the devotion he had shown as the people's trustee. Mr. Stratton was not only assiduous and attentive in the discharge of his duties, but he was an able and capable member of the Legislature and held a high place in the esteem of the members of both the Government and the Opposition. He was liked and respected by all with whom he came in contact (Applause.) The very manner of his speech showed that he was a moderate and not an extreme politician, therefore he bespoke for him the good will of not only those who carried him to victory in his last two contests, but of those who had voted against him on these occasions. The latter he asked to calmly consider the bearings of the case. Had Mr. Stratton not been faithful in service? Had he not represented them better and done more for them than any previous candidate? Did not this entitle him therefore to their support. He had just discussed with his audience, fairly and openly, the biennial sessions and the question concerning the retention or abolition of Government House. He could, with confidence, ask his Conservative friends to ponder over his attitude on these questions.

HAD BEEN MORE ASSIDUOUS,

THE STAND TAKEN

by the Opposition last year was not that usually taken by Conservatives, but rather by Radicals. If there was a Conservative in the audience, Mr. Harcourt was sure he would agree with him in saying that no man could be more conservative or cautious than Sir Oliver Mowat, the leader of the Government.

The man, claimed he, who is seeking to introduce biennial sessions is seeking to Americanize Canada. Surely the audience could see that it was preferable to follow in the wake of cautious Britain than adopt American schemes and American ideas. The question of biennial sessions was completely out of harmony with Britain's ideas of those things. It would not, said he, be at all to our advantage to Americanize our institutions.

As Mr. Stratton had pointed out, no fair minded Conservative would attempt to saddle the Government House on the Reformers. Sir Oliver Mowat was not the author of the scheme. He had merely continued to maintain the residence, for the creation of which the previous government of John Sandfield Macdonald was responsible. The question of its abolition or retention was a question for the electorate to decide. The very moment this decision was reached, that very moment it became the duty of the government to make arrangements to carry

THE DECISION INTO EFFECT.

The present Premier, Sir Oliver Mowat, had been in power for twenty-two consecutive years, a longer time than the head of any government in the Dominion of Canada or the United States. (Applause.) His government had been a wise one, whether it was in the matter of making laws or legislating or in administrating these laws or in the management of the public institutions.

Take the last statute book of last year, said he, and examine all the volumes back for 22 years and the result will be that you will find in them the plainest evidence that the most careful legislation has been enacted in regard to every class in the community—none have been overlooked. The mechanic, the labourer and the agriculturist, one and all, have received legislation, the tendency of which was to benefit the interests with which that legislation dealt.

Regarding the Administration of Justice, Mr. Harcourt claimed that so carefully had the premier, who was also Attorney-General, looked after this department that in the present campaign not one speaker had dared to raise his voice against it. In not a single particular had a failure been made. Is this not worth urged the speaker. The premier's record even in this one direction was so exceptionally good and so ably had he discharged his duties that surely he had earned the reward of a return.

In touching on the agricultural prospects of the province, Mr. Harcourt claimed that a government which did not recognize the fact that Ontario needed an agricultural policy would be derelict in its duty. When the farmer did well all were benefitted by it. The more prosperous the agriculturist the brighter became the commercial sky for every class in the community, and when depression exists in agricultural circles every other part of the province suffered in proportion. There should be no antagonism between the commercial and agricultural communities. So identical were their interests that every well wisher of the Province must earnestly seek to do everything to promote agricultural pursuits.

Is there any short-coming of the Government in this direction? queried Mr. Harcourt. Does the Opposition suggest any great reform to benefit the agriculturist? No, said he, there isn't even a suggestion offered. (Applause.)

He spoke of the grants to the dairymen's and fruit growers associations and questioned, as to whether any one doubted the advisability of these grants, when the successes which had been attained at Chicago were taken into account. Sums had been granted to all manner of agricultural societies. No association of farmers had been slighted. Not one had made an unsuccessful appeal, but the government had and anxious to act on all suggestions.

Mr. Harcourt appealed to the reason of his audience in claiming that there was every need of a Minister of Agriculture to look after the interests of the farming community. This, though, was a point of divergence in the opinions of the Government and the Opposition. Sir Oliver perceived some time ago that the agricultural interests were so important that a member of the cabinet should make it his special duty to make these interests his own. The Opposition had made a stand against such an appointment, urging that any of the other members of the cabinet could look after the interests of the farmers in connection with their other duties. Sir Oliver held not, and the allotting of an extra portfolio had taken place and the Government had never had cause to regret its action in this respect.

A great deal of attention, said he, is at present centreing around the Agricultural College in Guelph. It had become so popular that last year the number of students had increased to the number of 159—more than had ever been in attendance before. This one fact attests to its great popularity and powers of usefulness. Students did not attend colleges unless they were convinced they could do so with profit. The institution had never been so popular as now in its entire history. The farmers never took so much pride in it as they did to-day.

The Educational system as taken up and advocated by the government was next dealt with in a masterly manner, and in connection with his subject, Mr. Harcourt pointed out that in

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Ontario's system was a success from the Kindergarten up to the University. In 1893 the government had expended $962,000 in the interests of education. It was an enormous sum, but he was sure not one of his audience would have the appropriation lessened by one dollar. The grant in 1893 exceeded that made ten years ago by $149,000. All the increased expenditure which was heard of would admit of the same explanation as that of the educational grants. As the wants of the community increased, so the expenditure increased. Every distinguished educationalist who visited Ontario added his testimony to the high state of efficiency to which the school system had been brought. (Applause.) The boast of the Government, the speaker declared, was that it managed its public institutions efficiently as well as most economically. Mr. Meredith claimed that there was an asylum in New Brunswick which took care of its patients cheaper than the Ontario Government did. Well, the Government took this rather as a compliment than otherwise, as of the hundreds of public institutions in Canada if Mr. Meredith could only pick one which was conducted on a

MORE ECONOMICAL SCALE,

it was saying a great deal for the Ontario institutions. Out of a list of 78 leading asylums of the United States only three were found which were run cheaper than those in Ontario —(cheers) —and of course it was impossible to find out if the patients received as good care there as they did here. In nearly every instance in the United States the municipalities sending the insane patients had to contribute towards their support. This province pays the whole bill with the exception of cases where the patients are rich enough to defray their own expenses. The Mowat Gonernment does two things equally well. It maintains those institutions efficiently and it maintains them economically. (Cheers.)

The speaker then went on to point out that the Ontario Government had spent over a million dollars upon the parliament buildings and to this hour no member of the Opposition had been able to criticise an item. (Cheers). In the whole matter of the construction there was no appearance of a "job." This was something that could not be said of any other government in any other country. During the long career of twenty years of Hon. C. F. Fraser, Commissioner of Public Works, to whom the speaker paid a high eulogy, millions of dollars had been spent and no one could say that a single dollar of all these millions went astray in all these years. Was not that something to boast of—something to boast of to our children?

The government, he declared, would not be properly to the people it represented if its expenditures did not increase as the country grew and was opened up. The surplus would be larger it was true, but economy did not consist in amassing a surplus, but rather in the judicious management of the funds. If the complaint was made that more money was received than in the time of John Sandfield Macdonald, and yet the surplus was no greater, the complaint could be met with the statement that three dollars was spent now where only one was outlaid twenty years ago for the maintenance of public institutions. Every fair minded speaker in referring to the increased expenditure should refer to the great growth of the Province and the new lands which were being opened up. The people, he claimed, would not be satisfied with a government which stood still. No one would pardon an administration which marked time instead of advancing with the march of progress and civilization.

At present there were 550 unfortunates confined at Orillia and 560 more at Mimico. If it was not for the money spent in their maintenance these feeble minded persons would have to be confined in the public jails or be a burden on the homes. The man who spoke from the platform and arrainged the Government for great expenditure and who neglected to mention these facts in connection with his statement was only and was trying to influence the electorate in a manner which was the reverse of fairminded. To-day it costs $1,390 per day for the maintenance of public institutions.

Reference was made to the public buildings by the Treasurer, who stated that not one of them had been erected a day too soon. No member of the Opposition could say that a building had been erected which was not called for and again, they had all been constructed with honesty.

Could anyone in the audience, he asked, point to any large public building elsewhere which had been erected without a large bill for extras being incurred. He could point out some where the extras amounted to more than the original estimates. As to the erection of every public building in Ontario a degree of care, a degree of scrupulousness had been exercised which effectually prevented any bill for extras occurring. (Applause.)

The State of New York in its erection of its public buildings in Albany had already spent over $24,000,000 and they weren't finished yet. Not only that, but in altering staircases and the roofs in the last two years more money had been spent than sufficed to erect the Ontario Parliament buildings.

As the keenest interest always centres around the financial part of any venture, Mr. Harcourt thought he would not be doing his duty if he did not go into that question, as pertaining

TO PROVINCIAL MATTERS.

Mr. Meredith, in his speech at London, had stated that the surplus was 3 or 4 millions, it was greater, but for the sake of argument he would let it stand at that or even cut it down to two millions—then what? No one in the audience could point to a province or state in America that han anything like a surplus of two million. Even the smallest and newest provinces were head over heels in debt. Nova Scotia had a debt of two millions, New Brunswick amounted to nearly two millions, British Columbia and Manitoba each were also in debt to the extent of two millions already. Such is the condition of these provinces and then look at the province of Quebec, over 30 millions in debt. The treasurer of Quebec last year was compelled to cross the Atlantic and go knocking at the doors of the money lenders seeking some way in which the enormous public debt could be adjusted. So with the other provinces. All their treasurers had crossed the Atlantic time and again to hawk debentures through the money markets. No treasurer of Ontario had ever crossed the ocean for this purpose. (Applause). Can this fact be explained, queried he, other than by the fact that the most rigid economy had been exercised in the disposition of the funds.

Mr. Harcourt concluded his eloquent address by a strong and stirring appeal to his audience to lend their aid on the 26th of June to return Mr. Stratton, their faithful representative, to the Legislature.

Mr. Stratton thanked the audience for their attendance, and the meeting was closed by the singing of "God Save the Queen," in which the band played the accompaniment.

Three cheers were given for the Mowat Government and three more rousing ones for Mr. Stratton.

What is Eczema?

It is an agony of agonies.

A torture of tortures.

It is an itching and burning of the skin almost beyond endurance.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

TURNBULL'S

FLOWERS.

We have received this week from Glasgow 11 boxes of flowers, the cream of the markets in fine qualities and different from what has been shown before. They are so natural it is refreshing to look at them, they are now on display in our Millinery Department and we are confident they will go out rapidly. Fresh placques and straw goods constantly arriving for our summer trade.

MANTLES.

In our Mantle Department they are busy making up light capes and wraps for summer wear they are worth from $2.25 to $5.00. We have still a few handsome Jackets at very low prices these were samples and consequently we secured them very cheap and are selling them accordingly.

CARPETS.

We have passed into stock a quantity of 5 frame Brussels Carpets, choice patterns bought job to clear. We are offering them at 90c. and $1.00 a yard this is less than wholesale cost and therefore away below all retail prices as any one posted in the values of these goods will know. This is a rare chance to secure fine Carpets cheap.
Fresh patterns in Unions only 30 cents a yard.

FLOOR OILCLOTHS.

Fresh floor oil-cloths, new patterns 4/4, 5/4, 6/4 and 8/4 widths just received.

DRESS LININGS.

Just received, a full range of Linenette dress lining these goods are getting very popular with all dressmakers. Owing to the bargain we obtained in American Gilbert waist linings we can give you 25 cent and 30 cent goods for 20 cents they are light in weight do not pull and fit the figure better than any other make.

SERPENTINE BRAIDS AND WATERED RIBBONS.

Just arrived some new colours in feather-edge Vandyke braids. These are acknowledged by all who have seen it to be the prettiest braid shown this season. Also all widths in watered ribbons in stock.
Job line of fancy Buttons suitable for childrens wear only 5 cents a doz.
Remember on Wednesday's we show many special lines to attract Customers and avoid the Saturday Rush.
